CIRCULAR TELLS HOW TO FREEZE PEACHES

Homemakers who plan to freeze peaches this summer will welcome the news that this fruit can be frozen without turning brown if the slices are dropped into medium syrup in which a small amount of ascorbic acid has been dissolved. The proportion is 1 teaspoon of ascorbic acid to 6 cups of syrup. As ascorbic acid is vitamin C, its use increases the nutritive value of the frozen fruit.

Or, the halved or sliced fruit may be dipped for 1 to 2 minutes in a solution of citric acid (1 teaspoon of citric acid to 1 gallon of water) before it is placed in syrup. Ascorbic and citric acids may be bought at most drugstores.

The use of a medium syrup, made by dissolving 3 cups of sugar in 4 cups of water is satisfactory, as it does not cover up the peach flavor as does a heavier syrup. The use of dry sugar in freezing peaches is not always satisfactory, as it may not entirely dissolve, and so fail to protect the fruit.

Not all peaches freeze well, according to the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, J. H. Hale, Halehaven, Elberta and Belle of Georgia being recommended.

Copies of Circular 398 "Storing Foods in Freezer Lockers" may be had from county agricultural and home demonstration agents, or from the college, Lexington.

FESCUE SEED CROP MAKES BIG YIELD

A record breaking yield of 1,000 pounds per acre of Ky. 31 fescue grass seed on the farm of H. A. Stovall, Hazel Green, Wolfe county, is reported by County Agent Chas. E. Gabbard.

In August, 1946, Mr. Stovall seeded 4 acres to this grass. He prepared a good seed bed, then mixing 35 pounds of seed with 1,000 pounds of 3-9-6 fertilizer, he drilled the mixture through the fertilizer part of a one-horse drill in rows about every 24 inches. Almost a perfect stand and growth resulted, yielding approximately 4,000 pounds of seed. Mr. Stovall sold his entire crop at $1.25 a pound and, in addition, he has excellent summer and fall pasture.

GOOD USE MADE OF COTTON FEED BAGS

How cotton feed bags have been used in a variety of ways to take the place of scarce and high priced cotton yard goods was told by Mrs. Lucien Dickey of Fleming county to members of the Flemingsburg Homemakers Club.

From 64 bags, Mrs. Dickey made five slips and gave a friend bags for two more, made two sheets, 24 pillow cases, 10 tea towels and a dress. All of the articles were made of white bags with the exception of the dress which was of printed material.

To remove the printing from bags, Mrs. Dickey soaked them in cold water, rubbed them with soap and allowed them to stand for three or four days. Washing, bleaching and rinsing left them white, she said.

There is much talk about the priceless heritage of the past but very few of us ever take enough time to find out what smart men wrote in the centuries behind the race.

HEAVY CANNING OF PEACHES EXPECTED

With a plentiful peach crop in prospect and larger supplies of sugar available, it is predicted that unusual amounts of this golden fruit will be canned this summer. Although a thin syrup made of 1 cup of sugar to 3 cups of water may be used, Mrs. Pearl Haak, canning authority at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, said a medium syrup made of 1 cup of sugar to 2 cups of water is generally favored. Approximately 1 cup of the prepared syrup will be required for every quart of canned peaches.

Here are recommended directions for canning peaches.

1. Select table-ripe fruit with a yellow or yellow-white ground color, not green.
2. Dip the peaches in boiling water for about one minute, then plunge into cold water to loosen the skins.
3. Peel, halve and pit the fruit, and drop into water containing 2 tablespoons each of vinegar and salt per gallon to prevent darkening. Drain.
4. Simmer the peach halves in syrup for 4 to 6 minutes, depending on softness of the fruit.
5. Pack fruit, concave side down, in hot sterilized jars to within a half-inch of the top.
6. Cover with boiling syrup to a half-inch of the top.
7. Adjust jar lids according to type used.
8. Process in boiling water bath, either pint or quart jars of peaches, for 20 minutes.
9. Remove jars from canner and complete seals if jars are not the self-sealing type.

A bushel of peaches will yield about 18 to 24 quarts of home canned fruit.

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases because they never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

HOMEMAKERS PLAN COUNTY MEETINGS

Homemakers clubs in counties having home demonstration agents have scheduled approximately 70 annual county-wide meetings to be held during the fall months, according to Miss Myrtle Weldon, state leader of home demonstration work at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Planned to show what women have done as a result of home demonstration projects carried on through homemakers clubs, each county review will include work done in food production and conservation, meal planning, home sewing, furniture refinishing, slipcover and drapery making, kitchen planning, labor saving methods, child care and other phases of the program.

Eight hundred and seventy-nine clubs now have a total membership of 17,737 women, Miss Weldon said.

LOOKING AHEAD

By GEORGE S. BENSON

President—Harding College Searcy, Arkansas

A Present Threat

America today needs thinkers if any nation ever did. We not only have the responsibility of the world, but we have a debt of $3,000 for every man, woman, and child. This means a debt of $8,000 for a family of four. Just to pay the interest on that debt takes more federal income than the nation ever raised from taxes in any year before the war. We have, also, the added costs of war pensions and expenditures for veterans.

Moreover, we must keep strong armed forces as a hope of not soon being in another war. Again and again we shall be called upon for relief and assistance to foreign countries. The $400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey is only a beginning. The total demand over the next two years may run as much as $3,000,000,000 above all present obligations. Demand is everywhere, at home and abroad.

Essentials to Health.

To meet all of these heavy demands we must have a healthy economy. This is not optional. It is a must. President Truman, Mr. Bernard Baruch, and others are calling for some of the essentials to a healthy economy. They have recently stressed longer hours, and higher productivity on the part of labor; lower profits and lower prices on the part of industry; and maximum production on the part of agriculture. These are good. They are essential, and I endorse all of them.

But one equally important item is being overlooked. It is so important, that I believe unless corrected properly it will act as a brake on our economy and prevent the very prosperity we all crave. I refer to taxes on incomes in the high brackets. The contention that we can keep the present high tax rate on big incomes and maintain a healthy economy is in my opinion fallacious.

Desire to Venture

A dynamic economy like ours requires that a lot of men each year must not only dream dreams of achievement, but that they actually must venture into business in an effort to satisfy American consumers. This is an obligation upon men who have large amounts of capital. But men in the high brackets now are being taxed up to 85 per cent of their net income. The take from income is so great as to threaten their willingness to risk. A man who could keep only 15 per cent of any additional income would not likely find it advisable to undergo the required risk necessary to increase his income.

Follies and Courage

Naturally, it is easy to say that those in the high brackets are the ones most able to pay, that they are the last ones to deserve any tax relief. It is also good politics to appeal to the many, with a determination to keep taxes on those "able to pay." But it is very bad for the future of the nation. Any policy that keeps competitive capital from going freely into the tools of production to make goods and provide jobs is, in the long run, going to reduce the national income, reduce the number of good jobs and reduce wages.

Sustained high investment of private capital in the tools of production is the only possible road to sustained high wages and full employment. May we have the courage and the wisdom to correct this dangerous threat to our future before it is too late, regardless of immediate political repercussions. May we look to the welfare of the many, and keep America ever the land of the free.

LIME RANKS HIGH SAYS W. M. SMITH

CHAIRMAN OF COUNTY ACC— URGES FARMERS TO PLACE ORDERS IMMEDIATELY FOR 1947 NEEDS.

Lime again ranks high on the list of conservation needs in Boone County, says W. M. Smith, chairman of the county Agricultural Conservation Committee, and he urges farmers to place orders immediately for the lime they will need this year.

A great deal of lime has been spread on farmland in the county during the past few years, but he points out that most Kentucky land needs liming every four or five years to keep it from going "sour," and that much of the sour land has never been limed.

Eighteen types of soil-saving practices are approved for the 1947 Agricultural Conservation Program, and Mr Smith states that around half a dozen of these practices are needed on virtually every farm in the county.

While 1947 practice allowances will cover only a small part of the conservation needs, Chairman Smith points out that more conservation can be obtained by careful planning to include practices most needed on each individual farm.

The list of practices approved for the 1947 Kentucky Agricultural Conservation Program includes applying limestone to farmland, applying phosphate to legumes and grasses, applying potash to legumes and grasses, establishing winter cover crops (small grains or winter legumes), establishing or improving permanent pasture, constructing stockwater dams and ponds, constructing terraces or diversion ditches, establishing permanent sod waterways, draining land with tile or ditches, planting forest trees, and harvesting specified types of legume seeds.

Cemetery Meeting Set

There will be a cemetery meeting of Hughes Chapel Church on Sunday, August 24th, immediately following morning services, it was announced this week. The purpose of the meeting is to incorporate the cemetery.

All persons interested are requested to be present at this meeting. Bring filled baskets to honor the retiring minister, C. P. Pilow and family.

ANNUAL LABOR DAY OUTING IS PLANNED

BY ST. PATRICK CHURCH AND ALL SAINTS MISSION AT WOODLAWN INN, NEAR WALTON.

Annual Labor Day outing of St. Patrick Church, Verona and All Saints Mission, Walton will be held on September 1 at the Woodlawn Inn grounds, 2½ miles south of Walton on the Dixie Highway, Edward H. Walton, Crittenden, general chairman has announced. The picnic will begin at noon and continue through the afternoon and evening.

Friends of the parish and former residents of the area will join the festivities.

The Rev. John Jobst, who directs the parish work of the two congregations reports that the grounds for the outing have been provided through the courtesy of Dick Clemmons.

Committees in charge of arrangements include: Thomas Kelley, Crittenden, Tom Carr, Verona and Robert Hebbler, Covington, refreshment booth; Mrs. Tom Kelley and Miss Mary Margaret Kelley, both of Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poland of Verona and Mrs. Agnes Farrell and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gos, Walton, Ky., dinner service; Mr. and Mrs. James McCollough, Covington, and Joseph Volpenheim, Covington, games; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ollier and Mr. and Mrs. John Cahill, Erlanger, social program; Henry Hills, Park Hills, games; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Limons, Walton, ice cream and candy; Mrs. R. S. Murphy, Covington, Children's booth; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Madden, Walton, dance.

The dinner will feature a chicken menu with service to begin at 11:00 a. m.

The outing grounds is a short drive from the Ohio river bridges and is accessible by the public bus routes traveling the Dixie Highway 3outh.

Real Estate Transactions

R. P. Coleman, Florence, Ky., reports the following real estate transactions:

George Slayback's farm on Highway 42, 8-room house and other outbuildings sold to Mr. and Mrs. George Claggett, of Turner's Station, Ky.

The above property was resold for Mr. and Mrs. George Claggett to Mr. and Mrs. Worth Boone, owners of the Boone Cafe of 301 Bakewell St., Covington, Ky.

The 72-acre farm of Gilbert Brewster, near Verona, Ky., was sold to Henry Lipscomb of Crescent Springs, Ky.

A four-room house and lot with outbuildings, property of Homer Clements in Verona, was sold to Mrs. Omer Porter of Vermont Ave., Covington, Ky.

The 20-acre farm on Camp Ernst Road belonging to Robert Martin contractor sold to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Marshall of Division St., Erlanger, Ky.

The 4-room house of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Marshall, of Erlanger, Ky., sold to Clarence Courtney, of Erlanger, Ky.

Miss Betty Woolley, of Dayton, Ohio, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jarrell.

Officers To Attend Training Class Aug. 22

Officers in local homemakers clubs will attend a training class Friday, August 22nd in the Burlington courthouse. The new homemakers year starts September 1st. The following local officers were elected in each club in June: President, Vice President, and Secretary-Treasurer. These officers with appointed standing committees are invited to attend the training class to be held at 2:00 p. m.

Miss Lulie Logan, Assistant State Leader of Home Agents plans to meet with the group. Specific instructions will be given each group of officers, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

VETERANS SUFFER FIRST DEFEAT SUN.

IN ELIMINATION SERIES OF NORTHERN KENTUCKY SEMI-PRO LEAGUE—ALL STARS ARE DEFEATED—WALTON WINS.

The Boone County Vets suffered their first loss in elimination play Sunday, at the hands of the Northern Kentucky Merchants by the score of 6-1.

Young Herschel Hisle went to the mound for the winners and took up where leaving off the previous Sunday, when he defeated the Walton Merchants, by allowing the locals only three hits. "Dutch" Riebling, who was the losing hurler, gave up ten hits in suffering his second defeat of the season as against nine victories. Hisle was in command all the way with the losers never threatening seriously after scoring their lone tally in the first inning. The winners scored three in the seventh and three in the eighth.

The Vets will meet the Ludlow Vets Sunday at the Florence Park. Game time 3:00 p. m.

Silver Grove trounced the Boone County All-Stars at Petersburg Sunday by a score of 8 to 5. Don Knapp was on the hill for the winners, allowing ten hits, while Deck tossed them over for the All-Stars allowing eleven hits.

Walton Merchants continued to show good form by defeating the Ludlow Vets in a free-hitting game by a score of 9-7. Steffen and Afterkirk hurled for the winners, while Taylor was on the mound for the losers. Steffen allowed six hits and struck out nine, while Afterkirk gave up four hits and fanned six.

LEAGUE LEADERS SCORE VICTORIES

IN SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE— PETERSBURG MOVES INTO FOURTH POSITION BY VICTORY OVER BURLINGTON.

The three league-leading teams all scored victories in last Saturdays' games in the Sunday School Baseball League, as Sand Run defeated Florence, Bullittsville trounced Verona and East Bend scored a ten-inning win over Bullittsburg. In the final game of the day, Petersburg moved into fourth place by scoring five runs in the eighth inning to gain a victory over Burlington.

In winning over Florence, Sand Run made seven runs on eleven hits, while the losers tallied four runs and nine hits. The winning pitcher was "Bud" Goodridge, with Blaaker behind the bat. For Florence the battery was Utz and Fox.

Bullittsville counted twelve runs on eleven hits in their victory over Verona. The losers obtained three runs and six hits. The winning battery was Hogan and Hogan with Beach hurling for the losers.

In a well played game on the losers grounds, East Bend was victorious over Bullittsburg in a ten-inning contest.

East Bend collected eleven safeties off the offerings of "Milly" Pepper, while Woods allowed the losers eight. Black was behind the bat for the winners and Hodges did the receiving for Bullittsburg.

Petersburg came from behind to defeat Burlington by a score of 6 to 4 on the winners' ground. Both sides had excellent hurling as Petersburg obtained only five hits off the offerings of Brown and the losers collected six off McGuire.

HEAVY CANNING OF PEACHES EXPECTED

IN BOONE COUNTY, ACCORDING TO ASSISTANT HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT—DIRECTIONS ARE GIVEN.

It is now peach canning time in Boone County. With a good peach crop and larger supplies of sugar available, it is predicted that many peaches will be canned this summer, according to Miss Jewell Wilson, assistant home demonstration agent. Here are the recommended directions for canning peaches:

1. Select table-ripe fruit.

2. Dip peaches into boiling water for one minute, plunge into cold water to loosen the skins, peel, halve, pit the fruit, and drop into water containing two tablespoons each of vinegar and salt per gallon to prevent the fruit turning brown. Drain when ready to can.

3. Simmer peach halves in syrup from 4 to 6 minutes. A medium syrup made of 1 cup of sugar to 2 cups of water is best to use. About 1 cup will be needed for each quart of peaches.

4. Pack peaches, concave side down, in hot sterilized jars to within a half-inch of the top.

5. Cover with boiling syrup to a half-inch of the top.

6. Process in boiling water bath, either pint or quart, for 20 minutes.

7. Remove jars and complete the seal if jars are not the self-sealing type.

8. Store in a cool dry place.

Peaches are also delicious frozen. The J. H. Hale, Halevan, Alberta, and Belle of Georgia varieties are recommended for freezing. To prevent the fruit turning dark, the slices are dipped for 1 to 2 minutes into water containing citric acid, 1 teaspoon to a gallon of water. Or the slices may be dropped into a syrup containing 1 teaspoon of ascorbic acid to 6 cups of syrup. As ascorbic acid is Vitamin C this adds extra food value to the peaches. Both citric acid and ascorbic acid may be bought at drug stores. A medium syrup made by dissolving 3 cups of sugar in 4 cups of water is good for peaches. The use of dry sugar is not recommended as it may not entirely dissolve and so fail to protect the fruit. Pack the sliced peaches into moisture-vapor resistant containers made for this purpose or use glass jars or tin cans. Completely cover with the chilled syrup, leaving one inch headspace in the containers and 1½ inch in the jars and cans. Seal, label, and freeze at once. Use only table-ripe fruit and work up small amounts at a time.

Pickled peaches are one of America's favorite sweet spicy relishes. Here is the USDA recipe. Wash and peel 8 pounds of small or medium-sized peaches. Put 2 tablespoons of whole cloves and 3 two-inch pieces of stick cinnamon into a clean cloth and tie securely. Cook together the spices, two pounds of sugar, 1 quart of vinegar and 1 cup of water for ten minutes. Add the peaches and cook until tender but not broken. Let stand overnight. In the morning remove the spices and drain the peaches. Boil the syrup rapidly until thickened. Pack the peaches into clean, hot sterilized jars. Pour the hot syrup over the peaches filling the jars to the top. Seal and store in a cool place. Wait several weeks for the flavor to blend before serving.

TRIAL SET FOR CORBIN MORRIS

CHARGED WITH MALICIOUS SHOOTING WITH INTENT TO KILL—JURORS EXCUSED UNTIL MONDAY.

Boone Circuit Court convened Monday morning at 9:00 a. m., with several cases on docket, according to A. D. Yelton, Circuit Clerk. Jurors were selected and the grand jury in session Monday, failed to return any indictments, and were excused until Wednesday. It is expected that they will make their report on that day and be excused.

Judge Yager set Monday, August 18th for the trial of Corbin Morris, charged with malicious shooting and wounding with intent to kill.

Both petit juries were excused until Monday by Judge Yager, as only cases will be heard Wednesday which will require no jury.

A damage suit filed against Vincent Marino Trucking Co., of Richmond, Ky., by Warren L. Stanley, was set for Wednesday, August 20. Mr. Stanley filed suit against the trucking company in connection with the death of his father, which occurred at the intersection of U. S. Highway 25 and 42, Florence when a truck owned by the Marino company figured in an accident which proved fatal to his father.

Petit Jury No. 1—Albert Bottman, F. H. Rouse, F. R. Carnahan, Russell Sparks, M. L. Wasson, Wayne Adams, R. L. Green, Earl Dickman, O. S. Eddins, Bruce Campbell, E. B. Elliott.

Petit Jury No. 2—Henry Wharton, Shelby Beemon, Henry Black, Charles Akin, M. M. Garnett, John Gault, C. C. Pruitt, Mike O'Hara, Raymond Rotter, Robert Eades, Franklin Ryle, Vernon Stephens.

Grand Jury—Lawrence Farrell, W. E. Waller, J. E. Rogers, Charles Benson, Harry Chapman, Chester Aylor, Wilford Selkman, Thomas Clifford, Joseph Heiser, Lon Wilson, John Edgar Rouse, George Coleman.

Homes, Business Sold

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Slingman, of Covington purchased the five-room home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, near the airport.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Davis, of Limaburg neighborhood and formerly of New York, bought the 6-room residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley Cropper, located in Burlington.

Theodore Schaaf of Evanston, O., and Ben Ramage, of Covington purchased the grocery business of Ed Mullins in Hebron.

BURLINGTON AND PETERSBURG WIN

IN BOONE COUNTY ELIMINATION SERIES SATURDAY—BELLEVIEW ELIMINATED AFTER DROPPING THREE GAMES.

Constance and Belleview were the losers Saturday in the Boone County elimination series. The scores were Petersburg 11, Belleview 3; Burlington 15, Constance 3.

The Belleview boys tried hard all the way, but Petersburg proved too much, eliminating the Belleview boys, having lost three games.

Henry Deck went all the way for the winners, pitching a good game and never in trouble. Gene Jones started for Belleview but was relieved by "Chick" Stephens in the fifth, who went two rounds, with Cason finishing.

Burlington eliminated Constance by winning 15 to 3. Union, Petersburg and Burlington will fight it out for the championship.

Roscoe "The Nipper" pitched a grand game until he was forced to be relieved by Gulley in the 8th on account of being hit by a line drive from the bat of Gay. Peeno started for Constance, but gave way to Hankins in the sixth.

Peeno led the losers at bat with three for five, while "Sox" Benson led the the winners with five for five, including a home run and driving in nine runs.

No games will be played this Saturday on account of the 4-H Fair.

Drawings will be made Monday, August 18th at courthouse for games Saturday, August 23.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Peach ice cream! Whatever the temperature, there is nothing quite as tempting as this dessert made by combining luscious, juicy fruit with a frozen custard foundation. It makes a combination which children as well as older members of the family can enjoy. Here is a recipe from the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Peach Ice Cream

1 cup sugar, 1 egg, one-fourth teaspoon salt, 1 cup scalded milk, 1 cup whipping cream, 2 cups of crushed peaches, 1½ teaspoons vanilla.

Make a custard of beaten egg, sugar, salt and scalded milk, cooking over hot water until it coats the spoon. Cool. Fold in the whipped cream, add flavoring, and freeze to the mushy stage. Fold in crushed peaches and continue freezing.

Eight parts of ice to one of salt gives a good texture for freezing ice cream. If a freezer or mechanical refrigerator is not available desserts may be put into a can and packed in ice and salt. Use the proportion of one part of salt to one part of ice in such instances.

Menu: Tuna fish loaf, creamed lima beans, broccoli, fruit salad, corn sticks, butter and peach ice cream.

STIFF COLLARS

Remember when men wore stiff collars so high they could hardly bend their necks, and trousers so tight it was tug and pull to sit down? Most men did not feel nearly so dignified as they looked, but they had to bear up under the discomfort. Remember?

Straight Thinking About Drinking

LESSON TEXT FOR AUGUST 17—Proverbs 20:1; 23:19-21, 29-35; Ecclesiastes 10:17.

MEMORY SELECTION—Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.—Ephesians 5:18.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lessons subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

BY WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

THE increase in the drinking habits of our nation is a source of concern, not only to the forces of morality, but to the liquor interests themselves. How strange it is to have the purveyors of a commodity urge moderation in its use!

Undoubtedly the Bible's answer to this whole problem is the only right one. The Word of God has many strong things to say concerning alcoholic beverages. Wise is the man who heeds the injunctions of Scripture.

I. Liquor—a Description (Prov. 20:1).

WHAT a striking text this is! Think of its implications. "Wine is a mocker." It grasps its victim in a vicelike grip, and then taunts him in his inability to release himself. The drunkard is a victim of his own appetite, helpless to resist the temptation which ensnares him.

The young person who takes his first drink for sociability is indeed deceived, in that alcoholic liquor never reveals the possible cost which it exacts from the one who takes that first drink. The better part of valor is to leave the stuff alone.

The Word of God says further that "strong drink is a brawler" (A.S.V.). All of us have probably seen how the drunkard enters into conflict entirely without reason. Liquor seems to make a man senseless to danger and quick to express anger.

II. Liquor—a Warning (Prov. 23: 19-21).

THE admonition of this passage is that we should not be found among drunkards and gluttonous men.

Solomon here tells us of one of the results of drunkenness and gluttony—poverty. The drowsiness which is the result of both of these sins does indeed clothe a man with rags.

If, therefore, we have no higher motive than that of self-respect, than that of having enough of this world's goods to make a presentable appearance, we should avoid company with those who will lead us into the same excess that characterises them. How important it is that we guide our hearts in God's way.

Let us understand, of course, that there are far higher motives for right living than those involved here. However, if we can come to the conclusion to avoid drinking on the basis of a lower motive, how much more important it is to come to the same conclusion on the basis of a higher one. As Christians, that higher motive concerns our testimony before men, our living a life that will cause others to want to know Christ; in short, our living for the glory of God.

III. Liquor—a History (Prov. 23: 29-35; Eccles. 10:17).

IN THE first of these Scripture passages we have what may be called a history of drunkenness. This sin leads to woe, to sorrow, to contentions, to wounds without a cause.

But that is not the end. Look carefully at Proverbs 23:32 and stress the first three words, "At the last." At the last, it does indeed bite like a serpent and sting like an adder.

Such poison is injected into one's body and soul that it seems as though there is no remedy. Thank God, there is a remedy; there is power in the blood of Christ to make the foulest clean.

In verses 33 to 35 we read some of the results of drunkenness: Beholding of strange things (v. 33), utterance of perverse things (v. 33), insensibility which is the result of drinking (v. 35), and inability to avoid succumbing to the same temptation all over again (v. 35).

Is it any wonder that the admonition is "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it sparkleth in the cup, when it goeth down smoothly." Although man still has a semblance of right thinking, the temptation is great enough to deceive him as to the consequences.

In view of such results, is it any wonder this same Preacher says in Ecclesiastes 10:17 that the land is blessed when its rulers eat and drink for strength and not for drunkenness.

It still is true that righteousness exalteth a nation, but that sin is a reproach to any people. And since the princes of the land as the leaders will frequently personify the people of the land as the followers, happy is that nation which has godly governers.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Stith and son, Stephan, of Russell Road, Florence, Ky., are enjoying a vacation in the Adirondack Mountains, at Lake Placid, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Long of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Robt. Dauer of Erlanger spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Lee Eddins.

Baxter dined with Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Lents accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cook of near Frankfort, have returned from a motor trip to Cumberland Falls, Cumberland Gap, Asheville, N. C., and points in Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carpenter of Mt. Zion Road. Carey Carpenter, who is with his son Elmer, is improved from a recent illness.

Dave Wingate and family and Sydney Ambrose and wife were the guests of the J. T. Stephensons, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanson and son Harold, of Augusta, were weekend guests of her father, Dr. N. A. Jett, also her sister, Mrs. Paul Chaney and Mr. Chaney of Route 42.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bristow and daughter Ruth were guests Sunday afternoon of the Eldridge Carpenters.

Mrs. Denny Cleek of New York arrived Sunday by plane at the Boone County airport where she was met by the C. F. Blankenbekers, of whom she will be guest for a few days. Her husband is a nephew of Mrs. Blankenbeker and they expect to locate in this vicinity for their future home.

The community regrets very much that Lon Clore is ill again and that it was necessary for him to be removed to a hospital. However, we are all pulling for him and hope he will be much better soon.

Mrs. Mortimer Moss, of Erlanger, who has been ill for sometime is much improved and is looking fine. She attended services at the M. E. Church Sunday morning, when the baptismal service was solemnized for her little granddaughter Anita Louise Carpenter.

Robt. Maddox, who was confined to St. Elizabeth Hospital because of injuries received when he was unavoidably struck by a car while riding his bicycle, has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mattox and is recovering nicely.

We regret the illness of our former neighbor, L. H. Busby. His condition has not improved much during the past week.

Mrs. Virginia Daugherty of Independence and Mrs. Harry Daugherty of Florence motored to Lexington last Sunday, where they visited the former's son Franklin and the latter's two sons, Jos. F. and Harry K., all students at the University of Kentucky.

Miss Stella Carpenter, of Cincinnati, visited her sister Mabel and brothers, Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie Adams and Mrs. Viola Wolf, of Erlanger attended church services at the M. E. Church Sunday morning.

The adult class of the M. E. church will hold its monthly meeting August 20th. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m., devotional service at 7:30. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Eva Miller was guest Sunday of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Mitchell and family, of Alexandria. Rev. Mitchell and family are moving to Covington in the near future where he will be pastor of a church.

Revival services will begin at the Florence M. E. Church September 21. The well known Rev. Capelli will officiate, assisted by the pastor, Dr. O. W. Robinson. Rev. Capelli is also a talented musician.

John H. Hogriffe and wife, of Pittsburg, Pa., who have been vacationing with relatives and friends here and in Independence, visited his aunt, Mrs. Jennie Dobbins at Louisville Lutheran Home during the past week. Mrs. Dobbins returned with them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Tanner for a few days' visit and she is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter.

Reuben Houston, of Erlanger was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephenson, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Carpenter and family are planning to move to Arizona for the benefit of Mrs. Carpenter, who is suffering with an asthmatic condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Myers, of Dixie Highway have concluded an extensive tour of central Kentucky including Richmond, Herrington Lake, Camp Nelson, Brooklyn Bridge, Harrodsburg, and other points. They returned via Bardstown, had dinner at the historic Talbot Tavern and arrived home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stephenson, of Colfax, Ill., were visiting relatives here, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Petersburg were calling on the J. T. Stephensons, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Houston, of Walton is very ill at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Tryling and John Nead, of Plant City, Fla., returned to their homes following a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Russell House, of Wildwood, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dringenburg of the Burlington Pike were guests of Mrs. Fannie Clarkson, of Banklick Street one evening last week.

Mrs. O. H. Aylor, of Independence spent the day on Thursday with Mrs. Rosa Mary Aylor.

Mrs. Thelma Goldman of Winter Park, Florida, was calling on her former schoolmates, Mrs. Thelma Gebhard and daughter and Mrs. Zelma Aylor and daughter the past week.

Mrs. Alice Aylor left the past week for Huntington, W. Va., to spend a month with her son, Wilbur Aylor and family.

RECORD OF PROGRESS

We're doing the job—but material shortages still delay us!

Expanding our service to meet today's unprecedented demands requires vast quantities of poles, wire, transformers, meters, insulators and other equipment.

Many of these essential materials are still very difficult to obtain. National statistics show that the demand for line materials is by far the greatest ever experienced in the industry, so it is understandable that our biggest task is simply getting the necessary equipment with which to do the work.

We're making good progress in our expansion program, but in some localities service improvements and extensions to new customers are still being held up by delayed delivery of materials ordered many months ago.

Please rest assured, however, that we are doing everything we can to overcome the bottlenecks as rapidly as possible. In the meantime, your continued patience and understanding will be appreciated.

FUNERAL HOMES

A SECOND HOME

A death in the family brings enough confusion into the home without the added burden of callers. Funeral homes have been designed to relieve exactly this situation. They provide all facilities for handling details, leaving the privacy of the home untouched. We ask our clients to consider our homes as a second home during this difficult period.

PEPSIN TAKES OUT ICE CREAM STAINS

When Junior spills ice cream down the front of his best suit, use pepsin to remove the spot, is the advice of Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, specialist in clothing at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Other stains, such as eggs, milk, meat juice, blood, perspiration, glue, gelatine and certain medicines like argyrol, also react to this new treatment.

First be sure the garment contains no soda or other alkali to react against the pepsin. Then dampen the spot with lukewarm water and sprinkle the powdered pepsin over it. Let it stand a half hour, keeping the spot damp. Then sponge and rinse well with water. Or sponge the spot with a solution made by dissolving 1 teaspoon of pepsin in 1 cup of lukewarm water until the stain disappears. Rinse thoroughly. Pepsin in dry powdered form is sold in drug stores.

COWS PRODUCE WELL

Topping monthly production records since the beginning of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association program was adopted in Carroll county, nine members reported that 160 cows produced an average of 802 pounds of milk and 33.9 pounds of butterfat in one month. Farm Agent Clyde Watts says improved pastures and feeding combined with better bred cows to give increased production.

Because of delayed corn planting in Hancock county, about 10 percent of the planned acreage was planted to soybeans.

MAJOR EVENTS ARE OBSERVED

BY BOONE SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT WITH 1,900 OTHER DISTRICTS THOUGHOUT THE NATION.

Farmer-supervisors of the Boone Soil Conservation District recently joined the supervisors of 1,900 other districts throughout the nation in observing two major events in soil and water conservation history.

First is the 10th anniversary of soil conservation districts; second is the reaching of the billionth-acre mark in soil conservation district organization.

"The Nation's first soil conservation district was created by landowners in North Carolina August 4, 1937," said Chairman Hempfling, of the local district. "That district is the Brown Creek Soil Conservation District which includes the farm where Dr. Hugh H. Bennett, now chief of the Soil Conservation Service, was born and reared."

Chairman Hempfling, said that the soil conservation district movement has made much faster progress than the pioneers in soil and water conservation first thought possible.

"We had no idea, when the first districts were being organized by farmers, that in ten years we would have districts covering a billion acres," he said. "I believe that here is proof that landowners, when given an opportunity, will take the leadership in solving their own soil and water conservation problems. Each district is organized by farmers and controlled by them under authority of a state law."

Farmers in Boone voted to organize the Boone Soil Conservation District. Since that time, Soil Conservation Service technicians assigned to the district have assisted 310 farmers to plan and begin applying complete farm soil and water conservation programs on 60,000 acres..

Serving with Mr. Hempfling on the board of supervisors are: Joe E. Heizer, Jr., W. H. Presser, C. Bedinger, and H. E. White.

"Farmers in the Southeast took the lead in the district movement from the beginning," said District Chairman Hempfling

Today, according to reports by Dr. T. S. Buie, Southeastern regional conservator of the Soil Conservation Service, 317 soil conservation districts cover more than 206 million Southeastern acres. These districts contain more than 83 percent of the farms in the nine southeastern states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

In the 10 years since the Brown Creek Soil Conservation District was formed, technicians of the Soil Conservation Service have assisted 194,054 Southeastern farmers to start complete soil and water conservation programs on almost 33 million acres.

HEAT IS FATAL TO CONSTANCE MAN

WILLIAM E. HARNEY, 74, COLLAPSED WHILE MOWING GRASS IN CONSTANCE SCHOOL YARD.

William Elbert Harney, 74, caretaker of the Constance school, collapsed and died Monday as he was mowing grass in the school yard. Dr. S. B. Nunnelley who was called, attributed his death to a heart attack which may have been brought on by the extreme heat and exertion.

Harney was a member of the Sand Run Baptist Church and had been a resident of Constance for many years. He operated a farm and acted as caretaker of the Constance school.

Mr. Harney is survived by his widow, Mrs. Daisy Harney, and two sons, Lewis Harney, Cheviot, Ohio, and Stanley L. Harney, on duty with the U. S. Marines at an undisclosed point.

WZIP, called the Voice of Northern Kentucky, will present radio programs designed to become an integral part of community life, because the station staff will keep in mind the wishes and desires of their audience.

To insure that WZIP personnel will keep in close touch with the listeners, a Program Advisory Committee has been formed, with members chosen from among civic leaders in representative communities in Northern Kentucky. At regular meetings, the committee will advise WZIP management of the effectiveness of programs on the air and recommend the development of other features as the need arises.

The people at WZIP, who are all residents of Northern Kentucky, are planning to operate a real local station, with local news and personalities, and entertainment to suit local tastes.

According to station officials, WZIP will go on the air early in September, at 1050 on your dial.

EDWARD MAURER RETIRES AT AGE 70

AFTER THIRTY YEARS OF GOVERNMENT SERVICE — BORN AND REARED AT BELLEVIEW, BOONE COUNTY.

One of the old time river pilots, Commander Edward Maurer, 70, was retired July 31 as officer in charge of the Marine Inspection Division of the U. S. Coast Guard, at Louisville, after 30 years of government service.

The genial officer entered Federal service at Pittsburgh, December 4, 1917 with the Steamboat Inspection Service, then under the Department of Commerce.

He transferred to Louisville September 7, 1922, and was appointed supervising inspector of the Sixth District in 1934, and became officer in charge in 1942 when the Coast Guard took over and he rose to the rank of Commander during the war.

Born and reared on the river bank at Bellcview, Boone County, Commander Maurer knew every boat's whistle and river man passing his home, when he was 15. His father was not a river man, but three brothers were licensed pilots.

In 1900 young Maurer received his pilots' license. It was August 5th almost 47 years to the day of his retirement, that the license was issued. For 15 years Maurer piloted the big steamers City of Louisville and City of Cincinnati, the fastest boats of all times on the river. How well he knew his river was attested by the fact that in all his service he had no loss of life or property to account for.

The City of Louisville, which like its sister boat the City of Cincinnati was cut down in the ice in 1918, was the fastest boat to ever navigate the rivers. The big steamer ran to Cincinnati in nine hours and 42 minutes in 1894. She made the down river trip in 5 hours and 58 minutes.

The last trip the Louisville made was May 17, 1917. Maurer was master and saw, almost tearfully the end of an era. The graceful boat did not have a passenger that trip. The end was near for passenger vessels.

Even though there still is a lot of towing by a few steam and mostly motor vessels, there is nothing on the river today, comparable to the sight Maurer saw in the early 1900's, when 26 coal tows passed his vessel one night on his six-hour watch. Maurer's little town of Belleview turned out 15 Masters and pilots and 3 engineers. Jacob, John and Henry Lindenhorn, James, Charles and Wymand Brashear, Charles, William, John and Edward Maurer, Rollen Akin, Will Moody, Joe Allen, D. G. Rice, Elbert Clore, John Burns, Robt. Akin and Ernest Allen. Those living are Maurer, H. Lindenhorn, Jas. and Wyman Brashear, Ernest Allen and Elbert Clore.

The "Captain" as he is affectionately called has no hobbies, and has no plans for his leisure except to reside at his present home 2810 West Kentucky St., Louisville with his daughter, Mrs. Robt. T. Lively and Mr. Lively and small grandson, and travel, fish, visit old friends and relatives.

RETIRES AT AGE 70

Cmdr. Ed Maurer

His son Dr. Joseph E. Maurer is resident physician at the Boston Mass., city hospital.

The Captain's only sister, Mrs. Jas. G. Smith resides in Burlington and she and Mr. Smith are expecting him to visit them often.

BOONE VETS AND PETERSBURG WIN

IN SEMI-PRO LEAGUE ELIMINATION SERIES—WALTON SUFFERS SECOND DEFEAT AT HANDS OF FAT'S CAFE.

The Boone County Veterans smarting under the loss of last week, staged a comeback to defeat the Ludlow Vets by a score of 22-7 at the Florence Park, Sunday.

Dutch Reibling, on the hill for the Boone County Vets, was master all the way, allowing only 6 hits, striking out ten and walking two. Reibling also collected three hits to aid his team in victory. Taylor hurled for the losers and was nicked for 18 hits. He struckout six and walked two.

Boone County All-Stars sent the Covington Vets home smarting from a 26-1 defeat, Sunday. The winners pounded out 26 hits with every player in the lineup getting at least one hit.

Deck was on the hill for the winners, allowing only six hits, while Connolly served them up for the losers.

Walton suffered its second defeat of the elimination series at the hands of Fat's Cafe by a score of 5-2 on the Walton grounds.

Steffen was on the mound for Walton, giving up 12 hits and striking out 11. Urlage was on the mound for Fat's Cafe and allowed only six hits, and accounted for a home run, triple and single to lead his team in the hitting column.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Scroggin entertained Sunday, Mr. Scroggin's brother Perry and wife from Williamstown. Others guests were Betty and Dale Scroggin.

LEADERS RETAIN 3½ GAME LEAD

BY DEFEATING BULLITTSBURG SATURDAY—VERONA SUFFERS DEFEAT AT HANDS OF BURLINGTON NINE.

By defeating Bullittsburg Saturday, the league leading Sand Run nine retained their 3½-game lead over second place Bullittsville, who defeated Petersburg for their eleventh victory. The loss put Petersburg in fourth place tie with the Burlington boys, who scored their first victory of the year over Verona. In the other game, East Bend also scored their eleventh victory by walloping Florence.

Bud Goodridge won another game as he allowed Bullittsburg 4 runs on 11 hits, while his mates were collecting 11 runs and 15 hits. Gray and Campbell, the starting battery for the losers were relieved by Hodges and Hodges during a Sand Run rally. Judy was Goodridge's battery mate.

Bullittsville defeated Petersburg 4 to 1 behind the 8-hit pitching of Hazel Walton, whose teammates gathered 10 blows off Marvin Campbell's offerings. Kenyon for Bullittsville and Carver for Petersburg were the receivers.

For the first time this season Burlington defeated Verona. Jimmy Smith, the winning pitcher allowed the losers 4 runs on 8 hits, all the runs being unearned. Burlington collected five runs on 7 hits off Beach. Bob Patterson was behind the bat for the winners, while Joe Poole was Beach's battery mate.

East Bend scored a 12-1 victory over Florence at the fair grounds Saturday morning. East Bend gathered 17 hits while allowing the losers only three. Black and Black was the winning battery. Ther opponents were Utz and Fox.

Voters Urged To Register

Boone County voters were urged to registered at the office of the County Clerk in order to be eligible to vote in the general election held in November. Voters can register anytime between now and September 6th, according to C. D. Benson, Clerk.

Persons who have changed their party affiliations, voting precinct, and those reaching the required age limit, should register between these dates. Registration must be done in person at the County Clerk's office.

Miss June Brown is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Al Stephens, of Petersburg.

Union Youth Injured Seriously In Fall Monday

James Allen McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCormick, suffered severe injuries when he fell from a bridge on Rice Pike, Monday afternoon.

The youth was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where it was reported that he suffered fractures of the right arm, left leg, right collar bone and a severe cut on his head which required 11 stitches to close. His condition is reported as fair.

Lee H. Busby

Funeral services for Lee H. Busby, 86, were held Saturday at the Tallaferro funeral home, Erlanger. Mr. Busby was familiarly known as the village blacksmith and general handy man of the Gunpowder neighborhood, where he lived many years.

Mr. Busby passed away at his home on Hopeful road, Thursday, following a short illness.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harry L. Tanner; three sons, William of Varney, W. V.,; Edward of Fairfax, O.; Linnie of U. S. 42, near Florence, and a number of grandchildren.

He was a member of Hopeful Lutheran Church. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery.

Burlington Girls Win Over Belleview

The Burlington girls' softball team defeated the Belleview girls by a score of 19 to 5 on the loser's grounds, Monday evening of this week.

Pat Scott was on the mound for the winners, with Buckler on the mound for the losers. Hilda Sebree led the attack for Burlington with five hits in five times at bat.

Last Tuesday evening a much closer game was played with Burlington winning by a score of 12 to 11 on the winner's grounds.

District Homemaker Meeting Set For Friday

Clothing leaders of local homemaker clubs from Northern Kentucky will meet this Friday, Aug. 22nd, in Covington. The John R. Coppin Co. has invited the class to meet at Coppin's 10:00-1:30 p. m. The newest in clothing consumer information and fall and winter style trends will be given by Miss Verna Latake, University of Kentucky.

Each Homemakers' club of Boone County has been asked to send one representative to the meeting, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Other counties who will be represented are Campbell, Kenton, Bracken and Harrison.

Film To Be Shown At Church

A sound movie about an American aviator shot down over New Guinea and rescued by a native who had been educated in a mission school will be shown at the Florence Christian Church, Saturday, August 23 at 8:00 p. m. under the auspices of the Missionary Society.

Local Nurse To Attend Home Nursing Unit II

It has been arranged by Red Cross National Headquarters for Elizabeth Lowry Boone County Nurse, to go from Kentucky which is in Eastern area to Cincinnati Red Cross Chapter which is in midwest area, for an intensive course on teaching Home Nursing Unit II, "Mother and Baby Care and Family Health" August 20, 21, 22, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Miss Lowry took the new course on teaching Unit I, January 1946.

The course for instructors on "mother and Baby Care and Family Health" has just been outlined and given out from Washington. The Cincinnati Chapter is giving one of the first courses of this type in the United States.

Two classes Unit I, "Care of the Sick and Health in the Home" are now being given by Miss Lowry, assisted by Mrs. J. C. Aylor at Hebron School.

Following the instructor's course in Cincinnati, taken by Miss Lowry, a class in "Mother and Baby Care and Family Health," will be conducted in Boone County.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparks Lowe, of Williamstown visited Austin Scroggin and family, Monday.

FIVE INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

BY GRAND JURY—TRIAL OF ELMER ADAMS HELD WEDNESDAY—CORBIN MORRIS FINED $125.

Five indictments were returned by the Boone County grand jury after completing their labors Wednesday and asking to be excused. Indictments were returned against John Fossett, charged with breaking and entering; Chas. Dorsine, breaking and entering; Kenneth Pierce, involuntary manslaughter. Elmer Adams, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill; and James Cheesman, charged with child dissertion.

Corbin Morris, charged with malicious shooting and wounding with intent to kill, was arraigned in Judge Yager's court Wednesday and was found guilty of a degree of the charge, a misdemeanor, and was fined $125 and costs.

Morris was arrested after he allegedly shot Grady Hamm, Limaburg, Ky., six times last March during an argument over the possession of several milk cans. Hamm, however, recovered later at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Elmer Adams, 17 of Constance, indicted by the grand jury at the August session on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill was being held Wednesday as we go to press.

Adams surrendered to Cincinnati police Monday, June 9th and admitted striking Gabriel with a pipe and had left him for dead. The youth told Sheriff Rouse, who returned him to Boone County that Gabriel had been talking about his mother, and gave this as the reason for striking him. Gabriel, however told another story.

Scheduled for trial Wednesday was the suit filed against the Marlino Bros. Trucking Co., of Richmond, Ky., by Warren L. Stanley.

Cincinnati Man Fined On Game Law Violation

Albert Schreyder, 4873 Winton Place, Cincinnati, O., was fined $39.50 and his hunting license confiscated, in Judge C. L. Cropper's court, Friday. Schreyder was arrested by Conservation Officer Edwin John on Stephenson Mill Road on a charge of hunting with improper license. Schreyder produced Kentucky Statewide license, and was a resident of Ohio.

HUGHES CHAPEL MEETING SET

There will be a cemetery meeting of the Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon, August 24 at 2:00 p. m. Rev. Carl Taylor and wife will assist in the afternoon services.

The purpose of this meeting is to incorporate the cemetery. All persons interested are urged to attend and bring well filled baskets to honor the retiring minister, Rev. C. P. Pilow.

CONSTANCE P.-T. A. TO MEET

Mrs. Madge Dolwick, president of the Constance P.-T. A. announces that there will be a special meeting of the Constance P.-T. A. Wednesday, August 27 at 1:00 p. m. All members are urged to attend, as a cook is to be employed and other important matters are to be discussed.

UNION WILL MEET PETERSBURG SAT.

IN ELIMINATION SERIES OF BOONE COUNTY SATURDAY AFTERNOON LEAGUE — BURLINGTON DREW BYE.

Union goes to Petersburg Saturday, Aug. 23 in the only game scheduled in the Boone County Saturday afternoon league. Burlington drew the bye at a drawing held Monday night.

Union will be playing with its back to the wall, having lost two games, and a defeat means they are eliminated from the series.

This should be a hard fought game, with Jack and Judge for Union and Deck and Deck as Petersburg's battery. Game time will be 2:30.

Baseball fans are requested to attend and support the team of their choice.

BAKE SALE TO BE HELD

The Presbyterian Church of Union will have a bake sale, Saturday, August 23 from 3 until 4 p. m. It was announced Tuesday. Your patronage will be appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS

Through The Recorder I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to my many relatives, friends and neighbors for the lovely cards, flowers and gifts, and all who visited me both during the time I was in Bethesda Hospital, and since I returned home. I also want to thank each and everyone for their deeds of kindness both to my husband and myself during my recent illness, and for the transportation to and from the hospital.

[illegible] which was done for my recovery, and am sure your kindess will never be forgotten. 1t-pd

EXTENDED ELECTRIC SERVICE TO 8,214 NEW CUSTOMERS

BUILT 575 MILES OF NEW TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION LINES

SPENT OVER $3,250,000 FOR EXPANSION AND IMPROVEMENTS
We're doing the job—but material shortages still delay us!
Expanding our service to meet today's unprecedented demands requires vast quantities of poles, wire, transformers, meters, insulators and other equipment.
Many of these essential materials are still very difficult to obtain. National statistics show that the demand for line materials is by far the greatest ever experienced in the industry, so it is understandable that our biggest task is simply getting the necessary equipment with which to do the work.
We're making good progress in our expansion program, but in some localities service improvements and extensions to new customers are still being held up by delayed delivery of materials ordered many months ago.
Please rest assured, however, that we are doing everything we can to overcome the bottlenecks as rapidly as possible. In the meantime, your continued patience and understanding will be appreciated.

To Be Made By State Highway Patrolmen

Commanding officers of the 12 districts of the Kentucky Highway Patrol have been directer to star a drivers' license check, Colonel Hayward Gilliam, Director of the Patrol have been directed to start found without licenses may be subjected to the penalties prescribed by law. The fine is "not less than $2.00, not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than 6 months or both."

"The importance of every driver being properly licensed cannot be overstressed," Colonel Gilliam said. "If you have forgotton to obtain your current year's license, don't forget that the terms of many insurance policies nullify your protection if you have not complied with this law. It is also very often considered in evidence against the driver in case of accident when he is not properly licensed."

We are sorry to hear that Benny Jarrell had his hand badly injured while at work.

WHERE DO YOU BORROW?

Many lending agencies soliciting loans in Boone County do not pay a penny taxes to support Boone County Schools, Roads and County Government. When you need a loan borrow from your bank, a local institution and a heavy taxpayer in your county. Your local bank is owned and managed by your neighbors and friends and is open every day for your convenience. Do business with people who do business with you.

CINCINNATI MAN DROWNS IN OHIO

RIVER AT CONSTANCE SUNDAY —STEPPED INTO DEEP WATER WHILE BATHING WITH FAMILY.

Luther Smither, 33, 539 Charlotte St., Cincinnati, Ohio, drowned late Sunday when bathing at Constance opposite Anderson Ferry. He was bathing on the Kentucky shore with friends and members of his family when he stepped into deep water and sank as his wife, Mrs. Fonza Smithers, 19 who was carrying their seven-months-old baby, looked on helplessly.

A sister of Smithers, Mrs. Nancy Richardson, 1904 Race St., dived after him and grabbed one of his hands in the deep water. She tried to pull him to the surface, but as she did so, his hand slipped from her grasp and she screamed for help.

Her screams attracted Earl Reeves, and Ben Kottmyer, of Constance, who recovered the body after diving repeatedly.

Sheriff Irvin Rouse of Boone County and Capt. Walter Armour of the Bromley Life Saving Squad were notified. The Life Saving Squads of Bromley and Ludlow, worked for almost an hour in their attempts to suscitate Smithers.

The body was removed to the Catherman funeral home, Ludlow, after Magistrate Edgar Graves, Hebron, returned a verdict of accidental death.

Court Adjourned Wednesday Afternoon

The August term of Boone Circuit court adourned Wednesday, by Judge Yager, after hearing of civil and criminal cases.

Elmer Adams, 17, charged with assault with intent to rob was found guilty in Judge Yager's court Wednesday, and given a 60-day jail sentence and fined $75.00.

The civil case between Stanley and Marino Bros. Trucking, set for Wednesday was not heard.

BOONE CO. TEAMS REMAIN IN SERIES

Boone County teams remained in the elimination series of the Northern Kentucky Semipro League as results of games Sunday. Boone Vets trounced Hucks Cafe 15-2; Walton turned back Grants Lick 9-1 and the Boone County All-Stars defeated Ludlow Vets in an exhibition game by a score of 3-2.

Boone County Vets defeated Hucks Cafe Sunday by a score of 15-2 at the Florence park, pushing that team to the brink of elimination. Reibling was on the hill for Boone County Vets, giving up only six hits, while his teammates collected 13 safeties from the offerings of Theiss and Davenport Denniston, collected two home runs for the winners.

Elmo Steffen, on the hill for the Walton nine was in perfect form Sunday, holding his opponents hitless until the ninth inning, defeating the Grants Lick nine by a score of 9-1. Steffen fanned 12 and walked one. Nagle, Schwart and Belcher were on the hill for Grants Lick, giving up 12 hits.

Boone All-Stars downed the Ludlow Vets in an exhibition game at Petersburg Sunday by a 3-2 count. Deck was on the hill for the All-Stars, while Taylor served them up for the losers. The All-Stars drew a bye in the elimination series last Sunday.

Games Sunday

Arts, Trades Offered Vets In VA Hospitals

Severely-disabled veterans confined to the nine Veterans Administration hospitals in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky are being taught a variety of arts and trades in a program designed to speed their rehabilitation and thus shorten their hospitalization.

The program also has been made available to veteran-patients whose injuries or diseases have caused a chronic condition requiring repeated or continuous hospitalization.

In many instances, the arts or trades learned in VA hospitals will provide the veterans with an opportunity to contribute to their own livelihood after their recovery.

Known as the manual arts therapy program, the project is under way in VA hospitals at Cleveland, Brecksville, Dayton and Chillicothe, O.; Ft. Custer and Dearborn, Mich., and Lexington, Louisville and Outwood, Ky.

The program is fitted to the requirements of each type of hospital, whether neuropsychiatric, tuberculosis or general medical and surgical. It also is fitted to the individual needs of patients.

Among the training courses offered patients are woodcarving, photography, printing, automotive repair, agriculture, engraving, metal work, general electrical work, jewelry, plastics and leather.

This type of rehabilitation is available to all patients with the approval of their physicians.

The program is one of five phases of medical rehabilitation which has been developed in VA hospitals. The others are occupational therapy, physical therapy, corrective physical rehabilitation and educational re-training.

The committee regrets the delay in selling this year, but were rewarded by receiving a good price for the clip.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SET SAT.

BURLINGTON AND PETERSBURG WILL PLAY FOR COUNTY HONORS—UNION ELIMINATED SATURDAY.

In one of the best games played in the Boone County League this season, Petersburg defeated Union by a score of 2 to 1. Henry Deck was the winning pitcher. Scott Jack was on the hill for Union, and turned in a nice job. Each club collected six hits. Jack Clore was on the receiving end for Petersburg, while Judge was behind the bat for Union.

With Petersburg and Burlington the only two teams remaining in the series, the little world series will get under way Saturday, August 30th on Petersburg's grounds. As you may recall, these same teams fought it out last season, with Burlington finally winning after a hard fight. This year Petersburg says it will be different—Burlingtons says "no."

Henry Deck or Carver will be the choice of manager Klopp to quiet the big bats of Burlington, with McWethy or Jack Clore receiving.

Ivan Gulley will no doubt be on the firing line for the County seat boys with either his brother "Tots" or "Cub" Lyons doing the catching.

If you want to see the old game really played, don't miss this series

The winners of 3 out of 5 will be the champion. Game time 2:30.

350 Establishments For Veteran Training

A total of 350 establishments has been approved for veterans on-the-job training in Boone and eight other counties served by the Northern Kentucky State Vocational School, according to an announcement made by Clifford H. Ficke, director of the school.

Mr. Ficke in discussing the service of the Northern Kentucky State Vocational School, stated that his school had been assigned the task of inspecting and supervising all on-the-job programs for veterans in the nine counties, including apprenticeable trades.

Standards for such apprentice training must be registered with the state or federal apprentice training services before any establishments can be approved to offer apprentice training on the job.

Final approval of applications of establishments that desire to offer on-the-job training to veterans will be made by the State Department of Education at Frankfort.

Kentucky's 12 area trade schools of which the Northern Kentucky State Vocational School is one, now have approximately 1,900 veterans in trade training courses in the schools.

Persons of Boone County who desire information about the services being offered by the Northern Kentucky State Vocational School should write to Clifford H. Ficke, director of the Northern Kentucky State Vocational School at Covington, Ky.

$939 RECEIVED FOR EQUIPMENT

COUNTY GROUP WILL ADD $439 TO SUM FOR PURCHASE OF TERRACING EQUIPMENT FOR SOIL CONSERVATION.

C. L. Hempfling, chairman of the Boone County Soil Conservation District announced today that the local district had received a check for $939.00 from the State Division of Soil and Water Resources to be used for the purchase of soil conserving equipment. According to Mr. Hempfling each district in the state receives from the State Division an outright grant of five hundred dollars and an additional amount dependent on the number of acres of farm land in the county, providing an equal amount will be raised locally. The Boone County group will add $439.00 subscribed locally to the grant from the state. This will make a total of $1378.00 worth of equipment which will be purchased by the local County District. Mr. Hempfling further stated that the local district had bought or was attempting to buy International "M" for terracing, (tractor and disc plows). This equipment will be for use of farmers within the county who will be expected to pay a minimum rental charge to take care of operation, maintainence and replacement costs. As soon as arrangements have been completed on the use of this equipment the plan will be announced.

With C. L. Hempfling on the board of Supervisors are: J. B. Heizer, J. C. Bedinger, W. H. Presser, H. E. White.

Just Let Me Tell You A Few Facts About Walking, So You'll Realize Just How Much It Can Do For You

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The normal heart, you know, beats about seventy-two times a minute and pumps about six ounces of blood with each beat. Now, in fast walking, or at the rate of four miles an hour—(which is how fast you should walk to do you some good)—you'll find the normal heart will INCREASE its beat ten times to the minute, pumping six ounces of blood at each beat, gives sixty ounces per minutes or 3600 an hour, which is 225 pounds. You can easily see that 225 ADDITIONAL pounds of blood pumped DAILY through your veins means just that much more life to your whole body.

There's no use of my telling you to get out and walk if you are having trouble with your feet, because I know you won't do it. BUT—if I tell you how to get rid of those aching, paining feet, first—then there's nothing to keep you from walking every day and benefitting your health by this wonderful exercise.

It has also been found that millions suffer without knowing the reason why—those headaches, those leg pains, and even sleepless nights may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

Severely Disabled Vet Trainees Get Pay Hike

Automatic increases will be paid effective September 1st in the minimum allowances received by the more seriously disabled veterans enrolled in educational and training courses under government sponsorship, Veterans Administration officials in Columbus, (O), announced today.

The increased rates, which will be reflected in September checks received on or after October 1, were voted by the last session of Congress and signed into law by the President.

VA said the law requires no action on the part of the disabled trainees entitled to the higher rates because of the automatic nature of the increases.

The new law provides that a veteran enrolled in a course under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16), whose disability is rated at 30 percent or higher, will receive $115 a month if he has no dependents, and $135 if he has one dependent.

The old law allowed $105 and $115 for the same categories; but, while these rates are superseded by the new schedules for the more seriously disabled, they will continue to apply to veterans with disabilities rated at less than 30 per cent.

The new law also raises the amounts authorized for additional dependents of veterans with disabilities of 30 per cent or more. The additional allowance for one child is increased from $10 a month to $20, and the previous allowance of $7 a month for each additional child is raised to $15. No change is made in the $15 monthly allowance for a dependent parent.

Grover Cline of Martin county used 20 pounds of boron on his alfalfa in 1946, and has no yellowing of his crop this year.

A SECOND HOME
A death in the family brings enough confusion into the home without the added burden of callers. Funeral homes have been designed to relieve exactly this situation. They provide all facilities for handling details, leaving the privacy of the home untouched. We ask our clients to consider our homes as a second home during this difficult period.

FLORENCE

Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Robinson are attending the annual session of Kentucky Methodist Conference being held this week in the Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky. The Kentucky Conference has become so large that no one of the churches of the Conference is able to entertain it. For the past several years it has been entertained at Kentucky University, Asbury College, Kentucky Wesleyan College and Union College. During their stay at Conference, Dr. and Mrs. Robinson will stay at Boone Tavern, Berea, Ky.

Miss Hope Conner is in Richmond, Ky., this week attending the Methodist Conference. She is the Lay-delegate from the Florence Church.

The dedication of the new electric organ at the Florence Methodist Church drew a large and appreciative congregation on Sunday morning. Mr. Paul Cheney is the organist and choir director. Five new members were taken into the church during this service, Miss Joan Barker, Mrs. Robt. Markesbery, Mrs. Wm. Shotwell, Mrs. Paul Chaney and Mrs. M. F. Dehlinger, of Latonia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beal of Covington were Sunday guests of Dr. N. A. Jett and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chaney, of Route 42.

EXHIBITORS RESERVE SPACE

Over 150 exhibitors have reserved space in the Merchants & Manufacturers Building for the 1947 Kentucky State Fair to be held September 7 through 13th in Louisville.

Under the direction of Fred Hengst, superintendent, the M. & M. Building exhibitors will include Louisville major department stores and industrial plants and many out-of-town manufacturers. The homeowner or prospective homeowner attending the Fair will find many exhibits of particular interest. Household appliances, including deep freeze units and refrigerators will be shown along with exhibits of water heaters, plumbing fixtures, weather stripping, insulation and latest types of roofing materials. Built-in kitchen cabinets and model bathrooms will also be featured in the household section of the M. & M. Building, along with window shades and cleaners.

Farmers will see exhibits of portable saws for sawing trees, exhibits of feed manufacturers, demonstrating the profitable and increasing use of grain products and farm feeds for balancing farm rations. The Burley Tobacco Co-op. Ass'n. will have an exhibit illustrating the ways in which farmers can benefit from co-op activities. An REA exhibit will feature the expansion of the rural electrification program and its effect on modern-day farm life. There will also be an exhibit of lightning rods for the protection of farm homes, barns, and other buildings.

Various food companies have taken space in the M. & M. Building and the homemakers will see a complete foodstuffs display showing the different types of balanced diets and well-planned meals.

Since V-J Day

THE EQUIVALENT OF A CITY OF 30,000 PEOPLE HAS BEEN ADDED TO OUR LINES

We're expanding and improving your electric service as rapidly as material shortages permit

If all of the 8,214 homes and business concerns added to our lines since V-J Day were concentrated in one location, they would equal a city of 30,000 population.

This expansion of our facilities—costing more than $3,250,000—has been accomplished in the face of the most critical shortage of line materials, equipment and skilled workers in the history of the utility industry.

This shortage still exists two years after the war's end and is handicapping us in our efforts to extend electric service to more new users, and to make needed increases in capacity to take care of rapidly increasing loads.

Please rest assured, however, that we are doing everything we can to eliminate the bottlenecks. As fast as materials are received, they are being put into use to expand and improve your electric service.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICTS BIRTHDAY

On the 10th anniversary of the first farmer-voted and farmer-managed soil conservation district—organized Aug. 4, 1937—there were a billion acres and 4¼ million United States farms in 1,900 districts. The first district established under state soil conservation district enabling law was the Brown Creek District in Anson County, North Carolina (Inset).

CANDIDATES WILL BE REQUIRED TO REMOVE ALL POLITICAL SIGNS

Immediately after final tabulations in the primary campaign, gubernatorial candidates will be requested to concur in a general removal of all political signs now illegally posted on highway rights of way in Kentucky, J. Stephen Watkins, Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Highways announced. Announcement followed a staff conference on the matter of the thousands of unsightly political and commercial signs which have been posted on trees, utilities poles and guard rails.

"A storm of protests have been registered by those who feel that such signs destroy the general appearance and safety of the highways," Mr. Watkins said. "It is a direct violation of the law. While we have had an unusually handsome group of political aspirants, the signs have encouraged carnivals, hail insurance and insecticide advertisers to follow the lead of our candidates.

"It is our purpose to request the cooperation and assent of the candidates for governor before this action is taken. We sincerely hope we may have their cooperation. The department has been unjustly criticized in recent radio broadcasts for removal of these signs. Investigation proved without a question of doubt that only signs which had blown down were carried away. Kentucky's main highways are policed for this purpose not less than once each week."

A Brown Swiss bull weighing 1,700 pounds is being exhibited at fairs by Edgar Davis of Johnson county.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

By David M. Porter

Kentuckians love their politics and are astute politicians. Sometimes they do unpredictable things or rather unforeseen things that seem reasonable afterward. I predicted a vote in the Democratic primary of 285,000 and was lucky as the total vote was 283,116 but I was way off in the Republican primary as was most prognosticators, the Republican vote fell almost 70,000 under my forecast and I believe it was brought about by the dissention in the party itself, a lot of Republicans just didn't vote. The Republican vote was 146,136 short of the Democratic and portends defeat for the Republicans in November unless they can regain party harmony.

A lot of you in a lot of towns in the State can help your County and your State materially by a little cooperation now, but someone must take the lead so this is an appeal to you and all the civic clubs in the State. This State Fair is going to be one of the best the State has ever had. The interest is greater and the exhibits will be better and more numerous. Too much credit cannot be given to Jack Matlick, John Wherley and the others working on it, but here is another thing to think about. Industry is becoming interested in Kentucky. During the war they found that Kentucky labor could be easily trained and that there were no subversive or communistic elements to cause labor strife, then too we are close to the center of population and have adequate transportation facilities, both rail and water. The State Chamber of Commerce has done and is doing a great job of getting industry interested in Kentucky and many representatives of capital will be at the State Fair, checking on our resources and possible locations for new factories. Someone in each County should take the lead in getting your County to have an exhibit at the State Fair. It will not cost over fifty dollars and the labor and interest entailed and it may mean hundreds of thousands of dollars to your community. John Henry Cox, able and efficient organizer, has been appointed to coordinate and aid any County interested in having an exhibit and some individual or organization in each County should get in touch with him at 3708 Lexington Road, St. Matthews, Kentucky. He will be glad to aid you in having a representative display for your County that will be seen by thousands and will display the possibilities and resources of your section to many interested people. Your local bank, editor, or County Agent will help, but someone has to take the lead.

The election this Fall will have two outstanding campaigners as candidates and there will be a lot of interest and a lot of speeches. Congress has adjourned and the Congressmen and Senators will be out working for the interest of their party. It will be the first Kentucky election in a long time where the two Senators are of opposite political parties and they are certainly different political types. Senator Alben W. Barkley is nationally famous for his oratory. He has twice been keynoter for Democratic Conventions and is one of the best campaigners this State has ever had. He is an experienced speaker with a big following and large crowds attend whenever he speaks. Senator John Sherman Cooper is comparatively new in National politics and is a different type of speaker. He is slow and deliberate and sometimes halting in his speeches. A new type of Kentucky stateman, his obvious sincerity in everything he says and does has gained him a large following and quite a reputation in Washington where a Senator has to be outstanding to gain any recognition at all. He may stumble or pause in his speeches but his audiences know that he feels what he says and they are actively for him. All of Kentucky's Congressmen will be stumping the State and we will try and tell you about them later.

Random Shots—An edifying sight on election night: Tom Underwood, Earle Clements' campaign manager, and Ben Kilgore who managed Harry Lee Waterfield's campaign, walking side by side up deserted Fourth Street after twelve o'clock, in friendly conversation. Both had worked hard, the political fight was over and they were again friends and Kentuckians.

VOLUME 72 NUMBER 36

W. LEE CROPPER DIES AT AGE 81

WAS LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF BOONE COUNTY — FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MONDAY AT RESIDENCE.

W. Lee Cropper died at eleven-fifteen Saturday night, August 30, 1947 at his home in Burlington, after an illness of two hours. He was the son of John Cropper and Virginia Gaines, was born in Boone County, Kentucky, on June 21, 1866.

As a young man he became affiliated with the Bullittsburg Baptist Church and remained an active member of that church until about fifteen years ago when he transferred his membership to the Burlington Baptist Church.

On May 15th, 1894 he was united in marriage with Bird Kirtley, a daughter of Rev. James A. Kirtley. Mrs. Cropper died on September 30, 1943.

He is survived by two sons, Carroll L. Cropper and J. Kirtley of Burlington; two daughters, Miss Mary Bess Cropper, of Burlington, and Mrs. Harry L. Holtzclaw, of West Point, Kentucky. Besides these four children he is also survived by five grandchildren, Carolyn McNeely, Dan and Lee Holtzclaw, and John and Peter Cropper.

Mr. Cropper became a resident of Burlington in 1921 and before that time he owned and operated farms near Bullittsburg Church in the northern part of Boone County.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 3:00 from the residence, with Rev. R. A. Johnson officiating. Burial was in the Bullittsburg Cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Harriet Dickerson

A short illness preceded the death of Mrs. Harriet Dickerson, Thursday at the home of a son Harold Dickerson, 311 Timberlake Avenue, Erlanger. Her home was at 318 Garrard St., Covington.

Surviving her are two other sons, Roy, Owenton and Cecil, Beaver Lick, Ky.; two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Hamilton, Erlanger, and Miss Helen Sparrow, Covington; a brother, Grover Sparrow, Kenton County and 22 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, with interment following in Wilmington Cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs, Florence funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Homemaker's Program Heavy For September

The Homemakers of Boone County have planned a heavy program of study for September. They are studying consumer information and style trends in clothing and learning how to make their old clothes look like a 1947 wardrobe. Along with this, they will study the Constitution of Kentucky.

Ed Maurer, of Louisville spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Smith.

BURLINGTON WINS FIRST GAME

IN CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES BY SCORE OF 4-0—SECOND GAME SET FOR SATURDAY AT FLORENCE GROUNDS.

Burlington defeated Petersburg in the first game of the play-off of the Boone County League Saturday by a score of 4-0.

Gulley was in rare form, holding Petersburg to six hits and striking out eleven batters. Eddie Deck was on the mound for Petersburg, and after the first inning pitched on even terms with Gulley until the eighth when he was relieved by Klopp.

Burlington took the lead in the first inning by scoring three runs after two men had been retired, and with Gulley improving all the way, the winner was never in doubt. Burlington collected four runs on ten hits.

These same two teams will play the second game of the championship series, Saturday, September 6th on Florence grounds. Game time 2:30 p. m.

John Crigler To Serve As County Attorney For Unexpired Term

John E. Crigler, successful nominee for the office of County Attorney in the recent primary, was named to fill the unexpired term of the late Charles Riley, following the resignation of Walter Vest, of Walton who was selected to fill the office until a successor could be elected.

Mr. Vest handed in his resignation recently, and County Judge C. L. Cropper appointed Crigler to fill out the term which expires January 1, 1948. Mr. Crigler will take office on this date as result of the democratic primary August 2, 1947.

Mrs. Maude Walton Visits Old Home By Plane

The following article was taken from a Bakersfield, California, newspaper:

The double thrill of her first airplane trip and her first journey back to her home city in Kentucky is being enjoyed by a local septuagenarian, Mrs. Maude Walton, this month. Mrs. Walton, who makes her home at 117 P street, left from Los Angeles, where she was accompanied by her son, Ange Walton. Her destination was Burlington, Ky., where she had been taken as a bride and had reared her family. Mrs. Walton is a retired Kentucky school teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Perkins and family, of St. Matthews, Ky., spent the Labor Day holidays with Mr. and Charles F. Rogers.

VICTORIES MARKED UP BY BOONE TEAMS

IN SEMI-PRO ELIMINATION SERIES SUNDAY — WALTON ELIMINATES HUCK CAFE IN SUNDAY'S GAME.

Boone County Vets, Walton and the Boone County All-Star chalked up victories Sunday in the elimination series the Northern Kentucky Semipro League.

The Boone County Vets moved into a first place tie by defeating the Netzers nine 14-2 on the Florence grounds. The winners slugged out 16 hits from the offerings of Hawkins and Schults, while Dutch Reibling on the hill for the Vets held Netzers to six scattered hits.

Elmo Steffen showed his usual form Sunday, keeping the Walton team in the running with a 11-4 victory over Huck Cafe, of Newport, eliminating this team from the series. Steffen held the visitors to six hits, while his teammates were collecting 12 hits from the offerings of Theiss and Davenport.

The Boone County All-Stars facing ouster, trounced the Merchants 8-4. The All-Stars collected nine hits off the pitching of Hisle, Stephenson and Davis, while Ritter for the winners, allowed only 7 hits.

Four teams are now tied for first place. They are Netzers, Northern Kentucky Merchants, Rank and File and Boone County Vets, each having a 4-1 record. Chalks are next with 3-1.

Ira Shelton McGuire

Ira Shelton McGuire, beloved son of Mr. Omer McGuire, and Mrs. Charles Sutton, born July 16, 1911, departed this life on August 25, 1947 at the age of 36 and was layed to rest in the Petersburg Cemetery.

He was born and reared near Petersburg, Ky., but for the past 14 years he made his home near Cleves, Ohio, where he passed away after an illness of several months.

He gave his soul to Christ, when he united with the Belleview Christian Church on August 19, 1928, when Rev. W. C. Burris was pastor.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Mrs. Ethel (Christy) McGuire; five children, Eva Mae, Robert Shelton, Betty Lou, Gene and Patsy; his father, Omer McGuire, of Petersburg; his mother, Mrs. Charles Sutton, of near Petersburg and four sisters, Mrs. Geo. Washnock, of North Bend, Ohio; Mrs. John Lustenberg, of Rabbit Hash; Mrs. Calvin Sturgeon and Mrs. George Sutton, both of Cleves, Ohio, and a host of other relatives and friends.

FATHER AND SON ARE INJURED FRI.

FLORENCE YOUTH SUFFERS POSSIBLE SKULL FRACTURE WHEN TRUCK CRASHES INTO REAR OF CAR.

David Ricken, 6, Sanders Drive, Florence, suffered a possible skull fracture, and his father, Joseph Ricken, 53, minor abrasions, when a trailer truck, driven by Freebert Steinhauer, 24 Standford, Ky., rammed into the rear of their car after failing to complete a stop as it was turning into a driveway on U. S. 25 three and one-half miles south of Florence.

The father and son were removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in the ambulance of the Taliaferro funeral home. The boy was held in the hospital for treatment and the father released.

Sheriff R. I. Rouse reported that a second accident occurred shortly after the first on the highway when a gasoline truck failed to slow down at the scene of the accident and crashed into the rear of an auto driven by Rolin Kindell, 19, Georgetown, Ky. Kindell slowed his car down as he was passing the wreckage from the first accident when the truck hit his auto, according to Sheriff Rouse. No one was injured in the accident and no charges were filed.

Suffers Slight Injuries

Lee Ann Zimmer, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zimmer, Jr., of Florence suffered slight head and shoulder injuries, when she was pinned beneath an overturned car, Saturday, according to Sheriff Irvin Rouse.

The accident occurred when a car driven by Herman Carr, colored sideswiped a car driven by Mrs. T. H. Easton, which threw the colored man's car into a ditch. The small child walking along the edge of the highway was brushed into a ditch by the car as it overturned. She escaped serious injury by being thrown in a shallow depression, which protected her from the weight of the car.

No charges were preferred against Carr, as the accident was unavoidable, Sheriff Rouse, stated.

Erlanger-Elsmere Schools Open Sept. 8

The Erlanger-Elsmere schools will open at 8:30 a. m., September 8, according to Edgar Arnett, Superintendent.

Registration of 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grade pupils who did not attend Lloyd High School last year will be held from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. in the office of James I. Tichenor. Pupils may enter the first grade, provided they are six or will be six before January 1, and enroll within two weeks after school begins.

Damage, cause by fire at the Locust Street School is being repaired and the school will be ready for occupancy opening day.

A program of physical education will be offered in the elementary schools for the first time, Arnett reported.

75TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson at Independence, Ky. was the scene of a happy gathering Sunday, August 24th to celebrate the 78th birthday of Mrs. Watson's father, Mr. D. C. Field, of Burlington, Ky.

Those enjoying the occasion and the delicious picnic lunch were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Field and Lawrence Field, of Burlington, Ky.; Mrs. Kent Martin, Eleanor Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Watson, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Robert Collins, Larry and Sandra Collins, of Xenia, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Granville Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lenon and Mrs. Emma Tharp, of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whalen, of Richmond, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holland, of Milford, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tistlow, of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Rankin, of Falmouth; Mr. Eugene Whalen, of Louisville; Mrs. Wood Arnold, Betty and Norma Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Whalen, Anna Sue Whalen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whalen, Phyllis Whalen, Mr. and Mrs. James Holland, Mrs. Rolla Criswell, Mr. and Mrs. Elza Whalen, Mr. and Mrs. Tilbert McCauley, of Cynthiana; and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, of Independence, Ky.

Mr. Fields was the recipient of many presents and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Cook, of Cincinnati, O., are the proud parents of a baby boy, named Stephen Edward, born at Good Samaritan hospital, August 16.

Virginia Pastor To Conduct Revival At Petersburg Church

The Rev. Gilbert E. Counts, of Bridgewater, Virginia, will be guest preacher at the Petersburg Christian Church, Petersburg, Ky., during a two-week evangelistic meeting to begin September 8, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Claude R. MacDonald.

Mr. Counts, who at present is state evangelist for Christian churches in the State of West Virginia, has had a long and successful ministry among the churches of his denomination and comes to the Petersburg pulpit well recommended as a forceful and dynamic Gospel preacher. Music for the services will be in charge of the pastor, and neighboring churches will bring special numbers of music several nights. The services will be held each evening including Saturday at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday, September 14, has been designated as Roll Call Day, when all resident members of the church are asked to be present and answer to their names as they are called by the church clerk.

Jersey Sire Pedigree

Double Design Observor Boy 465365, a Jersey bull in the KABA was sired by the proved sire Double Design Prince a son of Design Oxford Princess, the greatest cow ever developed in the Shipman herd at Shelbyville.

"Observors" sire, Double Design Prince, classified "Excellent." He was proved by six dam-daughter comparisons showing an increase in production of daughters over dams of 660 lbs. milk; 59 lbs. fat and 2 percent test. A Superior Sue with 40 daughters averaging 9418 lbs. milk, 528 lbs. fat and testing 5.6 percent. Twenty-five of his classified daughters averaged 83.9 percent.

His dam, Encore Pansy, has nine records averaging 533 lbs. fat. One of her tested daughters has a 7 record average of 506 lbs. fat. Another daughter has 460 lbs. fat as a 2-year-old.

The grandsire on the top side, Ninette's Dottrina Design died young with only four classified daughters. Three were "Very Good" and one "Excellent."

The granddam on the top side had a "very good" classification and was a Ton-of-Gold cow with 2224 lbs. fat in four years.

Bluebelle Encore, grandsire on the bottom side, produced three daughters with records over 10,000 lbs. milk and 525 lbs. fat.

Pride's Pansy Lee, granddam on the bottom side, produced 7003 lbs. milk and 337 lbs. fat in 216 days 2X as an 11-year-old.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENT

ON BIG BEND IN COVINGTON—MULTIPLE CUTS AND BRUISES SUFFERED BY UNION MAN AND TWO CHILDREN.

Frances Henderson, his son Carl 6, and his daughter Carol 7, of near Union suffered multiple cuts and bruises late Wednesday when the automobile in which they were riding skidded off the Dixie Highway at the Big Bend in Covington and crashed into a steel guard rail.

Covington police believed that Henderson, driver of the car, lost control of the vehicle when rounding the curve. Had the automobile gone through the guard rail it would have plunged down a 75-foot embankment.

The victims were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment.

LEAGUE LEADERS CONTINUE STREAK

AS SAND RUN, BULLITTSVILLE AND EAST BEND COP SATURDAY GAMES—FOUR GAMES SATURDAY.

Manager Franklin Ryle's pace-stepping Sand Run nine continued to be the hottest team in the county as they trounced Verona 12 to 0 Saturday. The victory was the seventeenth straight for the winners, their only defeat was a 4-3 loss to East Bend in the season's opener. Ryle gave Bud Goodridge a rest and sent Buck Judy, his capable receiver to the mound. Judy rewarded the team with a masterful 6-hit shut-out for his third victory of the season. Sand Run drove out 13 hits as they scored 12 times. Verona, plagued with a losing streak, sent Ray Baech to the mound. Beach went the route as he dropped his seventh game. Blaker was behind the bat for Sand Run with Poole receiving for Verona.

Bullittsville scored 24 times on 24 hits to defeat Florence 24-3. Many fans agree that Bullittsville has the hardest hitting team in the loop. Hogan, Riley, the Marshall brothers, Goodridge and Aylor comprise a dangerous group of sluggers. Hazel Walton was Garnett's choice to serve them up and Florence was unable to collect but six hits from his offerings. Kenyon was Walton's battery mate. Lefty Boby Utz was the losing pitcher for Florence. Utz and his Florence teammates are a rather unfortunate group of ball players. Although they have lost 18 games, seven have been by a one-run margin and Florence has the honor of playing Sand Run a close game every time. The breaks seem to be against them. England was behind the bat for Florence.

East Bend trounced Petersburg 15-3 as Johnny Woods proved to be too much for the young Petersburg batters. East Bend's victory tightened their position on third place over fourth place Petersburg. The game wasn't called in so we don't have complete particulars concerning the contest. All managers are urged to notify W. C. Brown not later than Monday night.

The final tilt of the day was between Burlington and Bullittsburg, with Burlington emerging on the long end of an 8-2 count. The game was played in less than two hours. "Chick" stephens pitched a masterful game as he struck out 15 opposing batters. His teammates made but one error behind him. Stephens was in command all the way and was improving all the way never walking a man. Sam Shinkle former KIO league hurler, was on the hill for Bullittsburg and was touched for 14 safeties. The Bullittsburg chucker struck out six and issued but one pass. Jimmy Ryle with two doubles and a single, Clore and Yelton with two hits each set the pace for Burlington, with every member of the team collecting a hit. King for Burlington and Hodges for Bullittsburg were the catchers.

Saturday's Games

Sand Run at Petersburg.
East Bend at Verona.
Bullittsville at Bullittsburg.
Florence at Burlington.

Come out and support the team of your choice Saturday. All games begin at 2:30. The Burlington Sunday School patrons will have a chance to see their team. Everyone is invited to these games.

Local Homemaker Attending Kentucky Recreation Workshop

Mrs. A. W. Nichols, of Bullittsville is representing the homemakers' clubs of Boone County at the Kentucky Recreation Workshop held at Camp Piomingo, just out of Louisville, September 2-3. At this recreation workshop, various kinds of games for adults and young people, singing, nature lore, metal craft, and glass etching will be taught by leaders well known in the recreation field, according to Jewell Wilson, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

Last year the Homemakers of Boone County spent quite a bit of time on recreation for adults and children. This year, they plan to continue this study. They feel that recreation for farm people is very important and are paying Mrs. Nichols' expenses at Camp Piomingo, so she can bring new thoughts in recreation to the clubs.

4-H Council Meeting

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council will meet Wednesday, September 10th at 8:00 p. m. in the County Agent's office.

All council members are urged to be present as plans for next year's fair will be made at the meeting. A financial report of the past year will be given by the treasurer.

HEBRON P.-T. A. TO MEET

A meeting of the Hebron P.-T. A. will be held Friday night, September 5th, at 8:00, it was announced this week. All members and interested persons are urged to attend.

FARM AND BABY FARMS TO SELL

AT AUCTION SATURDAY, SEPT. 6—FARM EQUIPMENT, STOCK AND HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE WILL BE OFFERED.

R. P. Coleman and Chas. M. Tanner real estate men of Boone County announce the sale of the 160-acre farm and thirty-two baby farms of R. B. Branham, Bullittsville, on Saturday, September 6, at 9:30 a. m.

The farm is located at Bullittsville, Ky., on State Route 20, 12 miles west of Covington, Ky. This farm and baby farms are located within a short distance of Cincinnati, and are desirable pieces of property.

All farm equipment, stock and household furniture will be offered to the highest bidder. Livestock to be offered consists of 30 head of dairy cattle, 40 head of hogs, and sheep.

The 160-acre tract is all in grass with the exception of a very small acreage in growing crops and contains one 10-room house, and all necessary outbuildings. This farm is in a high state of cultivation, according to Coleman and Tanner and is one of the best watered farms in the county.

The thirty-two baby farms are in three to six-acre tracts. One tract contains a 4-room dwelling, another contains approximately three acres of pine forest. All of these farms have extra frontage with beautiful building sites and natural drainage.

As a special added attraction, the Boone County School Band will furnish music throughout the day. Free sandwiches and coffee will be served those attending the sale, it was announced.

NEW ADVERTISER

One of our new advertisers this week is Schoeman's Store, 36 Pike Street, Covington. This establishment was formerly Pike's Store, but now is under new management.

Mr. Schoeman has made a number of changes and improvements in the store, got rid of most of the stock and replaced it with fresh, up-to-date merchandise. The initial advertisement in The Recorder appears this week, offering back-to-school specials.

Duvall To Aid Veterans

F. E. Duvall, Field Secretary of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, of Louisville will be in Burlington at the court house on Friday, September 5 from 8:00 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the purpose of aiding in filing claims for veterans and their dependents and to advise them regarding any other benefits to which they may be entitled.

COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 8TH

FEW VACANCIES REMAIN IN TEACHING PERSONNEL, ACCORDING TO H. N. OCKERMAN, SUPERINTENDENT.

The Boone County Schools will open their 1947-48 school year on Monday, September 8th, according to H. N. Ockerman, County Superintendent.

Several vacanies in teacher personnel were reported Tuesday afternoon, but it is expected that all positions will be filled before opening day.

Many new subjects will be offered the students of Boone County this year, and in several schools faculty members have been added to bring this increase in subjects. Edwin Watson has been named principal, of Burlington School; Chester Goodridge, of Hebron; Rector Jones, of Florence, and at this writing the New Haven principal has not been selected.

The Boone County Board of Education, with H. N. Ockerman as Superintendent is endeavoring to bring to students of this county a higher type of educational program, and earnestly solicit the cooperation and support of all parents and patrons. With this support we are sure that our schools will make rapid growth in this direction.

Any child who will become six years of age by December 31, 1947 may enter school in September, it was announced.

The Recorder regrets that it is unable to give a complete list of teachers for the various schools in this issue, but a list will appear at a later date.

Win Championships At Lexington Fair

Eloise and Jean Ewbank won nine premiums and Grand Champion ship "silver cup" on their registered Southdown sheep at Lexington 4-H District and Future Farmers Fair last week, in competition with three other flocks.

Eloise also won showmanship trophy, and the pictures of the girls and their grand champion sheep and trophies were in Lexington Herald.

Sheriff Rouse Purchases D. N. Norris Property

Sheriff, R. I. Rouse purchased the residence and 12 acres of land, one mile out on Burlington Idlewild Road, from Mrs. Golda K. Norris, last Saturday, through the A. B. Renaker Agency. The late D. H. Norris, former Superintendent of Boone County Schools, built this house a few years ago. Mrs. Norris purchased a home in Wilmore, Kentucky, and expects to move about the middle of the month in order to be near a college for the education of her children.

FESTIVAL PLANNED FOR SEPTEMBER 6

BY LADIES' AUXILIARY OF FLORENCE VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT—FULL EVENING PLANNED.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring a festival to be given Saturday, September 6th from 3 p. m. to 12 p. m. at St. Paul's, it was announced this week.

A full evening of entertainment is promised by the ladies, which will include bingo, cake walk, prizes and amusements for all. Sandwiches and drinks will also be served throughout the afternoon and evening.

Property owners and citizens of Florence community realize how important the fire department is to this section in protecting their property and have always supported the organization to the fullest, and no doubt will be as ready to support this event.

The public is cordially invited to attend, thus showing their appreciation to support this worthy organization.

DDT ANSWER TO BEDBUG PROBLEM

The new miracle spray chemical called DDT is the answer to the bedbug problem, according to a new publication of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. When applied as a 5-percent oil solution or emulsion or as a 10-percent dust to mattresses, beds and chicken houses, these places should remain free from bugs at least six months, it is stated.

FESCUE DOES WELL

County Agent Troll Young reports the following yields of Kentucky 31 fescue seed in Washington county:

Tommy Montgomery, 1,808 lbs. of seed from two acres; Edison Hays, 2,000 pounds from four acres J. C. Reichenbach, 450 pounds from an acre and a half, and J. T. Homan, 25 bags of rough seed from three acres.

Disabled veterans were given first chance to buy at a sale of surplus binoculars held by the War Assets Administration in Buffalo, New York, recently.

Sale of a surplus airport and modification center to the city of Tuscon, Arizona, for $100,000 has been announced by the War Assets Administration.

ANTIQUE SHOW HELD BY HOMEMAKERS CLUB

Six large rooms were filled with antiques at a show which members of the Zion Homemakers Club of Todd county held at Woodstock, former home of Dorothy Dix, now owned by Mrs. Day Williams. Included were many kinds of furniture, glassware, old silver and lace, all collected from homes in Zion community.

The show, according to Sarah Patterson Mason, county home agent, was an outgrowth of the homemakers refinishing project. Beautiful pieces of walnut or cherry furniture were found in smokehouses and attics and refinished and are now serving as living-room and bedroom furniture, she said.

Mrs. Martin Holleran refinished and covered a walnut chair which she bought for 50 cents when it was considered a bit of worthless junk. Pieces of furniture that had served as wash stands in the kitchen or on the back porch have been refinished into lovely pieces, the home agent said.

Members of the Allensville Homemakers Clubs are having much of their furniture done over. Mrs. Cecelia Miller, club leader, has set up a shop to do her own refinishing and to help others. In fact, she has established a money-making business in refinishing antique furniture, Miss Mason said.

Shelby county homemakers clubs report a membership of 452 women.

HAY CROPS GOOD

Hopper and Melton of Warren county report they cut 80 bales of hay an acre from 30 acres after they threshed 240 pounds of seed an acre. It was a mixture of korean lespedeza, ladino clover and Kentucky 31 fescue. Warren county fescue growers reporting on this season's production include Charles Taylor, who averaged 785 pounds of clean seed an acre, and Granville Chapman, with returns of $1,000 an acre from 18 acres.

BULLETIN DISCUSSES CURING BURLEY LEAF

The quality of cured burley tobacco is determined largely by moisture conditions inside the barn during curing, says a new 68-page research bulletin of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station called "Principles of Burley tobacco Barn Operation." A humid atmosphere causes tobacco to cure too slowly and produces red or house-burned leaf. A dry atmosphere cures tobacco too fast and produces greenish, mottled or piebald leaf.

The purpose of the bulletin, it is stated, is to explain what causes various conditions inside tobacco barns and to recommend practical means for obtaining conditions favorable for good curing. The discussion is based chiefly upon observations made during five curing seasons at the Experiment Station.

BACK TO SCHOOL!

New books... new clothes... but what about LIGHT for home study?

Scientists say that 87% of all that children learn they absorb through their eyes. Their progress in school and their ability to win advancement in later life depend to a large extent upon their eyesight. So don't take chances with your children's eyes. Give them enough light and the right kind of light for safe, easy seeing when they read or study at home.

BETTER LIGHT MEANS BETTER GRADES

Poor light causes drowsiness, fatigue and eyestrain, makes concentration on studies difficult. See that the lamp your children use for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts and is well-shaded and free from glare. Better light means better grades!

VOLUME 72 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1947 — NUMBER 11

TO RECEIVE BIDS SEPTEMBER 23RD

FOR NEW COMMUNITY CENTER AND FIREHOUSE AT FLORENCE—BUILDING TO BE OF BRICK CONSTRUCTION.

Bids will be received by Florence Community Center, Inc., in the office of William Fitzgerald, secretary of the organization, for the construction of a firehouse and community building on Tuesday, September 23, 1947, it was announced this week.

The proposed building is to be located on Dixie Highway opposite Shelby Street in the City of Florence, and will be a one-story building suitable for housing the fire equipment of the City. Included in the plans will be a shower room and necessary washroom and toilet facilities. The basement will be completed and used for a community room with a kitchen and furnace room. The building will be of brick construction with poured concrete foundation.

Bidders will be required to submit their bids on three alternates as follows:

(1) Excavation for cellar and all footings and foundations and complete masonry work for the construction of the basement.

(2) Furnish all necessary labor and materials for the completion of said building including the fire equipment building and the necessary appurtenances.

(3) For the furnishing of all labor and materials for the complete construction of said building.

Anyone who is interested in learning to make hats is invited to attend. Bring material suitable for fall or winter to cover a hat frame. Also bring sewing equipment such as thread, needles, pins, thimble, and scissors.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Worrford, of College Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Price, Jean and Nancy Price, of Carthage, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sebree and Mrs. Clara Sebree spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Worrford in honor of Mrs. Worrford's birthday.

BOONE CO. TEAMS EASY WINNERS

SUNDAY IN SEMIPRO ELIMINATION SERIES—VETS, DEFEAT CHALK LOG CABIN—PETERSBURG WIN 9-4.

The Boone County Veterans nine moved into a first-place tie with the Northern Kentucky Merchants in the elimination series of the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League as the result of a victory Sunday over Chalks Log Cabin nine.

The Vets trounced the Log Cabin team by a score of 7-0 on the California grounds. Dutch Riebling was on the mound for the Vets and turned in a masterful exhibition as he limited the Chalks to three hits, striking out 11 batsmen. The Vets collected eleven hits from the offering of Wentworth.

The Boone County All-Stars scored their third victory in succession when they turned back the Rank and File nine, 9-4 at the Spring Lake grounds Sunday. Deck was on the mound for the All-Stars, allowing eight hits, striking out 12 and walking two. Corbin and Giltner served them up for the losers with Corbin being charged with the defeat.

Walton drew a bye in Sunday's game.

In Sunday's games Rank and File will meet the Boone County Veterans at the Florence Park, while Walton will travel to Petersburg for a tussle with the Boone County All-Stars. Both games will get under way at 2:30 p. m.

FLORENCE P.-T. A. TO MEET

The Florence P.-T. A. will meet Thursday evening, September 11 at 8:00 p. m., school auditorium for their first meeting of the school year. All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

Those sending clothing were: June Conner, Nancy Stephens, Mary Lou Utz, Billye Joe Brown, Janet Fay Dolwick, Frances Acra, Vera Dean Scott, Alice Helen Rogers, Helen Cummins, Goodridge, Marjorie Hambrick, Joyce Vice, Mary Bess Burns, Anna Howard, and Marlene Morith.

Two Fined On Game Law Violations Sun.

Two Petersburg youths, Mervin Holt and David Holdcraft, were fined Sunday in Judge C. L. Cropper's Court on a charge of hunting with guns not properly plugged, containing more than three shells. Both received fines of $29.50 and costs. The men were arrested Sunday by Conservation Officer Edwin Johnson, and Conservation Officer Kelly, of Grant County.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENT

WHEN CAR PLUNGES OVER EMBANKMENT TWO AND ONE-HALF MILES NORTH OF WALTON.

Elmer Reew, Owenton, Charles Dunn of Williamstown and Carl Judy, of Owenton suffered injuries when their car plunged over an embankment along the Dixie Highway two and one-half miles north of Walton, early Monday.

Dunn, driver of the car, suffered a possible fractured pelvis. He was trapped under the car and was extricated by passing motorists. Dunn suffered a possible fractured neck and Judy sustained a cut over his right eye.

After receiving treatment by a physician the three men were removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital by the Chambers & Grubbs ambulance. Dunn and Reed were reported in fair condition, while Judy was released after treatment.

Church Services Held On Lawn At Bullittsburg

Due to extensive repairs being made to the Bullittsburg Baptist Church, services are being held in the church yard for morning worship and Sunday School. Members are attending services at other churches during the evening.

Prayer meeting is being held in the home of the pastor Wednesday night at 8:00. Visitors are welcome at this and all services.

Much of the work on the church is being done by volunteer workers of the church. If it is possible for you to help in this worthy cause, call Robert Grant, Jr., and he will tell you when to come.

Plans are being made to work in shifts, so that too many do not come at one time, and none at another.

Bullittsburg Church has long felt the need of Sunday School rooms, and since the floor and supports were in a very weakened condition and had to be removed, it was decided to proceed with digging a basement. Work is progressing and there is hope of having the building ready before cold weather.

FIELD DAY MEET SET SEPT. 16TH

AT DRY RIDGE FARM, ACCORDING TO A. B. RENAKER, CHAIRMAN OF DISTRICT MEETING—FOUR OTHER MEETINGS TO BE HELD

Banks and farmers of this district are invited to attend a Banker-Farmer Field Day meeting to be held at the R. H. Stephenson and Son farm, Dry Ridge, September 16, it was announced by A. B. Renaker, chairman of the district.

Four other meetings are being held throughout the state under the sponsorship of the Agricultural Committee of the Kentucky Bankers Association in co-operation with the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Federal Reserve banks of Cleveland and St. Louis.

Outstanding speakers to be heard on the program are Ralph Fontaine, Executive Secretary, KBA; William C. Johnstone, Field Agent in Agronomy; Ernest J. Nesius, Extension Agent in Farm Management; R. M. Gidney, or F. Guy Hitt; Thomas Cooper, Director and Dean of College of Agriculture, U. K.; A. G. Brown, Deputy Manager of the American Bankers Association.

Bankers and farmers will be guests at the noon hour of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland and the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, at a real Kentucky dinner, according to Mr. Renaker. On the tour of each farm the county agents accompanied by the bankers association's own field representative, John F. Graham, will be available to answer any questions that may be asked by the bankers.

The maintenance of the American standard of living—the highest in the world—depends largely upon the productivity of our farms. Soil problems vary greatly as between the different areas of our State, some sections being adapted to tobacco, some to corn, some to hay or to sheep pastures, beef cattle or dairying. The farm to be visited at Dry Ridge was chosen to illustrate the wise use of land; the value of terraces and contour cultivation; and the use of proper fertilizers for increased yields, as well as a demonstration in erosion controls and the need for cover crops.

The Agricultural Committee of the Kentucky Bankers Association seeks the support of all bankers in Kentucky that this program may be really helpful and meet the specific needs of bankers and join them in a closer and more profitable business relationship.

Meetings held at other locations are Flemingsburg, September 15; Somerset, September 17; Hodgenville, September 18; and Princeton, September 19.

Liquor Case Taken Under Advisement By Judge C. L. Cropper

John Ray, operator of Ray's Food Market, Florence, was brought before Judge C. L. Cropper, Tuesday on a charge of selling beer to minors.

The case was reviewed and taken under advisement by the Judge after a legal technicality arose regarding the right of officers to search the eight-year-old youth, who was alleged to have purchased the liquor.

Homemakers To Study Short Cuts In Sewing

The Homemakers Clothing Training class will meet September 17th, with Miss Verna Latzke, Clothing Specialist of the Extension Service to study "Short Cuts and Time Saving Equipment in Sewing." The Homemakers attending this class will take the information back to their clubs at the regular October meeting. Included in the lesson will be the correct use of pattern charts, when and how to clip seams, shoulder pads, yokes and collars, darts, gathers, and the use of new equipment.

Real Estate Transfers

W. M. Meadows and William Hillebrand sold their farm of 60 acres one-half mile south of Burlington to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie J. Rogers of Covington, last Saturday. Possession October 1st. The deal included corn crop, hay, team and tools. This is known as the O. S. Eddins farm. The sale was made through A. B. Renaker Agency.

Methodist Church Announces Revival

The Florence Methodist Church announces a revival beginning September 21, and closing on Sunday, October 5th. Mario Cappelli of Chicago, a former first tenor with the Metropolitan Opera Co., will be the evangelist. In addition he will also sing many solo numbers.

Cappelli was a student under Caruso the famous Italian tenor. For many years after his conversion he gave a portion of his time to the work of the church, and finally feeling the call of God, left the operatic stage to give his marvelous talents entirely to the work of the church.

He is very much interested in the youth of our nation and is always willing to give of his time to the schools of the communities in which he is laboring. His programs of this type are always enjoyed and has a most wholesome effect on his hearers. The public is invited to attend these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ramey spent the week-end at the Ed Berkshire farm recently purchased by her father E. H. Beaman.

CHAMPIONSHIP CLINCHED SAT.

WHEN SAND RUN MARKED UP EIGHTEENTH VICTORY—BULLITTSVILLE, EAST BEND AND BURLINGTON TRIUMPH.

Manager Franklin Ryle of the championship Sand Run nine sent his team on the field Saturday in search of their 18th straight win and the Boone County Sunday School baseball championship. As a result of their 6-4 victory over the fighting Petersburg nine, the team rewarded their manager with the win and championship.

Ryle chose Bud Goodridge to do the mound honors in this contest, and the ace southpaw annexed his 15th game without a loss as he limited Petersburg to 8 safeties. Goodridge, considered one of the best hurlers in the county, struck out 11 and walked three. Blaker was on the receiving end of the left-hander's slants.

Manager Hodges of Petersburg sent his young righthander, Marvin Campbell to the hill, but the powerful bats of the champs was too much as they gathered 12 safe blows. McWethy was behind the bat for the losers.

The Recorder joins baseball fans throughout the county in congratulating the Sand Run nine on their remarkable record this season. Manager Ryle promises to continue playing his best in the final two games in order to keep his winning streak progressing. He brings his team to Burlington Saturday for what promises to be a real contest.

Bullittsville, who battled Sand Run down to the finish line, and are still fighting to stay in the second slot, downed Bullittsburg 10-5. Manager Myron Garnett, with his group of sluggers, who have lost but four times this season, gathered 10 runs on 13 hits. Hazel Walton, an old timer, but still effective, was the winning pitcher with Kenyon his receiver. Walton gave up 13 hits, but kept them well scattered. Bullittsburg, struggling to come out of seventh place, had Aylor on the hill with Holliday backstopping.

The Bullittsville outfield, one of the best in the loop, made several splendid plays to support Walton.

Saturday afternoon Bullittsville will journey to East Bend for one of the most important games of the year, as they battle for second position in the standings.

Pounding out 15 hits and scoring 10 times, East Bend drubbed Verona 10-1. East Bend, under Manager John Black, is striving to shove Bullittsville out of second place in the loop, and as a result are playing excellent baseball.

Johnny Woods, red hot East Bend righthander, pulled down his ninth victory as he limited Verona to 8 hits. Woods whiffed 14 batters and was in command all the way. Black was in the cage for East Bend. Verona, with Joe Rouse at the helm, never threatened the winners.

Rouse chose Ray Beach, his fine little hurler, who has had a lot of tough luck, to go to the mound. Poole was behind the bat. Verona engage Bullittsburg at Verona for an important contest in the fight for sixth place. Petersburg and Verona have a postponed game to make up. East Bend will be host to Bullittsville Saturday at 2:30.

In the most colorful game of the day, the rejuvenated Burlington boys under manager Sam Ryle, unleased a 23 hit attack against the struggling Florence squad. Big Joe "Chick" Stephens, recent acquisition to Burlington, won hitting honors of the day with 3 doubles and a triple. Bob Brown, Burlington's winning pitcher, wasn't far behind with a double, triple and a home run. Frank Maurer, veteran Burlington keystoner, also homered as every man of the winning team got at least one hit.

If Burlington displays the same power at the plate against Sand Run, the champ's winning streak may be broken. This was the second consecutive game in which every Burlington player hit safely.

Brown proved too much for Florence as they scored but once in the seven frames in which he worked. Coming out in the eighth with a bad finger, he was relieved by Chick Stephens, who gave up but one tally. When the dust had cleared away, final score was 22-2.

Bobby Patterson, considered by most fans as one of the best receivers to hit the county, caught for Burlington. Utz and England formed the battery for Florence. Florence was weak in every department Saturday as they lost their 19th game.

Saturday's Games

In the next to last game of the season, all fans are urged to attend. All contests begin at 2:30.

Bullittsville at East Bend.
Sand Run at Burlington.
Bullittsburg at Verona.
Petersburg at Florence.

Rally Day At Bullittsville Christian Church, Sunday

Sunday, September 21st has been designated as Rally Day for the Bullittsville Christian Church and Sunday School Superintendent Vernon Anderson is hoping for, and expecting, a record attendance, to open the morning service. The same is true concerning the church services to follow as Rev. A. C. Young and his congregation are planning to get back into active service following the summer vacation period.

The above day carries further significance for the church as it marks the beginning of an eight-day revival with Dr. Stephen J. Corey of Transylavania College as the evangelist. More concerning this meeting will be given in a later issue of The Recorder. In any event, all members of the Bullittsville Christian Church are planning to set the whole program into motion with as full an attendance as possible on Sunday, September 21.

BOONE COUNTY WOOL CLIP SOLD

TO JOHN H. NEUMEYER OF LOUISVILLE—FARMERS DELIVER 41,704 POUNDS FOR SUM OF $22,166.03.

The Boone County Wool Pool sold its 1947 clip to John H. Neumeyer of Louisville, and delivered the wool last week.

Deliveries at Walton totaled 18,211 pounds of wool; 17,355 pounds of this was clear wool and 856 pounds of reject wool.

Burlington deliveries totaled 23,403 pounds of the total, 22,499 pounds of clear wool and 1013 pounds rejected wool.

Total deliveries for the county were 39,835 lbs. of clear wool and 1869 pounds of reject, making a grand total of 41,704 pounds of wool. Total price paid to producers by the buyer was $22,166.03.

Cover Crops Are Valuable To Farmers

Cover crops are most valuable to farmers in protecting the soil from erosion and in furnishing winter feed and green manure, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Fertilizers and lime materials for winter cover crops usually pay. Heavy living of cover crops for turning under for tobacco is not advisable as lime may cause frenching of the succeeding tobacco crop.

A good seedbed, careful seeding and proper covering may mean the difference between success and failure of the crop. Early seeded crops especially need good covering.

Crops suggested for winter cover and latest dates for safe seeding are: Crimson clover, September 15; Winter Oats, October 1st; Veteh, October 1st to 10th; Barley, October 5th; Wheat, November 1st; and rye, November 1st to 15th. Wheat and barley should not be seeded until Hessian fly danger is past.

Recommended seeding rates for best results are: Vetch 15 to 40 pounds; winter oats, 1½ to 3 bus.; barley, 1½ to 2 bushels; rye, 1 to 3 bushels; ryegrass, 15 to 30 pounds and wheat, 1 to 2 bushels.

Vetch and crimson clover are legumes. Some soils are naturally inoculated for crimson clover, but it is essential to inoculate vetch before planting unless vetch has been grown successfully on that land before.

To produce more pasture, better protection for the soil and more green manure vetch or crimson clover should be seeded with rye grass and small grains.

The County Agent will be glad to assist farmers in obtaining good seed.

Hebron Man Is Lucky

Charles Clore, of Hebron was the winner of a new Hardwick gas range at a picnic Saturday, given by the Veterans' Club at Madeira, Ohio. This club is composed of World War II veterans who are employed at the Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co., of Norwood.

BURLINGTON COPS SECOND GAME SAT.

IN BOONE COUNTY LEAGUE PLAYOFF—THIRD GAME SATURDAY AT PETERSBURG 2:30 P. M.

In the second game of the series playoff of the Boone County League Saturday, at the Florence park, Burlington defeated Petersburg 5-2 behind the hurling of Roscoe "The Nipper." Akins.

This game was a clean, well-played ball game on the part of both teams, with the winners collecting five runs on nine hits and 1 error, while the losers collected two runs on eight hits, and were charged with two errors. Fine defensive play by Stewart, Burlington right-fielder and Huey, Petersburg second-sacker were the highlights of the contest. Akins and "Tots" Gulley formed the batteries for the winners with Klopp, E. Deck and McWethy the batteries for Petersburg.

G. Clore with a single and home run and McWethy with two triples led the offense.

Third game of the series will be played Saturday at 2:30 at the Petersburg Park.

Mrs. Musetta Hunter

Funeral services for Mrs. Musetta Hunter, 70 were held at the Catherman funeral home, Ludlow, at 2 p. m. Monday. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Mrs. Hunter died Friday at her home near Hebron, after an illness of several months.

She is survived by her husband, A. D. Hunter; a brother, William Nolloth, Covington and a sister, Mrs. Mary Riley, Elsmere.

Mrs. Hunter was well known in the northern section of the county and was loved by all who had the pleasure of making her acquaintance. She will be greatly missed.

The Catherman funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

BELLEVIEW P.-T. A.

The public is cordially invited to attend the kitchen shower and P.-T. A. meeting at the Belleview School Friday night, September 12th at 8:00 p. m.

CYANAMID PLANT BED TREATMENT

SHOULD BE DONE THIS MONTH, ACCORDING TO BILL DAVIS, COUNTY AGENT — LOCATION OF BED IMPORTANT

Plant bed treatment with cyanamid for weed control should be done this month for best results, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Beds should be located on a southern exposure if possible and worked throughly to remove all clods and lumps. Weed seeds inside of clods will not be effected by the cyanamid. After the bed is prepared broadcast ¾ pound of cyanamid per square yard of bed (75 pounds per 100 feet of nine foot bed) and mix thoroughly in the top four inches of soil. A disc or shovel cultivator is excellent for this mixing. Then use a hand rake to smooth the surface.

On this smooth surface broadcast another ¾ pound per square yard of cyanamid. Rake lightly with a hand rake to mix the last application with the surface inch of soil.

If the soil is dry it is best to water thoroughly after treatment (10 to 12 barrels per 100 square yards of bed). Water and warm weather are essential of the killing process.

On light, sandy soil, ½ lb. of cyanamid for each application making a total of one pound per square yard, is sufficient.

The use of a weed-free mulch such as clean straw or fodder is helpful in maintaining soil moisture and preventing baking of the soil after rains.

At seeding time, prepare a shallow seed bed not over one inch deep with a garden rake. Deep seed bed preparation in the spring will bring live weed seed to the surface and destroy the effectiveness of the treatment.

Additional information is available at the County Agent's office.

BETTER STRIPPING WHERE LIGHTS USED

Electric lights in tobacco stripping rooms help to lower the cost of stripping and also make for more accurate grading, which helps to bring a better average price for the crop, says a new leaflet of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Different types of lights are discussed and suggestions given for their installation. Advantages in use of lights are listed as:

1. Reduces cash cost. By working a full day each day, regardless of sunlight, many farmers find that they need to hire less day labor.

2. Shortens stripping period. By working full days fewer days are needed. This frees time for other work and permits getting the crop on the market earlier.

3. Results in more uniform grading. Uniform lighting over the stripping bench throughout the day means a better job of grading, and therefore usually a better average price for the crop.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Approximately 4,000 acres of Mississippi river bottom land in Carlisle county, or about a fourth of the normal corn acreage, was not planted.

ESTILL FARMERS SEE IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Estill county farmers made a summer tour of five farms where improvemetns are being made. Here is what County Agent O. D. Perkinson said they saw:

Ben Scott's farm—Kentucky 31 fescue grass and general farm improvements, including drainage of bottom land.

R. B. Gose's farm—well-built combination livestock and tobacco barn.

Rice Brothers' farm—grass farming at its best, including cow-and-calf beef production; DDT used to kill flies.

C. M. McFarland of Whitley county sold for $2 a gallon 100 gallons of sorghum molasses produced from seven-tenths of an acre of cane.

FEWER TELEPHONES ON KENTUCKY FARMS

The percentage of Kentucky farmers having telephones is decreasing, according to a statement from the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington. The 1945 farm census found that only one farmer in five had a telephone.

"This is in sharp contrast with the trends for other modern improvements," says the statement. "Nearly a third of Kentucky farmers have electricity, two-thirds have radios, over 40 percent live on all-weather roads and nearly half of them own an automobile or truck. Evidently these facilities are replacing the telephone for many farmers in Kentucky."

CORN-BOREE DAMAGE FOUND IN KENTUCKY

The European corn borer, found in 71 Kentucky counties last year, and probably present in a larger number of counties this season, has become a serious corn pest, according to a new bulletin of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington. Yields were reduced by the borer last year, especially in the Bluegrass region.

The borer tunnels through stalks and also eats grain and leaves. The weakened stalks often break and the ears fall to the ground. Besides field corn, sweet corn, potatoes and gladioli are injured.

In Kentucky, the borer has two broods a year and sometimes three. Eggs of the first brood are laid the latter part of May and in June when earliest-planted corn is one to five feet high. Second-brood eggs are laid from middle July into early September.

To reduce damage, the bulletin recommends planting adapted hybrid corns early in May. Corn planted late in May is likely to be injured by second brood borers.

Since the borer overwinters in cornstalks, crop remnants should be destroyed before moths emerge in May. Where corn is cut and shocked, it is recommended that early and low cutting be done. Shredding of corn tends to destroy the borers. Where stalks are left in the field, deep and clean plowing should be done and all trash well covered.

Where borers are present in any numbers, land with cornstalks or high corn stubble should never be merely disked and planted to small grain or other cover crops, it is pointed out.

Holstein Sire Pedigree

Daffy Duke 912745, born 1-1-44. Bred, owned and loaned to the KABA by the Kentucky Agriculture Experiment Station. His seven nearest sires are all proved with herd records. Each dam also has a long succession of high production records on herd test.

His sire, Lyons Mutual Duke was proven by 28 dam-daughter comparisons. The daughters produced 1300 pounds of milk and 50 pounds of fat more than their dams. Production of the daughters was 13016 lbs. milk, 461 lbs. fat and test 3.5 per cent.

The dam, Double Flo has a lifetime mature equivalent of 12827 lbs. milk, 451 lbs. fat and a 3.5 per cent test.

Daffy's grandsire on the top side, Von Alimen Johanna Segis Ormsby, was proved by ten dam-daughter comparisons. He increased production of daughters over the dams by 1096 lbs. milk and 50 pounds fat. He too, was sired by a proved bull.

The granddam on the top side, Lyons Lady Dora, has a lifetime mature equivalent of 15202 pounds milk, 478 lbs. fat and a 3.1 per cent test.

His grand sire on the bottom side is Double Segis Johanna Lad, one of the top sires of the breed and is also in the KABA. Double Segis classified "Very Good" and increased production of daughters over dams by 2663 lbs. milk and 144 lbs. of fat.

Guybelle Lyons, grand-dam on the bottom side boasts a lifetime mature equivalent of 14,175 lbs. of milk, 473 lbs. fat, and 3.4 per cent test.

"Daffy" is a givorous young sire, a topnotch individual and has a great future as a sire.

LIST WAYS TO KEEP DOWN COW DISEASE

The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture lists the following ways to keep down mastitis, or garget, a milk-cow disease that is said to cost Kentucky dairymen more than any other disease:

1. Find infected cows by regular use of a strip cup or other test, and milk them last.
2. Avoid irritation or injury to the udders by removing the milk machine as soon the milk flow stops.
3. Rinse the milk teat cups in clear water and chlorine water after milking each cow.
4. Prevent mechanical injury to the udders insofar as possible.

It is said that the germs that cause mastitis are similar to those that cause cold and sore throat in man and can be avoided with about the same kind of precaution. Some of these germs are always present and ready to infect the udder whenever an injury or lowered resistance offers an opportunity for them to start growth.

The Simpson County Farm Bureau has raised approximately a third of a $2,000 scholarship for the education of medical students.

The Great Toe

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Do you know that the great toe supports the entire weight of the body for an instant, in the last act of walking.

The foot muscles acting upon the four lesser toes preserve the balance of the body by causing the toe to grip in the shoe and in the last act of walking to give the final spring, or "take off." By their attachment the toes flex at their first (holongel) points and extend at their second and third joints, so that the ends of the toes are pressed upon and grip in standing so as to form powerful propelling levers as the body swings forward upon the toes.

Now, take off your shoes—and look at the bottom of your toes. In every case (there are few exceptions) you will see where the fleshy tissue on the bottom ends of the toes comes to a point, from being forced tight together and in many cases the toes themselves lap over one another. This is positive evidence of ill fitted and ill shaped shoes. This continued distortion of toes in many cases leads to bunions, Hommar toes and other toe defects.

Lack of balance will cause you to walk incorrectly and create strain in other parts of the body, inducing fatigue, pain and more misery, NOT ONLY in the feet, but even in the back of the neck and headaches. Resolve right now to correct this condition.

Give your children the benefit of BETTER LIGHT for home study

In many homes children do their lessons reluctantly because their eyes rebel at the hard work of trying to see under poor light.

Help your children to better grades by giving them plenty of light—a table lamp using at least 100 watts or a floor lamp equipped with a 100-200-300 watt bulb. Place the lamp close to their work and see that it is properly shaded to spread the light and prevent glare.

Cincinnati Man Held On Robbery Charge

A Cincinnati man registered as Edgar Brock is being held in Burlington jail on a robbery charge after he was arrested earlier in Covington when found asleep in a car reported stolen by his wife.

Sheriff Rouse stated that the charge dated back to Sunday, at which time a woman named Mabel Putman, Cincinnati, reported she was thrown out of an automobile near Walton after her pocketbook was taken from her. She accused Brock of the theft.

Revival Services At Bullittsville Church

Dr. Stephen J. Corey

An eight-day revival service starts at the Bullittsville Christian Church with morning and evening services on Sunday, September 21, continuing with night services at 8:00 p. m. throughout the week and concluding with the morning service on Sunday, September 28th. The Bullittsville church, through the efforts of its pastor, Rev. A. C. Young has been extremely fortunate in securing as its evangelist an outstanding man in religious circles in the person of Dr. Stephen J. Corey, president emeritus of the College of the Bible Seminary, Transylvania College, Lexington, Kentucky.

Dr. Corey has been connected with the organized work of the Disciples of Christ for over forty years. He served the Foreign Christian Missionary Society as secretary of foreign missions from 1905 until its work and that of five other national boards were united in the United Christian Missionary Society and continued to serve that organization as secretary, and later as president. In 1938, Dr. Corey resigned to become president of the College of the Bible from which position he has just retired and at present is serving as acting chaplain at the United States Public Health Center in Lexington, Ky.

A life-long student of missionary affairs, Dr. Corey has traveled extensively in Africa, Asia, South America, Japan, the Philippines and elsewhere and has written several books dealing with the conditions in various mission fields. As president of the College of the Bible, he has taught the courses of missions to many seminary students and has been in great demand to address churches, conferences and conventions on missionary themes.

With such a long background of outstanding religious experience, Dr. Corey is not only a clear and forceful writer but a strong and popular speaker, as well, and the members of the Bullittsville Christian Church are looking forward to a week of rich spiritual experience. In so doing, they and their pastor extend an earnest invitation to all to attend and participate in each meeting of this series.

Several Farms Sold

C. A. Berkshire sold his farm of 120 acres, 1 mile below dam 38, on the Ohio River and on the Belleview-Rabbit Hash Road, to Russell Louden. This farm had been in the Berkshire family almost a century.

Robert Adams sold his house and lot in Burlington to Mrs. Isabel Caldwell, of Ft. Mitchell. Mrs. Caldwell expects to make some improvements to the property and it will be occupied by her brother, Mr. Thomas.

L. J. Partin sold his farm of 102½ acres on Highway 18, just east of Burlington to Mr. and Mrs. George Claggett of Turner Station, Ky. Mr. Partin purchased this farm from Mr. and Mrs. Joel Gray a few months ago, and recently decided to return to his former trade as a baker, as soon as he can give possession in about 30 days.

Henry Siekman sold his farm of 332 acres, 4½ miles northwest of Burlington, including live stock, crops and farm tools, to J. T. Powell, of Ludlow, and will give possession in 60 days. Mr. Siekman has lived on this farm for 33 years. Prior to that time it was the home of Edgar Cropper and his son, W. D. Cropper, former sheriff of Boone County.

These sales were made through the A. B. Renaker Agency the past week.

FLORENCE SNAP LOSING STREAK

AS SAND RUN AND EAST BEND CHALK UP VICTORIES IN SATURDAY'S GAMES—LAST GAMES SCHEDULED SATURDAY.

The last-place struggling Florence nine amazed Boone County baseball fans Saturday when they soundly trounced Petersburg by a score of 15-1. Both teams had somewhat "loaded up" for the contest, but Florence was far superior. Bob Utz, young Florence southpaw who has lost time after time, pitched a fine game as he held the boys from Petersburg to but four safe hits, while his teammates were gathering 22 safeties for 37 bases

This column has been calling your attention to the close scores in the Florence games and mentioned the fact that they were underrated. Bobby Moore was on the receiving end of Utz's slants. Allen Utz, Jr., swung the big bat for the winners with a triple and two singles. "Mousie" Rouse with five singles led the hit parade. The surprised Petersburg team had McGuire starting on the hill, followed by Huey and Burns. Wolfe collected two of the loser's four hits. Scott was the umpire.

In the closest and best-played game of the day East Bend moved a game closer to Bullittsville as they emerged on the long end of a 6-5 score. This game was very important in the standings because if Bullittsville lose to Sand Run and East Bend defeats Burlington, they will be tied for second place. Johnny Woods received credit for his tenth victory of the season, although he allowed 11 hits, while East Bend collecetd six. Hazel Walton baffled the winners with his slow ball for 7 innings, when he was relieved by Edwards. An error by a Bullittsville outfield with two on provided the tying and winning runs. A large crowd attended the game and were rewarded by a close hard fought contest. Black was the receiver for East Bend with Hogan completing the Bullittsville battery.

Sand Run continued their supremacy over the rest of the league Saturday as they downed Burlington 10-2. Chick Stephens, who hurled eight innings for the losers allowed but four hits and struck out 12 opposing batsmen. Stephens who pitched good enough to win any ball game, received poor support. Burlington made 13 errors. Bud Goodridge was in his usual form as he gave up six hits and whiffed 10 hitters. The Burlington seemed to fold up when the pressure was on and made costly errors. Bobby Patterson was behind the bat for Burlington and dependable Buck Judy was in the cage for Sand Run. Bob Johnson, Sand Run first baseman drove out a triple and Jimmy Ryle with a double and single were the leading hitters. "Pip" Clore called balls and strikes.

Saturdays' games will be the final contests of the season. Everyone who has attended the games in the league this year are invited out for the last opportuntiy to see their team this season. All games are called at 2:30.

Last Games

Bullittsville at Sand Run.
East Bend at Burlington.
Florence at Verona.
Petersburg at Bullittsburg.

How They Stand

Sand Run	19 1
Bullittsville	15 5
East Bend	14 6
Burlington	10 10
Petersburg	9 10

Third Game Of Play-Off Series Called Off Due To Wet Grounds Sat.

The third game of the play-off series in Boone County League was called off Sunday due to wet grounds.

The third game of the series will be played between Petersburg and Burlington for the County championship Saturday, September 20 on Petersburg's grounds. Deck and Klopp will form the battery for Petersburg, while Gulley & Gulley will serve in that capacity for Burlington. Game time is 2:30. You are invited to come and enjoy an old fashioned ball game.

Eades' truck will leave Florence at 1:00 p. m. and will pass through Burlington at 1:20 enroute to Petersburg. Anyone desiring to attend the game is welcome to ride this truck.

SERVICES SET FOR SUNDAY

Services will be held at the Constance Christian Church, Sunday, September 21 at 11:00, it was announced Tuesday.

FARM EDITOR OF WZIP

Lloyd Baldwin

Lloyd Baldwin, a lifelong resident of Kenton County, has been appointed Farm Editor of radio station WZIP, Covington.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Baldwin, of Visalia, he attended Independence High School and Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester. During the war, he served as a Navy Lieutenant with the Training Command of the Pacific Fleet.

Baldwin will produce several programs a day to be directed to the farmers of Northern Kentucky. In cooperation with the Farm Agents of the northern counties, he plans to present information shows, as well as inviting farmers themselves to be on the air.

Wichard-Aylor Nuptials

In a setting of soft candlelight and before an altar banked with palms, fern and tiers of white gladioli, Miss Jane Aylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aylor, of Petersburg, Kentucky, became the bride of Mr. Calvin B. Wichard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wichard, of Bethel, Ohio, on Saturday evening, August 30th at the Florence Methodist Church. Rev. Robert Carter, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

For her only attendant the bride chose her lifelong friend, Miss Catherine Carroll, who was gowned in pastel aqua marquisette, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, short puff sleeves, and full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds tied with yellow satin ribbon, which hue was repeated in her tiara of satin bowknots.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiantly lovely in a gown of sheer white marquisette over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline, tiny puff sleeves, fitted bodice, bouffant skirt, and a yoke of matching material delicately embroidered with white satin flowers. Her long white mitts were of the same material. Her fingertip veil fell from a cluster of seed pearl orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was composed of white Gardenias tied with net. The bride's only jewelery was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mr. Robert Davison, served as best man, and Mr. Wallace Aylor, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ralph Balser were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Aylor chose a frock of gray crepe complemented by black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty rosebuds. The groom's mother was attired in aqua crepe with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following a joyous reception at the church, attended by close friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Wichard left for a honeymoon at Virginia Beach. Upon their return, the young couple will reside in Cincinnati. The bride wore a stunning suit of the new blackberry punch shade with a palomino hat and black accessories and a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

The popular bride is a graduate of Hebron high school and Campbell Commercial College in Cincinnati. The groom graduated from Bethel high school, Bethel, Ohio, after which he served two and one-half years in the Pacific Theatre with the U. S. Navy. He is now continuing his studies at the Salmon P. Chase College, Cincinnati.

Paul Acra

Paul Acra, former resident of the Rabbit Hash neighborhood, died at his home in Aurora, Friday, September 12th.

He had spent the greater part of his life in about the Rabbit Hash neighborhood, having moved to Aurora only a few years ago.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Thad Ryle; and two brothers Wilbur Acra and Raymond.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon from the East Bend Methodist Church at 2:00. Burial was in East Bend Cemetery.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19—WILL BE SOLD IN SEVEN TRACTS—LOCATED TWO MILES FROM BURLINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Dixon are offering their farm of 217 acres, at auction to the high bidder on Friday, September 19th at 10:30 a. m., under the supervision of R. P. Coleman, Florence real estate broker.

The farm, consisting of 217 acres will be offered in seven tracts, with a large amount of road frontage with each tract. All tracts offered are ideal building sites.

At the same time and place a large number of livestock and farming implements will be sold. The livestock consists of 14 head of fresh cows, sows, shoats sheep, mules and horses.

Free burgoo will be served on the grounds it was announced. Terms of the sale will be announced day of sale.

Other Sales

The Col. Lute Bradford Auction Co., Florence, Ky., announce a sale of 40 head of livestock, farming implements and equipment to be held at the Harold Gatewood farm, formerly known as the Dr. O. E. Senour farm, 4 miles west of Union on the Grange Hall and Burlington Road, Saturday, September 20 at 10:00 a. m.

Twenty-one head of high grade dairy cattle will be offered, with a complete line of farming implements and dairy equipment, according to Mr. Bradford.

The advertisement of this sale will be found on another page of this issue.

Col. Frank Worthington will conduct a sale of personal property for George H. Howard at the farm located just off Hicks Pike, four miles south of Union and two miles from Richwood, Ky., on Saturday, September 27 at 10:30 a. m. Offered at the sale are livestock, farming tools, feed and household furniture. Lunch will be served on the grounds.

Porter-Houston

Miss Louise Porter, of Louisville became the bride of Geo. W. Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houston in a very impressive ceremony by Rev. Richard Dawson at the Florence Christian Church on Saturday, September 13 at 3:00, with only the immediate families of the bridal couple in attendance.

The attendants were Mrs. Warren Miller, of New Haven and Robt. Houston.

The bride attended Western State College and taught at New Haven last year. The groom graduated from Florence high school in the class of '45 and later spent one year in the service of Uncle Sam in the States. He expects to attend Eastern State College at Richmond this year.

We join in extending felicitations as they embark upon the sea of matrimony.

NAMES TO BE REMOVED FROM MAILING LISTS

After checking our mailing list we find there are quite a few subscribers in arrears. This will be the last week that subscribers will receive their paper if they are in arrears.

This action upon our part is very necessary due to the shortage of newsprint. It has been necessary for us to print extra pages throughout the year, only printing our regular 8-page paper three or four issues this year. This has materially reduced our present supply of newsprint and therefore requires us to take this action.

Subscribers may determine the expiration date by noting the label in the righthand corner of your paper. If your label reads 9June48, that means that your subscription is paid to June 9, 1948.

Those desiring to receive the paper who are in arrears, should notify this office immediately.

TO CONDUCT MEETING

Mario Cappelli

Mario Cappelli, internationally known singer and evangelist will conduct a series of revival services beginning September 21 and continuing through October 5th at the Florence Methodist Church, according to Dr. Robinson, pastor. Services will be held each evening at 7:30.

Rev. Cappelli is gifted in pulpit power and every service will be inspirational and spiritual. He is one of the world's outstanding tenors endowed with the priceless heritage of musical genius, and will bring several solos during the revival.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Ida Kyle Nicholson

Besides her husband, George Nicholson, she leaves three children, Mrs. C. D. Benson, Burlington, Raymond and Kyle Nicholson, of Walton and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at this writing, but a complete story will be carried next week.

Mrs. Margaret Cooke

Mrs. Margaret Cooke passed away Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Winams, Mason, O., following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Cooke, who was well known in the Walton community had lived in Ohio the past five years. She was a member of the Walton Christian Church.

Besides her daughter she is survived by four sons, Walter Cooke, and Robert Cooke, of Hamilton, O.; George Cooke, Walton, R. 2, and Clifford Cooke, Morningview, Ky., and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted from Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., with the Rev. R. F. Demolsey officiating. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

Katherine Conley

Services for Mrs. Katherine Conley, of Beaver Lick were held from St. Patrick Church, Verona, Saturday at 10 a. m., with burial in Hughes Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Conley died suddenly at her home last Thursday from coronary Thrombosis.

She is survived by her husband John W. Conley, well known farmer of this county; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Carroll of Independence and Mrs. Daisy Wilson, of Illinois, and several nieces and nephews.

Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Alford Smith

Alford (Pink) Smith passed away Sunday afternoon at his home in Belleview following a short illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Belleview Christian Church, with burial in Belleview Cemetery.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Laura Lacy, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; Mrs. Susie Sandford, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; one brother James Smith, of Belleview.

Chambers and Grubbs, Florence funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Call Meeting Announced

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department will have a call meeting Thursday night at the Town Hall, hoping all who worked, firemen, and councilmen will attend.

THREE TEAMS ARE ELIMINATED SUN.

IN SEMIPRO SERIES—BOONE ALL-STARS AND VETS CHALK UP VICTORIES—WALTON IS ELIMINATED.

Three teams were ousted from the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League elimination series Sunday, the result of three defeats. Those eliminated were Walton, Chalks Log Cabin, and Rank and File.

The Boone All-Stars and Vets held their positions in the league standing by defeating Rank and File and Walton.

The All-Stars with two defeats in the elimination series ousted the Walton nine by a 23-1 count at the Petersburg grounds for their fifth straight victory. Ritter was on the hill for the All-Stars, allowing only three hits, while striking out 15 batters. He also collected a home run for his team. Waters and L. Deck led the attack for the winners with three hits. Walton used four hurlers in a vain attempt to halt the All-Star hitters. Steffen started and was followed by Afterkirk, Vest and Ryle, with the All-Stars collecting 17 hits from their offerings.

The Boone County Vets trounced Rank and File at the Florence grounds Sunday by a score of 25-6. Dutch Reibling was on the mound for the Boone County Vets, allowing only six hits, while his teammates collected 18 from the offering of Brown, Corbin and Litzler. This was Rank and File's third loss, thus eliminating them from the series.

Sunday Games

The Boone County Veterans will meet the Boone County All-Stars at the Petersburg grounds Sunday, it was announced. Game time is 2:30 p. m.

Real Estate Transfers

Keene Souther sold his 110-acre farm to Thomas Clifford and wife.

Three lots near the new airport were sold to T. W. McAndrews, James Morris Morris, of Cincinnati, and Fleek Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eddins spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelly Clore, of Louisville, and attended the State Fair.

WEATHER BRINGS MILDEW PROBLEM

How to prevent mildew and do away with musty odors resulting from humid weather are problems for housewives. The best offense, according to home economists at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, is to be sure clothing and household linens are dry before they are tossed in the clothes hamper or put away in dresser drawers, and to keep closets dresser drawers and basements as clean, dry and well aired as possible.

Mildew, a fungus growth, gets its start in damp, dark unventilated places, eventually eating into the fibers of the cloth, causing permanent damage. An electric light left burning in the closet may dry the atmosphere enough to prevent mildew, or an electric fan set in the doorway will stir up the air and bring in a fresh supply.

An open jar of calcium chloride in the closet will absorb excess moisture, but must be replaced as it changes from a solid to a liquid.

A generous handful of charcoal will absorb musty odors. To remove fresh mildew stains in household linens, wash them in soapsuds and follow with sunning. If that is not effective, lemon juice and salt, followed by sunning, may be. A more drastic treatment is to soak the piece for a half hour in a solution of four tablespoons of sodium perborate to a pint of water followed by thorough rinsing and sunning.

Leather goods, floors and woodwork may be protected against mildew by waxing dry surfaces.

To do away with musty odors in basements and cellars, sprinkle chloride of lime over the floor, sweeping it up when the mustiness has disappeared.

HORSELESS CARRIAGES
Remember when automobiles cranked at the side, passengers climbed in through a door at the rear, and a driver was a "scorcher" if he drove 25 miles per hour? Some of those old-time cars had very large gas tanks and there were few places to fill them. Remember?

FUNERAL HOMES

A SECOND HOME
A death in the family brings enough confusion into the home without the added burden of callers. Funeral homes have been designed to relieve exactly this situation. They provide all facilities for handling details, leaving the privacy of the home untouched. We ask our clients to consider our homes as a second home during this difficult period.

LONGER SKIRTS ONLY ONE OF MANY CHANGES IN WOMEN'S FASHIONS

Longer skirts, less padding on the shoulders, tiny waistlines, rounded hips and very full or narrow hemlines are features of the new fall styles, resulting in a silhouette entirely different from that seen in recent years, according to Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, field agent in clothing at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Most striking of the changes is the longer skirt, said Miss Threlkeld, as she recommended midcalf as the approved length, rather than any certain distance from the floor.

Although padding in shoulders will continue to be used, it will be smoother and rounder, making the shoulders look narrower and more natural, the clothing specialist said. Nipped-in waistlines give a rounded look to the hips.

Very full swinging skirts contrast with those which are narrow, the latter being seen in suits. Fullness in dresses is provided through a circular cut, gathers, or pleats concentrated in one place, the specialist explained.

Already popular is the flare-back style coat, with fullness extending from shoulder to hem. For more general all-round wear, Miss Threlkeld recommended the flared but fitted coat, many styles having a shawl collar of fur with side closing.

Long jacketed suits are given hip emphasis through the use of large pockets or other decoration.

Fabrics popular for coats are wool suede, needlepoint, tweeds and broadcloth. For suits, there are gabardine, men's wear fabrics, broadcloth and light weight tweed. Fabrics which drape well, such as moss crepe, soft faille, satin and sheer wool will be chosen for dresses.

Fall Freshening Profitable To Dairymen

Normally, dairymen can expect 10% increase in total milk production of a cow that freshens during the fall months than if she freshens during the spring months.

A cow normally producing 8,000 pounds of milk will increase production 800 pounds simply by fall freshening. The extra cost of 320 pounds of grain to produce this extra milk would cost approximately $12.00. With 800 pounds of milk worth $32.00 the dairyman can realize a profit of $20.00 per cow by fall freshening.

It is also important to feed dry cows enough so they will gain weight during the dry period. Each pound of gain in body weight on a dairy cow during the dry period will add approximately 25 pounds milk during her next lactation period. A cow gaining 50 pounds in body weight during the dry period would normally produce 1250 pounds of extra milk in the following lactation. With the cost of producing the extra milk compared to the value of the extra milk, the dairyman might expect a profit of $20.00 per cow, under present price relations.

These two good management and feeding practices are well worth consideration by every dairyman and farmer.

Win At State Fair

Eloise, Jean and Louise Ewbank, of Warsaw, Gallatin County, won a total of thirteen ribbons, including Grand Champion, any breed in 4-H sheep classes at Kentucky State Fair last week. They also won four premiums in open to world classes, with Eloise's two-year-old, winning second prize, in this strong open to world class, in which there were exhibitors that had previously won top honors at Illinois, Missouri, Ohio, Indiana and other State fairs this year.

Eloise and Jean also won premiums on their room improvement and clothing exhibits, and the honor of modeling prize dresses for the National Geographic Magazine photographer, from Washington, D. C.

Jean was honored with an interview on the WLAP, "State Fair Roundup Program," broadcast from the fair at 10 a. m. Saturday.

Jean and Eloise plan to attend University of Kentucky again this fall, where they are specializing in Home Economics.

Burley Association Completes Substantial Sale Of 1945 Leaf

About two-thirds of the 1945 burley crop still held by the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association was sold this week to a large domestic manufacturer, W. L. Staton, Executive Secretary of the organization, said today.

The sale involved about 1,750,000 pounds and took all of the smoking grades of the 1945 crop which the Association possessed. Staton did not reveal the name of the buyer or the amount paid, but indicated the price was very satisfactory.

The Association has now sold all of more than 16 million pounds acquired by it during the 1945 marketing season, except approximately one million, consisting chiefly of the medium leaf grades.

Aurora Farmers Fair Scheduled Oct. 3 And 4

The thirty-ninth annual Aurora Farmers' Fair will be held Friday and Saturday, October 3rd and 4th, it was announced this week.

This fair has continued through the years and has been an excellent medium through which some neighborly competition has been developed to the end that better results have been obtained in many fields of endeavor.

This has also developed into a great home coming time which is a boone in these busy days.

The entertainment is clean and high class, and we are sure that a day spent at the Fair will be pleasing and a splendid time to meet and greet old friends and neighbors.

Give your children the benefit of BETTER LIGHT for home study

In many homes children do their lessons reluctantly because their eyes rebel at the hard work of trying to see under poor light.

Help your children to better grades by giving them plenty of light—a table lamp using at least 100 watts or a floor lamp equipped with a 100-200-300 watt bulb. Place the lamp close to their work and see that it is properly shaded to spread the light and prevent glare.

Young People's Night

The young people of the Burlington Baptist Church will be in charge of the song service Sunday night of this week. This is a special invitation for all young people to join with them in making this a great service. This is a program the older folks will enjoy and you are also invited to enjoy this great service.

No community or county has a greater group of young people than are found in Boone County. May we, throughout the county join with our young people in leading them in the right path and to the good things of life.

The pastor of the church enjoys working with them, because they call for the very best that you can give. Last Monday evening fifty young people gathered for a social hour at the Burlington Baptist Church, with Juniors, Intermediates, Seniours, Adults playing games. The pastor served refreshments. After refreshments all gathered around the organ and joined in singing the good old hymns of the church.

All left at 10:30 expressing themselves as having had a splendid evening. Join them Sunday night in a great hour. Time of services 8:00.

Entertainment Scheduled

One of the most unusual evenings of entertainment to be had in recent years—In fact, so unusual, that no name can be selected that will adequately describe the wierd goings-on, will be given at the Hebron high school auditorium on Friday, September 26, at 8:00 p. m.

This program is being presented by the Hebron Luther League with the assistance of the Missionary Society, Sunday School class and choir in an endeavor to raise funds to buy a portable field organ for an African Missionary. The admission will be 30 cents for all, so please come and see something that has never happened before and probably wont' happen again.

SERVICES SET FOR SALEM

Services will be held at Salem Church Sunday, September 21. This old church is located on the Walton-Verona highway, 1½ miles from Walton. There will be one sermon, starting at 2:00 in the afternoon.

Everyone is invited and will be most welcome. Services will be conducted by Bro. Bobby Conrad.

Sand Run Church Plans Revival Services

Sand Run Baptist Church announces two weeks of evangelistic services starting September 29th through October 10th. The church is fortunate in securing a man of great faith and ability to preach the Gospel of Christ. Rev. Ralph E. Webb, pastor of First Baptist Church, Paintsville, Ky., will bring a message of salvation each evening. Rev. L. M. Hamilton will lead the song service starting at 7:30 p. m.

Homecoming day will be observed Sunday, September 28th. All members and former pastors are welcomed and urged to attend this all-day meeting. A basket dinner will be served at the noon hour. An interesting program is being planned for that day, and a special offering will be taken in the afternoon for the building fund, the purpose of which is to furnish better facilities for teaching the young people in the Sunday School, as the attendance grows and classes are enlarged, the need is felt more and more.

There will be cottage prayer meetings at 15 individual homes in the community with meeting at 3 homes each evening the week of September 22nd through September 26th. Further information regarding cottage prayer meetings will appear in the church bulletin Sunday. Much effort is being put forth by members of the church to make this one of the greatest soul-wining revival meetings that the church has ever known.

Book Club Holds Meeting

Boone County Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Garnett Tolin, Burlington, Monday afternoon of last week. A thumbnail sketch of favorite fictional books was given by each member.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee G. Marshall, Bullittsville, on October 13th, 2:00 p. m.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912, AS AMENDED BY THE ACTS OF MARCH 3, 1933, AND JULY 2, 1946

Of Boone County Recorder published weekly at Burlington, Ky., for September, 1947.
State of Kentucky
County of Boone ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared A. E. Stephens, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor-Owner of the Boone County Recorder and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily, weekly, semiweekly or triweekly newspaper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the acts of March 3, 1933, and July 2, 1946 (section 537, Postal Law and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publisher A. E. Stephens, Burlington, Ky.

Editor, A. E. Stephens, Burlington, Ky.

Associate editor, Raymond Combs, Burlington, Ky.

2. That the owner is: A. E. Stephens, Burlington, Ky.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for which such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the twelve months preceding the date shown above is 2500.

A. E. STEPHENS

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 13th day of September, 1947.

G. S. KELLY.

My commission expires 2-27, 1949.

From the Old to the New

DETROIT—Farm tractors have come a long way since the Ford Motor Company built its first tractor back in 1909. The old model above boasted copper water jackets and the rear wheels came from a binder. Carl Smith explains to Gloria Carlson the advantages of modern styling on the new Ford tractor now in production at Ford's Highland Park plant, Detroit. Frank R. Pierce, president of Dearborn Motors Corporation, national marketing organization for the Ford tractor and Dearborn farm equipment, announced that Ford tractors are now coming off the production lines at the rate of 400 per day.

Tests made in Owen county have convinced many farmers that their alfalfa needs applications of borax

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

During the month of August thousands of dollars have been spent on reworking pond dams. Much of this money could have been saved had the pond dam been put in right at the beginning. Of course, as yet, no one is smart enough to know exactly what is under that next inch of soil, but by making comparisons with the soil structure nearby and past experiences a great deal of the gamble can be removed.

The local office have requests for 27 spring developments including a concrete trough below the water outlet. Due to labor shortage, these springs cannot be developed. If someone is looking for work, here is an opportunity to develop a trade.

One spring development that is rather unique is on the farms of Koch and Northcutt as you go down the Petersburg hill. A spring developed on Mr. Koch's farm spills into a trough on Dr. Northcutt's farm and the overflow from the tank spills into a lower tank so that hogs can drink from it. The overflow from the third tank goes into a hog wallow.

Mr. Claypool, from the Division of Soil and Water Resources, addressing the Florence Rotary Club, stated that 75 percent of the wear and tear of our highways is due to erosion and poor drainage and only 25 percent is due to actual traffic wear. If this be true, then every motorist is helping pay the bill with gas taxes. Our State highway department has become aware of this maintenance factor and has secured the service of an engineer to devote his time to roadside improvements.

More and more comment comes to this office in regard to pasture mowing. Each year, more and more farmers are mowing their pasture fields. The farm not only improves the looks of his place, but he is discouraging the growth of weeds and bushes, and lays down a mulch that retards water run-off.

Plants draw minerals from the sub soil and when they are cut down and decay, their minerals are brought to the top soil where they become available to short rooted plants.

"On the Contour." These three words are bringing comment and sometimes in jesture, but also as a way to farm. This year shows very clearly why we should crop on the contour. You may inspect any field in row crops, and where the rows are laid of fover the hill instead of around the hill, you will see that the crops yellowed up and grew very poorly. The reason for this of course, was because of excessive rains early that worked out the available plant food and later when it became dry all water having flowed away rather than being held in the ground.

Note: In order to be of more service to farmers the local office will open each Wednesday for the entire day. The rest of the week will be spent in the field and Gallatin County.

This week's thinker:

Proverbs 24:30-31: "I went by the field of the sluggard, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding. And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns.

"The fact thereof was covered with nettles, and the stone wall thereof was broken down."

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF W. LEE CROPPER

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our late beloved Brother W. Lee Cropper whose earthly existence has been cut off by his sudden death; and

WHEREAS, that though we shall be unable to shake him by the hand and to hear again his cheerful greeting, yet we know and are assured that through the Grace of our Lord and Savior Christ Jesus he has gone to dwell in that land where he will receive through faith his just reward for the noble Christian deeds and acts done by him while on earth; and

WHEREAS, our late Brother stood as an exemplary Christian gentleman and a leader in the work of the Baptist Church, having become a member on Sept. 1894, by confession and baptism at Bullitsburg, Kentucky; was ordained Deacon on Aug. 1916 in that Church, then moving his membership to Burlington Baptist Church on Jan. 1931, where he also filled the office of Deacon until the time of his death; and

WHEREAS, he was a friend and wise counsellor to his brother Deacons, Pastor, and all officers of the Church, dispensing generously his wisdom of the years and lending a guiding hand freely, but never offensively; and

WHEREAS, our late Brother was an influence for good by his Christian living and right thinking wherever he was known; and

WHEREAS, his being called home to God, his Maker, has brought about his removal from us; Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Deacons of the Burlington Baptist Church, that we hereby express to his bereaved family; Judge C. L. Cropper, wife and daughter; Mr. J. K. Cropper, wife and sons; Miss Mary Bess Cropper and Mrs. Harry Holtzclaw, husband and sons, our sincere heartfelt sympathy upon the death of their father; and be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the family, to The Western Recorder and The Boone County Recorder, and that the same be duly inscribed upon our records.

Dated at Burlington, Kentucky, this 8 day of September, 1947.

WALTON YOUTH INJURED FATALLY

WHEN STRUCK BY CAR WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON—FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SATURDAY.

William Edward Vest, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Vest, of Walton died Wednesday night at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, of injuries received in an automobile accident several hours earlier in Walton.

The child, according to reports dashed into the path of a car driven by Edwin Yeary, of Winchester. The accident was unavoidable, according to reports. The child suffered a brain concussion and internal injuries. The youth was removed to the hospital by Chambers and Grubbs' ambulance.

Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Mabel Frances, 12 and Lois Ann, 8, and a brother, Herman Tyree, 11.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 2:00 p. m. from the Walton Baptist Church, with burial in Verona Cemetery.

BURLINGTON WINS CO. CHAMPIONSHIP

BY DEFEATING PETERSBURG 7 TO 2 IN ONE OF BEST GAMES OF THE SEASON AFTER 12 INNINGS.

In the best game of the season, Burlington defeated Petersburg on the loser's grounds Saturday by a score of 7 to 2 after a hard fought game for 12 innings.

Eddie Deck and Ivan Gulley hooked up in a pitcher's battle for 11 innings, Deck allowing 9 hits and 2 earned runs, willie Gulley allowed 7 hits and no earned runs.

In the twelfth the first two batters led off with singles for Burlington and D. Deck relieved his brother Eddie. Coming in cold from the outfield Deck didn't have his usual control and after walking one man and hitting another, forcing in one run, Pip Clore broke up the game with a long triple to left center, scoring three runs, and scoring later on a wild pitch.

Gulley retired three men in order in the last half of the twelfth, ending the series. The Burlington boys for the season won 15 and lost one.

S. S. LEAGUE ENDS BASEBALL SEASON

SATURDAY WITH BULLITTSVILLE, EAST BEND, VERONA AND PETERSBURG TAKING FINAL HONORS.

The biggest upset of the Sunday School League was registered Saturday as Bullittsville trounced the champions from Sand Run 12-4. Bullittsville, who needed the win to cinch second place, collected 9 hits as they handed Bud Goodridge his first loss of the year. Both teams made several costly errors.

Hazel Walton went the route for Bullittsville, and although hit hard, he gave up but seven safeties. Joe Aylor, Bullittsville left fielder made several sensational catches to rob Sand Run of their bids for extra-base knocks. Goodridge pitched his customary fine brand of ball, but his support was very ragged. Judy for Sand Run and Garnett for the winners completed the batteries.

East Bend racked up an impressive 7-4 victory over Burlington. Charlie Black, who defeated Sand Run in the season opener, was in fine form as he held the losers scoreless until the ninth when they scored 4 times on five hits. Woods came to Black's relief in the last frame. James Gayle Smith was on the hill for Burlington and gave up nine hits. Bob Clore with two singles and Dale Williamson and M. Brown with triples led their individual teams at the plate. East Bend played good ball afield.

Raymond Beach, of Verona joined Goodridge as the only two hurlers in the loop with shut-outs. Beach, who was the winning pitcher in a duel with Uts, of Florence, gave up but one hit to record the best game of the season. He won his own game as he homered with the bases loaded to provide the 4-0 margin that Verona won by. Florence with their improved team played Verona on even terms for 7 innings when Beach broke the scoring ice with his 4 bagger. Uts allowed the winners six safe blows. The win ended the battle between Verona and Bullittsburg as it sewed up the sixth slot for Verona.

Petersburg won their contest by virtue of a forfeit by Bullittsburg. Cause of the forfeit was not reported.

The only attendants were Misses Mary Catherine and Opal Lea, Mrs. William E. Shirley and Al Newman.

The bride was attired in a light blue suit with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds. Her bridesmaid, Miss Faustina Lea wore a wine suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

The groom is an accomplished young dairyman. He served four years in World War II with two years' service in the South Pacific.

The bride, after serving two years in the WAC has been an employee at the Wadsworth Electric Manufacturing Co., Covington, Ky

Following a honeymoon, the happy couple will reside in Crescent Springs. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

ALL-STARS DEFEAT VETERANS SUNDAY

AT PETERSBURG PARK—FOUR REMAINING TEAMS IN LEAGUE CREDITED WITH TWO DEFEATS.

The Boone County All-Stars defeated the Boone County Vets Sunday in the eighth game of the elimination series by a score of 5 to 3, on the Petersburg grounds.

The game was hard fought with Ritter twirling for the winners, striking out 14 batters, allowing five hits and walking one. Dutch Reibling hurled for the Vets and gave up six hits, walked two and struck out four.

Netzers won over the Northern Kentucky Merchants by a score of 13-8.

Sunday's games will leave only two teams in the elimination series as the rule was three defeats and out.

Sunday's Games

The Boone County Vets will meet the Northern Kentucky Merchants at Florence grounds at 2:30 p. m., while the All-Stars will entertain Netzers at the Petersburg grounds.

Burlington Firemen Answer Call At Walton Home Monday

The Burlington Volunteer Fire Department answered a call late Monday afternoon at the home of Noel Walton, Burlington, to extinguish a fire in an overheated oil heating stove.

The fire was caused by an over supply of raw oil in the base of the stove which accumulated before it was ignited. No damage was caused however, and the department stood by until the stove was brought under control and safe to use.

Mrs. Melvin L. Stubbs, co-chairman of the Crippled Children Drive for Boone County has appointed Mrs. Walter Ferguson, of Union as solicitor on U. S. 42 from Union to Florence.

Will Conduct Revival At Burlington Baptist Church

Rev. T. W. Waller

A revival meeting will begin at the Burlington Baptist Church on Monday, September 29th and will continue through October 10th. Rev. T. W. Waller, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lawrenceburg, Ky., will be the speaker.

Music will be in charge of Rev. Wm. Burkett, pastor of the Belleview Baptist Church of this county.

A special effort is being put forth by the pastor and people, to make this one of the greatest revivals in the history of the church. Prayer meetings are being held in some of the homes and next Sunday afternoon many from the church will go out to visit the homes of the community with a special invitation to attend the services.

Bro. Waller is a very fine young man with a great message from the Lord and a man who loves the Word of God, a true Bible preacher that is not afraid to preach the Word. Bro. Burkett is one of the very finest young ministers in Northern Kentucky. He not only is a splendid leader of songs, he also brings a wonderful message in his special numbers. These are two of God's fine young men and the pastor extends a special invitation to the entire community to attend all these services.

Prayer services will be held for all groups at 7:30 in the church basement. Preaching services will begin at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Johnson, pastor is asking all to join with the Burlington Baptist Church in helping to make this a great service for the Lord.

THREE INJURED IN COLLISION

WEDNESDAY OF LAST WEEK—LEG OF JIMMY KLASSERNER MANGLED IN ACCIDENT, ACCORDING TO DEPUTY SHERIFF

Three Constance children, suffered injuries Wednesday morning when a car driven by Pericles Grubbes and a truck driven by Ed Loze collided near the Constance school, according to Wendell Easton, Deputy Sheriff of Boone County.

Those injured in the crash were Jimmy Klasserner, 9, legs crushed; Johnny Lose, bruised shoulder and Billy Moyer, leg fracture and arm injuries.

The Catherman ambulance of Ludlow rushed the Klasserner child to Booth Hospital, Covington, where he was given several blood transfusions. His condition at last reports was fair, and unless complications develop his legs may be saved.

The accident occurred about 30 feet from the driveway entrance to the school yard, according to Deputy Easton, who investigated the accident. At that point Easton reported, Ed Loze, grandfather of one of the young passengers and driver of the truck, pulled on the apron of the road preparatory to making the turn into the school yard. Just at that time the auto driver by Grubbs approached sideswiping the truck driven by Lose and occupied by the school children.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our son and brother Everett E. Cress, who passed away November 24, 1946.

When evening shades are falling
And I sit in quiet alone,
To my heart there comes a longing
If only Everett could come home.
But on the beautiful isle of somewhere
In the heaven beyond the stars,
Peacefully resting with Jesus
Lies this wonderful son and brother of ours.
He had a nature you couldn't help loving,
A heart that was purer than gold,
And to those knew and loved him
His memory will never grow old.
Sadly missed by his mother, father, sisters and brothers. Itc

FUNERAL HOMES

A SECOND HOME
A death in the family brings enough confusion into the home without the added burden of callers. Funeral homes have been designed to relieve exactly this situation. They provide all facilities for handling details, leaving the privacy of the home untouched. We ask our clients to consider our homes as a second home during this difficult period.

GUNPOWDER HOMEMAKERS

The Gunpowder Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Shull, Sept. 14. Our new officers were installed and we got off to a good start for the coming year. There were 11 members and three visitors present.

Miss Bernice Sebree gave us some very interesting highlights on style trends, and how that we could make last season's clothes fit in with this season's styles.

We were glad to have Miss Wilson meet with us and to show us the milk pasteurizer which can be used in our own home.

We enjoyed the fine dinner and hospitality shown by our hostess. Our next meeting will be October 14 at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Piper. We welcome back our visitors, Mrs. Ruth Utzinger, Mrs. Lucy Newman and anyone who cares to meet with us.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

The Burlington Homemakers' Club held its first fall meeting September 4 at the court house, with Mrs. M. M. Lucas, presiding.

Our business session was very interesting, as we planned for the coming year. We enjoyed an unusual lunch.

The afternoon was devoted to the lesson on "Style Trends" by Mrs. Pope and Miss Wilson. 'What's New in Fashion" as styles are changing was very instructive.

All members are urged to attend the next meeting October 2nd. Visitors are always welcome.

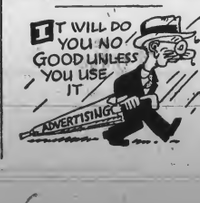
Weak Feet Affect Body

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington



When feet are permitted to pronate inwardly, the bony structure of the foot goes down, shutting off the nerve and blood supply in the bottom of the foot. When you cramp or choke the blood stream and slow up circulation, there is a lack of bone repair; chemical deposits, or waste matter form at the joints. Next inflammation sets in at these joints causing pain. That inflammation is often mistaken for rheumatism, arthritis and many other ailments. Altho when you cramp the blood supply you shut off the food supply to the nerves.

When nerves are impoverished, muscle tone is impaired because sensory nerves indirectly control motor nerves which in turn control the muscles. When muscles in the feet have lost their tonicity due to impoverishment of the nerves, feet are no longer subconsciously held in normal position.

Surgical shoes give support to the vital arches in the feet releasing cramped nerves and blood vessels to promote better circulation. Gradually as circulation improves, muscles grow strong and regain their tonicity.

With foot health improved the person feels better all over. Research has shown that no less than eighty-seven diseases are indirectly caused by bad feet.

Don't take chances with your health, happiness, and peace of mind. With foot comfort you'll live longer and feel better.—Adv.

CHOICE is the keynote of today's career

Would you go to Europe, Japan or Korea? Or would you stay near home? Any man who has had prior service in the Armed Forces may elect to do any of these things if he enlists in the Army now for 3 years or more. He can choose to be assigned directly to duty in Europe or with one of five famous Infantry divisions in the Far East. Or he may choose to be stationed near home for the first full year of his enlistment (where there are vacancies). Men with or without prior service may choose one of the famous combat divisions in Japan or Korea.

Would you select a career in aviation? This you can do, and be guaranteed the training you choose before you enlist! Only requirements beyond regular physical and mental examinations are that you be a high school graduate, or that you are in the Air Force and can qualify. It's today's great opportunity to write your own ticket in the Air Force.

Would you want to learn to fly? If you are single, 20 to 26½, and have had two or more years of college education or the equivalent, you can become an Aviation Cadet with the U. S. Air Force. Nowhere else can you get better training, for nowhere else is aviation advancing as fast or as far as in our own Air Force.

Would you go to a leadership school? If you have qualities of leadership, would you want to develop them to their fullest? U. S. Army Leadership Schools are now selecting likely candidates from servicemen to take these valuable courses.

The Army and Air Force are doing everything possible today to help each individual develop along the lines that he picks for himself. Army and Air Force training is thorough and take-home pay is better than most civilian jobs. Opportunities for advancement are wide open to every man in uniform. Make your choice today at your U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

Class Of 1932 Hold Reunion At Hebron

Mrs. George Wohrley and Mrs. Albert Avery were hostesses at a party held at the latter's home in Hebron to the members of the 1932 graduating class of Hebron high school. There were ten members of the class with their families present.

All members were contacted and those who were present greatly missed the presence of those who were unable to attend. We also regret that our teachers Miss Estelle Huey, Miss Mary Bess Cropper and Mr. C. V. Lucy were not in attendance. However, we did have Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goodridge present. Mr. Goodridge is now principal of the school and at the time of our high school days was coach of basketball.

During our high school years we had a girls' basketball team and several members of the girls' first team were present at this class meeting. We spent an enjoyable evening of reminescing, recalling many classroom events and outstanding activities of our precious school days.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess around 11:00 p. m. and we reluctantly departed for our homes well after midnight.

Through this printed page, we the members of the 1932 graduating class of Hebron high school express our appreciation and gratitude to Mrs. George Wohrley and Mrs. Albert Avery for making possible this happy event.

Those present were Mr. and George Wohrley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Avery and daughter Barbara Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley McWethy, daughters, Hazel Lee, Alice Faye and son Joseph Marshall, Mrs. Ray Reffitt, Miss Elizabeth Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown and daughter Ray Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wohrley, daughter Joyce and son Frankie, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rogers, daughter Ella Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goodridge and son Billy Louis.

CHIMES INSTALLED IN SOUTHGATE CHURCH

Sunday, Sept. 7 at 6:00 p. m. a set of electric chimes was dedicated at the Southgate Methodist Church. The gift was presented to the church by Mrs. Louis Greilich and family in memory of Louis and Philip Greilich. The system can be heard for approximately one mile and its beautiful peals are appreciated by all the surrounding community. A large audience attended the dedication service when the chimes were played for the first time.

A new parsonage is being built by the church at a cost of $10,500. It will be ready for occupancy in January.

Rev. T. O. Harrison, pastor of the church was a former pastor of the Burlington Methodist Church. His many friends in this locality are glad to learn that his church is making such rapid progress.

BURLINGTON W. M. S.

Twenty members and two visitors attended the meeting of W. M. S. at the church September 17, 11 a. m. Mrs. Les McBee, presiding officer called us to order and presented Rev. R. A. Johnson who gave a very inspirational devotional message from Isaiah 6:6, revealing the unchanging method for evangelizing the world and presenting a definite challenge for Home Mission work.

Mrs. Aline Brady program chairman introduced Miss Estelle Huey as leader of the regular monthly program. Topic "The American Indians." This, Miss Huey presented in form of a quiz, in which the following participated: Mrs. Noel Walton, Mrs. Gaines, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. McBee, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Maude Walton, Mrs. Rouse, Mrs. Griesser, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Yelton, Mrs. Bes Huey and Ruth M. Kelly. Miss Huey augmented their remarks with very interesting stories of Indians generally, which added much to the enjoyment of the study.

Mrs. McBee then conducted the business session during which plans for a Mission Study Class were discussed.

A bountiful and most delicious lunch was served at the noon hour, after which the group reconvened for the observance of September Week of Prayer for Home Missions.

Rev. Johnson again brought the devotional message on subject of "Tithing," during which he urged all women to participate in the three-month tithing program beginning Oct. 1st.

Mrs. Brady announced that Mrs. Noel Walton would lead the discussion of Home Missions. This she did in a very interesting and informative manner, stressing the Early History, Kentucky's Part and Plans for the Future, and Woman's Part in Home Mission Work. Ruth Kelly closed the discussion with a few remarks concerning the purpose, interest and activity of the W. M. U.

After a season of prayer, the offering for Home Missions was made.

. . . takes the irk out of homework

Homework requires concentration, close attention to small type, more work for young eyes. Plenty of good light is needed to prevent drowsiness, irritability and fatigue caused by eyestrain.

Make sure that the lamp your child uses for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts (150 is better) and see that it is well shaded to eliminate glare.

No student can do his best if handicapped by poor light. Give your child the benefit of better light for better grades.

FLORENCE

Miss Frances Sebree, a teacher in the Florence school is rooming with Mrs. D. I. Tanner.

Mrs. Fannie Utz entertained her nieces and nephews at dinner last Sunday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McHenry, Robert Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Tanner, Fitzhugh Tanner, Mrs. Linnie Easton, Mrs. D. I. Tanner, Mrs. Sadie Tanner, Lloyd Tanner and Misses Dorothy McHenry, Glenn Marie and Mary Ellen Tanner.

Mrs. Hattie Owens entertained her daughter, Mrs. Lyman Carroll and husband, of Covington, Sunday.

Some miscreant recently entered the basement in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. L. Aylor through a screened window, presumably with a view to robbery. His efforts were foiled however, as he could not gain entrance to the main floor due to the locked door at the top of the basement steps. Mr. and Mrs. Aylor were away from home at the time.

Lon Clore, who has been confined to Booth hospital the past six weeks is doing very nicely and is looking forward to returning home in the near future. He sends greetings to all his friends and sincere thanks to all who remembered him with cards of which there were many. He also thanks those who sent flowers, food or any other deeds of kindness.

Mesdames Leo Flynn, of Walton, Joe Hogan, of Hebron and Clyde Arnold attended the annual meeting of the Campbell County Homemakers on Wednesday, September 17.

ALL-STARS AND VETS VICTORS

IN NORTHERN KENTUCKY SEMI-PRO FINALS — WILL MEET NEXT SUNDAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP GAME.

The Boone County Vets and Boone County All-Stars emerged in the final of the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League's elimination series Sunday afternoon by scoring victories over Northern Kentucky Merchants and Netzers Tavern.

The Boone County Vets nosed out the Northern Kentucky Merchants on the Florence grounds Sunday by a score of 6-4. Dutch Reilbling was on the mound for the Vets, giving up eight hits and striking out eight. Merschel Hisle on the hill for the Merchants allowed eight hits while striking out five.

Charles Benson led the attack for the Vets with a home run and two singles, also playing a fine defensive game in the field. Bob Denniston collected 3 singles, while Bowman and Sebree collected one each.

The All-Stars scored their sixth victory in succession by shutting out Netzers of Alexander 9-0 at the Petersburg grounds. D. Ritter was on the hill for the All-Stars, allowing only four hits while striking out 18. Hawkins started for the Netzers and was relieved by Shultz in the eighth. All runs and hits were charged against Hawkins.

Shinkle led the attack for the All-Stars with a pair of doubles, while H. Ritter hit a two-bagger, and D. Ritter connected for a triple. Myron Rinehard hit the big blow for the Netzers with a triple.

The All-Stars and Vets will tangle in the first of a three-game series Sunday at the Florence grounds. Game time is 2:30.

Sunday, October 12th the second game will be played at Petersburg at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Goldie Laflin

Funeral services for Mrs. Goldie Laflin, 60, former resident of Boone County, were held at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

Mrs. Laflin died Tuesday at Longview Hospital, Ohio, following a long illness.

She is survived by one son, William Laflin and a daughter, Miss Isabel Laflin, both of Los Angeles, Calif.

Florence Christians Plan Homecoming Services October 5

The Florence Christian Church will have its annual homecoming Sunday, October 5th, it was announced this week. Bible school at 10:00 a. m.,, with morning worship at 11:00 a. m.

A basket dinner will be served at the parsonage, with an afternoon program. Come and enjoy a good day at the little church on the corner of U. S. 42 and Dixie Highway.

LOCAL WOMAN TO ATTEND MEETING

AT JACKSONS MILL, W. VA—IS ONE OF TWENTY-ONE DELEGATES FROM KENTUCKY ASKED TO ATTEND.

Homemakers from Kentucky plan to attend two national meetings next week at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia. Mrs. Clyde Arnold, President of Boone County Homemakers will be one of the twenty-one delegates from Kentucky asked to attend.

The national Home Demonstration Council will meet October 6th, through 8th, while the ninth annual meeting of the country's women's council, U. S. A. meets October 9th and 10th.

All meetings will be held at West Virginia's State 4-H Club camp. Due to the fact that the camp can only accommodate 300 people Kentucky's attendance has been limited to twenty-one.

Fire Destroys Poultry House On Miller Farm Early Sunday Morning

A small poultry and tool shed was completely destroyed by fire early Sunday morning on the farm of Lafe Miller, Grant, Ky., before sufficient help could be summoned.

According to Mrs. Miller, the fire was started by an electric light bulb being used to brood 100 baby chicks in the building. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor at 4:00 a. m. but was out of control before help arrived.

The Burlington Fire Department was summoned to keep the flames from spreading to their home which was not more than 20 feet from the small building. The department was on the scene in 12 minutes from the time the call was made, traveling 8 miles and carrying a full load of water and equipment.

The estimated loss of the building and contents was set at $250.00 which was said to be covered by insurance.

Jones-Denny

On Friday evening, September 12th, Miss Jo Ann Jones, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Craig Jones, of Erlanger, Ky., became the bride of Mr. Hobart Donald Denny, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Denny, of Sunset Ave., Erlanger, Ky.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. C. Don Garmbrell, minister of the Erlanger Baptist Church officiated the double ring ceremony, with only the immediate families of the bride and groom attending.

The bride was lovely, wearing a forest green wool suit and carrying a bouquet arrangement, of orchids and yellow rosebuds. The bridesmaid, Miss Doris Chambers was attired in a grey suit and wore an orchid corsage.

The groom chose as his best man Mr. Walter Fergerson, of Union, Ky.

A joyous reception followed the wedding. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake blanketed with lighted tapers and beautiful flowers.

Many friends and relatives attended, to enjoy the occasion. Among those present on the out-of-town guest list, were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lucas, of Burlington, grandparents of the bride.

Homecoming Services Planned At Hopeful Lutheran Church

The Hopeful Lutheran Church will hold its annual homecoming Sunday, October 12th. Worship services will be held in the morning, with Sunday school at 10:00 and worship service at 11:00. A basket lunch will be enjoyed at 12:30.

The afternoon service will be in the form of a congregational and special music with Rev. Day B. Werts of St. Marks, Newport as the chief speaker. The Rev. Lorin L. Spenny, of Zion, Park Hills, president of the Kentucky-Tennessee Synod will bring the greetings of the Synod and have a part in the afternoon service.

Burlington Farm Sold

Mr. and Mrs. George Claggett, who recently purchased from L. J. Partin the 102½ acres east of Burlington, on Highway 18, known as "Grayacres," sold this farm to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Chilton, of Erlanger. Mrs. Chilton is a niece of Mrs. Claggett. Mr. Chilton has been with the Post Office Department, working out of the Covington office, for 20 years and plans to continue working in his present position and live on the farm. They have two sons 18 and 20 years of age, one attending the University of Kentucky and the other attending Murray State Teachers College.

Sheriff R. I. Rouse sold the 12-acre country home on Burlington-Petersburg Road, recently purchased from Mrs. Golda Norris, to Louis J. Partin. Mr. Rouse had done some work on the property which added to its appearance. Immediate possession.

These sales were handled thru the A. B. Renaker Agency the past week.

$522,000 WILL BE SPENT IN COUNTY

FOR NEW HOUSING IN NEXT THREE YEARS, AS RESULT OF HIGH INCOMES—MANY CONVENIENCES TO BE ADDED.

Farm families in Boone County will spend more than $522,000 for new housing in the next three to five years, according to a forecast released by the Tile Council of America.

"As a result of high incomes during the last few years, farmers in every part of the nation are prepared to invest record amounts in new home construction and in general farm improvements," said F. B. Ortman, chairman of the Council's residential construction committee.

Pointing out that the comforts and conveniences of urban living are now available to farm families, Ortman said many new rural homes will incorporate such features as central heating, tiled bathrooms and modern kitchen facilities.

Rapid electrification of rural areas of Kentucky is making possible the incorporation in new homes of many labor-saving and comfort-providing devices undreamed of a generation ago, according to Ortman. Rural Electrification Administration estimates disclose that more than 39 per cent of all farms in the state now receive central station electric service. Refrigerators, electric washing machines and deep freezing plants, as well as plumbing systems will go into many new homes as a consequence.

Boontucky Farms Listed In Game Reserve

Farms owned and under the management of Boontucky Farms, Burlington was recently listed with the Division of Game and Fish for game reserves. The entire tract totals approximately 267 acres and includes the Kirkpatrick woods, J. P. Ryle farm, Nichols farm and a portion of the home farm of Geo. Sperti.

Game reserves are being located in several sections of Boone County, and will be stocked with wildlife by the Division of Game and Fish. All properties listed in the game reserve are posted against hunting of any kind.

Spotsmen throughout the section welcome this plan, as it will assist in stocking adjoining teritory.

Field Secretary To Visit Burlington Oct. 10

F. E. Duvall, Field Secretary of the Kentucky Disabled ExService Men's Board, Louisville, Ky., will be in Burlington Oct. 10, for the purpose of aiding in filing claims for veterans and their dependents, and to advise them regarding any other benefits to which they may be entitled.

Mr. Duvall will be in the court house from 8:00 a. m. to 4 p. m. on the above date.

Boone County Band To Play At Aurora Fair

Dean Bloss

The Boone County School Band, under the direction of Dean Bloss will appear at the Aurora Street Fair, Aurora, Ind., Saturday October 4th, it was announced this week. The band will join in a parade at 10:00 a. m. and will give a brief concert at 1:10 p. m. from the band stand.

Music has been furnished by the local band at Aurora for the past several years, and has received much praise from fair officials and the general public for its fine performance.

Transportation will be furnished band members with the following schedule outlined: Bus leaves New Haven 8:00 a. m.; Florence 8:15; Hebron 8:45; Burlington, 8:30 and Belleview, 8:45. All members are asked to reach the school building in time to obtain their uniform before bus time.

The combined band has been in operation five years, during which time much progress has been made by the students, and has a reputation of being one of Northern Kentucky's best. At present there are five schools in the organization Burlington, Hebron, Florence, New Haven and Belleview.

Mr. Bloss has proven a capable teacher, developing some splendid musicians during the five years in the county. He received his advanced training in music at the Conservatory of Music of University of Louisville and at the University of Cincinnati Conservatory.

Mrs. Sam Allen, who recently suffered a back injury is being cared for at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Wilson and family, of Erlanger.

LOCAL STUDENTS ARE ELIGIBLE

TO COMPETE FOR $2,425 IN PRIZES IN SOIL CONSERVATION ESSAY CONTEST—RULES TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

School pupils throughout Kentucky are eligible to compete for $2,425 in prizes in the fourth annual Soil Conservation Essay Contest, sponsored by The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times, and radio station WHAS. The 1947 contest was announced this week by A. Threlkeld, president of the Kentucky Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors, and Barry Bingham, president of the newspapers and radio station.

Booklets containing the rules of the contest are to be distributed to schools in all counties by soil conservation district supervisors. Those unable to obtain the booklets thru their schools may write the promotion department in care of The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times and WHAS.

Subject for the 1947 contest is "Why Soil Conservation Is Needed In My County and How My Soil Conservation District Has Helped the Problem." Essays are not to exceed 1000 words and should be typewritten or written in ink on one side of the paper.

The contest closes November 15. All essays from a school should be delivered to the office of the County superintendent of schools prior to that time. A $100 Savings Bond will be the state's winner's prize. Second place winner in the state gets a $50 bond, and third place a $25 bond. The best essay in each of the 91 soil conservation districts of Kentucky will win a $25 bond for its writer.

Full information and assistance may be obtained from soil conservation district supervisors in counties having conservation districts. Boys and girls wishing to compete from counties not having conservation districts should write to the newspapers and radio station.

Mrs. Lily Evans, of Elsmore, California, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. E. Aylor. This is the first time the sisters have met in thirty-four years. A birthday celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aylor Sunday. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jenkins, of Dayton, Ohio.

Hopeful And Hebron Churches Will Become Self-Sustaining Dec. 1

The Hopeful and Hebron Evangelical Lutheran Churches, which have worked together as a parish since 1854, will become self-sustaining congregations December 1. This action was taken at the Joint Council meeting held Friday evening of last week which was held to consider the progress of the self-sustaining program which has been under study for some time.

The joint council after hearing reports from both congregations were certain that both congregations were in a position to make this move and so they set the final machinery into operation. The date set for the joint congregational meeting was November 30. This meeting will be an all-day session at Hebron, and will be conducted with regular worship services in the morning, a basket lunch, and the afternoon service, closing with the official service of severing joint relations as a parish.

The joint council of the parish which has been known as the Florence Lutheran Pariah will hold its final meeting December 1st at which time they will conclude all joint business.

With this proposed program becoming a reality, each council will begin immediately to seek out and call a full time pastor, and complete all plans of the program. Each congregation will remain a body in the Kentucky-Tennessee Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America and each will have a delegate seated in Synod instead of the one as permitted under the former parish relations.

The resignation of Rev. J. Paul Rimmer the present pastor of the parish was accepted by the joint council and will become effective immediately following the joint council meeting of December 1st.

Homemakers' Schedule For October Is Full

Boone County Homemakers have planned a very full schedule for October, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie. "Time and Energy Savers in Home Sewing" will be studied by each club for their regular lesson. The newest information on home sewing equipment will be given by clothing leaders. Reservations for lunch at annual meeting will be made at local club meetings.

Several meetings have been planned for special interest groups such as garden, book and millinery.

HAMILTON P.-T. A. TO MEET

The Hamilton P.-T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday night, October 8th.

Dean Bloss will be present to demonstrate musical instruments for the purpose of organizing a Hamilton school band.

All interested parents are urged to be present.

ALL-STAR GAME SET SATURDAY

TWO TEAMS FROM SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE WILL PLAY AT BURLINGTON PARK—GAME TIME 2:30.

Managers of teams in the Boone County Sunday School Baseball League decided at a meeting Sept. 23, to play an all-star game at the Burlington park Saturday. The four northern teams, Sand Run, Bullittsville, Bullittsburg and Petersburg will complete with all-stars from the southern teams, Burlington, East Bend, Florence and Verona.

The managers picked the teams, choosing four players from each team in the loop. Joe Rouse will manage the south and Myron Garnett of Bullittsville the north. County Judge C. L. Cropper will throw out the first ball and Rev. W. T. Gardner will catch his delivery. Game time is 2:30.

Manager Myron Garnett will have the following under his control from the northern clubs: Sand Run, Bud Goodridge, Buck Jady, Bill Mahorney, and Jack Dye; Bullittsville, Joe Hogan, Joe Aylor, Hazel Walton and Bernard Marshall; Petersburg, John Carver, Marvin Campbell, Allen Berkshire and McWethy; Bullittsburg, Dick Gainer, Aylor, Olin Elliott and "T" Banes. Garnett has made no statements concerning his line-up or plans for the game.

The following umpires were chosen on basis of games they have called this season: Ray Hill from Bullittsburg, "Pip" Clore from Burlington, Wendell Ryan from Verona and Bill Stephens from East Bend. These four will alternate at the bases and behind the bat.

Fans throughout the county are invited to attend this contest and see these two picked teams battle it out. These players represent 8 eight teams, and supporters of all teams are expected to attend. Don't forget the baseball highlight of the Sunday School, a big all-star game at Burlington, Saturday, Oct. 4th at 2:30. All baseball fans invited and urged to attend.

By virtue of a 10-inning 4-3 victory over Verona, Petersburg moved into a tie with Burlington for fourth place in the final standing. Campbell, winning pitcher gave up seven hits, four of them to Ray Beach, losing hurler, who allowed but six safeties.

WORK STARTED ON NEW FIRE HOUSE

AT FLORENCE MONDAY MORNING—CELEBRATION IS PLANNED BY WOMEN'S AUXILIARY UPON COMPLETION OF JOB.

Excavation work for the basement of the new fire house in Florence was begun Monday morning at 8:30 by Taylor and Garnett, contractors, who very generously donated their labor and bulldoser.

The Florence Community Center, Inc., a non-profit corporation has been designated by the Town Council to erect the building. The first objective will be to build the basement, auditorium and kitchen, which are to be completed before bad weather, if possible.

The donations and picnic sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Fire Department have provided ample funds for the beginning of this work. An appropriate celebration is being planned by the Auxiliary upon completion of the basement. Mr. Hildreth of Crescent Springs is the architect in charge.

The citizens of Florence and surrounding communities are very grateful to Taylor & Garnett, also to those who donated money to this project. It now appears that dreams of a new firehouse are going to be realized.

FUNERAL HOMES

A SECOND HOME
A death in the family brings enough confusion into the home without the added burden of callers. Funeral homes have been designed to relieve exactly this situation. They provide all facilities for handling details, leaving the privacy of the home untouched. We ask our clients to consider our homes as a second home during this difficult period.

Holstein Cattle Club To Meet At Shelbyville Oct. 7

The Kentucky Holstein Cattle Club will hold its first consignment sale at Shelbyville, Ky., October 7, at the fair grounds.

Sixty head of cattle including open and bred heifers, cows springing and some in milk with the very best pedigrees will be offered. The sale is under the management of the club and will be directed by C. B. Smith and Co., of Williamston, Mich. Catalogues will be furnished at ringside.

FLORENCE P.-T. A. PLAN JITNEY SUPPER

Members of the Florence P.-T. A. will sponsor a Jitney Supper at the school lunchroom on Thursday, October 2nd at at 5:30 p. m.

The menu consists of barbecue sandwiches, potato salad, baked beans, corn pudding, cake and ice cream, coffee and tea.

Play ground equipment for the younger children will be purchased from proceeds of the supper.

Seventh Series Of 4-H Club Meetings Completed

The seventh in a series of 4-H Community Club meetings was completed last week, according to the County Extension office. The purpose of these meeting was two fold. One, to collect project record books and second, to make plans for community achievement meetings.

Many 4-H members failed to turn in their record books at these meetings. Those who failed to bring record books are asked to turn them in to their club president or school principal this week, September 29th-October 4th.

County project champions will be selected at the end of this week. A 4-H member must have turned in his record book before he or she can be considered for a county championship. 4-H members may mail their record books directly to the county agent's office or home agent's office.

—Publicity Chairman.

THINK TWICE

Any lending agency can appraise your property and take a safe mortgage on it but will they take care of you later, should you need a temporary loan unsecured—just your own name—to help you through an emergency? When placing your mortgage loan, it would be well to make inquiry as to future service.

This bank not only makes mortgage loans—it renders future service to its borrowers, if necessary. We are interested in the welfare of our borrowers—not just the interest paid us.

Your locker plant plays an important role in the food conservation program. It helps you do your part to prevent waste and spoilage, to spread short supplies over a longer period.

When you are ready to slaughter this fall, why risk losing your meat by changeable weather? Why eat it until you are "tired of it," to prevent spoilage?

Instead, eat only what you want and need. Let us process and freeze the rest. Next January when meat is scarce, you'll be glad you did.

RESERVE YOUR LOCKER TODAY.

VOLUME 72 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1947 — NUMBER 15

SOUTHERN ALL-STARS TRIUMPH

IN GAME SATURDAY AT BURLINGTON GROUNDS — SCORE WAS NORTHERN NINE 5, AND SOUTHERN TEAM 10.

Paced by Allen Utz and Jimmy Smith at the plate and superior pitching by Bob Brown, John Woods and Charlie Black, the southern Sunday School All-Stars defeated the Northern squad 10-5 at Burlington last Saturday. Joe Rouse of Verona was manager of the southern team and Myron Garnett of Bullittsville commanded the northern aggregation.

One of the largest baseball crowds of the current season jammed the Burlington park to view the contest.

Bob Brown, of Burlington was Rouse's choice to start the game with Bobby Patterson of the same team as his battery mate. Brown allowed one hit in the three innings he worked, striking out eight opposing hitters.

Young Marvin Campbell, of Petersburg was Garnett's first hurler with big Bob McWethy behind the bat. Campbell allowed two runs in the 3 innings he hurled.

Wood and Jimmy Smith then went in as the battery for the south to work the next three innings, followed by Black to complete the final three frames and the contest. Wood and Black both pitched fine ball as they limited the favored northern team to but five runs.

Hazel Walton, Bud Goodridge, and Joe Hogan all took turns and all looked alike to southern batsmen as they gave up the final 8 runs of the game. Buck Judy caught the final six inning for the north.

Highlights of the game were the four hits for five times up by Allen Utz and four for six by Jimmy Smith. These two lefthanded hitters accounted for 8 of the winner's ten tallies. Utz, infielder from Florence, collected 2 singles, double and triple and drove in four runs, while Smith with a home run, 2 doubles and single sent four men across the plate. The hitting for the north was equally divided among several players. Utz at short, King in left, Gaines at first, Patterson behind the plate and Aylor in the outfield turned in the defensive plays of the game.

League president Joe Rouse, and several managers stated that the All-Star game will become an annual contest at the end of each season. Rouse and other league executives expressed their thanks to all who made the All-Star game and the season a success. Plans for next year will be published in this paper at a later date.

CLEMENTS OPENS CAMPAIGN SAT.

AT MURRAY, KY.—CHARGES OPPONENT WITH ATTEMPTING TO WAGE CAMPAIGN OF HATE, DISTRUST AND DISSENSION.

Murray, Ky., Oct. 4—Charging his opponent was attempting to wage "a campaign of hate, distrust and dissension" Congressman Earle C. Clements, of Morganfield, Democratic nominee for Governor told a cheering First Congressional rally here today that "he deserves to fail—and he will fail."

For his Democratic supports the Morganfield candidate had a proise of victory in November and a pledge of "an honest, thoughtful and sincere administration." Joining with Congressman Clements in his promise of victory and reiterating pledges of active support from the platform was his opponent of the August primary, Harry Lee Waterfield, of Clinton, and Ben Kilgore of Franklin, farm leader and Waterfield's campaign chairman.

The meeting here today in Galloway county opened the Democratic state campaign in the First Congressional District. Though the crowd was made up largely of persons from the First District, there were representative delegations from throughout the state.

The Democratic nominee lost little time in assuring his supporters that he did not intend to overlook or ignore remarks made by his Republican opponent. He lashed out continuously at both the Republican nominee and the Republican party leadership and then cited the unity within the Democratic ranks as an instrument of victory.

"This Democratic gathering serves notice on the Republicans that they are at the end of their rope," Clements declared soon after he began his address and from that point on he interspersed attacks upon his opponent as he recited the platform and program that is the goal of a Democratic administration.

Turning his attention directly to the First District the Democratic nominee said "apparently the Republican high command is stupid enough to believe that here in the First District it can find fertile soil for the seeds of distrust, dissension and discord."

"Their plan is to divide and destory," he declared, "but they do not know the people of western Kentucky."

Ridiculing the campaign efforts of his opponent, Clements declared "We have long had Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum, but now we have Tweedle-Dee, Tweedle-Dum and Tweedle-Dummit."

The Democratic nominee reaffirmed positions he had taken during the party primary in regard to education, roads, public health, and other phases of the state government. He repeated again his program to bring new industries into the state and to develop and encourage the tourist business.

He was particularly specific in his remarks concerning Rural Electrification and the TVA.

"TVA and REA were never seriously threatened until the Republicans gained a majority in the national Congress" he declared and reviewed how all members of the Democratic delegation in Congress had voted to restore REA appropriations while Republican Congressmen from Kentucky had voted to slash its funds.

"I voted for the TVA enabling act as it now stands on the Kentucky Statute books," he declared, "and I shall continue to support TVA.

"I shall continue" he said, "To oppose any legislation which would make it more difficult or more burdensome for the REA or municipalities to obtain the benefits of TVA.

He recited his record in Congress as affecting agriculture and told of his assistance in enacting a bill that would bring financial security to the dark tobacco grower.

"I have the interest of the farmers at heart" he said, "My father before me was a farmer—a Kentucky farmer. By birth, by choice and training I am a farmer. I know and understand from first hand experience the problems of the farmers."

DR. TAIT TO SPEAK

Dr. W. E. Tait, Covington. will give a lecture and demonstration on 'Chromatic Optometry" at the 14th annual meeting of the Eastern Division of the Kentucky Association of Optometrists, which will be held in Lexington, Oct. 12-13.

To Conduct Revival At Florence Church

Rev. O'Ray Weeks

Revival services will be held at the Florence Baptist Church beginning October 13 and continuing through October 24th, according to Rev. Harold Wainscott, pastor. Services will be held each evening at 8:00, with Rev. O'Ray Weeks, bringing the messages.

Brother Weeks served several churches in the states before entering the army as a chaplain. He was engaged in several battles in the Pacific and took part in the occupation of Japan. After returning to the states he was called as pastor of the large Porter Memorial Baptist Church in Lexington, Ky.

He preaches the Lord Jesus Christ in a plain, simple, earnest manner.

E. A. Palmiter, well known in Northern Kentucky as a fine song leader, will be in charge of the singing.

The public is invited to all these services.

TRAINING CLASS SCHEDULED OCT. 17

AT HEBRON SCHOOL—TWO CLOTHING LEADERS FROM EACH CLUB HAVE BEEN ASKED TO ATTEND.

Two Draw Fines In Court On Drunken Driving

Two men were arrested Saturday on U. S. 25 on charges of driving their automobiles while under the influence of alcohol, according to Judge C. L. Cropper and State Patrolmen Gordon and Elliott, arresting officers.

Alfred Wade, Cincinnati, was fined $104.50 on a charge of drunken driving and dismissed after paying his fine.

Andrew Ramsey, Covington was fined $100.00 and cost on his plea of guilty to a drunken driving charge, and also bound over to the grand jury on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon in his car. A gun was found by patrolmen after making the arrest.

Both men were arrested Saturday and placed in jail until their trial on Monday.

Truck Farm Sold

Joe and Lawrence Peeno of Bullittsville, sold their 70-acre truck farm to Leslie Goode, of Crescent Springs, recently. The transaction was completed Tuesday of last week.

The Peeno Brothers have owned and successfully operated this farm for the past three years. Immediate possession was given the new owner, and the Peenos moved to Crescent Springs. They will be missed in the community and county.

Included in the sale were all growing crops, stock and tools.

Other sales made by Wayman are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart, of Wesley Chapel, Pendleton county, sold his 40-acre farm and 8 cows, team, tools and crop to Mr. Haffner, of Reading Ohio.

Jake Kuhn sold his 30-acre farm on Limaburg road to his brothers. Jake Kuhn bought the Scott home and farm on 3-L highway. Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn moved last week.

J. C. Collins, bought the Ben Finnell farm of 206 acres at Gardnersville, Pendleton County.

Burlington Baptist Services Close Friday

Revival services in progress at Burlington Baptist Church will close Friday night, according to the pastor, Rev. R. A. Johnson.

Large crowds have been in attendance nightly, and the speaker Rev. T. G. Waller, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., has brought gospel messages through the series of services. Rev. W. G. Burkett, pastor of Belleview Baptist Church is in charge of the song service and has added greatly to the spiritual feast.

The public is urged to attend the closing nights of this revival.

BOOK CLUB TO MEET

Mrs. Lee G. Marshall, of Bullittsville will entertain the Boone County Book Club on Monday, October 13th at 2:00 p. m. Readings will be given by Miss Mattie Kreylich and Mrs. S. B. Nunnelley.

UTOPIA CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Boone County Utopia Club held its regular meeting September 25 with a watermelon party at the fair grounds.

Vice President James Franklin Brown was in charge. We had a very good report from Mrs. Dickey from the last council meeting, the financial report from the fair was very good.

It was decided that the October meeting be a mask party and be held at the school house at Burlington. Plans are under way for a benefit show to raise funds for the Memorial Recreation building.

On Sunday, October 12 the Utopia Club members and any of their family and friends who want to go are to take picnic dinner and drive to Versailles, Ky., to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Forkner and family. Anyone making plans to attend, please contact Mrs. Sterling Dickey of Hebron. The plans are to meet at the Florence Drug Store between 8 a. m. and 8:30, so we all can go together. Anyone needing a way to go please call Mrs. Dickey. Please bring with you any silver and cups you will need. We will have coffee. Don't forget to bring a big basket lunch.

Let's make this a 100 per cent Utopia Club day—be there on time. Mr. Forkner writes he will look for all of his Boone County friends.

Mary Rector, Club Reporter.

ALL-STARS DRAW FIRST BLOOD SUN.

BY DEFEATING VETS 6-3 AT FLORENCE PARK—SECOND OF SERIES WILL BE PLAYED AT PETERSBURG.

The Boone County All-Stars drew first blood in the three game series to determine the winner of the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League, by defeating the Boone County Vets 6-3 at the Florence ground, Sunday afternoon.

The second game of the series will be played at Petersburg next Sunday, it was announced.

D. Ritter, on the hill for the All-Stars held the Vets to nine hits, while his teammates collected 12 hits from the offerings of Al (Dutch) Riebling of the Vets. Ritter struck out five and walked one, while Reibling struck out three and walked three.

Albert Sebree, left fielder for the Vets suffered a broken collar bone in the game, when he made a shoe-string catch of a line drive to left field.

John Benke, league president, gave a short talk then tossed out the first ball to get the game under way.

New Haven Announces First Game Of Season

The first basketball game of the season will be held Tuesday evening October 15th at New Haven school, when Coach Maurer's Bloomer girls from Burlington will play New Haven Band-ettes (girls) coached by Nate Clements.

This slug-fest will start at 7:30 p. m. and will be followed by a game between New Haven varsity and the Alumni team. Come and see what kind of team New Haven has this year.

This is a benefit game given for the benefit of the New Haven Band. The Boone County School Band will play for this contest.

Millinery Workshop Meeting Set Oct. 14th

Anyone interested in making a new hat or adding a feather to an old one is invited to a millinery workshop. The class will be held on Tuesday, October 14th, 10:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. at the Town Hall in Florence.

The series of millinery workshops are being sponsored by the Florence Homemakers.

Those interested are asked to bring sewing equipment, material to cover a hat frame or old hat, to be remodeled and a covered dish.

Fox Hunters To Hold Show And Field Trials

The Grant County Fox Hunters' Association will hold their bench show and field trials at Williamstown, October 20, 21, 22, and 23rd, it was announced this week.

The bench show will be held October 20th at 8 p. m. and field trials October 21, 22, 23. Derby dogs and all age will be run together, but scored separately.

This meet is open to the world, so bring your best dogs. For further details call Jay Webster, Walton 1240.

S. L. Moore, of Newport, Ky., was a visitor here last Thursday morning, and while in town called at this office, having his subscription moved up another year.

Boone County Band Makes Good Showing At Aurora Fair

Last Saturday at Aurora Farmers' Street Fair the Boone County Band made its best showing of the present season and the best ever at the fair.

After the morning parade, the band played a concert at the bandstand. Several special numbers were heard. Vera Dean Scott and Howard Dean Ross sang several duets, Ella Jean Rogers and Junior Walton played a trumpet duet and Bobby Black played a saxophone solo. Norma Jarboe in her new uniform performed brilliantly with the band in the morning and led the Columbia System Band in the afternoon.

This side of the river had reason to be proud of their band Saturday.

WILL YOU HELP KENTUCKY PROGRESS?

Here is the question as it will appear on the ballot:

"Are you in favor of the calling of a convention for the purpose of revising or amending the present Constitution of Kentucky, and such amendments as may have been made to the same?"

Many people will vote "yes" to obtain the following important revisions:

1. To Give All Kentucky Children a Better Change for Education. Permit a greater proportion than the present 10 percent of the state school funds to be made available to equalize (improve) educational opportunities of children in rural areas.

2. To Put More Children in School. Improve school attendance by requiring the per capita school funds to be distributed to each county on the basis of the average number of pupils actually in school instead of on the basis of number of children of school age, many of whom are not in school.

3. To Make Possible a Progressive Long-Range Program in Education. Permit the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to serve more than a four-year term and thereby avoid the present constant changing of administrative policies in our public school system.

4. To Take Education Out of Politics. Have the Superintendent of Public Instruction appointed by the State Board of Education. Make his qualifications educational and administrative instead of political.

5. To Compensate the Families of Working Men in Cases of Accident. Permit the enactment of adequate compulsory workman's compensation laws for protection of employees who suffer injuries.

6. Provide for Better Health and Welfare Services. Permit cooperative effort between State and local governments in the performance of the services.

7. To Attract and Retain Capable Public Officials. Give authority to the Legislature to adjust, within reasonable limits, the salaries of judges and other principal public officials so as to reflect changes in the cost of living.

8. To Stop the Abuses of the FEE SYSTEM. Abolish the extravagant system under which the state recently paid a fee of $370,000.00 to three lawyers for collecting back taxes against a railroad.

9. To Reduce the Number of Elections. Permit the holding of county, state and federal elections at the same time. (this is done in other states) thereby avoiding the heavy expense of having primary and general elections every year.

10. To Permit Greater HOME RULE for Cities. Our cities are required to obtain permission from the General Assembly every time a minor change in organization is needed.

11. To Reduce the Cost of Government. Make it permissible, upon approval of the voters affected, to consolidate overlapping agencies of government, and make such other non-controversial changes in the constitution as will increase efficiency and reduce the present high cost of state government.

If the people vote "yes" for a constitutional convention, the delegates, one from each of the 100 Legislative Districts, will be elected next year. The convention will meet in 1949.

The Revised Constitution, as adopted by the convention, will come back to the people for their approval or rejection. It cannot go into effect until it has received a vote of approval.

These are the ways in which you can help in this campaign.

1. Note the shortcomings of our present constitution and talk about them to your friends and to the various groups in which you are active.
2. Urge everyone to vote "yes."
3. Ask your editor to give editorial support and publicity.

THINK TWICE

Any lending agency can appraise your property and take a safe mortgage on it but will they take care of you later, should you need a temporary loan unsecured—just your own name—to help you through an emergency? When placing your mortgage loan, it would be well to make inquiry as to future service.

This bank not only makes mortgage loans—it renders future service to its borrowers, if necessary. We are interested in the welfare of our borrowers—not just the interest paid us.

Apostle of Better Things

Lesson for October 12, 1947

THIS lesson opens, Hebrews 3:1-6, with the explanation that Jesus Christ is the minister of better things in that he is the apostle and high priest of our profession, perfectly faithful to him that appointed him. The comparison is made with Moses, who was also faithful, but within a very small circle as contrasted with the Son of God.

Called to God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec, Christ, the author of eternal salvation, dealt no longer with symbols, but offered himself as the perfect lamb to take away our sins. "And for this cause he is the mediator of the new covenant (testament), that by means of death, for the redemptions of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance," Hebrews 9:15.

• • •

Jesus and the Bible

JESUS is introduced in Matthew 4:1-4, as he quotes the Old Testament to Satan in the wilderness temptation. Having been reared by a God-fearing mother, Jesus was familiar with the Bible as a child.

What is the best thing any parent can do for his or her child? I would answer without hesitation: Teach them to hide God's words in their hearts in the impressionable years of youth. A Bible verse learned in youth will serve through all life's testing situations.

"I will not forget Thy Word," Psalms 119:16.

• • •

He Helps Us Use the Bible

THE better ministry of Jesus is reflected in the fact that, "We have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God. . . . For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need," Hebrews 4:14-16.

Study the example of Jesus in his answers to Satan in the wilderness temptation, and He will teach us when and what to say to Satan. We are not dependent upon our wisdom and words. Our great high priest will supply wisdom and words to match any situation that Satan ever presents.

I think of a story of a junior boy, recently accused of stealing. The boy was the victim of a wicked man who sought to turn circumstantial evidence upon him to cover his own sin. The boy told me that he was innocent. I went with him to the juvenile court. The judge asked him if he was guilty. He looked straight into the eyes of the judge and said:

"Sir, I have not sinned. Who convicteth me of this charge?"

The man dropped his head, and said: "Your honor, I ask for the privilege of withdrawing the charge."

• • •

His Laws In Our Hearts

"I WILL put my laws on their hearts, and upon their minds also will I write them," Hebrews 10:16. Jesus declares, "I do always the things that please him," and he enables us, by his grace, to do the father's will by his indwelling in our hearts. Thus, his will becomes the law of our lives, through the grace of Jesus Christ.

It is impossible for us to keep the law perfectly, but Christ, the better Christ, becomes our righteousness, and then his law is kept by his grace. In the olden times, men claimed to keep the letter of the law, without the spirit, as in the case of Moses. Now, through the offering of Christ, we are enabled to satisfy the spirit of the law.

• • •

The Sufficient Christ

THIS lesson should enhearten every trusting child of God, since it makes clear that, "He is able to save unto the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him," Hebrews 7:25.

He is not only able, but yearns to save unto the uttermost. He wills to save everyone. God has done everything he can do to save every sentient soul on this earth. Those who go to hell do so because they decide to go to hell. It is not the pleasure of God that any should perish, but that all should repent and be saved.

GIVES LIST OF WAYS TO CUT FOOD COSTS

With food prices soaring, the biggest problem of the housewife is how to cut the grocery bill and yet provide nourishing meals for the family. A consistent use of thrifty practices will make a worthwhile difference in the monthly food bill, according to food specialists at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Here are some of their recommendations:

1. Plan meals for several days at a time, in order to buy more economically.
2. Buy large cuts of meat to serve in a variety of ways.
3. Learn to recognize cuts of meat; then buy less tender and less costly cuts frequently, cooking them slowly for tenderness and flavor.
4. When roasts are prepared, place them in an uncovered pan and roast at low temperature, 325 degrees, to prevent unnecessary shrinkage.
5. Make the most of the flavor of meat by preparing it with cereals, vegetables, or dried or lima beans as stretchers.
6. Combine cooked left-over meat with spaghetti, noodles, or rice in casseroles, creamed dishes or in croquettes.
7. Use chicken fat, or fat from other fowl, in biscuits, cakes or pies.
8. Make frequent use of liver, tongue and heart and other variety meats, as well as fresh and canned fish of different kinds.
9. Buy staples in large quantity.
10. Cook vegetables in their skins
11. Use liquids from cooked vegetables in gravies, sauces and soups.
12. Make at home your own sandwich fillings of meat or cheese, and cakes, pies and cookies.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION
By J. C. Acree

No doubt one of the best pieces of reclaiming land in Boone and Gallatin counties was completed last week on the Ewbanks farm in Gallatin County. Ryle recently purchased a farm that had 36 acres of good rich bottom land on it but was too wet for cultivation. By placing a large diversion ditch at the toe of the hill he is diverting the water that runs off a 50-acre hill from the bottom land. In addition a ditch was cut at the lowest elevation in the bottom and carries off excess water from the bottom. These ditches were cut in the width of a bulldozer blade so they will not interfere with traveling across them. This work was done under soil conservation technicians assisting as Ryle has all of his farms planned. At a cost of $450 it is estimated that the first year's return will net him three times the actual cost above the normal yield. A terrace will be constructed in the cultivated area as soon as the year's crop is removed.

On another farm of a similar make-up another ditch the width of the bulldozer blade was made. This ditch will protect 15 acres of alfalfa and 5 gullies that cannot be driven over will be eliminated. There are thousands of acres in Gallatin and Boone Counties like these that can be reclaimed. It will pay you to inspect this piece of work.

By the way, Ryle said that he read this column but it reminded him of a story about the "Three Bulls." It seems that Farmer Brown had three bulls. Big Bull, Middle Size Bull, (No mammie bull) and Baby Bull. (Writer notes forty years ago, we younguns were taught to say butt-cows, not bulls), but times have changed. Anyway the gate was open and the three bovines started down the road like they do in East Bend. After a short stroll. Big Bull says, "I'm going back, the grass is as good in Master Brown's pasture," so the other two went on for another half mile and the Middle Sized Bull said, "I too am going back. I've seen enough." So little Bull went on down the road by himself. Of course the moral of this story and this week's thinker is—A little "Butt Cow" goes a long way.

BURLINGTON ROAD HOMEMAKERS MEET

The first meeting of the 1947-48 year of the Burlington Road Homemakers' club was held September 11 at the home of Mrs. J. D. Northcutt. At this meeting 10 members paid dues for the coming year.

Home Demonstration Agent Mary Hood Gillaspie gave an interesting discussion on the Constitution of Kentucky and suggested that the club study different phases of Kentucky each month, such as Kentucky's music, scenic spots, etc. Mrs. Northcutt, who had attended the style show at Coppin's in August, gave a very interesting discussion on the different style trends for fall and winter, illustrating with colored pictures of each.

Reservations were made for annual meeting to be held in October and plans were made for the play to be given by the Burlington Road club. This will be a hilarious one-act comedy entitled "In Judge Martha Gab's Court."

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF "TOBACCO ROAD"

To the large public interested in "Tobacco Road" and the clan Lester, absent from these parts for more than a year, the impending visit of this indomitable little opus, at the Cox Theatre, Cincinnati, for the week beginning Monday night, October 13, is providing welcome news.

Again cheering the drama outposts with the hilariously funny saga of the Jetter Lesters and their unsuccessful battle with nature, these daggletailed sharecroppers have been telling and retelling their story thousands of times in thousands of places for thirteen years and seem destined to go on telling it till doomsday.

Beginning back in 1933, the first Lesters told the story for eight years on Broadway, running up an all-time record of 3,180 consecutive performances. Hordes of good Equity members have played the various roles since the show first opened, but the play itself is the magnet that fetches the burghers up on the run wherever the Lesters are on exhibition.

Arthur Hunnicut, who appeared last season on Broadway in Moss Hart's "Christopher Blake," will be seen in the role of Jetter. Among others in the cast are Vinnie Phillips, Sara Perry, Walt Draper, Virginia Vincent, Gaye Hilliard, Kathleen Claypool, Robert Van Hooton and Jess Sidney.

For the convenience of out of town patrons, the prices, including taxes are: Evenings, orchestra $2.40, balcony $1.80, $1.20, 60c.

Wednesday and Saturday matiness, orchestra $1.80, balcony $1.20, 60c.

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manners to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter?

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself.) Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact. But what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

Wait Till They "Unite"

The problems confronting the Government and Congress during the past seven months have been terrible: meaning that the affairs of the people were all out of joint and that the American systems of life were in a state of chaos. The World War had been won, but even now there isn't a very bright prospect that peace will be restored, inasmuch as United Nations of the World are not united.

New Levels For The Future

Early in 1947 the new President and the new Congress "resolved" to give politics a vacation and pull together to restore the rights of the people. The grand hullucination seemed to be "homes for soldiers," despite the fact that "homes" jumped in prices and sold for about three times as much as before the war. Rents, lands and food kept going up, and the "high cost of living" floored millions of good people who couldn't find a way to get money enough to live on. What happened? Lawlessness was reported from every part of the country.

New Labor Law Gains Public Approval

Union labor bosses were riding high-horses at the end of 1946, and there was always a strike somewhere in the United States. Congress accepted the challenge and worked out a new labor law. Labor bosses were so defiant that the courts were called on to defend law and order. The coal miners suffered well-deserved judicial spankings. John L. Lewis never let up until "his ears were pinned back." He and other bosses missed the support of FDR, who always selected new boards, mediators. The less temperamental Truman "sat tight" and agreed to let Congress "do something about it." But when the only sane labor legislation since the passage of the Wagner Act was passed up to the President he caved-in and vetoed the legislation. Whereupon the Congress overrode the veto. The bosses sputtered and threatened—but now they are beginning to behave.

A few weeks have passed. Employers and employes are getting along much better and there is every prospect that rules of reason—collective bargaining and conciliation will "come back" in time.

The wage levels are not likely to go higher. Price levels are apparently being set to a level with wages. Those levels will be permanent in all kinds of large and small business.

A dollar bill will never be worth 100 cents again. And the taxes that big and little people and business institutions "used-to-pay" will never come again. It will be $10 to the $1 of old-times.

Dumbbells Are Doubling

A Presidential Commission on higher education is said to have made this alarming discovery that the intelligence of the American people is declining. If this turns out to be true, it is quite probable that the federal government will dip deeper into the American education system for the purpose of increasing its quality and quantity.

No one has taken the floor, up to date, to suggest that a decline of intelligence in America may be due to the same causes that have been proved in England, when feeble-minded people have increased so rapidly that the dumbbells will double within the next fifty years.

Don't you suppose that two World Wars are at the very bottom of our decline of intelligence? Anyway, you can figure out why the head of the Federal Populations Reference Bureau, Guy Irving Burch, summarized the results of many intelligence investigations made by American educators. Mr. Burch says:

"If these limited tests hold true for the whole nation, one-third of the American people are better intellectually than dull or backward. Forty percent have normal intelligence; twenty-seven percent have superior intelligence."

There Is No Blinking

Secretary of State Marshall is a straight shooter and hits the mark oftener than any other man in this administration. Here is something work "blinking." Marshall told the Governor's conference:

"There is no blinking of the fact that this country now stands at a turning point in its relations to its traditional friends among the nations of the Old World."

Russia has split the World in two. Certainly, the United States can't continue its great effort to "save the World," unless the World helps to save itself.

We saved those old buddies of ours by winning two wars for them. So, they had best help win the peace.

Notes and Comments

From the Editor's Desk

Believe it or not there is more interest in National politics today than usual. That is a good sign, as it indicates that the public is very critical of both of the old political parties. It seems as though an unusual number of the "best men" will win in the 1948 elections independent of political parties, and small politics. It is pleasant to report that Federal officials, including Senators and Representatives, are being judged on their merits.

• • • •

Very Interesting

American families throughout the United States are accepting margarine as first-class food. The United States Government says that it contains as much nourishment as butter. And that makes it possible for people who won't pay around a dollar a pound for butter to buy margarine at its low price.

• • • •

Longer or Shorter?

Public opinion is having a "peppery" effect upon the question of whether women's skirts should be longer, but the argument has been stopped about half way between the knees and the shoe tops. An original "Little Below the Knee Club" in Chicago is being shown in the pictures. All right with us, gals!

• • • •

Building Volume Increases

In the first 9 months of 1947, construction in place totaled more than $9 billion, as compared with less than $7 billion for the same period of 1946.

The U. S. Commerce Department predicts that the industry will produce an even greater volume of work than the $12 billion total now estimated for 1947.

The mounting strength of the demand for construction in the face of the current price level has amazed those who had predicted a recession in building. Leaders of the industry say that present prices will hold for some time, being based upon wage rates and material costs which are relatively inflexible.

Apparently any improvement must come from greater efficiency and technical advances in the art, both of which are long-term developments.

"Trial Loans" To Europe

One memorable day a committee of bankers from New York called at the White House in Washington and asked the President to cancel the European debts. Calvin Coolidge was the President and when the bankers were through he made his answer: "Well, they hired the money, didn't they?" The bankers had to admit that their conference was a failure. Now, we are hearing about "trial loans" to Europe.

Is Uncle Sam A Good Agriculturist

The United States Government buys a tremendous amount of grain and food products and ships it abroad to feed hungry foreigners. Inasmuch as the Government is the largest single purchaser of farm products it naturally pays top prices, that keep on getting higher all the time. The guy that gets punished is the American consumer. It is very easy to second the statement that "the housewife and her Government are competitors in the nation's food market."

Everybody, except brutal Russia, wants to help the stricken nations of Europe get back in their old stride and look after themselves. And a good many of us share the positive belief that America's own housewives, especially those with a limited family income, should have the preference in prices—even though the Secretary of Agriculture is the modern Santa Claus for hungry foreigners.

The United States didn't make this war. The United States won the European and Asiatic wars. And in the individual opinion of this Washington correspondent our poor, and underpaid people of the United States should not be crushed under the weight of unreasonable and unfair food prices.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by Dean Bloss and the Boone County School Band. All interested persons are urged and invited to attend.

PASTURE SAVES POULTRY FEED

A feeding test made at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station shows that it pays to have green pasture for poultry, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

While it is late in the season for bluegrass pasture, plans should be made for supply such pasture next spring and summer to save costly feeds. Hens on bluegrass pasture in the spring ate 20 percent less feed than in a dry lot.

Rye makes an excellent pasture during the winter and will save up to 12 per cent of the mash normally consumed.

In all cases, hens on pasture or silage laid more eggs than those that did not have it.

SAM GUARD MAKES PLEA

FOR NEW STATE CONSTITUTION IN FULL-PAGE ARTICLE IN OCTOBER ISSUE OF "THE KENTUCKY FARMER."

Louisville, Ky. Oct. 11—"I for one am tired of having Kentucky rated the 47th State, or a backward state at all," says Samuel R. Guard, Editor of "Breeder's Gazette" in his plea for "A New Constitution for Kentucky."

In a full-page article in the October issue of "The Kentucky Farmer," Mr. Guard points out that it has been 56 years since Kentucky has had a Constitutional Convention. "Vast have been the changes in that time—two world wars, the automobile, the radio, the atomic bomb.

"In anything Kentucky has the resources, the soil, the climate, the geographical position, the tradition, and most of the people, the human stuff, to stand among the No. 1 states of the nation. Let us now write a modern Constitution that will enable us to stand among the most progressive, forward-looking, high-purposed, leaderly, achieving states of the United States."

Mr. Guard's article is prompted by the non-partisan question to be voted on in the forthcoming election:

"Are you in favor of the calling of a Constitutional Convention for the purpose of revising or amending the present Constitution of Kentucky, and such amendments as may have been made to the same?"

To call a Constitutional Convention it will require a fourth of the State's qualified voters or approximately 160,000 people to vote "Yes" on November 4th, the article points out.

The Campaign Committee for a Kentucky Constitutional Convention has mantained that Kentucky's "out-of-date" Constitution will not permit school funds to be distributed fairly; education to be taken out of politics. It has further stated that "Kentucky voters lose $500,000 every two years through inefficient election methods.

HOMEMAKERS PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

COMMUNITY MEET PLANNED OCT. 16

FOR RESIDENTS OF FLORENCE—FIRE PREVENTION PLANS FOR FUTURE WILL BE PRESENTED AT SESSION.

The Florence Fire Hall Building Fund Committee invites the residents of Florence to attend a meeting at the Town Hall on Thursday, October 16, at 8:00 p. m. The committee will report the progress that has been made and will present its plans for the future.

Construction has begun on the Florence Fire Hall and Community Center building. For years the Florence Volunteer Fire Department has had no home it could call its own. The Martin brothers have been most generous and hospitable, having housed the fire engines when they could not really spare the space. The new building will provide adequate room for all the equipment Florence will need for many years to come. It will be possible to keep the equipment ready for immediate use. The building will have an automatic heating system to prevent damage by freezing. There will be space for a tool room and shop where minor repairs may be made. Provisions for storing small pieces of equipment will insure against unnecessary damage.

The firemen will have a place in which to meet and to entertain firemen from neighboring towns. At these meetings they may receive instruction in new fire fighting methods, discuss the prevention of fires, treatment of injuries, new equipment, and many other matters of vital concern to them and to the residents of Florence.

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department is not supported by tax money. The firemen give their services voluntarily and the residents of Florence benefit by reduced fire insurance rates and have protection in event of fire.

The basement will be provided with a kitchen for the preparation of food for dinners, luncheons and banquets. The assembly room can be used for meetings, entertainments, exhibits, picture shows, or any other gathering of public interest. Local clubs and organizations may wish to use it for a meeting place. An outside entrance makes possible entrance to the basement without passing through the fire equipment room.

Some of the residents of Florence may not realize the service rendered by this small group of men who rush to the fire engine whenever the fire siren blows. Day or night, fair weather or foul, they respond when a fire calls them. In past years they have made calls for help in buying equipment. They have achieved remarkable results with what has been provided them. The response to the call for money to erect this new building has been most gratifying. Some persons may have been missed when the members of the committee were out visiting—they will not be overlooked. Everyone in Florence will have an opportunity to help.

The women have been busy. The Women's Auxiliary has contributed a substantial sum to the building fund. It is understood that the men are planning to organize a Booster Club to help raise money for the building.

The Florence Fire Hall and Community Center will belong to the residents of Florence. They will pay for it. They will benefit by it. They will use it. They will be proud of it. They are urged to attend the meeting on Thursday evening.

UNIQUE SHOW TO BE GIVEN AT HEBRON

An unusual entertainment will be given at the Hebron high school auditorium, October 18 at 8:00 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Hebron Luther League with the Sunday School class and choir.

SCRIPTURE: Hebrews 11—13; Genesis 15:5, 6.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 4: 1-8.

Creative Power of Faith

Lesson for October 19, 1947

THIS lesson takes us to the Westminster Abbey of the Bible—Hebrews, eleventh through the thirteenth chapters—to meditate for a season upon the valiant souls in the long ago who obtained a good report as they stood at the passage of destiny and sounded the trumpets of triumph, even the trumpets of faith.

Dr. Newton

The reader will be richly rewarded to stop right here and open his or her Bible and read these three chapters. Your attention will be riveted to the word, faith.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of "things which do appear." Hebrews 11:1-3.

* * *

A Journey to a New Land

I WANT the boys and girls to look at the passage which describes how Abraham, "when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went."

How could Abraham leave his pleasant situation in Ur? Through faith in God, and that alone. A memory verse is here suggested: "I will trust, and will not be afraid," Isaiah 12:2. Abraham might well have been afraid of unknown enemies, of disease, of poverty. Men do become afraid of these things, unless their faith is in God. But Abraham believed in God—had faith in God. And he went forth, holding the hand of God.

There is creative power in such a faith. Abraham discovered that every step he took was accompanied by God. He built altars. He talked with God, and God talked with him. Such will be the experience of every boy and girl who stakes his or her all upon implicit faith in God.

* * *

What Faith Can Do

INTERMEDIATES are considering what they will do with their lives. It is the vitally important period when they are wistfully considering a life career. This lesson would seem to clearly indicate that God has a purpose and plan for each life. He will reveal that plan to those who trust him for guidance. Faith in God at this point is absolutely essential if we are to live victoriously.

Read again the eleventh chapter of Hebrews and see how these heroes of faith in the long ago cast themselves wholly into the will of God for their lives. We can have no doubt about their ultimate success.

Parents and teachers are here reminded of their solemn responsibility in pointing intermediate boys and girls to the truth of Sunday's lesson. Life is too valuable, too fleeting, to be frittered away in purposeless drifting.

Faith is the bright shaft of God's presence and power to guide young people into his will. It is the unfailing light to direct their steps daily. It is the creative power to sustain them each step of the way.

* * *

This Power at Work

TAKE any one of the characters portrayed in these three chapters of Hebrews and see how faith in God produced men and women who changed the course of history.

Young people are interested in biography. I would commend to you the lives of the great men and women of modern times, who lived in the creative power of faith in God.

John Wesley, for example. There was a man whose life, when strangely warmed by the spirit of God, lifted England from the depths of secularism and set her feet once more on the highway of worthy achievement.

Martha Berry is another splendid example. Miss Berry devoted her life to God's will and purpose to open doors of opportunity to the under-privileged boys and girls of the southern mountain areas. Today, at Mt. Berry, stands a school with the largest campus in the world—a school which reveals what one life can accomplish when that life is built by the creative power of faith in the Living God.

"Take my life and let it be, Consecrated, Lord, to Thee!"

FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

LOOK FOR THIS QUESTION ON YOUR BALLOT

"Are you in favor of the calling of a convention for the purpose of revising or amending the present Constitution of Kentucky, and such amendments as may have been made to the same?" YES [X] NO [ ]

VOTE "YES" BECAUSE UNDER OUR PRESENT "OUT-OF-DATE" CONSTITUTION

No. 1 School funds cannot be distributed fairly.

No. 2 Education cannot be taken out of politics.

No. 3 Kentucky voters lose $500,000 every two years through inefficient election methods.

BOTH PARTY CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR AGREE WE NEED A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

4-H BOY MAKES GIFT LAMBS PAY

A profit of $49.88 on a gift of four lambs was made by Charles Long, 13, president of the East End 4-H Club in Boyle county. When four ewes belonging to a neighbor, Walter Murphy, had triplets, he gave one lamb from each set to the 4-H'er, who raised them on a bottle. When the lambs were sold, they brought a total of $74.88. After deducting the pasture and feed cost, Charles had a profit of almost $50.

SUGGESTS ATTRACTIVE ENTRANCES FOR FARMS

Entrances to Kentucky farms generally will be made more inviting and attractive if suggestions made to homemakers clubs by Prof. N. R. Elliott, expert in horticulture at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, are carried out. In most instances, improvement can be made at small cost, Mr. Elliott pointed out, stating that the best looking farm entrance is the one that is comparatively simple, yet carefully planned.

Mr. Elliott listed five steps for checking: 1. An approach as near level as possible from highway to farm. 2. Wide entrance curves to permit a gradual turn from either side. 3. A new-type pit gate, or a well made swinging gate hung from two posts set far enough in the driveway to permit a car to clear the highway before the gate is opened. 4. Appropriate plantings on either side of the entrance, but not overdone. 5. A mail box painted white, set on a good post, with the name of the farmer painted in black on both sides.

FARMER FURNISHES COMMUNITY WATER

Laying 1,600 feet of pipe, Herschel Evans, a farmer of Graves county is furnishing water to 16 families in the Farmington community from his 170-foot deep well, equipped with electric pump and 600-gallon tank. Because of the improved water supply, several families are installing bathrooms. Mrs. Evans a member of the Farmington Homemakers Club, told Home Agent Claudia Weinman that people don't know what they have missed until they've had running water in their homes, and then they wouldn't be without it.

HOME-SEWING CUTS COST OF CLOTHING

The high cost of clothing was reduced by an estimated $7,484 by homemakers in Daviess county, who did an unusual amount of home sewing the past year, after receiving instructions in their clubs. Records show they made 2,666 new garments, 33 tailored suits and coats and 134 accessories. Then they remodeled 1,981 articles of clothing and 362 hats.

Following a series of four lessons on how to make slipcovers, 267 chairs and davenports were slipcovered, 172 pieces were padded and 38 chairs were changed in style. As a carry-over from the preceding year when rug making was studied, 74 braided rugs and 95 hooked rugs were made.

Landscaping, health and business affairs of the home were other projects studied by the 461 members of the 17 clubs in the county, according to Home Agent Kathryn Shelby.

GREYHOUND EXECUTIVE USES TWO-WAY RADIO

J. W. Powell, Assistant to the President of Great Lakes Greyhound Lines, is pictured above as he demonstrated a two-way radio unit to L. A. Bertling, of the Detroit branch of the Cadillac Motor Car Company, upon delivery to Powell of a radio-equipped Oldsmobile. The unit enables Powell to be in contact with Greyhound dispatches and drivers at all times. This private car unit is keyed to a widespread radio installation on Great Lakes Greyhound Lines.

SAYS FARMERS COULD GROW FRUIT AT HOME

A small home orchard would supply the farm family with fruit through the summer, fall and winter, and then probably some to sell, says W. W. Magill, extension field agent of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

He suggests setting 18 to 20 apple trees about 30 feet each way in late November or in December. Varieties according to time of harvest could be: May and June, Transparent, Early Harvest and Henry Clay; for July picking, Red June and Wealthy; for August, Malden Blush, Polly Eades and Wealthy; for September and October, Red Delicious, Paducah, Jonathon and Grimes Golden, and for November to March use, Yellow or Golden Delicious, Stayman, Turley, Winesap, Rome, York Imperial and Black Ben or Gano.

Sixteen peach trees might be set in the home orchard. Magill suggests the number include four Belle of Georgia, two each of Alton or Carman, July Heath and South Haven, and one each of Mayflower, Red Bird, Golden Jubilee, Elberta and Hale.

The cherry variety should be Montmorency. Then four plum trees might be planted, including Blue Damson and one each of Green Gage and Wild Goose. The 11 grapevines should include six Concord and one each of Moore Early, Worden, Delaware, Catawba and Niagara.

MECHANICAL PICKERS MAY MEAN ACCIDENTS

Kentucky farmers are using a large number of mechanical corn-pickers this fall. As a result, farm accidents may increase, unless extreme care is exercised in using these machines. Here are some suggestions offered by agricultural engineers at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics:

1. Corn picker rolls should always be stopped before clearing them.
2. Never oil or adjust the picker while it is in motion.
3. Keep all shields in place.
4. Avoid wearing long coats, loose fitting gloves or other clothing which may catch in revolving parts.
5. It is especially important that all machines be carefully checked for mechanical defects or repairs before they are taken to the field.

PRIMES 300 POUNDS OF BURLEY TO ACRE

Lander Bryant of Adair County primed about 300 pounds of burley tobacco to the acre this season. Most of it would have been lost had he not stripped it off the stalks in the field, he assured County Agent R. B. Rankin. When inspected by the county agent, the primings were curing up in a straw-yellow color and soon would be ready to tie in hands and bulk down to hold this color until market time.

After priming, the Bryant tobacco was allowed to stand until fully ripe. It then cured with a bright color, Agent Rankin said.

RECORD ANNOUNCED FOR STATION HERD

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced that the 14-cow herd of registered Holsteins at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington has completed a year on test with an average of 492 pounds of butterfat and 14,602 pounds of milk. Milking was done twice daily.

Highest producer was 5-year-old Double Isabelle, which produced 715 pounds of butterfat and 21,079 pounds of milk.

PRIMED LEAF WORTH $250

Hollie Royalty and Son of Mercer county primed an estimated 500 pounds from one and eight-tenths acres, worth, they hope, about $250. This would be $20 a day for each day spent pulling off the lower leaves as they ripened. In previous seasons their primed tobacco sold for 51 to 58 cents a pound.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

By David M. Porter

"Gone are the days when my heart was young and gay," for there may be no future and we cannot live in the past. Why do we live and work? Toward what does our ambition point? I believe toward happiness and contentment, security for ourselves and future generations. But how can we have these things with the selfishness, lust and greed of a Dictator who has no love of God, no sense of justice, and no regard for humane rights, re-announcing his declared purpose of a World Revolution to overthrow all Governments not Communistic. No longer is it a question of just what is good for the town or county or even the State or the Nation, but of the rights of people and their protection. We love our home, our State, and have a pride in our Nation, and we must think more on national affairs and not just on local ones. Does labor when it strikes strike against the people and the Government, or are they hitting a blow for Stalin? Does the Capitalist in his greed oppress and squeeze out opportunity for the working man? These are things we have to think on and vote on and soon I am afraid, act on, because our world and our way of life is at the cross-roads. How can a labor leader refuse to taken an oath that he is not a Communist? How can be condone such action? The lack of interest in this election is appalling and I ask you as thinking people with a love of freedom to take more interest in your Government and vote in this and all elections.

The so-called rift in the Democratic party, according to Ben Adams, prominent Western Kentucky politician, is non-existent and the talk of it was brought about by the oversight of Tom Underwood and the sensitiveness of Harry Lee Waterfield. Party chieftains claim that Governor Willis was elected because of a rift in their party ranks and they are supersensitive about it happening again. Waterfield took the long trek up to Morehead to introduce Earle Clements and when the train was late he got on the platform and spoke for him and party harmony. Through an unintentional oversight he was not specifically invited to the Murray rally, each of the committee thinking that some other member had done this and taking it for granted that he would be there. Harry did not appear but things have been smoothed over and there will be no open break.

The Republicans have gained some headway in the last few days, I think for two reasons. Eldon Dummit is a colorful campaigner and is drawing larger and larger crowds and there is the beginning of a change in the sentiment at Frankfort. The Republicans are beginning to talk of victory and have gotten over the defeatist complex they had after the primary. They are starting to work together. If the Republican Women's Clubs and the State machine begins to actually work, it may turn into a "horse race" instead of a runaway.

Random Shots—John Sherman Cooper is not going to Europe until after the election. He plans to spend all of his time in Kentucky campaigning for the present Governor's race with an eye probably on his race next year. A smart move. . . . Earle Clements may start firing fusillades instead of sling-shot pellets for the rest of his campaign, and if he does you will see a hot and interesting campaign, for he can hold his own in any State stumping oratory. . . . Senator Alben Barkley will add to the color of the campaign with a number of speeches before the election in November . . . It looks like the proponents of a new Constitution are losing in their fight to gain the interest of the people. . . . Congratulations to Ben Wood, President of Brentlawn Harness Racing Association, for starting something that is going to mean a lot to Kentucky and the County and State Fairs. Night racing is exciting and colorful and will help to revive that form of sport more than anything else.

Leland Hall of Rowan county has a field of Kentucky 31 fescue, ladino and red clover which he plans to pasture for six to eight years.

PROBLEMS OF LUMBER INDUSTRY REVIEWED

Problems of lumber production in Eastern Kentucky and suggestions for improvement are made in the annual report of the University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station.

Forests occupy about 70 percent of the land in Breathitt county and adjacent areas. Principal products are cross-ties, specialty logs, staves and mine props. The report says that "in selling their products there are many problems and returns to the owners of timber are limited.

"This is true because, among other things, (1) small mills operating on sparse timber and on limited capital do not produce enough to encourage continuous or systematic marketing; (2) many operators of processing equipment do not have the ability and machinery necessary to produce well-manufactured products, and (3) the products offered, especially the lumber, do not sell well in competition with products from the large mills which are still cutting virgin timber in parts of Eastern Kentucky and competing regions.

"The position can be improved by better processing, so as to increase the value of timber locally, by a less costly system of handling and marketing, and by educational work and continuous guidance which will coordinate logging and marketing with sound forestry practices and management."

Mother nature gives the birds miscroscopic eyes to see tiny grain from a distance, and how she cares for us humans.

For instance, when we bruise our feet by wearing poorly constructed or ill fitted shoes. Nature sets up protective layers, corns, callouses and bunions, at the point where the attack is directed, and by means of pain telegraphs the brain that danger is at hand and how do we respond to nature's signal? Usually, by padding these protective layers or paring them. This of course, does relieve the pain but does NOT remove the cause of the trouble. Corns, callouses and bunions are merely symptoms telling you there is something wrong inside your feet.

Permanent relief will be obtained when you relieve pressure on delicate nerves and tissue, when you straighten up weak, inrolling feet that throw the strain of weight bearing into the outer arch. So, if you would really get at the bottom of your foot ills, by all means, see our foot comfort specialists — they will make a scientific foot analysis of your foot. Then foot comfort is absolutely assured.—Adv.

140 Million Capitalists

"Soak the Rich" used to be quite a popular slogan in some quarters. Whether the same words are used today, the same idea still appeals to a large number of people. The plan put forward by these folks boils down to one main issue: limit the incomes of citizens in the high brackets and divide it among the other people. By putting more money in the hands of more people they hope to attain a greater prosperity.

However, this economic Utopia theory runs afoul of economic fact and economic law. Its basic platform is hinged on the idea that most of the nation's money is held by a comparative few. A greater misconception is hardly possible. In the light of sound reasoning and cold statistics, the absurdity of this notion is obvious. No other civilization has seen a more equitable distribution of wealth among its people.

The People's Money

For example, a tabulation of income tax returns for 1942 shows the full impact of the results of our American system. In that year the group of individuals receiving income of less than $5,000 annually, representing 96 per cent of the country's population, paid 47 per cent of all federal personal income taxes. This, too, is the group which since 1931 has averaged at least 88 per cent of the nation's annual income.

In comparison, some 1,321,000 people reported incomes in excess of $5,000 during the same year. This group—approximately 4 per cent of the population—paid 53 per cent of all federal personal income taxes. In the above $5,000 group, only 22.3 per cent of their income came from interest, dividends, rents, royalties, and fiduciaries. This is a far cry from the well worn "coupon clippers" line of attack of radical planners.

All Groups Share

Curiously enough, the lower income groups are far from being the underdog in distribution of income from these sources. The above-$5,000 group was responsible for 37 per cent of all income from interest, dividends, and fiduciaries, while the below-$5,000 group pocketed 63 per cent of the income from the same sources. The lower income groups have a large stake in the nation's business and industry.

If these planners could limit the incomes of all individuals to $10,000 before taxes and other fixed charges, some $5.2 billion would be available for distribution to the lesser income people. Representing little more than 4 per cent of the national income, it would amount to only $40 per capita—provided, of course, that there had been no economic or financial loss in the process of redistribution.

This would be a costly price to pay for the destruction of incentive, which would inevitably follow. Most "venture" capital would disappear. Since this is the source of all industrial progress, the immediate and certain result would be a breaking down of the national economy, a reduction of national income and of individual income. Freedom of the individual and his unlimited incentive for gain are dependent on each other. This way, everyone benefits.

THE SCHOOLS AND RECREATION

By Hershel R. Giles
Director, State Division of Recreation

Education and Recreation go hand in hand, and Kentucky is making notable progress in both. Prior to September, 1946, when our State Division of Recreation was organized recreation programs were being successfully administered in several localities. Since that time our staff has worked, on request, with 148 Kentucky cities and counties in the establishment or betterment of community programs.

As a school man, it has not been surprising to me but it certainly has been gratifying to note the important role played in this advance by school personnel. In almost every area we have contacted we find that school superintendents, principals, teachers and athletic coaches are active participants in these movements to improve recreational facilities. They have cooperated fully with other interested individuals, the churches, civic agencies and governmental bodies in a united effort to establish stable and progressive programs.

In many instances, city and county Boards of Education have made possible the year-around utilization of buildings, athletic fields, playgrounds and equipment to supplement facilities available to the local recreation organization, a practice which is highly commendable. Too many of our school plants are open only during school hours and are barred to the general public except on special occasions. Our Division urges full use of school property for recreation and all other activities contributory to the welfare of the people, recommending that plans for future construction of school buildings and gymnasiums make adequate provision for their use as community centers. The State Department of Education concurs in this, provided, of course, that such usage in no way interferes with regularly scheduled school events. Needless to say, it is essential that such activities be carefully supervised at all times by qualified directors.

That often is the point where coaches and teachers, particularly those in physical education, music, drama, arts, crafts and related fields, are making an important contribution. More and more Boards of Education, realizing that school programs simply do not or cannot devote sufficient time to care for the physical education and recreation needs of students, are hiring their regular coaches and teachers on a yearly basis with the understanding that the community will derive the benefit of their services as supervisors in summer recreation programs. Many welcome this type of summer employment, which offers an opportunity to serve their community and also to work and play with both youth and adults in a fellowship closer than that ordinarily sustained during the regular school months. Those of you who have done supplementary work of this sort in a recreation program know what a rewarding experience it is and how great an amount of personal satisfaction it affords.

As these words are being written there are several cities in Kentucky searching for well-trained directors of their summer or year-round programs. Our Division is doing everything possible to help locate qualified persons to fill these positions, but the demand apparently far exceeds the supply. Our Division urges that all teachers and coaches interested in this growing field take further specialized training and better equip themselves to give this type of outstanding service. It is hoped, also, that they will encourage students to follow along these lines.

We recommend that every city and county Board of Education follow the example of those who are sharing the responsibility of operating and financing a recreation program for the people of their areas through active cooperation with other agencies, both governmental and non-governmental, as provided by our State Enabling Legislation.

The Division of Recreation wishes to commend Boards of Education and school personnel for their recognition of a vital community need and their cooperation in the forwarding of recreation throughout Kentucky.

"BOOK LOVE"

"Book love, my friends, is your pass to the greatest, the purest, and the most perfect pleasure that God has prepared for His creatures. It lasts when all other pleasures fade. It will support you when all other recreations are gone. It will last you until your death. It will make your hours pleasant to you as long as you live."—Anthony Trollope.

"On the fields of friendly strife are sown the seeds which, in other years on other fields, will bear the fruits of victory."—General Douglas MacArthur, while Supt. at U. S. Military Academy.

A Good Farmer Is Bound To Make A Good Governor

FEET ON THE GROUND—Earle Clements is a real farmer. He was born on a Union County farm, the son of a farmer, and is actively engaged in farming. He knows the farmers' problems from wrestling with the soil — not just the theories.

SOIL CONSERVATION—Clements has always helped the Soil Conservation program. He knows its great value to Kentucky farmers.

R.E.A. AND T.V.A.—In the State Senate he voted for the Kentucky T. V. A. enabling Act, and since his election to Congress he has always fought for both T. V. A. and R. E. A.

TOBACCO PRICE HELP—Clements sponsored the law which added 6 to 8 cents to the price of dark tobacco.

MARKETING—As a member of the House Agriculture Committee, Clements helped write and enact the Federal Marketing and Research Act, and he pledges the creation of a vigorous State Division of Marketing and Research in the Agricultural Department at Frankfort.

GOOD ROADS — Clements stands for more and better rural roads.

KNOWS ECONOMY — As a County Judge of Union County, Clements cut the debt in half by shrewd management.

EXPERIENCED — Clements is a Democrat of the progressive school. His motto is progress. His able service in County, State and Congressional posts qualifies him to do a real job as Governor.

PAINT THE ROOF AND GUTTERS BEFORE THE COMING OF WINTER
If the roof and gutters of your home are in need of painting, don't let them go through another winter without paint and risk serious damage.
There is yet time to paint the outside of your home to protect it against the rigors of winter weather.. Perhaps the furnace could use a coat of paint before you put it to work. A little inspection tour about the house will disclose many uses for paint right now. Good paint is a good preservative and

OBITUARY

Let us believe there is a balm for every heart that grieves—that somewhere night turns to morning, beautiful with light.

Lizzie G. Nichols, the daughter of Lester and Nancy Nichols was born August 31st, 1868 and died October 7, 1947 at the age of 79 years, 1 month and 7 days. She was united in marriage to Harry Acra, October 2, 1895. To this union were born four children, one daughter, Mrs. Ada Ryle and three sons Raymond, Paul and Wilbur. Paul having preceded his mother, three weeks ago.

Mrs. Acra also leaves her husband, ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren of her immediate family. Besides these blood ties there are those further removed and those joined by affiliation, who have shared her love and devotion, in a measure not less than those, whose claim was first. The affection of all these was displayed in the tribute paid her each year by the remembrance of the date of her birth and meeting with her in the home.

Mrs. Acra united with the East Bend Baptist Church, during the ministry of the Rev. Powers. She was devoted to her church and faithful to its obligations. She was also a member of the Rising Sun Lodge No. 12 Daughters of America.

Each of us has a special mission in this world—a task, given to be fulfilled. Mrs. Acra exemplified motherhood. Wonderful mother—whose large heart and kindly manner bound us with ties, now—not broken, but extended to the beyond.

"She is not dead, she is just away,
With a cherry smile and wave of the hand,
She has wandered on into another land
And left us dreaming, how very fair,
It needs must be, for she lingers there.
And you, oh you, who the while dost yearn,
For the old time step and the glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of there, as the love of here.
Think of her still the same, I say,
She is not dead, she is just away."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all of our neighbors and friends for their acts of kindness, shown to us during the short illness and death of our wife and mother,

Lizzie G. Acra

Especially do we wish to thank donors of the flowers; those who assisted in digging the grave; Revs. Wainscott, Johnson and Ashcraft; Dr. George Riley for his untiring efforts; Ralph Stith for the efficient manner in which he conducted the funeral. 1t-pd

TERMS ANNOUNCED DAY OF SALE

J. W. CONLEY

COL. A. F. WORTHINGTON, Auctioneer

HERE IS A 4-UNIT DIESEL FREIGHT LOCOMOTIVE NOW OPERATED BY 2 MEN (1 ENGINEER AND 1 FIREMAN)

2 BRAKEMEN AND 1 CONDUCTOR COMPLETE THE CREW OF THIS TRAIN [One brakemen usually rides in the locomotive in freight service]

—BUT THE UNION LEADERS WANT 15 EXTRA "SITTERS" ON THIS TRAIN . . . 3 ENGINEERS, 3 FIREMEN, 6 BRAKEMEN AND 3 CONDUCTORS . . . TO GO ALONG FOR THE RIDE AT FULL PAY!

It's to your interest to know about this proposed feather-bedding!

For sheer feather-bedding, this mock work proposal takes the cake. But it is only one of 44 "rules" demands filed by the leaders of the operating unions. If all these demands were granted, they would cost the railroads an added BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR.

Increased Wages, Too

On top of these "rules" changes, the leaders of the operating unions have filed an additional demand for a wage increase of over 30 per cent. If granted, this would be an added cost to the railroads of $400,000,000 a year.

$468,000,000 To Non-Operating Employes

In addition to this, an Arbitration Board has just granted a wage increase of 15½ cents an hour to the million employes represented by the 17 non-operating unions. This will cost the railroads $468,000,000 a year.

Where Will The Money Come From?

Where will all the money come from to pay these increases? They total several times as much as the railroads made in 1946 or will make in 1947.

In July, the railroads filed an application for increased freight rates to close the gap which then existed between wage and material costs, and railroad revenues. Since then it has been necessary, because of further increases in wages and material costs, to supplement that petition and to ask for an additional freight rate increase. No other course is open.

Railroads Do Not Run For Employes Alone

Railroads are operated for the benefit of not one, but several groups—shippers, passengers, employes, stockholders, and the general public. The interest of all must be served—and that cannot be done unless the railroads can operate efficiently and economically, and unless they are allowed to earn sufficient revenue to provide the kind of transportation service this country MUST HAVE.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

The outstanding farm improvement and soil saving project started in Boone County recently is on the farm purchased by Ed Metz on U. S. 25 at Richwood. One wonders why the golden rod was made the Kentucky flower. It is comparable to sagegrass as a forage crop and only growers where other vegetation is lacking.

Mr. Metz is having a large lake constructed in a hollow that was full of willow and other wolf trees. The lake will be fertilized and stocked with fish next spring.

After the entire farm is cleared of undersirable trees and brush, and severly eroded places smoothed with a bulldozer, the weeds will be mowed.

Mr. Metz will treat the entire area at the rate of 3 tons of limestone and 500 pounds of 20 percent phosphate per acre. In the spring patch seeding will be carriedout. Well-groomed fields indicate that erosion problems are under control. It is encouraging to see only one or two farms on U. S. 25 that have not received a facial to date.

By the way, farmers should take advantage of the large reduction on seed prices of several of our most popular grasses. A mixture of these grasses seeded now and next spring will pay large dividends. Many pastures could stand a grass mixture of 5 lbs. orchard grass, 5 lbs. bluegrass, 5 lbs. lespedeza, 5 lbs. sweet clover (if ground is fairly neutral) and one pound of white dutch or ladino clover. The rate of this seed per acre will depend upon the sod present.

It is indeed gratifying to see the number of pastures mowed this fall. Why does pasture mowing improve the soil? First, of course the dead grass and weed stems sticking in the soil are cut down and form a mulch, retarding runoff and the mulch acts as a blotter, holding the water near the surface; second, plants draw minerals from the subsoil and when these plats are cut down and decay they released these minrals on the surface, where they are readily available for next year's plant use; and third, this mulch protects the sod from the cold during winter.

This Week's Thinker: Walk over your farm or one near you and inventory on how good a caretaker you were or your neighbor, or past owner. A record is there that can't be erased overnight.

What Enterprise Can Accomplish

According to the latest reports, the oil supply outlook for the coming winter is not entirely favorable. However, the industry has taken every possible step to meet the expected demand, and if the public will cooperate by adopting reasonable conservation measures, nothing more serious than local and temporary difficulties are likely to be encountered.

The gasoline supply problem, the reports state, has been pretty well solved. The most important current problem remains that of fuel oil. Certain unpredictable factors are involved here. If, for instance, the coming winter is abnormally cold, the situation will be more critical than is forecast. However, due to the industry's informational campaign in the Midwest and elsewhere, consumer tanks are better filled than ever before at this time of year. That will relieve to some degree the strain on industry storage facilities.

Dr. Robert E. Wilson, Chairman of Standard Oil Company of Indiana, made an interesting observation when said: "Seldom has there been a better example of what individual enterprise can accomplish than has been shown in connection with the supply question. The competitive forces of the industry have concentrated on s upplying each company's own customers almost regardless of cost, whereas if a government edict had forced the pooling of all products, no company would have felt justified in incurring such costs unless the government had adopted a gigantic reimbursement plan . . ."

This aggressive competitive spirit, coupled with the great development campaign now underway throughout the entire oil industry, is responsible for meeting an all-time record demand with a minimum of delays and shortages.

Unless Labor Cleans House

Victor Riesel, the well-known labor columnist, recently had an article in Look entitled, "Labor Still Hasn't Cleaned House." He then made several specific charges, including: "There is a cold and brutal dictatorship in many unions . . . Many unions are closed baronies that refuse to admit new members, charge ludicrously high initiation fees and ban applicants for racial and religious reasons. . . . Skilled communists, now using key labor union for political purposes, have not been ousted by national labor leaders."

Such charges have been made before. But they are especially impressive when made by Mr. Riesel, as he is completely sympathetic to the legitimate organized labor movement and writes about nothing but labor matters. It is evident that labor's best friends are now dismayed by the policies and points of view of some of the enormously powerful leaders. These leaders have lost almost all touch with actual labor—the people who do the work of the country. They are busy creating dynasties for themselves and the inner circles which surround their courts. And, as the growing concern over communists in labor's ranks shows, some of them are moved by ideological beliefs which are at the opposite pole from the American tradition.

What this all adds up to, as Mr. Riesel also observes, is that the unions must clean house—or the public will clean it for them. The labor leaders who are now spending much of their time indiscriminately denouncing the Taft-Hartley law should realize that this measure is innocuous in the extreme compared with what will come if labor excesses continue. Union labor is not bigger than the nation.

JOHN E. CRIGLER COUNTY ATTORNEY RETURNS HOME

John E. Crigler, County attorney of Boone County was returned to his home from St. Elizabeth hospital Wednesday, in a much improved condition, following a recent illness, which has confined him to the Covington hospital since last Thursday.

After a complete examination, it was believed that Mr. Crigler was in a general run-down condition, brought on by over work and nerves.

His condition was reported much improved Wednesday, but he will be confined to his home for a complete rest for several days before returning to his post.

MANY ITEMS OMITTED DUE TO REACHING THIS OFFICE LATE

Many times we are forced to omit news items which reach us too late for publication. This is unavoidable as our press deadline is 9:00 a. m. Wednesday.

Persons having news items for this paper are urged to mail them early so they will reach us Monday, if possible, and not later than Tuesday morning.

Our office staff is taxed to its limit to print ten to twelve pages each week. Therefore we are asking your cooperation in sending your news in as early as possible.

Our correspondents are especially urged to send their news in early, as this will help us to print four of our pages on Monday.

Many of our readers and patrons do not realize how much work is required to print a weekly newspaper. They do not realize that their items are typed out on the linotype and requires many hours work.

Our subscribers, advertisers, and correspondents have always cooperated with us in all our requests, and we feel sure they will be just as willing to cooperate in this matter.

We want to publish every news item possible which will be of interest to the people of Boone County, and request that you send us any news in your community you feel will be of interest to the public.

BULLITTSBURG CHURCH NOTES

Beginning next Sunday, October 26, Bullittsburg Baptist Church services will be held in the Hebron high school auditorium, both morning and evening. For the present services will be held at the usual time.

If you have no church home, come to Hebron school and worship with us. Visitors are welcome to all services.

This action is necessary because of delays in construction work on basement and other necessary work. Several bids on an oil furnace have been received, but no selection has been made to date.

Several large trees in the church yard will be trimmed soon. Some of them have become dangerously high.

Midweek prayer services are being held in the homes of members. Mr. and Mrs. John Acra have invited the group to their home Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Billy Gardner, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Gardner has a slight cold. We wish for him a speedy recovery. Several of our members also are ill. We hope they will soon be well and able to worship with us.

Our attendance to our services in the churchyard has been very good. Let's not fall below this average at Hebron.

The three district champions will be entered in contests to determine the state champions. Winners of state contests will be announced later.

HOMEMAKERS ATTEND CLOTHING SCHOOL FRI.

Representatives from twelve homemaker clubs attended a clothing school last Friday at the Masonic Hall in Hebron. Miss Verna Latzke, clothing specialist gave a very complete lesson on "Time and Energy Savers in Home Sewing." She illustrated methods of putting hems in dresses, jackets, and sleeves; also the easiest method of applying zippers to garments. The method of making bound, piped and triangular button holes was demonstrated by Miss Latzke.

Leaders representing the twelve clubs will make models of the various parts of the lesson to take to the October community meetings.

BURLINGTON P.-T. A. PLAN HALLOWE'EN PARTY OCTOBER 31

Now is the time for all students, patrons and friends of the Burlington school to take the calendar down off the wall and put a bright red circle around October 31st, for that is the date of the annual fun fest, the Hallowe'en party.

You'll find prizes for every conceivable kind of costume, and activity given, and almost every kind of game that you want, to while away the evening.

Prizes will be given for costumes as follows: Prettiest adult, prettiest child, best adult, best child, funniest child, and there will be a grand champion prize for the best costume of all.

You may ring the duck's necks (if you can), guess on jars full of beans, try your hand at the cakewalk, enjoy all sorts of games of skill, the kiddies may see a little show, and to paraphrase Uncle Josh, you may drink cider, throw peanut hulls on the floor and just have a heck of a time.

Don't forget that date. Some of our scouts got just a little mixed up and in their haste to get to this Hallowe'en party almost jumped the gun and moved it up a week, but in spite of what you may have heard or read earlier, this date is absolutely Friday night, October 31.

RED CROSS COURSE TO BEGIN NOV. 4TH

The new home nursing course, unit II, six lessons, on "Mother and Baby Care and Family Health" was given to instructors by the Cincinnati Red Cross Chapter in September. This is the first course of this type, which has been held in the Eastern area. Miss Elizabeth Lowry, Boone County Red Cross Nurse took the course, and will teach a class in the Red Cross office, courthouse, beginning November 4th, 7:30 p. m.

Lesson 1—"Before the Baby Comes."

Lesson 2—"The Baby is Born."

Lesson 3—"After the Baby is Born."

Lesson 4—"After Baby's First Year."

Lesson 5—"The Child's Health in an Expanded Environment."

Lesson 6—"Protection of the Family's Health."

Nothing which was given in six lessons, unit I will be repeated. Those who took unit I will be in better position to take unit II, however this is not a requirement.

No one may enroll after the first lesson November 4. Classes will begin promptly at 7:30 and end at 8:30. In order to receive a certificate from the National Red Cross, every class must be attended.

At the first meeting, those who enroll will be consulted as to how often the classes are held each week. The work must be completed within three weeks, but may be done in less time if desired by the majority.

Those wishing to enroll please call Mrs. Lou Pope, chairman for home nursing in Boone County, phone 473. The number for one class is limited, but others may be held at a later date, and in any part of the county, from which comes a request.

All-Stars Take Championship In Semipro Baseball League

DEFEATING VETERANS NINE BY SCORE OF 5-1 IN FINAL GAME OF PLAY-OFF SERIES AT PETERSBURG SUNDAY.

The Boone County All-Stars defeated the Boone County Veterans nine to cop the championship of the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League Sunday at the Petersburg park.

The game was hard-fought thruout with the final score 5-1 in favor the All-Stars. The winners collected their five runs in the third inning on five hits, two singles, doubles by Edwards and Bradburn and a triple by H. Ritter.

The Veterans scored their only tally in the ninth inning on two singles by Benson and Reibling and a double by R. Bowman.

A crowd of approximately 2,000 witnessed the game, according to estimates.

Don Ritter on the mound for the All-Stars, allowed only four hits, struck out nine and walked one. Al (Dutch) Reibling, hurling for the Vets, allowed 11 hits, fanned three and walked four. Four errors were charged to the Vets.

The All-Stars won the first of a three-game playoff series, with the Vets taking the second game 2-0 in a ten-inning game. The final games was won by All-Stars giving them the title of champions of the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League.

John Benke, league president, presented the championship trophy donated by Alfred G. Maybury, Newport Police Judge, to the winners. The runner-up award, donated by Rep. Earle Clements, Democratic candidate for Governor, went to the Vets.

His talk was very interesting and gave the sportsmen present information as to where their money is being spent by the department.

Mr. Adams, director of the Junior Conservation program in Kentucky was also present, and made a brief talk on Junior clubs. Oscar Parks, manager of the Greater Cincinnati Airport was present, and joined the local organization.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR NEW AIRPORT

ARE DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF AIRPORT BOARD—NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM WILL BE FIRST PROJECT.

Many improvements for the new airport located in Boone County were discussed this week week at a meeting of the Kenton County Airport Board with representatives of the Civil Aeronatutics Authority and the airlines at the airport. Improvements contemplated total approximately $130,000.

Improvements discussed include a new lighting system to cost $30,000; construction of a maintenance building to cost $20,000 and enlargement of the parking ramp to cost approximately $80,000.

It was reported at the meeting that the CAA had allocated $65,000 for improvements at the airport. Under the agreement the airport board is to raise an additional $65,000.

The first project to be started will be the installation of new lights on the runways. Cables installtd by the government when the airport was constructed, are said to be defective and must be replaced. One set of lights on the runways will be increased in power so that planes may land in the fog.

FIREMEN WILL MEET MONDAY, OCTOBER 27

The Burlington Volunteer firemen will meet at the firehouse on Monday night, October 27 at 7:30. It was announced this week.

ANNUAL MEETING PLANNED BY PCA

AT WILLIAMSTOWN OCTOBER 28 — INTERESTING PROGRAM PLANNED—J. M. HEIZER WILL BE SPEAKER.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association is to be held at Pettit's Machinery building, Highway U. S. 25, 1 mile north of Williamstown, Ky., on Tuesday, October 28th at 1:30 p. m., E. S. T.

This association, operated and run by the farmers themselves, serves Grant, Pendleton, Campbell, Kenton, Boone, Gallatin, Carroll and Owen Counties.

Farmers will elect two directors at this meeting to fill vacancy of the two directors whose terms have expired.

An interesting program has been prepared. Guest speaker will be Mr. J. M. Heizer. Mr. Heizer has had twenty years of public relations experience with Farmers' Cooperatives. For five years he was engaged in cooperative livestock marketing. He has been a Federal Land Bank Appraiser and for the past twelve years has been information agent for the Farm Credit Administration. In this capacity he has worked intimately with Production Credit Association in seven states.

Farmers should attend their meeting to learn more of this dependable source of credit.

GUNPOWDER HOMEMAKERS

A good time was had by those attending the Gunpowder Homemakers' Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Piper, October 14. There were 10 members and 4 visitors present. We want to say "welcome" to the two new members who joined the club.

Mrs. Ruth Kelly brought the lesson on "How to keep your garment from looking homemade." Miss Gillaspie gave a talk on the "State Constitution." Mrs. Mabel Sebree, program chairman, led us in singing all old favorite songs. A duet "List to the Voice of the Savior" was rendered by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Moore.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. H. Aylor, November 19.

POMPADOUR

Remember when women wore ornate bejeweled pompadour combs to keep their "rats" in place? It was a tragedy if a woman's "rat" showed and it required a lot of patting through the day to keep it in place. Pompadours were nigh in those days. Remember?

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of my beloved son Therman Lee Wolfe, who passed away, October 25th, 1946.

They say that time is sure to heal
But one year has passed
And still my loss is just as great
As the day I saw you last.
As time goes on each day I find
That nothing will ever erase
The loneliness I feel for you
And the memories that are left in your place. 1t-p

SAVE FOOD
No one is requested to go hungry. To do without meat one day a week is a small matter in this country of plenty where we have so many other items of food as a substitute for this one day.
This country is the world's breadbasket and to help feed the world is not only humane but helps all of us financially.

ENGINEERS PLAN TO SPEED ROAD COMPLETION

Frankfort, Ky.—The seven district engineers of the State Highway Department today were preparing to speed their current local road programs to completion in accordance with a directive from Highway Commisioner J. Stephen Watkins.

Commissioner Watkins told the engineers to strive particularly to complete the graveling of many county roads to make them passable during winter weather.

The Commissioner also called for tentative bituminous surfacing programs for each district to be submitted to him by December 1, together with recommendations for the location of additional roadside parks.

The engineers went on record as being unanimously in favor of complete revision of the state constitution.

A committee was appointed which drafted the following resolution outlining the engineers' stand.

"To members of the conference of district engineers and division directors of the Kentucky Department of Highway:

The committee authorized by the conference to prepare a formal report on the matter of the revision of the Kentucky Constitution wishes to submit the following:

"It is the unanimous opinion of this committee that the present constitution needs a greater number of revisions than can be accomplished by individual amendments and that the only way it can be brought up to date is through the calling of a constitutional convention for that purpose.

"The committee believes that the employees of the Department of Highways will be serving the best interests of our great state by giving their individual support and their votes at the November 4th election in favor of a constitutional convention because:

"First, of utmost importance is the overall economic development of the Commonwealth and particularly as it relates to adequate highway transportation.

"Second, the present constitution retards the development of Kentucky as regards educational, welfare and public health, all of which are dependent upon the prosperity of Kentucky and upon an adequate system of transportation.

Third, the adverse effect of the present out-of-date constitution on the progress of Kentucky, reduces the opportunities in this state for young people and results in the migration to other states of many of its professionally trained young men and women.

"Fourth, adequate transportation facilities require constant expansion of the Department of Highways in all of its branches and this naturally calls for an increased staff of competent personnel who believe in the future of our state. Under the present constitution it is difficult, if not impossible to induce competent young people to accept or retain state employment with the idea of making it a career . . . "

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

NOV. 4

VOTE "YES"

LOOK FOR THIS QUESTION ON YOUR BALLOT

"Are you in favor of the calling of a convention for the purpose of revising or amending the present Constitution of Kentucky, and such amendments as may have been made to the same?"

YES [X]

NO [ ]

VOTE "YES" BECAUSE UNDER OUR PRESENT "OUT OF DATE" CONSTITUTION

- School funds cannot be distributed fairly.
- Education cannot be taken out of politics.
- Kentucky voters lose $500,000 every two years through inefficient election methods.

THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE "YES" NOV. 4

This advertisement is contributed by a group of public spirited citizens who believe our present State Constitution retards Kentucky's development.

OPPOSES CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

The following letter, written by Lilburn Phelps, of Jamestown, Ky., gives his reasons for opposing a Constituitonal Convention. The letters follows:

To the Editor:

"I find that more and more people are coming to the conclusion that we do not need a Constitutional Convention. Those who so believe should not fail to vote opposite the word 'NO' on the ballot on November 4, 1947.

"Here are some of the many reasons why I am opposed to calling a Constitutional Convention.

"(1) It is expensive.

"(2) If a revised Constitution is submitted to the people by a convention, we, the voters, must accept or reject the revised instrument as a whole. We can not pick out the changes we favor and vote for them and then vote against the changes to which we are opposed.

"(3) Very few changes in our Constitution are needed. These can be made by amendment without a Convention as we have been making changes whenever necessary since 1891. This method has one outstanding advantage; if the legislature submits two amendments at any election we can adopt both, reject both or adopt one and reject the other as we, the voters, think best.

(4) Most of the reasons given for calling a Constitutional Convention are either feeble or false. For example, it is said that our present Constitution is holding back education. It is doing no such thing. There is not a line in the Constitution to retard education in Kentucky. It is true, probably, that the salaries of a few professors should be more than $5,000.00 a year. To make that change would require a Constitutional amendment unless the Court of Appeals changes its ruling. If the amendment is necessary to give professors more than $5,000.00 per year it can be made without a Constitutional Convention. Also I think the Superintendent of Public Instruction and some of the other State officers should be eligible to re-election. These two amendments can be voted on at the same time without a Convention.

"(5) One of the worst proposed amendments is now being pushed with great vigor by the conventionists. It is the amendment to take Constitutional protection away from the school fund by repealing Section 1856 and leaving the legislature to scatter the school money as it pleases, or as some conventionists proposed, apportion the money to the schools according to the attendance. If that is done it will put an end to many schools in the sparsely settled, mud road districts; or if the teacher had the nerve to carry on when bad weather and bad roads have cut down her attendance her pay would be decreased and she would be penalized for conditions that she could not help. This would be little short of criminal. On this ground alone every country teacher and every other teacher ought to vote against calling a Convention.

"I believe it is right to reward a teacher for extra effort but it is wrong to punish her for things she can not help.

"DON'T FORGET TO VOTE 'NO' ON NOVEMBER 4."

Christian county homemakers estimate they saved $4,000 by making 2,850 garments and mending 5,357 articles of clothing.

Clements' Program of Real Help to Schools --or Desperate Dummit's Promises?

THE GREAT OL' PROMISERS—Promises won't pay our teachers, build up our schools and teach our children. Kentuckians know to their sorrow there is no value to a promise made by a man who has completely reversed himself in two months!

The present Republican nominee for Governor has changed his mind so many times on the stump in the last few months that no one understands what he really proposes to do for education—if anything. For this reason they are now calling him Tweedledee Tweedle-Dummit.

THE GREAT NEED—Our children are Kentucky's greatest asset. They must be taught by well-trained and adequately-paid teachers. They must ride in busses that are safe, to buildings which are the best our citizens can afford. They have been kept waiting too long for decent equipment—while money piled up in the State Treasury and Republican stubborness blocked action.

THE GREAT OPPORTUNITY—The Democratic program for the improvement of education in Kentucky is plain-spoken and straightforward—honest and consistent.. In his opening campaign speech, at Morehead, Congressman Earle Clements, the Democratic nominee for Governor, said:

"The Republican nominee has frequently declared he was opposed to using any part of the unencumbered surplus in the State Treasury for the payment of teachers' salaries—retroactive or otherwise. Our party is committed to this appropriation for teachers' salaries, retrocative to the beginning of the present school year. The Republican candidate may or may not change his views. We shall not."

Why take a chance on more worthless promises?

BODIES OF WAR HEROES RETURNED

The bodies of five Boone Countians, being returned from foreign cemeteries arrived at New York Sunday, according to an announcement received by Sheriff R. I. Rouse. The bodies were transported aboard the Army Transport Joseph V. Connolly. It is the first shipment of World War II dead from the Western Front.

S/Sgt. Lloyd D. McElroy, son of Mrs. Hazel L. McElroy, 36 South Main Street, Walton.

Sgt. Walter E. Proffitt, son of Roosevelt Proffitt, Walton, Ky., R. 1.

Pfc. Howard Robinson, son of William Robinson, Box 316, Ludlow, Ky., R. 2.

Bodies of the war heroes will be sent from New York to Columbus, Ohio, distribution point, according to a telegram received by Sheriff Rouse.

EXTRA FEATURES ADDED TO LOCAL HALLOWE'EN PARTY

At the Burlington P.-T. A. Hallowe'en party which will be given at the schoolhouse Friday night, October 31st a new feature, "The Country Store" will hold forth. It promises a barrel of fun in a new and exciting way. Be sure and come out and try for the door prize and don't forget that the Grand March which is another exciting feature will be held at 8:00 p. m. sharp.

Rumors around town of the various costumes being planned indicate that you may expect to see most anything in masquerades with the characters also running all the way from John L. Lewis up to Robert Taft. Of course much fun is expected when these two "champeens" get together.

Don't forget now, Friday night, October 31st at the schoolhouse. The admission is 5 cents for costumed partygoers and 10 cents for those who prefer to wear the equivalent of the Burlington "Soup and Fish."

We wish at this time to answer a question put to us the other day, "No, Mr. B——, gravy on the vest is not considered a costume. The gravy must be in the whiskers." Well since that one's not too long out of the can we'll pause in closing only to remind the committee members that they are asked to report to the schoolhouse on Thursday night to prepare the shindig. Committee members only.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jones, of Burlington spent Sunday in Berry, Ky., with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Casey.

NOVEMBER 1ST IS CLOSING DATE

FOR FARM AND HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTEST—PURPOSE OF CONTEST IS TO ENCOURAGE FARM PEOPLE.

November first is the closing date for entires to be received in the Courier Journal Farm and Home Improvement contest. All Boone farmers and homemakers who have made preliminary plans to enter the contest are urged to mail in their reports before midnight, November first to the Courier Journal, Louisville.

Homemakers can enter in either Home Improvement, Food Production and Conservation, Home Sewing and Clothing Conservation or all of these, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

This contest is an endeavor to encourage and reward accomplishments of farm people.

OES PLAN FISH FRY

Union Star Chapter No. 461 Order of the Eastern Star is having a Hallowe'en party and fish fry on Thursday, October 30 at 8:00 p. m. in Union Masonic Hall, Union, Ky.

Come masked and compete for prizes for the best and tackiest dressed. There will be plenty of fish, coffee, cider and doughnuts to eat. Fish will be fried by Ted Feldhaus, of Erlanger.

POSTON-VOGELSANG

The Hebron Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday evening for the marriage of Miss Jean Poston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poston and Chas. Vogelsang, of Cincinnati.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Paul Rimmer, pastor of Hebron Lutheran Church. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents.

SERVICE FLAG TO BE RETIRED

In a special service on Sunday evening, November 2, the Petersburg Christian Church will retire its service flag and service honor roll containing the names of men affiliated with the church or church school who were in military service during World War II.

The service flag contains the names of eight members of the church including those of Raymond Witham, Jr., and Edward Helms, both of whom made the supreme sacrifice for their country. The honor roll, constructed and presented to the church by the Rev. Claude R. MacDonald, minister, contains a total of 36 names.

Ex-GI Wilson Edwards, who called the roll of names when the board was dedicated, will call the roll again at the November 2 service and Miss Marilyn Helms will play "Taps" on the trumpet. A message on the subject, "Lest We Forget" will be delivered by the pastor.

Ex-GI's whose names are on the honor roll or some member of their family will be notified to be present to receive the individual name plates which will be presented to them as mementoes.

UTOPIANS HOLD HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On last Thursday evening, there were some queer looking characters seen in the neighborhood of the Burlington schoolhouse. It was the annual Utopia Mask Party.

After looking at the weird looking characters for a long time, the judges decided that Miss Mary Feeley and Miss Pauline Holliday of Petersburg were the best couple; that Mrs. Sterling Dickey was the most homely and that Mary Rector the most weird. Donald Maddox was selected for the first prize in the children's department.

After everyone was unmasked the business meeting and election of officers was next on the program.

Mrs. Stanley Aylor of Hebron was elected president; Mr. Sam Blackburn, of Burlington, vice president; Mrs. Sterling Dickey, Hebron, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Grant Maddox, Florence and Jack Turner, Hebron, were elected as syphogrants.

The main business was the discussion of the variety show to be held about the middle of November, according to Mary Rector, club reporter. This show is to be given for the benefit of the Memorial Recreation Hall to be built on the fair grounds. Watch The Recorder for future dates.

BETTER SERVICE THROUGH UNITED EFFORT, IS WORD

"In union there is strength," is a trite expression, but it is nevertheless still true.

This is proved by what the 100-block Pike Street, Covington, businessmen have accomplished by organizing for their common good and public benefit.

By influence and work, this organization has caused to be made numerous improvements in the 100 block, its members have adopted the rule of more friendliness and courtesy to customers, have operated their stores in a more modern manner, and made every effort to offer better merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

The organization has regular meetings at which time suggestions for better serving the public and plans for further improving the 100 block are discussed. It also has social gatherings. One of the latest improvements in this block is the remodeling and enlargement of the DeSantis Restaurant, now under way.

Since last May, the 100-block stores and offices have been running a half-page ad. weekly in The Recorder, frequently offering prices far below prevailing prices. This group advertising has been the means of their gaining many new Boone County friends.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO J. O. HUEY

WAS WELL KNOWN THROUGHOUT COUNTY—WAS ELECTED JAILER IN REGULAR ELECTION HELD IN 1945.

Joseph O. Huey, 67, died Monday morning of a heart attack in the home of Dr. M. A. Yelton, after having collapsed on the street a few minutes earlier.

Mr. Huey had been in failing health for several years, however, his death was a shock to the entire community, as his condition apparently was unchanged.

He was a native of Boone County and had been a resident of Burlington for a number of years. He was a member of the Burlington Baptist Church.

He made the race for Jailer of Boone County in August 1945, received the nomination and was elected at the regular election in November. However, due to illness, a deputy, Austin Scroggin was appointed by Mr. Huey, who has served in this capacity.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Laura Huey; two daughters, Mrs. Wendell Easton and Mrs. Franklin Huey, of Burlington; two sons, Winfred Huey, Cincinnati, and Walter Huey, head of the Huey Trucking Co., of Louisville and a sister, Mrs. Otis Rouse, of Burlington.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 Wednesday morning at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, with Rev. R. A. Johnson officiating. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

NATIVE OF BOONE COUNTY DIES IN FLORIDA, SUNDAY

Dr. J. G. Slater, a native of Boone County, and a former Covington physician, widely known specialist in obstetrics, died unexpectedly Sunday at his home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Dr. Slater, 65, who had been retired from practice for several years and had lived in Florida since his retirement. He resided in Ludlow when in the active practice of his profession in Northern Kentucky.

Dr. Slater was a member of Walton Lodge F. & A. M.; Kiahmee Grotto, Covington, and the Scottish Rite.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Jones Slater.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton.

Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors are in charge of funeral arrangements.

MRS. MABEL SULZER

Mrs. Mabel Sulzer, 79, widow of Marcus Sulzer, former mayor of Madison, Ind., died Sunday at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, following a short illness.

For the past seven years she had made her home with a niece, Miss Carol Brown, at Crittenden. She also leaves several other nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Crittenden at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, under the direction of Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors. Burial was in Vevay, Ind.

LOCAL YOUTH RETURNS FROM 2-WEEK CRUISE

James R. Elliston, apprentice seaman, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klaserner, of Burlington, R. D., has returned from a two-week Naval Reserve training cruise to Ponce, Puerto Rico, aboard the battleship USS Wisconsin.

With almost 1,000 Reservists aboard from the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 9th Naval Districts, the Wisconsin departed from Bayonne, N. J., proceeding to Ponce for two days' liberty.

Gunnery practice, simulated battle problems and general drills were conducted on board the "Wisky" to renew the Reservists' previous training and to indoctrinate them in the latest Navy developments.

An Iowa-class battleship, the Wisconsin was commissioned in April, 1944. Although entering the service late in the war, the "Wisky" as she is known throughout the fleet, participated in strikes and landings in the Philippines, Iwo Jima and Okinawa, and bombarded the Japanese mainland during June and July of 1945.

PROMINENT MAN DIES

Charles O. Hempfling

FORMER BOONE COUNTY LADY DIES AT AGE OF 101

Mrs. Eugene Brady Gaines, 101, former resident of Burlington, died at her home Sunday near Carrollton.

For the last 31 years she has been the U. S. Government's official custodian of the signal light at Gaines' Landing on the Ohio River, below the Gaines home. She was the mother of the late Perry Gaines, who was State Senator from this district for eight years and was prominent nationally in Jersey cattle circles.

Mrs. Gaines is survived by two daughters, Miss Ella Gaines, with whom she made her home and Mrs. Virginius Craig of Carroll County and several relatives in Boone County.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the home. Burial was in Carrollton Odd Fellows Cemetery.

RECORD NUMBER ATTEND MEETING

OF HOMEMAKERS HELD TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21—MRS. JOE HOGAN NAMED PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION.

Attendance at the twelfth annual meeting of the Boone County Homemakers' Association broke all records. Registration showed that a total of two hundred and eighteen attended the all-day program. Fifty-two of those present were visitors.

Mrs. Clyde Arnold, president of the Boone County Homemakers' Association presided at the meeting. Following call to order at 10:30 a. m. the Reverend O. W. Robinson, minister of the Florence Methodist Church, led the group in prayer. The audience pledged allegiance to the flag and sang "The More We Get Together." The Cason sisters of Grant, gave special music.

A short business meeting was then conducted by Mrs. Arnold. Minutes and the business report was given by Mrs. Stanley Ransom. The chairman of the nominating committee presented the following state for 1947-48. They were as follows: Mrs. Joe Hogan, Hebron, president; Mrs. Virgil Kelly, Gunpowder, vice president; Mrs. Earl Morehead, Taylorsport, secretary and treasurer. They were elected by acclamation.

Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. V. G. Young, county program chairman, next served as hostesses to a Homemakers' Party. During the "party" the following told about their extension activities during the past year: Mrs. Adam Dellwick, landscaping; Mrs. Chas. Luchte, home furnishing; Mrs. Huey Aylor, live-at-home; Mrs. Joe Hogan, membership; Mrs. Albert Pfalzgraf, citizenship; Mrs. Geo. Morith, 4-H work; Mrs. Vernon Pope, clothing; Mrs. Wendell Rouse, special activities; Mrs. Earl Morehead, handicraft; Mrs. Dan Hacker, reading; Mrs. A. B. Nichols, publicity; Mrs. Clayton Renaker, farm and home week; W. E. Davis, County Agent's program; Mrs. Leo Flynn, North Blue Grass directors' report; Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Homemakers from Bracken, Campbell, Kenton, Owen and Gallatin were recognized as special guests by Mrs. Arnold. Other guests included Miss Lulle Logan, assistant State Leader of Home Demonstration Agents and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tom, Columbus, Ohio.

The ladies of the Florence Methodist Church, served lunch to the group.

"In Judge Martha Gab's Court" a playlet put on by the Burlington Road Homemakers Club was the first event after lunch. Those in the play were Mrs. John Kyle, Mrs. Val B. Dolwick, Mrs. Leonard Meece, Mrs. Joe Dringenburg, Mrs. Joe Northcutt, Mrs. Paul Ammon, Mrs. Louisa Edrington and Mrs. Leo Lawson. Mrs. Arthur Ammon had coached the play.

The Burlington Road Club also won special recognition for having the largest percentage of her members present. Announcement was made that Kentaboo had gained the largest percentage of new members the past year.

Paul Chaney, of Florence, gave organ and vocal solos, and Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison, of Erlanger, gave a vocal solo.

Mr. Bruce Tom, rural sociologist in Extension, University of Ohio, was the guest speaker for the day. He told of his "Philosophy of Life." He emphasized the importance of keeping a balance between work and recreation.

Past presidents of the Boone County homemakers were presented with president's pins.

The meeting was concluded by the audience singing "Sing Your Way Home."

TAYLORSPORT MAN IS CALLED

CHARLES O. HEMPLING WAS ONE OF COUNTY'S OUTSTANDING FARMERS—SERVICE HELD SUNDAY.

Charles Oliver Hempfling, 78, one of Boone County's most outstanding farmers died Friday at his home in Taylorsport, Ky., after an extended illness.

Mr. Hempfling's business and farming interests were diversified. He was best known, however, as an organizer of the Burley Cooperative Association of Kentucky. He was also a past President of the Northern Kentucky Warehouse Cooperative Association, a position in which he served for 15 years, and a pioneer in the apple-growing industry of Boone County. In an age before the advent of the county agent with his wealth of production information, Mr. Hempfling was one of the first scientific farmers in this vicinity.

For many years he was an oracle to farmers for miles around on such subjects as the proper methods of prunings, sprays to control insect pests, fertilizing practries and the like.

He assisted in bringing electricity to the farming districts of Boone County and in the inclusion of the county in the state's new system of improved rural roads. He was a field representative of the Production Credit Corpo. Before being appointed to this post, however, he had interested himself deeply in the problems of farmers in obtaining credit until their crops could be harvested. Many who could not obtain loans from the usual sources were aided by his endorsement or more directly with his own funds.

He also assisted in the organization of the Cooperative Milk Association of Northern Kentucky.

Mr. Hempfling was charitably inclined but did not advertise his many benefactions. It is known, however, that he contributed farm produce to various orphanages and helped many who were in distress.

He and his wife, Mrs. Lilly Kottmyer Hempfling, celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary October 14.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Charles L. Hempfling, Taylorsport and C. Liston Hempfling, Constance; a daughter, Mrs. Harold Bentham, Baltimore, Md.; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p. m., Sunday at the Catherman funeral home, Ludlow, with Rev. Paul Rimmer, pastor of Hebron Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was in Hebron Cemetery.

MRS. ETHELENE RYLE

Mrs. Ethelene Griffith Ryle, widow of Dr. R. E. Ryle, former Walton physician, died early Thursday at her home in Walton. She had been an active member of Walton Baptist Church for 30 years.

She is survived by a grandson, William Wayne, with the Navy at San Diego, Calif., and a great-grandson.

Funeral services were conducted at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton at 2:30 p. m. Saturday with Rev. Burton Garrett, Rev. C. A. Alford and Rev. R. F. Demoisey officiating. Burial was in Walton Cemetery.

PETERSBURG CHRISTIAN EXPANDS ITS PROGRAM

The congregation of the Petersburg Christian Church on October 19 voted to expand the church's program beginning with the first Sunday in November to include regular worship and preaching services four Sundays each month to replace the three-Sunday-a-month schedule which has been in effect for the past year. The congregation acted on the recommendation of the church board, which recommendation carried with it provision for a substantial increase in the minister's salary.

The new schedule of services will go into effect co-incident with the begining of the Rev. Claude R. MacDonald's fourth year as pastor of the church. Mr. MacDonald, who resides at Lexington, is now enrolled in the College of the Bible there where he is working toward the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Within the past year, the Petersburg church has received gifts aggregating $10,000 from a former resident for the establishment of a library for the community's use. The library, to be under the control and supervision of the Christian church, will be administered by a board representative of the entire community. Construction of the building to house the 5,000-volume library has been deferred until building conditions are more favorable, but it is planned to open the library in temporary quarters as soon as such can be procured.

FUTURE FARMERS ENTERTAIN PARENTS

To better acquaint their parents with the new department of Vocational Agriculture at Burlington High, the F. F. A. boys entertained Friday night, October 24 at the school house.

The program began with the official opening ceremony conducted by the officers and advisor. Appearing on the program were principal Edwin Walton, Supt. Herbert Ockerman, County Agent William Davis, Soil Conservationist J. C. Acree and J. R. Huey, local agriculture instructor and F. F. A. advisor.

Mr. Walton complimented the boys very highly and impressed on all present the value of the Agriculture Department to the community and the fact that the training is very practical. Mr. Ockerman told the boys that the county board is behind them one hundred percent and mentioned some of the things Vocational Agriculture has brought to other schools with which he has been conected. Mr. Davis and Mr. Acree both gave favorable comment for the department and stressed the value of agricultural training. Mr. Huey briefly outlined the course of study and other activities of the department. He told of the value of of vocational agriculture is becomtraining, stating that the chief aim ing established in farming but mentioned that there are numerous other vocations that require agriculture training.

Following the brief talks everyone enoyed "The Green Hand" a film depicting some of the activities of F. F. A. chapters, and a basketball game which the boys won over the "Old Folks" 21 to 19 according to the official scorer. Some of the Oldies doubted his "officiality." Closing the night's activities the boys, with the help of Mrs. Huey and Mrs. Maurer, served their guests delicious fish sandwiches and coffee.

UNION YOUTH IS PLEDGED TO FRAT.

Bruce S. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson, R. F. D. 1, Union, has been formally pledged to Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity at the University of Kentucky.

A graduate of Holmes high school Covington, Ferguson is a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University.

Pi Kappa Alpha was founded at the University of Virginia in 1868. The UK chapter, Omega, one of 80 national chapters, was installed on the campus in 1901.

Real Estate Transfers

Joseph Dugan's 11.9 acre farm with building located on Route 42 was sold to W. N. Shelton, of 602 Garrard St., Covington, Ky.

Joseph Dugan, of Scott St., Covington, purchased the 19-acre farm of James Tomlinson, of Banklick Station.

HOOP SEASON OPENS TUESDAY

WHEN BURLINGTON ENTERTAINS DRY RIDGE—HEBRON TO VISIT CRITTENDEN—WALTON FLORENCE TANGLE.

The lid will come off the Boone County school baseball season next Tuesday night, November 4, at the Burlington gym when Coach Ralph Maurer's Eagle quintet plays host to Dry Ridge. Game time will be 7:30 p. m. and admission prices will be twenty cents for students and thirty-five cents for patrons, according to school officials.

The Hebron Cardinals, last year conference winners, will visit Crittenden, Thursday evening, November 6, for their season opener.

New Haven's Tigers, district tourney winners of last season, open their schedule November 7 when they play Burlington at New Haven.

No too much is known of the respective strength of the county fives, but according to some pre-season dope it appears to be another close race between George Edmonson's New Haven rangy Tigers and "Check" Goodridge's Cardinals. Both teams have size and speed and are deep in reserve strength.

According to the sports editor of the Florence school, in a recent issue of the Boone County School News, the Knights, under their new coach, Bob Tanner, are expecting a big season.

At Walton Coach Jack will have to replace several starters from last year who were lost thru graduation.

This year to take the place of such stars of last year as Buckler and Huey, of Hebron; Jones of New Haven; Roberts and Waller, of Walton; Miller and Doyle, of Florence, and Kelly of Burlington, are Hebron's Teadvine, Carver and McGlasson; Florence's Rouse and Baker; New Haven's Rose, Thompson and Clements; Burlington's Ryle, Miller and Todtenbier, and Walton's Vest.

LOCAL MEN HEARD OVER STATION WZIP

Frank Miller and his Kentucky Fiddlers are heard each morning at 7:00 to 7:15 a. m. each week day over radio station, WZIP.

Ivan Gulley, of Burlington and Jimmie Feeley, a former Boone County resident are members of the band. The boys would appreciate hearing from Boone County residents and their favorite request numbers.

BAND PRACTICE MONDAY

The Boone County Band will begin practice Monday night at 7:30. All members of the band are urged to attend this practice session as there are very important matters to come before the group.

PEP RALLY IS PLANNED MON.

AT BURLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL TO AROUSE AND RENEW INTEREST IN THE ATHLETIC EVENTS OF SCHOOL.

Students, teachers, patrons and all loyal basketball fans, of Burlington high are invited and expected to attend the gigantic bon fire pep rally at the school campus Monday night, November 3 at 7:30. The purpose of the demonstration is to arouse and renew interest in the athletic events of old B. H. S.

The rally will begin with a parade, starting at the schoolhouse and circling through town and back to the school grounds. The parade will be led by the Boone County Band under director Bloss.

At the rally, Eagle Coach Ralph Maurer will be the principal speaker and will introduce the Eagles to spectators. Also on the program will be principal Edwin Walton and County Superintendent H. N. Ockerman. School songs and yells will be led by Burlington's top cheerleader who is still unknown to the public.

The rally is being held as a beginning of the basketball season for the Eagles, who tangle with Dry Ridge at Burlington, Tuesday night, November 4. Everyone in Burlington, man, woman, boy and girl are urged to attend this all-important pep rally. Begin supporting the Eagles Monday night by attending the bonfire rally.

Vote for Clements for Governor November 4th and You Vote for Better Government

And this is only food!

Can you afford to vote for Dummit for Governor whose party . . . .

Destroyed Price Controls and promised you in July, 1946, that prices would come down "in a few months."

Weakened rent controls and made it easy for landlords to get increases.

Said that the way to decrease prices was to "eat less" (Taft).

Failed to do anything about the housing shortage.

DON'T WRECK OUR CONSTITUTION!

WARNING!

Kentuckians, will you sit by while outside pressure groups take over your finances and your future?

Wrecking the Constitution will put you at the mercy of foreign theories and un-American ideas which could shatter the foundations upon which this great State was built.

They would distribute school funds on the basis of attendance. Thus, farm children would be handicapped — while big-city students would get a larger and unfair part of school taxes.

True Kentuckians! Only by your votes can we defend our schools, our homes and our State. On November 4th be sure to vote "NO" and vote AGAINST the dangerous CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION!

THE COMMITTEE OF 1000 KENTUCKIANS ASKS YOU TO VOTE NO!

(Please cut out and post this message at your voting place on election day!)

VOTE "NO"

BECAUSE REVISION COULD

1 Raise your taxes and increase state, county and city debts without limit and without your consent.

2 Provide unlimited salaries for tax-paid officials.

4 Merge counties and consolidate city and county governments.

5 Permit a governor to appoint city, county and state officials without your consent.

6 Give unlimited power to politicians, lobbyists and pressure groups.

7 Permit mixed schools and destroy our present, traditional school system.

Our Present Constitution Prevents All These!

BELLEVIEW SUNBEAM NEWS

The Sunbeams of the Belleview Baptist Church met at the home of Janice Rhea Ligon, Saturday, Oct. 18. There were twelve members, and one visitor Mrs. Dorothy Rogers present and the leaders Mrs. Espy Ligon and Mrs. Virginia Jones.

The following program was rendered:

The meeting opened by singing, "This Little Light of Mine," then prayer by entire Sunbeam Band. Virginia Jones told a story about Indian summer. Espy Ligon led in prayer and told another story about the life of Jesus. We learned some new songs and then each Sunbeam said a sentence prayer. The roll was called and was answered by giving the second commandment. The group gave the watchword and rally cry and gave the pledge to the Bible. We colored some on our Indians, then closed the meeting with prayer.

After the meeting games were played and Espy served ice cream and cookies, which were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Virginia Jones.

$60,000 CLEARED AT STATE FAIR THIS YEAR

After the smoke has cleared away and the State Fair Board summarized the activities of the 1947 Kentucky State Fair, the records show that the attendance exceeded 350,000, more than $60,000 was cleared, more than 1,700 head of livestock shown, the largest farm machinery display in the Central Midwest this year, 43 coutty exhibits, all space sold in the M & M Building, and a completely inside rebuilding of the horse show pavilion.

The board voted to pay off $278,000 worth of outstanding bonds, some of them not due until 1965, using operating revenue and funds paid by Tube Turns, Inc., for rental of Fair grounds and building during the war. Fair board president James Rash, who has attended the Fair for the past 40 years, stated that this is the first time in many years that the Kentucky State Fair is debt free.

Manager J. O. Mattlick, stated that a lease with the Ford Motor Company was renewed at $1,500 month, permitting the use of the Merchants and Manufacturers building for the 10 months that the Fair board does not use the building. The board approved leasing the poultry building and two cattle barns to International Harvester Company for storage purposes. The poultry building was leased for $800 monthly, and each born for $75.00 monthly. The Fair board hopes eventually to realize as much as $50,000 a year from Fair property rented to outside sources during the off-season months.

John Wherley, assistant manager said trotting races would be held at the 1948 Fair for the first time in years, adding this decision had been made following this year's Fair.

DIXIE HIGHWAY SPECIAL

MAYO'S FARM

I am offering for sale a 4-acre dairy farm. One of the prettiest spots on the Dixie Highway, between Covington and Lexington, Ky.

A six-room modern home, two stairways in home, large solarium. Inlaid linoleum throughout house, including stairways. Two baths, one on first and one on second floor. Oil-fired furnace, large fruit bin. New electric water heater, 50 gallons. Outside and inside entrance to basement. Storm windows and screens for entire house, including doors. Large reception hall, large front porch. New roof on house and all outbuildings. Modern cement block milk house. Large smoke house, large chicken house. New cement block, 2-car garage, with living quarters over. New aluminum overhead doors.

Modern dairy barn for 14 cows, including drinking fountains and barn sewered. Feed room 20 ft. x 20 ft. adjoining barn. New cement block outside toilet. One calving barn with four box stalls. Two well-fenced garden spots. New fence on entire farm, with fenced lane from front to back of place. Large lake, ever-running spring.

Two creeks on farm (and spring), plenty of water. Two large cisterns on farm. Two acres of woods. This farm averages $5000 per year income but could be increased. This farm has electric in all buildings with separate fuse boxes.

Bus passes the door every hour. This farm is located on Route No. 25, just four miles from Walton, four miles from Florence, just 15 miles from Cincinnati. School bus, bakery truck, newspaper, mailman—all at your door.

If you are looking for a real modern farm with very nice income—priced at just $38,000.

P. S. This farm has good rich soil—everything that was taken off was put back on. Has pastured 25 head of cattle for the past five years.

Clements Leading By 40,000 In State Returns

BOONE COUNTY GIVES DEMOCRACTIC CANDIDATE MAJORITY OF 951—CONVENTION VOTE IS 414 YES, AND 789 NO.

Returns from the seventeen precincts in Boone County gave Earle C. Clements, democratic candidate for governor, a majority of 951. The total vote was: Dummit 656, Clements 1607.

Unofficial returns from the State gave Clements a majority of 40,000 with this figure increasing as precincts were being tallied. The entire Democratic ticket was leading by a safe margin.

The Constitutional Convention was defeated in Boone County by a vote of 414 yes and 789 no. Returns from the State as a whole indicate that the Convention will be defeated by a large majority.

Walton Town Election

D. J. Roberts, P. R. Conrad, G. K. Nicholson, R. M. Hall and F. M. Demoisey were elected to serve as trustees for the town of Walton in the election held Tuesday.

Malcolm Simpson defeated his opponent John H. Wood for the office of Police Judge by a majority of 56.

Florence Town Election

Alfred Becker, George R. Scott, William Fitzgerald, Dr. John H. Bustetter and Clifford Coyle were elected by the citizens of Florence to serve as trustees at the election held Tuesday.

BROODER HOUSE ERECTED BY FFA

The F. F. A. boys of Burlington high have just completed construction of a 10x12 brooder house for two of its members, Bill and Bobby Acree. This house was constructed according to blue prints furnished by the University of Kentucky and will house 300 baby chicks.

The boys are also building some shelves in the school library which they plan to complete this week. These shelves will hold the books used by the grade students and the card file of the library.

The chapter sponsored a money raising booth at the Hallowe'en party. They were complimented on the attractiveness of their booth and all agree that their first venture and the party as a whole was a huge success. We have lots to do in our new class room and have many good uses for the money raised.

BOONE COUNTY 4-H YEAR ENDS

The last series of 4-H Club meetings held in October closed the Boone County 4-H year. The October meetings were held as chapel programs in the schools with club members arranging and carrying out the program. Achievement certificates were given to club members who completed the year's work.

Some club members have not turned in records books on project work. These members are urged to turn the books in to the Extension offices or Club Secretaries immediately so they may receive their certificates.

FLORENCE KNIGHTS DEFEATED BY ALUMNI

The Florence Knights, looking plenty good Hallowe'en night suffered defeat at the hands of the Alumni five by a score of 54-53 in an overtime period.

At the close of the regular playing time the score was 48-48. In the over-time period the Knights led 53-52 with about ten seconds to go, when "Doodle" Scott, '46 class, dumped in a shot from the side to take the game, 54-53.

RALLY DRAWS LARGE CROWD

AT BURLINGTON SCHOOL MONDAY EVENING—INTERESTING TALKS GIVEN BY COACH, PRINCIPAL, SUPERINTENDENT

The bonfire pep rally held at the Burlington high school Monday evening attracted a large number of patrons from this community. The number was estimated at approximately two hundred.

The program arranged by Reynold Todtenbier, Bob Brown and Bud Abbott, was interesting and entertaining. The crowd formed in parade columns and marched around the main square of Burlington, led by the Burlington School Band.

Returning to the school yard, where a bonfire was burning, songs, band music and yells were given by the audience and leaders. Eagle team members were then introduced by Coach Maurer, after which he gave a brief talk, expressing the desire for a strong team this year.

Edwin Walton, principal of the the school spoke briefly on the progress made by the team this year. He was followed by H. N. Ockerman and Rev. R. A. Johnson, who gave brief talks.

CONSTANCE BOY STATIONED IN JAPAN

Technician Third Grade William G. Lose, of Constance, Ky., is presently serving with the First Calvary Division, which played such a prominent role in the war. The famous division is now occupying the 12 prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohoma Area.

Overseas this time since January 1947, Tech. 3 Loge is assigned to Headquarters Battery of the 1st Cav. Div. Arty. He works at the nearby air strip servicing our L5's. He recently returned from a 10-day pass to Kanoya Hotel in Nikko, the mountain spot of Honshu, Japan.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Loze live in Constance, Ky.

TWO LARGE LAND SALES REPORTED

SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FOUR ACRES INVOLVED IN TWO FARM SALES, ACCORDING TO REAL ESTATE AGENT.

Two of the largest real estate sales made in Boone County for some time, in the point of acreage and money value, occurred during the past week.

A. C. Saunders, editor of the Kentucky Post, sold his farm of 286 acres, 4 miles west of Burlington, on Woolper Road, to Irwin C. Gaines, of Walton, including 25 registered Guernsey cows, heifers, feed, tractor, farm equipment and tobacco. Mr. Saunders purchased this farm from Wilford Dixon a year ago. It is known as the R. B. Huey farm and regarded as one of the best in the county. Mr. Gaines sold his dry cleaning business in Walton and was in the market for a good farm. The tenant, H. R. Parker, has the privilege of remaining on the farm until next March, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Gaines will move to their new home and continue operation of the high class dairy.

James R. Faulkner and Ora P. Judy sold their farm of 348 acres, 3 miles south of Burlington, on East Bend Road, to Richard Guenther of Bellevue, Campbell County, including 34 head of cows and heifers, feed, tobacco, tractor and farm tools.

This is a well located farm with large tobacco base, returning a good income from the dairy and other farm operations. This is known as the Henry Clore farm and was purchased by Judy and Faulkner about a year ago from Mrs. Edna Doan Broughton. Mr. Guenther and his wife will take complete possession of the farm within 30 days.

JOHNSON-BAKER

An event of October 25 at Florence Methodist Church was the setting for the marirage of Miss Juanita Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnson, of Burlington Road, Florence to Mr. Wilton Baker, of Hamliton, Ohio. Rev. O. W. Robinson, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Paul Chaney at the organ played "I Love You Truly," and Miss Beverly Markesbery accompanied by Mr. Chaney, sang "Because." The traditional "Wedding March" from Lohengrin was rendered as the bridal party entered.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her white satin gown made along princess lines ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was held by a coronet of tiny orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Ruby Baker, sister of the groom wore a blue crepe dress which was also fashioned along princess lines. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Little Decker Jean Johnson, niece of the bride, was dressed in a dainty blue floor length dress and carried a basket of rose petals. The ring bearer was Jerome Baker, nephew of the groom.

Mr. Waldecker Johnson, brother of the bride was best man. Ushers were Donald Watts and Donald Washburn.

Following the ceremony a beautiful reception was given at the home of the bride. The newly wedded couple will make their future home in Hamilton, Ohio.

EAGLES TROUNCE DRY RIDGE FIVE

IN OPENING GAME OF SEASON BY SCORE OF 42-32—RESERVES LOSE BY SCORE OF 16-13.

Burlington's Eagles trounced the Dry Ridge five Tuesday night in the opening game of the season by a score of 42-32 on the winner's floor.

Coach Maurer's Eagles played a splendid defensive, as well offensive game, holding Hitch, star Dry Ridge player to fifteen points.

The game was well played by both teams and was evenly contested throughout the first half, with the first quarter ending 6-6, half Dry Ridge 12, Burlington 15. Burlington held a safe margin throughout the remainder of the game leading 20-25 at the close of the third quarter.

Todtenbier, new comer to the Burlington team, led the attack for the Eagles with 26, while Hitch was high point man for the visitors with 15.

Burlington's passing attack is much improved, and every member of the team played a splendid game, offensively and defensively.

In the preliminary game, the Dry Ridge reserves won over the Eagle reserves by a score of 16-13.

Coach Maurer's Eagles travel to New Haven Friday night for their first conference game. New Haven, with a squad of six footers, is reported to have one of the best teams in northern Kentucky, and expected to be Burlington's toughest competition in the County.

New Haven suffered defeat in a closely contested game Tuesday on the New Haven hardwood, when Corinth emerged on the long end of a 28-27 count. New Haven was handicapped, as Knox, star player did not appear with the team.

ASSISTANT HOME AGENT APPOINTED

Miss Eugenia Donahue from Fayette County has been appointed the Assistant Home Demonstration Agent in Boone County. She will remain in this county for two months to observe the Extension program.

Miss Donahue received her B. S. Degree in Home Economics from the University of Kentucky in June. During the last four months, she has been the Assistant Home Demonstration Agent in Garrard County.

It was reported at this office Monday that "posted" signs have been destroyed on one or more farms in this county. Persons destroying such signs are subject to arrest and a fine.

Committee For Boone County Holds Meeting

SEVENTEEN POINT PROGRAM IS GROUPED INTO EIGHT POINT SET-UP—REPORTS GIVEN BY COMMITTEEMEN.

The semi-annual meeting of the committee for Boone County met last Wednesday in the County Agent's office. Since Rev. Will Smith, county chairman, was out of the county for the day, Bill Davis, County Agent, presided at the meeting.

At an executive committee meeting several weeks ago, the seventeen point county program as was planned in January, 1946, was grouped into an eight point program. The committee felt several points could be grouped together under Farm Improvement.

Reports were wiven by the following committees:

1. Rural Roads, building, repairing, clearing, and beautifying, Judge C. L. Cropper, chairman. The report was given by H. E. White, member of the fiscal court. He reported Boone County had $48,000 in the road fund annually. A suggestion was made that the fiscal court help find someone who could make a primary survey of rural roads. The state will pay for the survey.

2. Electricity for all farms, Rev. Will Smith, chairman. Following is his written report read to the committee:

Three major companies operate in Boone County, Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company with office in Cincinnati, Ohio, operates mostly in the Northern part of Boone County; Community Public Service with office at Walton, Ky., operates in most of the towns of Boone County and along the main highway; R. E. A., with office at Owenton, Ky., operates in the more remote sections of Boone County, where other lines failed to serve.

These three companies have lines or will have in the near future that will make a complet coverage of the area in Boone County, so that any farm desiring service will be able to secure service.

R. E. A. is to open bids for the building of 169 miles of line with 60 miles of this line in Boone County, on October 31, 1947. These people should have service by January 7, 1948. R. E. A. has negotiated the loan to care for the other applicants, which will be built during the early part of 1948.

3. Improvement of all Rural Homes, Mrs. Clyde Arnold, reported instead of Mrs. Stanley Ransom; chairman. She recommended that erection of farm buildings should be postponed until building materials are more available. The entire committee recommended improvement of the Boone County telephone system.

4. Farm Improvement:

a. Marketing—H. E. White told about the growth of the Boone County Wool Pool. He stated that the wool pool always gets 2 to 3 cents more per pound for wool than the open market.

b. Water Supply—J. C. Acree suggested that probably too much money is spent on farm water supply and not enough for home water supply systems.

c. Crops—Since the chairman could not be present, Mr. Davis gave the following report: 124 demonstrations with new crop varieties were started in 1947 in an effort to find improved varieties. Crops tested were tobacco, Kentucky 31 Fescue, Ladino clover, sweet corn, cantaloupes, watermelons, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, field corn and pasture grasses.

d. Soil Improvement—William E. Davis reported 200 tons of superphosphate have been delivered to farmers to date in 1947. An additional 120 tons are approved and should be delivered before January 1, 8000 tons of limestone have been spread and dealers are still busy filling orders.

Other soil building practices have not been tabulated and so a complete report was not available.

e. Workshop and Farm Report—J. R. Huey, chairman, told that 50 boys are enrolled in vocational agriculture at Hebron and Burlington. He hopes to have machine shops at the two schools available to the whole community.

f. Farm Organization—John Crigler, chairman.

g. Livestock—George S. Knox, chairman.

We have organized an artificial breeding cooperation with 127 members and 1256 cows. Of these cows, approximately 600 have been bred successfully. We still have

BOONE FARMER WOUNDED THURS.

BY SHOTGUN BLAST FROM GUN OF UNKNOWN ASSAILANT—STOVE DEFLECTS CHARGE, ACCORDING TO SHERIFF.

R. I. Rouse Sheriff of Boone County is investigating the shotgun wounding of Tom Clarkson, 20, farmer of near Kensington, in a mysterious shooting Thursday night in the youth's home.

Clarkson escaped with minor injuries, although some 15 pellets entered the youth's face, hand and arms.

According to Sheriff R. I. Rouse the assailant apparently fired the gun through the lower pane of a kitchen window as he started to use the telephone in the kitchen. A stove which stood in front of the window deflected a majority of the shot and probably saved the life of Clarkson. Numerous shot were found in the telephone and a door near the telephone, according to Sheriff Rouse.

THOMAS McINTYRE

Thomas McIntyre, life-long resident of the Beaver community, died at his home Tuesday morning, following a prolonged illness. He was 78.

He was a member of the Hughes Chapel M. E. Church and has been a resident of Beaver for more than 50 years.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Elisha Allen, Beaver Lick, one granddaughter, Mrs. Sarah Poole, one sister, Mrs. Wm. Sanders, of Covington and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted today (Thursday) at 2:00 p. m. at Hughes Chapel. Burial will be in Hughes Chapel Cemetery.

Chambers & Grubbs, funeral directors are in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Kelly left Monday by plane for their home in Arizona, having been called by a death in the family. They expect to return here soon.

ELECTION DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

BY AAA COMMITTEE—FARMERS IN EACH COMMUNITY WILL ELECT COMMITTEEMEN AND ALTERNATES.

The schedule for Agricultural Conservation Program AAA Committee elections in Boone County was released this week by W. M. Smith, chairman of the County Committee.

Farmers in each community will elect a committee of three farmers plus two alternates. At the same time a farmer delegate and alternate to the County Convention will be chosen, who with delegates from other communities will elect a three-man County committee.

The County has been redistricted and divided into five districts instead of 11 as heretofore. The County districts are as follows:

District No. 1—Petersburg, Hebron and Constance.

District No. 2—Grant, Burlington and Florence.

District No. 3—Carlton and Hamilton.

District No. 4—Union and Beaverlick.

District No. 5—Walton and Verona.

Polling places, the date and hour for the five community elections in the county are as follows:

District No. 1 at Hebron Bank.

District No. 2 at Burlington court house.

District No. 3, at Hamilton school house.

District No. 5, at Dixie State Bank, Walton.

The election will be held November 21st at 1:30 p. m. and the delegates elected to elect the County committee will meet at the AAA office in Burlington November 22, at 1:30 p. m.

BULLITTSVILLE

Mary Lou Hill visited relatives in Ludlow several days last week.

Jim Wainscott's road which was churned up by the heavy storm in September has been repaired and is better than ever.

Jim Nichols returned last week from two weeks' duty on the USS Wisconsin. He went to Porto Rico. He is a member of the Naval Reserve.

Earl Souther went to Warsaw Saturday to recover his car which had been stolen in Bromley the week before.

The Hallowe'en party at the Bullittsville Christian Church was well attended. Prizes were given children as follows. For the best dressed, little Karen Wohrley, as a fairy; the most comical, John Rouse, as a clown and the most original, Dixie Johnson as a cricket. Prizes to the adults were for the best dressed, the cake vendors Doris and Belva Ann Engle; the most original, the Shaker "Woman" A. W. Rogers and the most comical Mrs. Thelma Mattox and Mrs. Louise Rouse, back woods farmers, complete with live kitten and rooster. Betty Schweir won a guessing contest open to both adults and children. Cider, coffee and doughnuts were served.

Work is progressing on the following homes: The Suttons and Delbert Engle's in the new subdivision, the V. E. Ware's on the Bullittsville Church road, the Mattox's and the Burnam Roberts' on the highway.

Mrs. Betty Johnson does not improve as we could wish. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Utzinger are caring for four of her children, while Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kottmyer have Dixie and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hodge have Eddie.

Please leave items for this column at Whitaker's and Engle's stores.

HOMEMAKERS URGED TO USE MORE FRUITS

Feature fruit desserts in family meals this fall, food economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture suggest. A variety of fruits—fresh, dried and canned—are abundant on markets this fall, and some are selling at prices below a year ago. For sweetening fruits, supplies of syrup and sugar are adequate.

The more fruit is used for desserts, the less the need for cakes and puddings that call for such items as flour and other cereals, eggs and fat.

Following are some simple appetizing desserts, using fruits that will be plentiful on markets generally this fall, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie:

Baked Pears: Cut fresh pears in half lengthwise and remove cores. Combine a small amount of sugar or honey with a little water and lemon juice in a saucepan. Cook together a few minutes to make a syrup. Place pears in a shallow baking dish. Pour syrup on and around pears. Cover the dish and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) until fruit becomes soft—about 20 to 30 minutes, depending on the firmness. Remove the cover on the pan and continue cooking about 10 minutes longer, basting the pears with the syrup a few times to glaze them. Serve hot or cold with or without cream.

Spiced Dried Fruit: Use any of the plentiful dried fruits, prunes, raisins, peaches, or apples, as desired. Wash the fruit, put in a saucepan and cover with boiling water. Soak about an hour—or until the fruit is soft throughout. Avoid too long soaking because it draws out too much flavor. Simmer the fruit slowly in the same water in which it soaked until it is tender. Add a very small amount of spice—clover, nutmeg, cinnamon or allspice, and sugar to taste. Cook a few minutes longer. The sweeter dried fruits like prunes and raisins need little or no sugar; but dried peaches and apples need about a fourth cup of sugar for each cup of dried fruit.

For extra fresh fruit flavor and vitamin C, squeeze lemon or orange juice over the spiced fruit just before serving.

Chilled Fruit Bowl: A mixture of fresh cut fruits makes an appetizing, colorful dessert. Choose the fresh fruits that are plentiful on the market. The mixture may include: sliced small oranges or grapefruit segments; diced apples—with the red peel left on, diced pears and halves, seeded california grapes. Raisins may be added also.

Hold the oranges or grapefruit over the bowl when peeling and cutting to save juice that drips. It will help keep the apples and pears from darkening. Sweeten with sugar on honey as desired. Chill before serving.

WINTER TIPS FOR DAIRYMEN

Dairymen intending to get maximum production during the winter, might well examine their management program to see if they are doing all that is possible to help their animals reach maximum production, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Here are a few things that should be done:

See that barns are properly ventilated but eliminate all sources of draft.

Remove and eliminate obstructions in barns and barn yards that might injure cows. Look for high doorsteps, boulders, and logs that might cause udder injury.

Provide adequate bedding to protect udders from floors that may cause injury.

Make plans for adequate water. Cows can't produce well on one drink of ice water a day.

Make sure that loose salt is available at all times.

Utilize winter pastures to the fullest extent. They are the cheapest source of total digestible nutrients for fall, winter and spring months.

Provide an abundance of good, green, leafy hay. Grain is high and cows will require less grain if high quality hay is fed.

Feed grain according to production. High producing cows will respond most to liberal grain feeding. Feed grain to dry cows to condition them for freshening.

Cull your herd closely. Feed is too high to waste on boarders. Testing herds makes the job of culling easier.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

The home of Miss Minnie Baxter was the scene of a joyous day on Sunday, November 2 and a complete surprise to her, it being her birthday. All came with well filled baskets, and at the noon hour the table was spread with delicious food. She received a number of beautiful and useful gifts.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Senour, of Blue Ash, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter, of Sharonville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rasch and son Bobbie of Deer Park, Cincinnati; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee Senour and daughter Betty and son Glenn and Chas. Beall and Miss Minnie Baxter.

BURLINGTON P.-T. A.

The Burlington P.-T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday night, November 9th at 8:00 p. m. at the school house.

The P.-T. A. Hallowe'en party was well attended. Door prize was donated by Robert Clore, of Clore's Modern Appliance. Other merchandise as prizes were donated by the Burlington Hardware Store, Gulley & Pettit's Store, Kirkpatrick's Store and Smith's Grocery.

Much cooperation on the part of everyone made this party a success.

two months left in our first breeding year. Services during these two months are expected to be quite heavy.

The Boone County Farm Bureau is working at the present time to interest other locals and the state organization in a Bang's disease control program with teeth in it. Our present laws have too many loopholes and present appropriations are insufficient for carrying on an adequate program.

We have communications with the Department of Agriculture giving present appropriations and intend to do all in our power to obtain sufficient appropriations to properly combat and eliminate Bang's Disease.

5. Rural Recreation, Walter Brown, Mrs. Sibbia Reimer, Mrs. A. B. Nichols and Rev. Roy Johnson. The homemakers recreational program which included eight hobby fairs was described by Mrs. Nichols. Rev. Johnson described the baseball league composed of 8 clubs. Grant County has requested the league set-up.

6. Education:

a. Schools—Edwin Walton, H. N. Ockerman. Mr. Ockerman suggested that schools be used more as a community center.

b. G. I. Farm Program—Glenn Rekens and J. R. Huey. Mr. Huey reported that veterans are required to have 300 hours training. Some veterans are eligible for two to four years training. Approximately 30 veterans are enrolled and others are waiting the opening of a new class.

c. Adult—Mary Hood Gillaspie reported that a total of 400 Women are enrolled in seventeen groups.

7. Rural Health—Dr. George H. Riley and Miss Elizabeth Lowry. Dr. Riley told that the possibility of a hospital for Boone County is remote since the federal government would furnish $100,000 and the County $200,000. Miss Lowry stressed the Crippled Children's Clinic, Cancer Clinic and Veneral Clinics open to Boone Countians in Covington.

8. Industries—Ralph Stith and A. E. Stephens.

You'll Need an Expert

Don't waste meat This country and Euorpe need every pound of it.

If this fall and winter are like last year, you'll need an expert to protect your meat. Livestock owners have been asked to feed as little grain as possible. This means early slaughter, with great risk of spoilage from a sudden change in weather.

Bring your beef and pork to us—on foot or immediately after slaughter. Our refrigerated rooms and modern sanitary equipment give you maximum protection.

This is no time to waste meat. Do your part to save it. Eat sparingly now—put the rest in your locker for later use.

DIXIE HIGHWAY SPECIAL

MAYO'S FARM

I am offering for sale a 41-acre dairy farm. One of the prettiest spots on the Dixie Highway, between Covington and Lexington, Ky.

A six-room modern home, two stairways in home, large solarium. Inlaid linoleum throughout house, including stairways. Two baths, one on first and one on second floor. Oil-fired furnace, large fruit bin. New electric water heater, 50 gallons. Outside and inside entrance to basement. Storm windows and screens for entire house, including doors. Large reception hall, large front porch. New roof on house and all outbuildings. Modern cement block milk house. Large smoke house, large chicken house. New cement block, 2-car garage, with living quarters over. New aluminum overhead doors.

Modern dairy barn for 14 cows, including drinking fountains and barn sewered. Feed room 20 ft. x 20 ft. adjoining barn. New cement block outside toilet. One calving barn with four box stalls. Two well-fenced garden spots. New fence on entire farm, with fenced lane from front to back of place. Large lake, ever-running spring.

Two creeks on farm (and spring), plenty of water. Two large cisterns on farm. Two acres of woods. This farm averages $5000 per year income but could be increased. This farm has electric in all buildings with separate fuse boxes.

Bus passes the door every hour. This farm is located on Route No. 25, just four miles from Walton, four miles from Florence, just 15 miles from Cincinnati. School bus, bakery truck, newspaper, mailman—all at your door.

If you are looking for a real modern farm with very nice income—priced at just $38,000.

P. S. This farm has good rich soil—everything that was taken off was put back on. Has pastured 25 head of cattle for the past five years.

Just Let Me Tell You A Few Facts About Walking, So You'll Realize Just How Much It Can Do For You

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

The normal heart, you know, beats about seventy-two times a minute and pumps about six ounces of blood with each beat. Now, in fast walking, or at the rate of four miles an hour—(which is how fast you should walk to do you some good)—you'll find the normal heart will INCREASE its beat ten times to the minute, pumping six ounces of blood at each beat, gives sixty ounces per minute or 3600 an hour, which is 225 pounds. You can easily see that 225 ADDITIONAL pounds of blood pumped DAILY through your veins means just that much more life to your whole body.

There's no use of my telling you to get out and walk if you are having trouble with your feet, because I know you won't do it. BUT—if I tell you how to get rid of those aching, paining feet, first—then there's nothing to keep you from walking every day and benefitting your health by this wonderful exercise.

It has also been found that millions suffer without knowing the reason why—those headaches, those leg pains, and even sleepless nights may be caused by the shoes you are wearings.—Adv.

The Oldham county artificial breeding cooperative has 162 members with 1,900 cows signed up.

New Shuffles In Labor Unions

John L. Lewis "got the pants kicked off his face" and suffered a severe political and personal setback in his ambitions to become a dictator over the AFL. He also suffered a bad setback at the hands of the CIO.

A leading editorial in the Washington News, a Scripps-Howard Newspaper said that the AFL and the CIO have "affirmed, by deeds and not by words, the fact that these two big labor organizations, with a total membership of around 14,000,000 are loyal and Democratic."

Lewis was vice president No. 11 in the AFL. The AFL and CIO conventions both turned their backs on Lewis. According to the News: "The heartening thing about the outcome of these two convention struggles is that it gives evidence that the labor movement has within it the will and ability to clean its own house."

No one would be inclined to quarrel with the AFL convention over its threat to "combat the Taft-Hartley law and other anti-labor legislation." The Weekly News Service of AFL has taken that position against the Act of Congress.

If the Taft-Hartley law is all that Congress believes it to be, it should be enforced wherever there is even a suspicion that different branches of industrial organizations or groups are wrong. The "proof of the pudding" is in the operation and enforcement.

Do not forget when you are condemning the Taft-Hartley law the historic fact that President Truman vetoed this legislation twice. Congress overrode both of those vetoes in 1947 by more than two-thirds of the total vote of the House of Representatives and the Senate. The Democrats voted with the Republicans in Congress, because they could not see any point of advantage to the country in sustaining the arbitrary political position of Mr. Truman in trying to ride roughshod over a Congress that had legislated in the public interests, honestly and intelligently.

Secretary Krug on Resources

The Secretary of the Interior admits that he is "more than ever impressed with the extraordinary difficulty of reviewing the problem of national resources and foreign aid in proper perspective." He observes that "the need for the conservation of our raw material sources is greater than ever before."

His personal and official views seem to be very intelligently expressed, and while he favors aid to foreign nations he does not skip what he believes to be his duty in calling attention to some of the vital questions that are involved in the United States policy. He said: "It is self-evident that even a country as wealthy in resources as the United States can not long underwrite the material deficits of other nations without serious impacts upon its economy and its resources."

Chasing Their Tails

It is becoming the fashion in some quarters to blame industrial profits for high prices. But the people who talk in that vein carefully avoid the fact that the increase in labor costs, in most basic industries, is an infinitely more important factor than the profits earned by owners.

The soft coal industry presents an exceptionally good example of that. The miners have received more and more money for less and less work. The recently-negotiated contract provided for an increase of $1.20 for each work day—and for a reduction of an hour and fifteen minutes in working time. This involves increases in payroll costs of more than half a million dollars per day, in an industry which earned only $40,000,000 last year.

The miners are also receiving $100 in lump sum vacation payments. The total cost of that alone just about equals the entire net profit of the industry in 1946. Finally, the operators will pay around $60,000,000 into the miners' welfare funds during 1947. That is substantially more than the entire profits of the industry.

There is the reason for increased coal prices—just as similar conditions in other industries are the reason for most other high prices. The inevitable result is that increased wages are inexorably swallowed up by constant price increases. The trend cannot be reversed until labor really puts its shoulders to the wheel and delivers maximum production in return for maximum pay.

ELMER ADAMS, JR. SEVERELY BEATEN

BY FOUR MEN ON LOWER RIVER ROAD THURSDAY—WAS RECENTLY RELEASED BY BOONE OFFICIALS.

Elmer Adams, Jr., son of Mrs. Anna Moier, of near Constance suffered severe injuries at the hands of four unidentified men late Thursday on Lower River Road, near Bromley.

According to reports, the four men riding in a car along Lower River Road, stopped, calling Adams to the car. They alighted from the automobile and attacked him. He was knocked to the ground and kicked in the face and ribs. The four, all of whom he described as about 22 years old, got back in the car and drove off.

The youth was unable to give an accurate description of his attackers. He said he had never seen any of the group before.

Adams was recently released by Boone County officials on a charge of assault.

FARM BUREAU MEETING SCHEDULED

The directors of the Boone County Farm Bureau will meet at 8:00 p. m. in the County Agent's office on Thursday, November 13. All directors are urged to attend.

CO. AGENT DAVIS HEARD OVER WZIP

TUESDAY MORNING—POINTERS GIVEN ON GRAIN SAVING PROGRAM REQUESTED BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

"With emphasis being put on grain saving by our government, it behooves us, as good farmers to do everything possible to save grains, as an aid to the grain export program, as well as for profit to ourselves," said Bill Davis, County Agent of Boone County, over radio station WZIP, Tuesday morning at 7:30.

Mr. Davis gave a fifteen-minute talk in connection with the farm hour program over this station. His speech, in part, follows:

"Kentucky with her large acreage of winter cover crops sown this year, her expanding program of pasture improvement, her developing use of grass silage, her open winters and long grazing season, and her large number of grazing livestock, is in an excellent position to push these grain saving measures.

"I would like to call your attention to a few grain saving practices that you can use. In the production of beef cattle for instance, there are at least five good practices that will result in more beef at less cost and more grain saved.

"Finish steers on little or no grain. Steers weighing 700 to 800 pounds in October can be wintered mostly on cheap harvested roughages and winter pasture, and finished on pasture next summer. They will weigh 1100-1200 pounds and grade good to choice by August or September. This plan will save 20-40 bushels of grain per steer. Although these steers will carry less finish and weigh less than if grain fed, they will usually return more net profit, at less financial risk.

"Another grain saving method of producing meat is use of the Kentucky Cow and Calf Plan. Farmers who have plenty of good pasture and the ability to manage a breeding herd will find this plan a safe and profitable means of using a large amount of roughage. This plan will yield a 600 to 800 pound milk fat baby beef at ten months of age, with a low investment and the use of little or no grain.

"Another point to consider, is the culling of the herd. Get rid of barren cows, shy breeders, poor milkers, and those that produce poor calves. Select herd sires on the basis of type and production as well as on pedigree. Purebreds almost always prove better than grades and scrubs.

"Further saving is accomplished by the control of warbles and flies. Contented healthy animals produce more meat, milk, wool and eggs with less feed than those tormented by parasites.

"Grass silage is an excellent substitute for grain. Every silo filled with grass silage will save ovr 80 bushels of corn. It has about the same fattening power as corn silage, and contains more protein, vitamins and minerals. Make grass silage from surplus early pasture or hay crops threatened by bad weather. If you have no silo, build one, or dig a trench silo.

"In sheep production, some of these points should be considered.

"The use of specially built racks and troughs save much feed that would otherwise be wasted. Troughs and bunkers should be made so as to prevent lambs or sheep from getting in the feed with their feet or otherwise befouling it, and to prevent waste of feed.

"Internal parasites of sheep cause enormous waste of grain. Dose all sheep, both ewes and rams, with phenothiazine, in November or December, but do not dose pregnant ewes within a month of lambing. A follow up dose in the spring after lambing and the feeding of a phenothiazine-salt mixture during the summer will control these parasites.

"Dipping will control the ticks and lice.

"It must be remembered that the most critical feeding period of ewes is during the last three weeks of pregnancy. At this time, it may be necessary to feed some grain so the ewes will gain in flesh at this time to prevent ketosis or pregnancy disease.

"The use of winter pastures and silage apply here as well as to other types of livestock production.

"In feeding dairy cattle, grain should only be used as a supplement for hay, pasture, silage or other roughage. Much of the grains generally used in cow rations are mill by-products and distiller's by-products. These are not widely used for human consumption, but contain the protein needed by high producing cows.

"Good legume hay cut during the early bloom stage provides the highest feeding value. Plan now for one acre of good legume hay for each cow in the herd.

Other practices such as culling proper management of pastures, and the use of grass silages will result in grain savings.

"In the production of pork it must be remembered that the loss of each pig at birth means a waste of 140 pounds of feed and each loss at weaning time represents a loss of 260 pound of feed. The use of sloping floors in the farrowing house and pig brooders in cold weather will reduce losses.

'A sanitation program for hogs is much better than treating for worms. Healthy pigs use 20% less feed than wormy ones.

"Provide pasture for hogs. An acre of alfalfa or small grain pasture is worth an acre of good corn in raising hogs. Keep the pasture short and tender and graze hogs all year. Feed legume hay to hogs not on pasture.

"Self feed balanced rations, such as corn and tankage, skimmilk or other supplement. One pound of tankage fed with corn to hogs in pasture saves three pounds of corn, or as much as six pounds of corn if fed to hogs in dry lots.

"Pigs should be marketed at 200-225 pounds. It take a bushel more grain to put the third hundred pounds on a pig that it did to put on the second hundred pounds.

"There are several practices which poultry raisers can follow that will make grain go farther and also make a substantial saving in the total amount used. Cereal grains such as corn, wheat and oats are fed as whole grains and in mashes. Therefore, saving both grain and mash will result in saving cereal grains.

"Some practices that will help make feed go farther are:

"Sell roosters unless the flock is to be used as a hatchery supply flock. Each rooster sold means about sixty pounds less grain needed for the year.

"Use feeders with a lip to prevent layers from billing the feed out of the feeders. Less feed is wasted if feeds are filled only half full at each feeding.

"Follow the all pullet flock program. Good pullets produce more eggs than old hens, and eat less feed per dozen eggs laid.

"Culling low producers out of the flock and using pasture and leafy, green legume hay also results in grain saving.

"This program was not designed to cover the entire feeding and management programs of various types of livestock, but merely to point out several ways of saving cereal grain. Detailed feeding and management programs will be given at later dates."

BURLEY MARTS TO OPEN DECEMBER 1

MANY HOUSES NOW OPEN TO RECEIVE WEED—CHANT OF AUCTIONEER WILL BE HEARD SOON.

Burley sales will open Monday, December 1st, it was announced this week by several leading warehousemen from various markets.

With favorable weather conditions between now and opening day, it is expected that a large amount of burley will be ready for the market, and sales will probably be heavy until the holiday closing date.

In this week's issue of The Recorder we carry the advertisement of three warehouses. They are, The Covington Independent Warehouse, Big Burley Warehouse, Inc., and the Carrollton Tobacco Warehouse Co. Complete advertisement will be found in this issue.

The Covington Independent Warehouse is located on the Dixie Highway, U. S. 25, Covington, Ky., just north of Erlanger, and will be open to receive tobacco Monday, November 17th. Officers in charge at the warehouse are Boyd Elliott, John W. Grant, E. S. West, Jim Pennington, Frank D. Cooke and W. C. Spence.

The Big Burley is located at Carrollton, Ky., and lists a staff of experienced men in charge of the sales. Officers in charge are Ike Smith, Elmer Stafford, Bud Scudder, Joe Brown, Walter Kennedy, Blaine Devore, Gail Sanders, Paul Carver, Hugh McClure, Price Furnish, Gex Diuguid, Otto Johnson, John Elmore and Estell Thomas.

FOUNDER OF LUMBER FIRM DIES AT HOME

Services were held Tuesday, November 4, at 2 p. m. at the Baiter funeral home, 3412 Clifton Ave., for Charles P. Hagemeyer, 80, 248 Ludlow Avenue, Clifton, widely known lumberman, who died Saturday, Nov. 1 at his home, after an extended illness. A Masonic service was held at the funeral home.

Mr. Hagemeyer, a native of Cincinnati, started in the lumber business 60 years ago when he formed a partnership with his brother, the late C. C. Hagemeyer, operating a hardwood sawmill in Butler, Ky. Operations were later moved south to Tennessee.

In the early 1920's he formed the Erlanger Lumber Co., Erlanger, Ky., and remained as president until he retired two years ago. His son, William C. Hagemeyer, Summit Lane, Ft. Mitchell Heights, is now president.

Mr. Hagemeyer was a Thirty-second Degree Mason, a Scottish Rite member and a Knight Templar, having been a member of the order for 58 years. He was a director of the Lumberman's Mutual Insurance Co., for 15 years and a trustee of the Clifton Methodist Church.

In addition to his son, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Maud Shaw Hagemeyer; a daughter, Mrs. Nicholas J. Chepoorin, 540 McAlpin Ave., Clifton, a teacher at Hughes High School, and a sister, Mrs. Emma H. Yelton, Riverside, California. There are two grandchildren.

MRS. NORA BLACKWELL

Mrs. Nora B. Blackwell, died Sunday at her home in Verona. She was 69 years old.

Mrs. Blackwell was a member of Walton Chapter No. 161, Order of Eastern Star.

Funeral services were held in Covington Wednesday at 2 p. m., with burial in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

The Florence P.-T. A. will meet at the school auditorium Thursday night, November 13 at 8:00 p. m.

TRUCK GROWERS WILL MEET TUES.

AT CONSTANCE SCHOOL BUILDING—JOHN GARDNER, GARDEN SPECIALIST WILL BE SPEAKER.

John Gardner, Garden Specialist from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky will meet with truck growers in the Constance School at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, November 18th, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Mr. Gardner will discuss new varieties that have been tried throughout the state that might prove profitable in this area. Preliminary plans of the truck growers commodity program will be made at this meeting.

Truck growers from all sections of the county are urged to attend this meeting.

CHARLES KESSLER

Requiem High Mass for Charles Kessler, 64-year-old resident of Florence was sung at St. Paul Church, Florence at 9 a. m. Thursday. Burial was in St. Mary Cemtery.

Mr. Kessler died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Flora Kessler; two sons, Irvin, Covington and Edward Kessler, Florence; three daughters, Mrs. Irma Markesbery, Florence; Mrs. Mildred Folmer, Independence, and Mrs. Norma Huser, Erlanger; two brothers, Henry, Indianapolis and Edward Kessler, Cleveland, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Dunham, of Cincinnati.

BOONE FARMERS TO NAME OFFICERS

AT ELECTION SCHEDULED NOVEMBER 21—FARMERS PARTICIPATING IN 1947 AAA PROGRAM ELIGIBLE TO VOTE.

Boone County eligible farmers are being urged to show interest in the local administration of national farm program by full attendance at the meeting. Boone County farmers eligible to vote is any farmer participating in the 1947 Agricultural Conservation program. This includes owners, operators, tenants, and sharecroppers on farms where these programs are being carried out, or anyone who has a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

The duties of local committeemen include recommending programs, action determining acreage allotments, and otherwise administering federal farm programs.

Choosing conservation practices for which Federal assistance is offered, Boone County has ordered and received 850 tons of limestone and 480 thousand pounds of phosphate as grant of aid for 1947.

The committee's job is allocating among farmers the funds available for meeting conservation needs, and handling price-support operations. Be sure and go to your community election and help elect your committee for 1948.

HOOP SEASON IN FULL SWING

HEBRON, FLORENCE AND NEW HAVEN CHALK UP VICTORIES IN GAMES LAST WEEK ON LOCAL HARDWOOD.

The following is a list of games last week and their results:

Corinth 28; New Haven 27.
Florence 37; Walton 35
Highland 78; Florence 63.
Alumni 54; Florence 53
Hebron 62; Crittenden 19.
New Haven 36; Burlington 28

Boone County basketball got into full swing last week with all teams playing one or more contests.

Hebron's highly touted cardinals paced by McGlasson and Toadvine, who scored 39 points between them defeated Crittenden 62 to 19 at Hebron.

Florence's Knights, after losing practice games to Highland and the Alumni squeezed by Walton's Bearcats 37-35 in an overtime game. Rouse and Baker looked best for the winners with Vest starring for Walton.

New Haven without the services of several regulars dropped a 28 to 27 tilt with Corinth last Tuesday, but came back with a full linetup Friday night to trim Burlington 36-28. Knox, Simpson and Howard were offensive threats for the Tigers with Miller and Todtenber leading the Eagles.

Games this week include:
Friday, Nov. 14:
Burlington at Owenton.
New Haven at Hebron.
Walton at Williamstown.
Florence at Dry Ridge.
Tuesday, November 18:
Hebron at St. Henry.
Beechwood at Florence.
Burlington at Goshen, Ohio.

MAN RAISES HIS ARMS ABOVE HIS HEAD FOR FIRST TIME IN YEARS

A few days ago a man said the rheumatic pains in his arms and shoulders disappeared and now he can raise his arms above his head for the first time in years. He said the pains he used to have from this rheumatism were simply awful. Sometimes his knees and hips were stiff and sore but the pains were mostly in the back of his neck and across his shoulders. Now, however, his suffering is entirely gone and he says the change is due to taking TRU-AID. "Oh! What relief!", states this man. "Why don't other rheumatic sufferers get TRU-AID."

TRU-AID is a new formula. It contains Three Great Ingredients, so it is almost like taking three medicines in one. It goes right to the source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store of Erlanger.

BULLITTSVILLE HOMEMAKERS

The next meeting of Bullittsville Homemakers will be held in the home of Mrs. Thomas McCrann on Thursday, November 20.

Our meetings this year have been well attended and much enthusiasm in the lessons has been manifested. Our club has been invited to serve lunch for a sale conducted by Col. Bradford on the farm of Roy Roessler near Hebron on Saturday, November 15. Everyone in the community wishing to donate a pie for this sale please call Mrs. Huey Aylor or bring it to sale. All money from the lunch will be used for a good cause. Last year we donated $98.00 for worthy causes. At our first meeting this year we donated $5.00 to the Crippled Children Fund. The chairman of this drive, Mrs. Laird, of Covington reported the following totals collected in this community: Hebron $6.19; Petersburg $2.81; Bullittsville $20.62. She also reported the total tag day receipts so far as $4,569.10.

HOME-FOOD SUPPLY CONTINUES POPULAR

Food production and conservation continues in high favor on Kentucky farms, according to the annual report of the director of Agricultural extension at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

In counties in which home-demonstration work was done, 24,653,787 quarts of food were canned, 23,262,408 pounds stored and 4,056,484 pounds planed in freezer lockers and in addition large amounts dried, brined and cured.

A total of 2,222 pressure cookers were bought and 1,687 gauges were tested and repairs made. Diets were improved in 33,344 families by better meal planning and improved school lunches. In all, 84,249 families were helped to improve their home-food supply.

Other extension work included improving the home-milk supply and raising the standard of home-made butter and cottage cheese. Over 7,000 families were assisted along these lines.

This program to encourage the production and use of more and better food was carried on by county home-demonstration agents assisted by local volunteer leaders and field agents of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Planner's Dream

"With more miners at work and more machinery, Britain is producing 15,000,000 tons less coal per year than in 1941." This statement by Mr. Churchill aptly describes the results of nationalization. It is striking that whereas England used to export large quantities of coal, she is now importing as much as 600,000 tons from the United States in the present quarter. This is the picture 18 months after nationalization of Britain's coal industry was begun.

Last summer in England I had a conference with Mr. Michael Young, head of the research department of the Labor Party, and their chief economist. Thirty or so years of age, tall and slender, Mr. Young expressed great confidence in England's program of nationalization of industry. He hoped the program would proceed rapidly to include all industries, and he was confident it would bring full employment, high productivity, and greater prosperity. Mr. Young's hopes remain in the dream stage.

What Results?

High British officials came to Washington last month. They wanted to discuss new terms on the American loan. A London report of their interview with Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder tells of Mr. Snyder asking the British officials "Why nationalization had not produced more coal and if it has hampered output." Mr. Snyder was also firm in inquiring whether Britain, under the scheme of nationalization, was "still going to be a solvent concern."

With England sitting on vast coal reserves, yet importing coal, one can understand that Secretary Snyder is a bit dubious about the results of nationalization. In coal mining under nationalization there was at first an upward surge of output. But soon the gain wore off, and turned into a dramatic loss. This experiment in government management of industry simply did not come through. Other industries are learning in the same manner.

The Labor government, which has urged more construction of houses, now finds it necessary to reduce its quota of new houses by 80,000. The use of petrol is to be cut down by one-third; foreign travel is to be reduced by one-half. An individual can now buy only 20 cents worth of beef a week. The fact that the food situation is extremely critical plus the failure of nationalized industries to get production led to the passing of Britain's Crisis Bill.

Dictator Law

The British Press described the Bill as giving the government power to:

1. Direct labor within an industry or from one industry to another.
2. Replace inefficient management in any industry by government nominees, which will mean, in effect, taking over the business.
3. Divert investments into certain channels, and prevent them going into others.
4. Control hours and conditions of work, and even rates of pay.
5. Send supplies and raw materials to certain industries, and keep them from others.
6. Order goods to be exported to given markets, and prevent them going to others less profitable to the nation.

These dictatorial powers are the true offspring of a government managed economy.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDY PLANNED AT U. OF K. MEETING

Lexington—Outstanding schools in selected "pilot counties" of Kentucky will be surveyed as a means of developing a program of positive action to improve conditions faced by elementary education, a conference of the State Committee on Elementary Education at the University of Kentucky has decided.

Among the approximately 35 leading educators from throughout the state attending the meeting on October 31-Nov. 1, was Mrs. Naomi Wilhoit, Supervisor, Ft. Thomas School, representing the Northern Kentucky Educational Association, which includes this county.

A sub-committee of the State Committee will attempt to locate schools in the state doing outstanding work and conduct an on-the-scene study of the school's porgram in regard to elementary education and the status of the elementary grades teacher, Dr. Charles R. Spain, U. K. Bureau of School Service head and chairman of the state committee, said.

It is planned to gather all the information possible in regard to the practices of the school, to take pictures and to give the program all possible publicity through the medium of press and radio as an example of the work of a model elementary school.

Objectives of the state wide study of elementary education, one of the first ever attempted in the nation, are to find ways and means of improving elementary schools; to inform the public concerning the crisis which is being faced in the elementary schools of Kentucky; and to gain the support of the entire state in improving the status of the elementary teacher and the elementary schools.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

About 1,000 ewes were brought by farmers in Fleming county, where sheep raising is increasing.

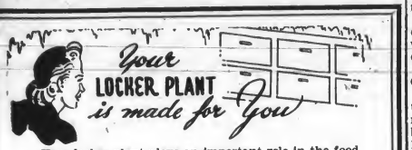
Marshall county farmers have ordered 30,000 pine and locust seedlings.

Displays of Perry county 4-H club products were made in 20 store windows in Hazard.



CONSTANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamon and family and John Hamon of Indiana were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Austin and family, of Constance, Sunday afternoon.

NEW HAVEN HOMEMAKERS

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bess Liggett, November 17th and will continue the series of lessons on sewing.

Your locker plant plays an important role in the food conservation program. It helps you do your part to prevent waste and spoilage, to spread short supplies over a longer period.

When you are ready to slaughter this fall, why risk losing your meat by changeable weather? Why eat it until you are "tired of it," to prevent spoilage?

Instead, eat only what you want and need. Let us process and freeze the rest. Next January when meat is scarce, you'll be glad you did.

SUCCESSFUL HOOP SEASON EXPECTED AT FLORENCE HIGH

As Florence looks toward the 1947-48 basketball season, the general atmosphere is bright and cheerful. The return of four lettermen and added experience of second team players will more than compensate for the loss of an entire team last year. More optimistic followers look for the best season in the history of the school.

The following data has been compiled for the information of the press, radio, and supporters of the Knights.

Coach Bob Tanner—Graduate in the class of '39, he returns with high hopes of continuing the rise of Florence in basketball circles. Changing the style of play from race-horse fast breaks he has introduced the set shot maneuvering type offense. The quick break will be used only when it is a "sure-thing."

Buddy Arnold—The most improved player on the squad. Alternating at forward and pivot, his fighting offensive and defensive play under the basket will spell disaster to opponents. Rather than a high-scorer, he is a playmaker and team man.

Doc Baker—On this three-letter Senior will rest the offensive burden of the Knights. An accurate shot from all angles and brilliant floor man, he should prove to be dynamite this year. His height and jumping ability will control many a rebound.

Don Lipscomb—Groomed as a "spot player" at the pivot position, he has the ability to take command under the basket. Power and an elusive fake make him a constant scoring threat.

Bobby Martin—A dead-eye set shot and push shot specialist, he will cash a high scoring average this year. A senior, this will be his first shot at a regular starting berth. A good ball-handling forward, he sets up plays and aids the guards in bringing the ball into offensive territory.

Jerry Rouse—The fastest man on the squad—in passing, dribbling and shooting. His "know-how" and leadership will prove to be the great factors in spelling success this year. On fast breaks and drive-ins under the basket, he is deadly. From the starting whistle to the final gun, here is the man to watch.

Billy Woods—The steadying influence. Never rushed or off balance, he possesses the long-shot accuracy to demoralize opponents. Woods is a play-maker and "feeder" type player.

Roy Wood—The fightenest man on the squad. Never running out of energy, he battles to the closing seconds. Plans are to use Wood as a "handy-man" as he can fit in at any position on the floor.

Marvin Zimmerman—Everybody's favorite, a crowd-pleaser with his speed and hustle, he makes up for lack of size with spirit. On the under-the-basket shot, he is certain death. Here is a good "spot" player for tight situations.

TREATING PLANT BEDS ADDED TO LEAF INCOME

Taylor county farmers who treated plant beds with lime and bluestone added thousands of dollars to their incomes from tobacco this season, according to County Agent C. V. Bryan.

"Properly treating beds saved 25 percent of the bottom leaves on many farms," he declared. "Plants from treated beds did not fire as quickly as plants from untreated beds, held up to 50 percent more leaves, and did not develop wildfire.

"Fields where half of the plants had been treated in the bed and where half of them had not been treated showed clearly what should be done next year. There was not a single case of wildfire in Taylor county where the plants had been treated in the bed."

AIR FORCE TO TRIPLE TRAINING PROGRAM IN 1948

The United States Air Force will triple its pilot training program by increasing aviation cadet classes from the present 1,000 a year to at least 3,000 during 1948, and the expansion is expected to add approximately 2,000 newly-trained flying officers to the USAF each year. The first 2,000 graduates will complete their training and be commissioned in 1949.

The accelerated pilot training program is required in the USAF's 70-group program. By mid-1948 the USAF will have 337,000 enlisted men, 64,000 officers, 55 fully-manned ready to fight groups and 15 skeletonized groups capable of rapid expansion in event of an emergency.

The complete aviation cadet tests can now be taken at any one of 55 major USAF bases throughout the country. Applicants must be unmarried male citizens between 20 and 26½, and must have completed two years of college study or be able to pass a written test measuring the equivalent.

Cadets will be trained in the use of recently perfected radar and electronic devices, jet and rocket propulsion, Ground Controlled Approach landing methods and for duty in all types of aircraft including the Lockheed P-80 Shooting Star. When commissioned they must agree to remain in service for the duration of the emergency plus six months or for three years, unless sooner relieved.

Details information and necessary application forms can be obtained from any recruiting office or Air Force Installation.

BETTER FEEDING OF EWES RECOMMENDED

Good pasture and hay plus clean water, and possibly a little grain, with shelter from wet, cold rain and snow, will do much to prevent the so-called pregnancy disease of ewes, and so help to make sheep more profitable, say veterinarians at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

"Pregnancy disease is not contagious but develops as a result of improper feeding," said a statement issued at the college. "Quality of feed and method of feeding are important. Largest losses of pregnant ewes have occurred in flocks on roughage and poor pasture, or in flocks fed considerable cornfodder but no alfalfa or clover."

Ewes should gain 20 to 30 pounds during pregnancy, the veterinarians said. Where grain is fed, six parts of corn, two parts of bran and one part of linseed oilmeal are recommended.

Finally "Pregnancy disease is due to nutritional unbalance, caused by improper feeding, poor care and indifferent management. A good cover crop pasture, plus legume hay, plus proper care and management, will go a long ways in preventing the disease."

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends who were so generous with their cards of cheer, the lovely bouquets of flowers and all the other many gifts that were brought me during the summer days at home and the weeks in the hospital. It is wonderful to know I have so many friends. Again I thank each and everyone and hope to be out among you soon. 1tp

Lighting Tips

For the Longer Evenings Ahead

Keep bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes clean. You'd be surprised how much dust and dirt hold back light from your portable lamps and fixtures. Just by washing bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes you can get up to 30% more useable light. (Disconnect portable lamps before washing and be sure bulbs and bowls are dry before reconnecting.)

Brush or clean lamp shades regularly. If lamp shades are dirty or turning yellow inside, you may be losing as much as 50% of the light you're paying for. Clean or brush lamp shades regularly. If they are too dark or discolored, reline them or replace them with fresh new shades with white or very light linings.

Fill empty sockets and replace blackened bulbs. Bulbs that have turned black with age rob you of light. Replace them with bright new bulbs of the right size and you'll get a lot more light at little or no increase in cost. Fill empty sockets, too. They're eye strain breeders.

Keep an Ample Supply of Spare Bulbs on Hand!

ON KENTUCKY FARMS

Bernice Thomas an Adair county 4-H girl, canned 40 jars of food in her club project. Her sister, Erlene, has a flock of 102 White Leghorn pullets.

A survey indicated that less than 8 percent of Harlan county boys and girls graduating from college return to the county.

Dairymen at the Kentucky College of Agriculture say kind of feed or method of feeding has little if any affect on the butterfat test of milk.

One hundred and fifteen Kentucky growers of Ky. 31 fescue this year produced 25,000 pounds of certified seed and 195,000 pounds of uncertified seed.

About 80 percent of Anderson county tobacco land was seeded with small grain, vetch or other cover and feed crops.

J. W. Pope of Bullitt county sold a 536-pound sow for $131.32.

John D. Smith of Larue county has brought a power circular saw for clearing land.

Roy Eldridge of Rowan county has culled and housed 250 pullets from which he is getting 70 percent production.

Lee county farmers are said to have seeded the largest acreages of wheat, rye and oats in the history of the county.

The Webster county homemakers council donated $20 to the county library.

Sixty bushels of Tennessee No. 1 barley seed were distributed to Bourbon county farmers so they can compare this barley with Kentucky No. 1 barley.

Hart county seed dealers report largest sales for any year of vetch, crimson clover, wheat and barley seed.

FOR FALL LANDSCAPING

Fall is the best time to fertilize lawns, says Prof. N. R. Elliott of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture & Home Economics. He recommends 10 pounds of high grade fertilizer to 1,000 square feet. Fall also is a good time to set bulbs, roses and evergreens. Roses set now and mulched for winter protection will bloom early in the spring.

Over 400 acres of Ky. 31 fescue were seeded in Russell county this fall, compared to 13 acres a year ago.

Daviess county farmers are building modern dairy barns, brooder and laying houses and hog houses.

Mrs. Helen Scott, who was on the sick list last week is much improved at this writing.

ASHES BOOST ALFALFA

Use of wood ashes for fertilizer may have had something to do with George Kendrick having one of the most attractive young fields of alfalfa ever seen in Pike County, notes Russell D. Williamson, assistant county agent. He applied two tons of ashes to the acre before sowing the alfalfa in early September. The alfalfa is said to have come up in record time and now is making one of the fastest growths ever seen in the county.

"The House of Quality"—Your Money's Worth or Money Back

FLORENCE

Dr. N. A. Jett and Edwin C. Beal, of Covington, returned Tuesday, following a well earned vacation and tour through southern Kentucky and Tennessee via Louisville, Bardstown, Lookout Mt., Smokey Mts., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bristow motored to Lexington Sunday to visit with their daughter Ruth, who is attending U. K.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pearson, of Detroit, Mich., friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold were their guests over the week-end; also Wm. L. Tupman and family.

The M. C. Fisher sale was well attended despite the cold windy day. The house and approximately 12 acres of land was sold to Mr. Miller of Big Bone for $11,600. The cows sold well, one going at $295.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Snow, of Ft. Thomas were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Arnold and family.

The basketball season has opened at the Florence school and the boys are hoping the surrounding community will encourage them by attending the games.

Mrs. L. J. Thompson was dinner guest Sunday of Mrs. Eva Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Osmun, of U. S. 42 had as guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Luchte, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tupman and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pearson, of Detroit, Mich. who recently completed a 9,000 mile tour of the western and northwestern states. They took many beautiful pictures enroute using 900 feet of film. They entertained the party by showing these pictures in technicolor with their moving picture machine.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burton, who have purchased the property formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alois Gasser. The Gassers have purchased a farm on the Frogtown Road.

The community regrets that Leslie Rose of Hopeful Road became very ill and was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Saturday. We join in wishing him the best of luck.

Dumont Walton, of Cincinnati, and Wm. Markesbery and wife were calling on H. V. Tanner, Sunday.

Fred Bishop, of Alabama was visiting his brother T. C. Bonar, recently.

Mrs. Maggie Glacken was guest of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Carpenter and family, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rose are being congratulated over their little son Lawrence Edward, who was born recently.

Rev. Bruce Easterday and family of Scottsburg, Ind., spent Sunday and Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Tanner.

Carroll Washburn, Bible School Supt. of the Florence Methodist Church was very gratified over the attendance Sunday morning, which was 104. Let's make it that many or more next Sunday, and thereafter.

Don't forget the Adult Class meeting of the M. E. Church Nov. 19. It will be a celebration of the 17th anniversary and Harold Ramey, president of the class extends a cordial invitation to everyone. Covered dish dinner at 6:30 and devotional at 7:30 p. m. A former pastor, Rev. R. R. Rose has been invited and is expected to be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Markesbery and sister, Mrs. H. T. Holliday, Sr., were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Harve Baker, Sunday. Mrs. Holliday is leaving soon for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will be the guest of her sister-in-law.

Mrs. Nan Baker is spending the winter with her son Harve Baker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markesbery were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Coyle, of Ludlow, Saturday evening.

The teachers of the Florence school attended the meeting of the N. E. A. in Covington, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Russ entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Kendle, of Erlanger, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kendle are leaving for California soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold had as week-end guests recently, some friends from Detroit, Mich., including Donald and Jack Lowe, Keith Lemon and Misses Luree Titt and Dorothy Carlson.

Mrs. Mae Russ was calling on Mrs. Betty Stephenson, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott, of Bellview were visiting her sister, Mrs. Lon Clore and Mr. Clore, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Drake were recent dinner guests of Misses Mayme and Alice Schneider, of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Bertha Dixon was guest of the Eldridge Carpenters, Sunday.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Utz were held at Hopeful Church on Tuesday, November 4th, with Revs. Harold Beemon and Paul Rimmer, officiating. Mrs. Utz is survived by several nieces and nephews and other relatives. She was prominent in the activities of Hopeful Church where she was a faithful member and will be greatly missed by that body. Her husband Wm. Utz and a daughter Eva preceded her in death a number of years ago. Interment was in Hopeful Cemetery. The Ralph Stith funeral home was in charge of arrangements. We join in extending sympathy to the family.

325 - ACRES - 325

DIVIDED IN TRACTS FROM 4 TO 130 ACRES
NEAR ERLANGER, KY.

AT AUCTION
SATURDAY, NOV. 22

1 P. M. SHARP

At the time we are writing this ad, our survey was not quite complete, we expect to have around 40 acres with 1 tract which includes a 5-room house and a large barn and other outbuildings. We have another tract of about 130 acres with a 4-room brick house with combination dairy, feed and tobacco barn and other outbuildings.

We will have several other tracts running from 5 to 20 acres, this property all fronts and faces on a good blacktop road, known as Narrows Road and Richardson Pike; electric now in the improved property and available for the other property; school bus, mail route and many other conveniences, near Erlanger and Elsmere churches and groceries, etc.

Here is an opportunity for folks who work in town and would like to have a few acres close in, so they can have a cow or cows, chickens, garden, etc., which will cut that high cost grocery bill to a minimum. Every day we have dozens of people asking for such a tract of land which we seldom have to offer; 15 to 20 minutes drive to Fountain Square.

This farm has never been on the market before, it has been handed down in the Nelson family from the time it was homesteaded. Dr. Nelson, the present owner has decided on account of his failing health, and being unable to go and see after the farm anymore, that he will sell it and divide it up into tracts so that several families can benefit from these homes and home sites.

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manners to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter.

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself.) Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact, But what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

BELLEVIEW W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the church Wednesday afternoon. After the meeting was called to order by our president, and the watchwords for the year were repeated, the hymn, "Jesus Saves" was sung by the group.

The Bible Study, "Arise, Shine; for thy Light Has Come," was given by Leona Marshall.

The subject for the month's lesson was "Peoples of Africa."

Those taking part on the program were Clara Hensley, Laura Rogers, Jetta Burkett, Bertha Rice, Laura Clore, Helen Rogers, Bessie Ryle, May Sandford and Josie Cason.

After the business session and each of the various committees had given their reports, we were dismissed with prayer by Bessie Ryle.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edward Rogers on Thursday, Dec. 4th for an all-day meeting in observance of Week of Prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offerings for Foreign Missions.

The "Camel" Method

Once the camel gets his head into the tent, he soon has his entire body inside. This old saw lends itself to some modern applications, but it fits none better than the current English situation. Socialism is indeed like the camel; it does not stop at part-of-the-way measures. To put it into a good old Southern expression, it's simply "whole hawg or nuthing."

A striking feature of the British "Crisis Bill" which recently became law in that country, was a clause giving government the authority to take possession of any industry which it might pronounce inefficiently managed. Actually, what this means is that no industry in England is safe from government confiscation. The threat will always be present, for the excuse of "inefficiency" could be trumped up at any time.

Invading the Tent

For five years I have contended, in this column and in public addresses, that no country could operate successfully with a "half-and-half" economy. If it's partly government managed and partly private enterprise, pretty soon Socialistic schemes find excuse to invade and take over. The present English government is proving my contention. It's the old "camel" process.

England is a country that long has been known for devotion to the freedom of individuals. Yet, within two years after she started her programm of nationalizing major industries, it was found necessary to pass a law giving the government power to seize any industry it may choose on the excuse of "inefficiency." There's a lot of leeway there. An industry might be inefficiently managed from the viewpoint of production, or even from the viewpoint of non-cooperation with the government.

SCRIPTURE: II Peter; Jude; Luke 2:40-52.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew 5:3-16.

Building Character

Lesson for November 16, 1947

WE SHALL need to read carefully Second Peter if we are to profit most in the study of Sunday's lesson. Peter tells us:

Dr. Newton

"According as his divine power hath given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue."

We may partake of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. That, I realize, is very difficult for us to understand, and yet it is within the grasp of every boy and girl, every man and woman, in all the world.

In addition to Second Peter, we are asked to read Jude and Luke 2:40-52. The passage in Luke tells how Jesus grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

• • •

As Jesus Grew

WE HEAR a great deal today about juvenile delinquency. The question everywhere arises, What can we do to prevent juvenile delinquency?

We have the answer in Sunday's lesson. As Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man, so can every youth in America grow into strong and beautiful manhood and womanhood.

The parents of Jesus, we are told, obeyed God in doing for the Child all that they were commanded to do.

• • •

The Love of God

"KEEP yourselves in the love of God," Jude 21. There is the formula for building Christian character.

This business of building Christian character is based on a formula—keeping within the circle of God's love.

It is just as essential to have the proper nourishment in building Christian character as in growing a fine ear of corn. Progress is not accidental. It is the result of right thinking, right behavior, right purpose. Only in the love of God can the young life find the nuture for Christian character.

• • •

Christian Mathematics

TURN again, if you will, to Second Peter, and read his mathematical formula by which Christian character is realized:

"Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Old-fashioned stuff, someone will cynically observe. Aye, old-fashioned it may seem, but only from this old-fashioned formula can character be built—Christian character.

And what is it that our needy, frightened world is asking for above everything else today? For the certitude of hope that is found only in hearts that are staid upon God.

We may smile at Peter's mathematics, but his formula is the only hope for United Nations, the only hope for world peace, the only hope for civilization.

• • •

Jude's Benediction

YOU have read, I hope, the brief Book of Jude, only 25 verses. You have followed his pungent, cogent argument. You have followed his exhortation. And now you come to his benediction—a very fitting climax for Sunday's lesson:

"Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and evermore. Amen."

As you sit in your living room, or on the train, or in the plane, or in the hotel, or at the hospital, or wherever you may be, reading these lines, remember this—the need of America today is more Christian character in the home, factory, store, bank, mill, field, school room, in the meeting house.

God grant that we may heed the admonition of the Scripture passages above cited, and think on our ways while it is yet day. The night cometh apace.

TWO-DAY FOX HUNT PLANNED

BY VERONA COMMUNITY CLUB —LARGE NUMBER OF DOGS FROM NEIGHBORING TERRITORY TO PARTICIPATE.

The fox hound bench show at Verona, Ky., on November 27 at 7:00 p. m. will serve as a "warm-up" for the following two days' chase that will make the hills ring out with music dear to every sportsman who seeks the great outdoors for a portion of his recreation. In years past this community had some very fine running hounds that gave a good account of themselves far and wide. It is true that a lot of the old time fox hunters and their faithful dogs have passed on, however, there are some left who together with the younger generation's help have helped keep alive one of America's and probably the world's oldest sports. Good dogs have been bred down through the ages by far-sighted sportsmen who have made it possible for this first hunt sponsored by the Verona Community Club, as a regular event on the sportsman's calendar for community recreation. Considerable time and effort is necessary to conduct a hunt of this proportion and the enthusiasm noted at this early date indicate there will be over a hundred fox hounds competing for the various trophies and ribbons in both the bench show and field trials.

A large number of dogs from neighboring communities and border States are expected to find their way to the starting line when the first cast is made at 7:00 a. m., November 27th on the Scroggin farm directly back of the Verona school. With hog killing time approaching and "old Sport's" appetite whetted up a bit by the cool fall air, he should be able to push "Reynard the fox" all over this end of Boone County at a fast pace.

General Public Invited

The entire program is free to the general public and the Verona Community Club will be glad to have everyone attend any or all of the program. Guests from a distance may find lodging accommodations at Walton or other nearby towns. Accommodations for dogs from considerable distance will be provided locally.

Rabbit and Bird Hunters Asked To Cooperate

W. D. Scroggin, president of the club has asked the rabbit and bird hunter who may be afield during the hunt to cooperate and use extreme caution in helping prevent accident. Field judges are required to follow the hounds at great speed on horses or afoot and hunters should never fire at rabbits or birds unless entirely in the clear and no chance of firing at someone coming out of a hollow or crossing a ridge. Even shotgun loads of the present day will throw shot a great distance and with enough force to do serious damage. Probably the most dangerous of local firearms is the .22 rifle which uses bullets with enough powder to make them dangerous up to a distance of one mile as cautioned by some manufacturers. Even though a shot is made directly into a bank or hillside, the bullet will often glace from a rock or other hard object hidden beneath the ground.

For the hunter's own safety as well as others in his party it is well to review before the season starts, the many don'ts in the sane and safe use of any firearm. There are many as any experienced hunter is well aware. Here are a few of them: (1) Never point a gun towards anyone even though empty, because all guns are loaded and there never was an empty gun." (2) Never get into a car with a loaded gun (break it down); (3) Always carry your gun with the muzzle high and away from a companion; (4) Never climb a fence and pull the gun after you (unload), there is no hurry and you may live to shoot another day; (5) Never lean a gun against a tree, car, fence, or anything while resting. Lay it down flat on the ground before a dog or something knocks it down and you "make the headlines" in (your last) in The Boone County Recorder. On and on we could review the "grim reaper of don't" in the handling of firearms and all the while year after year hundreds of people suffer and die during each hunting season. What is the reason? You might say that carelessness is the cause of it all, yet there are a lot of people who were never taught how to use firearms when they were young. Take a little time to teach the youngsters for this is one time that "experience is not his best teacher."

A real sportsman takes pride in his ability to handle safetly his gun both at home, in the car and afield. A careless sloppy hunter "is a beautiful sight" if viewed at a distance or, let's say, five miles away. No let's make it ten.

On a tombstone in a hunters' graveyard:

Here lies sloppy Ned,
Dead'er than a hog.
His gun against a tree,
Was fell by a dog.

Refreshments to be Served

Refreshments will be sold on the grounds by the club and the Field Trial Committee chairman, Jay Webster, ably assisted by Cash Martin, Ross Chapman, Ben Kannady and Mayro Hayden, is making every effort for a most successful program covering this Thanksgiving week-end. For further information concerning entires or special events for both the bench show and field trials, contact Jay Webster, Verona, Ky., phone Walton 1240. It is also of importance to note that all dogs are to be numbered at the bench show which will be held 7:00 p. m., November 27th.

KINCAID-WILLIS

The Bullittsville Christian Church was the setting for a very impressive wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon, November 15 at 1:30, when Miss Martha Jacqueline Kincaid, became the bride of Mr. Charles Ray Willis.

Miss Kincaid is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Perry, of Bullittsville, and Mr. Farris of Price Hill, Cincinnati, O., Mr. Willis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willis, of near Bullittsville.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Young, pastor of the Bullittsville Church. Their only attendants were Theodore Birkle, Jr., and Miss Patty Harrison.

The bride wore a light gray suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white roses. Miss Harrison selected a tan dress with brown accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The happy couple left for a motor trip through Kentucky and Tennessee. After their return they will be at home to their friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willis.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Farris Kincaid, Mrs. Myrtle Kincaid and daughter Jean Anne, of Price Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd High of Covington, Willis Jones and Mrs. A. C. Young of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willis and Miss Dorothy Tipton, of Bullittsville.

DRY RIDGE MAN INJURED SUNDAY

IN ACCIDENT NEAR BURLINGTON—REMOVED TO BOOTH HOSPITAL FOR TREATMENT OF INJURIES.

J. D. Judy, 61, of Dry Ridge, Ky., suffered sever injuries in an automobile accident near Burlington Sunday afternoon. He was was removed to Booth Memorial Hospital Covington, where is was reported he suffered a dislocated shoulder, muscular injuries and minor cuts and bruises. After treatment, he was released from the hospital Monday morning.

Mr. Judy and his son-in-law, Walter Wainscott of Owenton, were both in the car, but Wainscott escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

According to Wainscott, he lost control of the car as he met a truck on a bad curve in the East Bend Road, just outside of Burlington. The car overturned three times before coming to a stop. The car, a 1942 Ford coupe was completely demolished.

Mr. Judy is a brother of Orie Judy, Burlington and Frank Judy, of Hebron and Mrs. Robert Reimer, of Hebron.

His condition is reported as not serious, although he will be confined to his home for several weeks.

MEAT CANNING TIPS ARE GIVEN

Since it is November and the weather is getting cold, many Boone Countians will be butchering hogs and other animals. The housewife is confronted with problems of preserving this meat. This article contains suggestions for the canning of meat.

Most meats can be preserved by canning. Farm housewives, who can several kinds of meat each year, beef, pork, lamb, chickens, sausage, tongue, liver—then have a variety of meats ready for use throughout the year.

Only pint and quart jars made for canning should be used for canning meat. Use only new lids and rubbers. Never use faulty equipment. Cans sealed with sealing wax should never be used for canning meats.

The pressure cooker is recommended for canning all meats, because the high temperature at which the meat is processed makes certain the killing of heat-resisting bacteria in a fairly short processing time. If you do not have a pressure cooker, and can't borrow one, preserve your meat by curing or freeing.

Preparation of meat for canning:

1. Can meat only from healthy animals.

2. Handle the animals and fowls carefully before killing, so as not to bruise them and form blood clots.

3. Allow enough time between killing and canning for the carcass to be thoroughly cooled. Keep the meat in a refrigerator or cold place until it is canned.

4. Beef, veal, pork, lamb and mutton should be wiped with a clean cloth before canning.

5. Meat that has been frozen does not make the best quality of canned product.

Packing meat in jars:

Meats should be precooked before packing in glass jars. Precooking helps to shrink the meat so that it packs to better advantage and insures thorough processing. Meat should not be packed too tight, however. Leave one inch of space at the top of glass jars. When packing sliced meat, put it in the jar "up and down" rather than flat, to allow for circulation of liquid and good penetration of heat. Wipe all grease from the top of the jar, or a seal will not be made.

Never can mixtures such as hash and stews made with vegetables, pork and beans, and soups made with cereals and vegetables.

Canned meats should be stored in a cool place. If in glass they should be stored where it is darw.

Bulletins with more complete information on meat canning are available at the Extension office, according to Eugenia Donahue, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

BAKERY SALE

The ladies of the Florence Christian Church will have their annual Thanksgiving bakery sale Wednesday, November 26 at Dinn's Lunchroom. Cakes, pies, rolls, and bread will be offered. Come and help a good cause.

PENDRY-AYLOR

In a simple but impressive double ring ceremony, Miss Loretta Pendy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Pendry of Grant and Wallace Aylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Aylor, of Petersburg were united in marriage by Bro. R. A. Johnson at his home in Covington.

Attendants were Miss Betty Pendry, sister of the bride and Allan W. White.

The bride was lovely in a winter white dress with black accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Her attendant also wore a dress of winter white with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride is a senior at Burlington high school. The groom will assume his studies at University of Kentucky in January.

After a short wedding trip, the young couple will reside with the bride's parents.

DECK-COOK

Miss Leotha Deck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Deck, Petersburg, was united in marriage to John Harold Cook, son of Mrs. Andy Cook, also of Petersburg, Saturday afternoon, November 15, at the home of Rev. Roy A. Johnson, Covington.

Miss Deck has been employed as nurse at Dunham Hospital, for some time and the groom is a Government Railway Clerk, working out of Cincinnati.

Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness.

Members of the Hebron P.-T. A. are requested to bring a pie for the F. F. A. Festival to be held Thursday, November 20th.

SURVEY OF GAME IS FAVORABLE

ACCORDING TO REPORTS FROM STATE FISH AND GAME DIVISION—SEASON OPENS TODAY, NOVEMBER 20.

If a survey conducted by the Happy Hunting Ground, Division of Game and Fish publication, is correct the hunters of Kentucky are in for some good quail and rabbit hunting this fall when the season opens today (November 20). The supervisors of the various districts were asked their ideas about the supply of quail and rabbits this year and in every district there were reported more quail, while most of the districts report rabbits are on a par or slightly more than last year.

Generally in the Fifth District quail hunting is expected to better than was experienced last season. Good supplies were reported in Grant, Owen, Scott and Harrison. Best quail hunting county in this district is expected to be in Boone County. Fair reports were given for Gallatin, Carroll, Trimble, Franklin, Robertson, Pendleton, Bracken and Kenton, while only Henry County reported fewer quail than last season. Good rabbit hunting counties are expected to be Boone, Robertson, Pendleton, Bracken and Kenton, while none of the counties reported fewer rabbits than last year.

Early indications are that there will be more hunters in the fields this season than for many past ones. The reports of the supervisors and returns from the sales of licenses indicate a sharp increase this season.

WEED KILLER CUTS LABOR

ON FARM BY NINE-TENTHS, ACCORDING TO EXPERT—HAS BEEN IN USE SINCE 1944 FOR KILLING WEEDS OR LAWNS.

A new aid in corn cultivation—the use of the chemical agent 2 4 D to kill weeds before they sprout from the soil—was described to the American Society of Agronomy recently as "the most progressive agricultural development since the invention of hybrid corn."

Dr. G. H. Ahlbren, Professor of Farm Crops, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., told the agricultural scientists that experiments carried on by his state in the use of the chemical might eliminate all but 5 percent of the work farmers now do in cultivating corn.

Although the chemical has been used since 1944 in killing broad leaf weed on turf and lawns, it has been developed as a general aid to agriculture only in the last two years, the professor added.

"In 1946, New Jersey agriculturalists blinked their eyes in disbelief when experiments with the chemical showed that its control of weeds growing from seeds was 100 per cent effective," he said.

Labor Saving Great

"Additional experiments conducted this year upheld the results of their work, and we now believe we can eliminate 95 per cent of the farmer's work in cultivating corn."

Dr. Ahlbren explained that the chemical is sprayed on soil approximately six days after corn has been planted. The chemical holds under the surface a few inches and destroys weeds before they emerge from the ground. No apparent injury has been done to the corn seedling when the chemical has been sprayed that long after corn planting, he declared.

The chemical spray, Dr. Ahlbren continued, has proved effective in killing all weeds falling in grass leaf and broad leaf categories and farm land on which it has been used has been producing 70 bushels of corn to the acre.

Cost Called Low

In listing the chemical's advantages, the expert declared that "it is very inexpensive, costing only $2 to the acre, is applied quickly, and eliminates the necessity of having to run heavy equipment over the land time and time again."

Another important advantage is in the fact that corn cultivation and hay making are done by farmers in the same months—June and July. By using 2 4 D farmers will be able to devote much more time to hay making, which has suffered in the past, Dr. Ahlbren declared.

"The main disadvantage to the chemical comes when one is farming light or sandy soil," he continued. "Our experiments have proven successful only on heavy soil, which stops the chemical's penetration. When we applied it on light soil it sank almost immediately to the corn seedlings and killed them, along with the weeds."

"BLESSING ON THE DAY I FOUND TRU-AID"—HER RHEUMATIC PAINS END!

One lady recently took TRU-AID three days and said afterward that she never would have believed such a "wonder medicine" existed. She says she couldn't raise her left arm more than a few inches. Rheumatic pains afflicted the muscles of her shoulder and arm. She could hardly move the fingers on her left hand. Now this lady's rheumatic pains are gone since she got TRU-AID and she says she can use her left arm as well as her right, in fact she says she simply blesses the day she got this medicine and she feels like an altogether different woman.

TRU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store of Erlanger.

QUICK TRICKS

THAT WORK LIKE MAGIC TO IMPROVE YOUR LIGHTING

Keep bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes clean. You'd be surprised how much dust and dirt hold back light from your portable lamps and fixtures. Just by washing bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes you can get up to 30% more useable light. (Disconnect portable lamps before washing and be sure bulbs and bowls are dry before reconnecting.)

Brush or clean lamp shades regularly. If lamp shades are dirty or turning yellow inside, you may be losing as much as 50% of the light you're paying for. Clean or brush lamp shades regularly. If they are too dark or discolored, reline them or replace them with fresh new shades with white or very light linings.

Fill empty sockets and replace blackened bulbs. Bulbs that have turned black with age rob you of light. Replace them with bright new bulbs of the right size and you'll get a lot more light at little or no increase in cost. Fill empty sockets, too. They're eye strain breeders.

Keep an Ample Supply of Spare Bulbs on Hand!

IN LOVING MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Everett E. Cress, who passed away November 24, 1946.

There is a home that is so empty,
A dear sweet face that is missing,
Leaving our lives so blue.
We are so sad and lonely
And shed many a tear
Thinking of you dear Everett
For we have missed you so.

—Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters. 1t-c

Florence Deposit Bank, ;et al Plaintiff versus
Robert F. Pflug, et a., Defendant
NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Boone Circuit Court rendered at the August term thereof 1947, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the courthouse door in Burlington, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at public auction on Monday, the 8th day of December 1947 at one o'clock p. m., or thereabout (being Circuit Court Day), upon a credit of six months, the following described property to-wit:

Being lots Nos. 17 and 18 of Rel C. Wayman's plat of Sugar Tit Subdivision located on U. S. Highway No. 42, southwest of Florence, dated, acknowledged and recorded February 23, 1943, and recorded in Plat Book No. 1, page 102 of the Boone County Records, at Burlington, Kentucky, said lots each fronting 50 feet.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond, with approved surety bearing legal interest from the day of sale, until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. Amount to be raised by sale $1,139.08.

A. D. Yelton,
Master Commissioner Boone C. C.

In addition to about 5,000 acres of winter cover crops, Hickman county farmers sowed 9000 to 1,000 acres of Kentucky No. 1 barley to produce grain to feed.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Tom Hensley was hostess to members of Burlington Homemakers Club, November 5 at her beautiful home. The meeting was opened by Bible reading and prayer.

Business meeting was in order with Mrs. L. Pope presiding. Members responded to roll on "Ideas for Table Decorations for Thanksgiving."

We adjourned for the lunch hour which was a joyful affair as it was our president's 40th wedding anniversary. She was presented with a large angel food cake and fruit dessert

The lesson on "Short Cuts and Time Savers in Home Sewing" was given by Mrs. Olive Clore and Mrs. V. Pope.

Next meeting will be December 4th at the home of Mrs. C. L. Cropper. Bring your favorite recipe for cook book.

Members and friends are always welcome.

—Publicity Chairman.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the neighbors and friends who assisted in any way at the fire which destroyed our barn, Thursday morning. Especially do we wish to thank all members of the Burlington fire department and Mrs. Cad Sullivan who summoned the fire department. 1t-pd.

Children's Feet

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Ninety-nine out of a hundred babies are born with good feet, even if they do appear to be flat at the start. We say babies are born with flat feet because the bony masses in a new-born baby's feet are held in place by fat pads. As the baby starts to stand and walk, these fatty pads are absorbed and muscles take their place. But about the third year the arch of the foot should be pretty well defined if the child is going to have an arch. We say if, because everyone is not meant to have the same color of hair or eyes

Perhaps when the child starts to stand he is overweight, or undernourished or has gone through a serious illness. In that event the muscles may not develop enough to produce an arch in the foot. He then grows with a natural flat foot. The condition is rarely painful. However, many cases of flat feet can be averted if the child is provided with shoes that hold the weak foot in alignment. Such shoes are usually wedged slightly under the inner border of the heel bone. This prevents tipping in of the ankles and by over correction has a tendency to cause the muscles on the inner border of the leg to shorten. These muscles are the ones which keep the foot arched.—Adv.

DR. T. H. NELSON FARMS
325 - ACRES - 325
DIVIDED IN TRACTS FROM 4 TO 130 ACRES
NEAR ERLANGER, KY.

AT AUCTION
SATURDAY, NOV. 22
1 P. M. SHARP

At the time we are writing this ad, our survey was not quite complete, we expect to have around 40 acres with 1 tract which includes a 5-room house and a large barn and other outbuildings. We have another tract of about 130 acres with a 4-room brick house with combination dairy, feed and tobacco barn and other outbuildings.

We will have several other tracts running from 5 to 20 acres, this property all fronts and faces on a good blacktop road, known as Narrows Road and Richardson Pike; electric now in the improved property and available for the other property; school bus, mail route and many other conveniences, near Erlanger and Elsmere churches and groceries, etc.

Here is an opportunity for folks who work in town and would like to have a few acres close in, so they can have a cow or cows, chickens, garden, etc., which will cut that high cost grocery bill to a minimum. Every day we have dozens of people asking for such a tract of land which we seldom have to offer; 15 to 20 minutes drive to Fountain Square.

This farm has never been on the market before, it has been handed down in the Nelson family from the time it was homesteaded. Dr. Nelson, the present owner has decided on account of his failing health, and being unable to go and see after the farm anymore, that he will sell it and divide it up into tracts so that several families can benefit from these homes and home sites.

RURAL M. Y. F. OF COVINGTON DISTRICT MEET AT WALTON

Representatives including pastors, youth counselors, and youth, from the rural section of the Covington District met at the Walton Methodist Church, Monday evening, Nov. 10th at 7:30 to discuss plans for the organization of a District Rural M. Y. F.

It seems that during the war, due to the rationing of tires and gasoline, these district meetings of the M. Y. F. in rural churches have been somewhat neglected. Now that we use our time and automobiles to go anywhere we desire, why can we not take our young people to neighboring rural churches for group meetings. Such meetings will help our youth to become better acquainted with each other, with the program of the Methodist Church, and become better acquainted with the Christ who has a plan for every young person's life. We claim that we have great hopes for our rural churches now that we are putting forth special efforts to help them, but the success of these churches depend a great deal on what we do for our youth.

Mrs. O. W. Robinson, of the Florence Church, was appointed counselor of this District group. It was decided to have one wide awake meeting each quarter. The first meeting is to be held at the Williamstown Methodist Church, Monday, Nov. 24th at 7:45 p. m. An interesting program is being planned for the evening. After the worship service there will be a social hour and refreshments served by the Williamstown M. Y. F. We are asking all churches of this rural district to send in the number of young people who expect to attend the meeting to Rev. Valis V. Hill, R. R. 2, Walton, Ky. It is expected that every pastor and youth counselor will be present with a large representation of their young people.

May each one co-operate in making this first meeting a success. Let our slogan be "Young People For Christ in the Rural Area."

LOWER GUNPOWDER

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woods entertained with a Stanley brush party and chicken soup Friday evening.

Harold Hodges is now janitor of Hamilton School.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Love and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sebree spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Garland Huff and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sebree attended church at Florence Sunday.

Mrs. Maude Hodges and son Harold made a business trip to Belleview, Saturday morning.

The Big Bone W. M. U. met at the home of Mrs. Frank Sebree on Thursday. There was a large number present.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Black united with the Florence Baptist Church Sunday morning, coming by letter from Union Baptist Church.

Mrs. Earl Hodges, Mrs. Maud Hodges and son Harold were in Florence, Saturday.

Real Estate Transactions

Two of Kenton County's outstanding farms were sold last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Platt purchased James Tomilson's farm located on Green Road, consisting of 108 acres with an all modern six-room house, dairy barn, and other outbuildings.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tomlinson purchased Jno. Winterling's 100-acre farm on Walton-Nicholson Road, consisting of an all-modern house, dairy barn and other outbuildings.

William Murray also purchased Ray Caranahan's 7-room all modern home on Route 25, Main Street in Walton, Ky.

Study is the effort to deal intelligently with the situation at hand.—William H. Kilpatrick.

FOUR INJURED IN COLLISION

AT FLORENCE FRIDAY MORNING WHEN TRUCK OF ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND CAR CRASH HEAD-ON.

Four persons suffered injuries early Friday morning in a head-on collision of an auto and a large truck owned by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, Oak Ridge Tenn.

Those injured in the collision were Jesse Braden, Clinton, Tenn., passenger in the truck, and Joe Smith, 42, hod carrier; J. O. Milford Ellison, driver of the truck, and William Shackles, Cincinnati.

Braden suffered a possible jaw fracture and head cuts. Mr. Smith suffered a hip fracture and severe cuts on the neck and face; Ellison was cut over the eye and Shackles lost two teeth in the accident.

Robert Gordon, State Highway Patrolman said the collision occurred at the junction of the old and new sections of the Dixie Highway.

The right front wheel of the truck was pushed under the gas tank by the impact, according to Patrolman Gordon. The auto lost its gas tank, had the engine loosened and one side of the dashboard knocked into the back seat.

The injured men were removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in an ambulance of the Ralph Stith funeral home, Florence.

JUNIOR CLASS OF HEBRON WILL PRESENT THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

The Junior class of the Hebron high school will present their school play at the school auditorium on Wednesday night, December 3rd at 7:30 p. m.

There will be three one-act plays presented by the class on this evening, the first entitled "I'll Sell The World," the second "Stuffed Dates" and the final play will be entitled "At The Stroke of 12."

A full and pleasant evening of entertainment is in store for all who attend and the public is invited. Admission prices will be 25c and 35c.

TWO DRAW FINES IN JUDGE CROPPER'S COURT MONDAY

Two men were fined when arraigned before Judge C. L. Cropper in County Court Monday, November 24th and both released upon payment of their fines which amounted to $124.00.

Gus Moore, Covington, was fined $104.50 for operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor on U. S. 25 near Florence. Robt. Gordon, State Highway Patrolman, was the arresting officer.

K. B. Crowder, Cincinnati, received a fine of $19.50 for parking a truck on the highway with no lights and warning signals. R. I. Rouse, Sheriff, made the arrest.

"50 CLUB" DINNER PLANNED DEC. 11

Do you enjoy good food? Do you enjoy good fun? Do you like to give a helping hand where it's needed? If so, plan now to "eat out" Thursday evening, Dec. 11th. In order to supplement the funds of the lunchroom the Belleview School Club will sponsor a chicken dinner and mock "50 Club."

Promptly at 6:30 p. m. a fine meal consisting of chicken, mashed potatoes, vegetable, salad, dessert and coffee will be served. The "50 Club" will follow immediately. Conforming as nearly as possible to the program heard each noon over WLW, the evening should provide a novelty in local entertainment. General chairman is Mrs. Christena Kirtley. Mrs. Lillard Scott and Mrs. Dean Bloss are in charge of the "50 Clubs." Plan now to attend. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children.

HOPEFUL-HEBRON TO HOLD JOINT SERVICE

Joint worship service of Hopeful-Hebron congregations will be held Sunday. The regular worship service will begin at 11:00, basket lunch at 12:30 and the service for the declaration of the beginning of the self-sustaining program will begin at 2:30.

The present pastor, Rev. J. Paul Rimmer will be in charge of the morning service. His subject will be, "The Day is at Hand." The afternoon service will consist mostly of music by the choir under the direction of Edwin Walton.

Everyone is invited to enjoy the fellowship of the day.

BURLINGTON SENIORS WILL BE HEARD OVER RADIO STATION WZIP

Robert Brown and Mary Lou Williamson, two seniors of the Burlington high school, will appear on radio station WZIP Sunday afternoon, November 30, from 3:30 to 4:00 o'clock, in connection with the station's program "Youth Speaks."

The subject they will discuss with two students from Silver Grove high school will be "Should There be Federal Aid for Education."

Alternates selected for the program by the local school were Joe Smith and Morton Oliver, also both seniors. Mr. Ralph Maurer, social science teacher of Burlington, and Mr. Harold Riley, principal of the Silver Grove school will act as moderators of the program.

FESTIVAL HELD AT HAMILTON WED.

A Thanksgiving festival was held at Hamilton School, Wednesday, evening, November 26th at 7:30 p. m.

An amateur contest, auction bazaar, and food were features of the evening.

The festival was sponsored by the Hamilton P.-T. A. Donations of bazaar articles were highly appreciated.

VETERANS TO BE ASSISTED IN FILING CLAIMS, BY DUVALL

F. E. Duvall, Field Secretary of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, Louisville, will be in Burlington at the courthouse on Friday, December 5, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the purpose of aiding in filing claims for veterans and their dependents, and to advise them regarding any other benefits to which they may be entitled.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING SCHOOL WILL BE HELD DECEMBER 1 TO DEC. 6

A school for training technicians in artificial breeding work will be held at the University of Kentucky from Dec. 1 to Dec. 6th.

There are no charges for the course other than the cost of living in Lexington. Satisfactory completion of the course will qualify technicians for work anywhere in Kentucky.

Anyone interested should contact Wilfred Scott, President Boone County Artificial Breeding Cooperative.

SPECIAL SERVICES PLANNED NOV. 30

There will be a special service at the Petersburg Methodist Church Church Sunday afternoon, November 30, at two thirty, conducted by the Swineford Trio Party. Miss Ann Henry and Miss Ruth Sipple will furnish the music.

The public is cordially invited.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

The following real estate transactions were made by R. P. Coleman, Florence, Ky., during the past week:

J. A. Darlington of Campbell County purchased from Ulls Cook near Verona, Ky., his 247½-acre farm with two sets of buildings. Mr. Darlington operates on a large scale and plans to use it as a stock and dairy farm.

Orin M. Britt, of Union, Ky., purchased Kash Martin's farm of 103 acres, tools and livestock. This farm is located near Verona.

A. J. Stout, of Hazard, Ky., purchased the James Blackwell 60 acre farm from the Monahan heirs. This farm also is located near Verona.

Immediate possession was given on both of these farms.

These sales were made through A. B. Renaker Agency.

UNION SERVICE HELD AT BAPTIST CHURCH WEDNESDAY EVENING

A union Thanksgiving service of the Burlington Methodist and Burlington Baptist churches was held at the Burlington Baptist Church Wednesday evening. Vallis V. Hill, pastor of the Methodist Church brought the message.

Special music was also enjoyed during the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holbrook and Mayme entertained for Sunday evening dinner, Prof. Drake, of Cincinnati Bible Seminary, Mr. and Mrs. Dud Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holbrook, Gene Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dennlston.

The F. F. A. chapter thanks everyone for their entries and attendance.

EMMA GRAVES

Miss Emma Graves, 73, Burlington, died Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Burlington, after an extended illness.

Miss Graves was a member of the Bullittsburg Baptist Church. She had been a resident of Burlington for many years.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at Bullittsburg Cemetery, with Rev. W. T. Gardner, officiating. Burial was in Bullittsburg Cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs, Florence funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

JAMES GIBSON

James H. Gibson, 65, Mt. Zion road, near Florence, died early Saturday at his residence. He was associated with the shoe manufacturing business in Cincinnati.

Mr. Gibson leaves his widow, Mrs. Bernice Richardson Gibson; a son, Justin Gibson, Bellevue; two brothers, David, Dover, Ky., and Buford Gibson, Orlando, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Omer Figgins, Hamersville, O., and two grandchildren.

The Tallaferro funeral home, of Erlanger was in charge of arrangements.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, with Rev. Robert H. Carter officiating.

INSULATION PLACED ON CEILING OF GAME CLUB

Members of the Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association have completed insulation work on the club house ceiling. This work will insure more comfort to members attending meetings during the winter months, and adds much to the attractiveness of the building.

Plans are now being made to place a wood floor over the present concrete floor, which will eliminate heating difficulties. Arrangements however, have not been completed for this work.

MRS. DOROTHY DRESSEL

Mrs. Dorothy Dressel, 35, Florence, died Thursday in Murray Foundation, Cincinnati, after a long illness.

Mrs. Dressel was a member of Union Star Chapter 461, Order of Eastern Star, Union, and of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Covington Elks.

She is survived by her husband, Norman Dressel, former superintendent of Stokes Industries, Covington; a son, James Vaughan; her mother, Mrs. Emily Hengge, Cincinnati; her father, Harry Weber, Newport, and a sister, Mrs. Thelma Green, Newport.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Ralph Stith funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

ARCHIBALD WHITE

Archibald White, 80, died Monday at his home 426 Spring street, Elsmere, after a long illness. He was a resident of Elsmere 42 years.

He was a member of Presbyterian Church, Walnut Hills; Cincinnatus Council No. 82, Junior O. U. A. M., Cincinnati, and of the Smoking Casino, an Elsmere social group.

He is survives by a daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth White, Erlang; six sons, Charles, David, Russell, William, Robert and Clifford White; five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

HAMILTON MAN INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Wm. J. Moser, of the Hamilton community suffered a broken collar bone, three broken ribs and head bruises Monday night when the car in which he was riding plunged over an embankment on the Big Bone road near Beaver Lick.

He was removed to Booth Hospital for treatment, and his condition is reported as improved.

VARIETY SHOW GIVEN NOV. 22

REPEAT PERFORMANCES ANNOUNCED FOR BURLINGTON AND FLORENCE—SHOW IS UNDER DIRECTION OF UTOPIANS

Saturday evening, November 22, the Boone County Utopia Club gave the first performance of its Variety Show at New Haven school house. Due to inclement weather attendance was small.

Residents of this section who did not see this most unusual show will have an opportunity to do so in the near future, when the show will be given at Burlington Saturday, November 29, Hebron, December 10th and Florence December 3rd. The show is under the direction of Sam Blackburn and Miss Mattie Kreylich.

Proceeds from the shows will be used toward a county recreation building as a memorial to all Boone County boys who served in the armed forces.

Features of the program include the Utopia Club Hot Shots, song by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore; Mrs. Willis Snyder brings something new to the county, to say nothing about Albert; legal troubles are disposed of by Judge Martha Gab; Sheriff Stanley Aylor does his duty when villians like Jack Turner are at large; Bob McCrann gives you a new slant on music when he squeezes the accordian; Larry Aylor really tickles the ivories. There are many other acts, but the saddest of all is the funeral of Salamander Alexander John Henry Jones.

Come out and be the judge! Help put the memorial on the fair grounds for your own Boone County boys.

Mr. James E. Hart, of Hebron and several friends returned last Friday from a hunting trip in Michigan. Each one brought home a deer and report a wonderful time.

Crittenden at Florence

Hebron at Newport

St. Henry at Walton

Saturday, Dec. 6

Campbell County at Burlington.

Headlining basketball in the county this week will be a conference game Friday night between Chester Goodridge's Hebron Cardinals and Burlington's Eagles at the Hebron hardwood. The Cardinals rate a slight favorite in this game with their 3-1 standing this season while the Eagles have a 3-2 record, and too they will be playing on their own floor.

Other games on county floors soon will be Lloyd of Erlanger at Florence next Tuesday and Crittenden at Florence Friday night of the same week. St. Henry will visit Walton Friday, Dec. 5 and Campbell County of Alexandria will play at Burlington, Saturday, Dec. 6.

Cardinals Lose

Coach Boyd Mahan's Owenton five dumped Hebron from the ranks of the undefeated last Friday night at the Owen county floor by a 36-24 score. It was the second loss for Hebron in regular schedule for two seasons and it was Owenton's third straight win.

Eagles Win Two

Burlington won their last two starts defeating Goshen, Ohio, by a 46-34 count at the Ohio gym last Tuesday night and St. Henry 41-20 at the local gym last Friday night. In the St. Henry tilt the Eagles led throughout, held a 32-7 margin going into the last quarter.

Knights, Bearcats Lose

Florence's Knights lost to both Simon Kenton and Beechwood last week. The Kenton Pioneers won 41-31 and Beechwood took the Orange and Black by a 46-20 score. Beechwood also defeated the Walton Bearcats by a 53-23 margin at the latter's gym.

CHRISTMAS MAILING SHOULD BE DONE EARLY THIS YEAR

In order to expedite the handling of holiday mail on rural routes and to aid the carriers to make prompt delivery of the mail, patrons are requested to purchase stamps in advance so they may stamp all letters and cards before depositing them in their mail box.

In order that you may be sure your Christmas cards reach their destination and are delivered on time, you should send them as first class mail. That is, sealed with a three-cent stamp on them and your return card in the upper left corner. When mailed in this manner you may enclose a written message and cards can be forwarded to another postoffice if necessary of undeliverable will be returned to sender.

CLASS IN GLASS ETCHING TO BE HELD

Mrs. A. B. Nichols and Mary Hood Gillaspie will have a special class in glass etching for all interested homemakers. This class will be December 3rd in the court house, Burlington at 1:00 p. m.

This handicraft was to have been studied at the Recreation Training School, but because of lack of time and the amount of interest shown, it has been decided to have a special class.

Anyone interested in learning this handicraft can come to the class. For those who like to make their Christmas gifts, this is an excellent opportunity.

REVIVAL SERVICES IN PROGRESS AT TAYLORSPORT CHURCH

A revival is now in progress and will continue until further announced in this paper at the Taylorsport Methodist Church each evening at 7:45. The public is invited to attend these services.

AWFUL RHEUMATIC PAIN LEFT MAN'S BODY IN 8 HOURS

"For years I had rheumatic pains in the muscles of my shoulders, legs and ankles, which finally got so stiff, sore and painful that when I walked I would flinch with agony. I got TRU-AID and started taking it, and the rheumatic pains began leaving my body in eight hours. Now the pains are gone from my muscles entirely. I feel like some other person, and I praise TRU-AID to the sky." This is a genuine testimonial from a man living right here in this vicinity.

TRU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritis aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store, of Erlanger.

FLORENCE

Mrs. Cam Kennedy, of Hopeful recently visited her sister, Mrs. A. E. Sisson, of Alliquippa, Pa.

The sale of the personal property of the late Mrs. Fannie Utz last Friday was attended by a huge crowd and most articles sold for good prices.

The Ladies' Aid of Hopeful Church served their annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the church on Tuesday.

Walter Scott, who was confined in Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati the past month, where he underwent an operation, has returned to his home on Price Road and is doing nicely. We join the community in wishing him an early convalescence.

Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter and daughter Jean entertained guests Saturday evening honoring the birthdays of Miss Kay Scott and Eldridge Carpenter. Other guests were Mrs. Helen Scott and Richard Keyer. A delicious chicken dinner was served including a cake decorated with flowers and candles. We join in wishing the celebrants many happy returns of the day.

Rev. Herman Andres officiated at the evening service at Hopeful Church, Sunday. He is a candidate for the pulpit of the church.

Mrs. Eva Miller entertained at dinner on Sunday of last week for Mrs. Irene Renaker and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller.

The Covington District Rural M. Y. F. organization was entertained by the M. Y. F. of the Williamstown Methodist Church for their first quarterly meeting on Monday evening. The Williamstown organization presented a program and recreation and the Florence group conducted devotional services. The Florence organization was accompanied by Mrs. Nelson Markesbery and Mrs. O. W. Robinson as Counselors.

The meeting of the adult class at the Florence M. E. Church Wednesday evening was well attended. A delicious covered dish dinner was served in the dining room, followed by devotional services with Rev. R. R. Rose, of Russell, Ky., Ashland District and C. A. Rose, S. S. Supt. of St. Luke's Church, Covington as speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Riddell and son, of near Hebron were evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold and family, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kobman, of Eastern Ave., had a sale of their home and household furnishings on Saturday with the expectation of going to Arizona to make their future home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Norman Dressel, 35 were held from the Ralph Stith funeral home on Monday, November 24 at 2 p. m. Mrs. Dressel had been ill more than a year and finally succumbed on Thursday, November 20. The community extends sympathy to the bereaved husband and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carpenter, of Dixie Highway entertained at dinner on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Carpenter and son John.

The marriage ceremony was performed for Miss Betty Lee Meir and Chas. William Adams of near Nicholson, Saturday at 7 p. m. at Hopeful Church. The community extends congratulations.

Sydney Ambrose and wife, Dave Wingate and wife, Clayton Brown, wife and son E. Wayne were Sunday guests of the J. T. Stephensons.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith of La Jolla, Calif., arrived the past week to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Blythe, of Dortha Ave.

Several from Florence attended the Utopia Club Variety Show held at New Haven on Saturday night. Watch for this show's appearance in your community. It is a "must see!" It is a fast moving production composed of the County's best talent. The show is being given for the benefit of the Utopia Club fund to be used for a recreation building at the Boone County Fair grounds.

Mrs. S. H. Aylor and Mrs. Martha Richards were hostesses to the Gunpowder Homemakers' Club on Wednesday of last week. The highlight of the meeting was an old fashioned turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Mrs. Roy C. Nestor returned to her home the past week following several weeks' stay in Alexandria, Va., where she attended many sessions of specialized training in Red Cross at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Zelma Aylor and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gamin of Altamont Road, Park Hills, on Friday evening.

A total of 30,400 bushels of apples were sold by orchardmen in Russell county.

Maytag Company Sets Washer Production Record

When the 54-year-old Maytag Company of Newton, Iowa, produced its five millionth washer recently, the occasion was marked by a special ceremony. Iowa Governor Robert D. Blue and leaders in business, industrial, labor and civic organizations gathered to celebrate the event which set a new record in washer production history.

Tom Smith, head of the research division, which developed the modern Maytag, is shown upper left autographing the one-piece aluminum tub which has had a large share in building Maytag popularity. Assembly workers are shown below lowering the tub into its enameled steel jacket. At right, Miss Rosanne Morgan, 1947 Maytag Queen, is christening the machine with a bottle of milk. Looking on nearest the camera from left, are: W. I. Sparks, secretary of the Maytag Company who has been with the firm forty-nine years; Letha Treat, Miss Morgan's predecessor as Maytag Queen; Roy Brandt, Maytag vice-president in charge of sales and advertising and president of The American Washer and Ironer Association; Verne R. Martin, Maytag sales manager; Fred Maytag II, Iowa State Senator and third generation president of the washer company, and Iowa Governor Blue.

The Maytag Company made its first washer in 1907 and its millionth machine in 1927. Between the four millionth Maytag in 1941 and the five millionth machine, Maytag took three years time out from peacetime production to engage in war work. The five millionth washer is being retained by Maytag as a souvenir.

More than 5,000 bushels of the Clarkan variety of wheat were sowed in Logan county this year, in contrast to 500 bushels last year.

According to Farm Agent James K. Stacey, alfalfa is becoming the most important hay crop in Pike county.

This farm has 20 acres of alfalfa, has lot of nice ridge land, plenty of stock water, good fence. This farm will pasture more stock than a lot of $40,000.00 or $50,000.00 farms
HERE'S SOMETHING UNUSUAL, NICE INVESTMENT FOR ANYBODY. HERE'S ONE THAT IS NOT INFLATED, BUILDINGS ARE WORTH ASKING PRICE.
Owner wants to sell immediately, has accepted position in the East. EVERYTHING GOES FOR $20,000.00 or FARM CAN BE SOLD SEPARATELY.

KENTON TOBACCO WAREHOUSE
Established 1918
BEGINNING THE 30TH YEAR OF AUCTION SALES

BURLEY AUCTION WAREHOUSE ASSOCIATION
NOW OPEN TO RECEIVE TOBACCO
FIRST SALES TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2ND
We installed new Sky-lights this summer. This gives better light for grading and assures better price for selling your tobacco. No waiting for selling your crop. Tobacco brought in one day will be sold never later than the next day. This is the only Warehouse in Covington, Ky. Located on Route 25 (Dixie Highway) one block west of Kentucky end of Suspension Bridge.
Government Graders on this market. KENTON HOUSE was built for tobacco growers and our experience of 29 years of selling insures you to get the best possible price. A new smooth driveway within the building, and clean and warm restrooms for all the family. All growers are treated alike. We play no favorites.

Keep bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes clean. You'd be surprised how much dust and dirt hold back light from your portable lamps and fixtures. Just by washing bulbs, bowls and enclosing globes you can get up to 30% more useable light. (Disconnect portable lamps before washing and be sure bulbs and bowls are dry before reconnecting.)
Brush or clean lamp shades regularly. If lamp shades are dirty or turning yellow inside, you may be losing as much as 50% of the light you're paying for. Clean or brush lamp shades regularly. If they are too dark or discolored, reline them or replace them with fresh new shades with white or very light linings.

Fill empty sockets and replace blackened bulbs. Bulbs that have turned black with age rob you of light. Replace them with bright new bulbs of the right size and you'll get a lot more light at little or no increase in cost. Fill empty sockets, too. They're eye strain breeders.
Keep an Ample Supply of Spare Bulbs on Hand!

From the Editor's Desk

We're On The Spot, Too!

The cold, cruel facts are that consumers prices have advanced within the past year 23 per cent. Food prices have jumped 40 per cent; clothing 18 per cent. Businesses large and small have struggled under increasing costs of wages and materials. The latter having shot up wholesale quotations 40 per cent in less than a year-and-a-half. There is no denying the fact, as much as we hate to admit it, that there is a lot of inflation in a lot of places.

There is plenty of employment in the country as shown by the fact that 60,000,000 persons are employed. A half a dozen years ago that was the goal that the New Deal was always striving to reach—but never reached.

Nevertheless, high wages and plenty of industrial activity has boosted the Nation to higher levels. Maybe this is a poor illustration, but wise statisticians tell us that meat consumption formerly leveled off at 125 pounds per capita a year, but now it is 155 pounds, at double the price that it was in the "good old days."

But you can't measure National inflation or prosperity by the old yardstick. But we do know that an increasing number of well-to-do people are wondering how they are going to continue to keep up the old habits.

Uncle Sam's legs are pretty shaky. And believe it or not, inflation still is the danger.

A Lump of Coal

Ask the ordinary citizen to describe a lump of coal, and he'll tell you that it's a black, heavy, rather dirty substance whose reason for being is to provide heat for homes and energy for industry.

These are vitally important functions—but it is now being found that coal is a great deal more versatile than that. In the near future coal will not only be a solid fuel, but will be a source of gasoline and other liquid and gas fuels, and the raw material base of innumerable chemical products. And, luckily, our known reserves of coal are virtually limitless.

According to an authoritative survey, based on technical information supplied by a large number of governmental and industrial organizations, "Complete conversion of coal to liquid and gas fuels and to chemicals means the establishment of whole new major industries." To be practical, the plants must be of great size. Each will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000,000, and will employ 2,000 men directly and 4,000 indirectly. A pilot plan is now under construction and, if it lives up to expectations, the work will go ahead as rapidly as conditions permit.

There, in brief, is the transformation that a commonplace lump of black coal is now undergoing. Back of it lies decades of exacting research and experiment. And free enterprise is turning theories into practice.

Too Late For Price Control

In a letter to the New York Times, Chester Bowles, once OPA Administrator, said: "I believe it is far too late now to reinstate the price control program."

Mr. Bowles' opinion is especially significant in that he was a strong advocate of continuing OPA for an extended period after the war. And he is certainly not alone in believing that the re-imposition of such controls would be an extremely grave error now. If we are to have price control, we must also have unqualified wage control. We must have governmental domination of every turn of the economic machine. We must have, in short, a planned economy, and what President Truman accurately termed a police state.

We are living again in a supply-and-demand competitive economy. Every manufacturer is seeking to out-perform the factory down the street, and to sell a better product at a lower price. Every kind of store is in intense competition with neighboring stores, and is doing its utmost to attract customers thru lower prices, better service, more appealing displays, advertising, etc. Under these conditions prices, whether high or low, honestly reflect the costs of doing business.

Price control would be the best break the black market could have—even as it would undermine the free market. It would be a surrender to totalitarian economics. It is not a sound solution to our problem, and would delay our final adjustment to the law of supply and demand which will finally rule in spite of all price control.

HIGH AVERAGE IS RECORDED

ON OPENING SALES OF BURLEY MARKETS THROUGHOUT KENTUCKY—238,424 POUNDS SOLD ON ERLANGER FLOOR.

High averages were recorded by burley tobacco markets on the opening day, Monday, throughout Kentucky, according to reports.

A new high average of $45.92 was recorded Monday at the Covington Independent Warehouse, 314 Dixie Highway, Erlanger, when a total of 238,424 pounds sold for $109,478.05. The day's high basket sold for $63 and the low basket at $10.

Stanley Eichholz, owner of a large stock farm on U. S. 42 near Union, received the highest average of the day, selling 3,484 pounds of tobacco for $56.51 a hundredweight. Eichholz owns and operates two large fishing lakes on his farm and is well known by sportsmen from this section.

Others receiving high averages for their crops were Earl and Chester Richardson, Morning View, $55.35 per cwt.; C. O. Portwood, Burlington, sold 2,400 pounds at $52.14; H. P. Wilson, Union, 1,950 pounds at $51.54; S. B. Blackburn, Butler, 3000 pounds at $52.54 and Virgil Freeman, Brooksville, Ind., 2300 pounds at $54.30.

The Carrollton market reported 758,378 pounds sold on opening day for an average of $50.16; Cynthiana market sold 638,958 pounds for an average of $51.25; Lexington sold 2,182,834 pounds for an average of $49.66; and Paris sold 471,808 lbs. for an average of $48.37.

Although Monday's total sales were the highest on record for opening day at the Erlanger warehouse, they did not top regular sales throughout the season in 1946. Tobacco, however, was far superior to that grown in 1946 and was bringing a much higher price, it was reported.

The Kenton Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse sold 255,238 pounds on Tuesday for an average of $47.17, it was reported.

OUT-OF-COUNTY GAMES SCHEDULED

THIS WEEK-END WHEN WARSAW VISITS NEW HAVEN, HEBRON AT NEWPORT, CRITTENDEN AT FLORENCE.

HOOP SCHEDULE

Friday, Dec. 5

Warsaw at New Haven.
Crittenden at Florence
Hebron at Newport.
St. Henry at Walton

Saturday, Dec. 6th

Campbell County at Burlington.

Tuesday, December 9

Burlington at Covington Catholic
Simon Kenton at Walton
Hebron at Dixie Heights

Boone County net teams will be in action against Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference, Catholic Conference and Penogran Conference teams this week and the schedules call for no county league games. New Haven's Tigers fresh from a 98 to 17 win over Greendale last week will entertain Walter Hambrick's Warsaw quint Friday night. The Tigers have looked very impressive their last few games and rate a big favorite in this contest.

Crittenden's none too successful team will visit Florence Friday night and it is expected that Coach Bob Tanner and his Knights will get back into the win column after several successive lacings from non-conference teams.

Hebron's undefeated Cardinals will take on the Newport Wildcats and Dixie, last year's northern Kentucky entry at the state tourney, this week. Not too much is known of the strength of the Newport and Dixie quints but local fans can be sure that Toadvine, McGlasson and company will not be practice fodder for their larger rivals. The Cards displayed great form last week when they defeated the Burlington Eagles by a 35-24 count, pulling away in the last few minutes of the contest after being held in check throughout most of the contest. Toadvine and Todtenbier, rival pivot men, scored 15 points each for their respective teams.

This game was played before the largest crowd ever to witness a game at the Hebron gym according to officials of that school. Hebron's reserves also trimmed the Little Eagles. The score was 25 to 6.

Walton's Bearcats will tangle with St. Henry Crusaders at Walton Friday night, and this contest promises to be a toss-up. The Cats will entertain Simon Kenton's Pioneers next Tuesday night. Simon Kenton will rate a slight favorite in this one, but Walton is always dangerous with Vest and several youngsters who are rapidly developing.

The only Saturday night contest for the week will pit Campbell County against Ralph Maurer's Burlington Eagles. The Camels are reported to be big and strong this year and are expected to be a little too much for the local five. The Eagles will play Coach Ed Kennedy's Covington Catholic five, runners-up in last year's regional tourney and winners of the State Catholic tourney at Lexington. Evidence of the Colonels strength this season was their last trip out when they were defeated by only one point against the Purcell Cavaliers of Cincinnati.

BURLINGTON HIGH JUNIORS TO GIVE 3-ACT COMEDY

"Peter Beware," a 3-act comedy will be given Friday, December 5th, at 7:30 p. m. by the Junior class of the Burlington high school at the auditorium of the Burlington school.

Peter Barrett will inherit several millions, provided he doesn't marry within a year. If he does, Eunice, his half-sister, gets the money. Peter doesn't know this, but Eunice does. She promptly puts a bevy of good-looking girls on Peter's trail, hoping he'll be snared by one of them before the year is up. Poor Peter is pursued by damsels until he throws his hat in the door before he enters. Then, in comes Melinda, unspoiled and utterly adorable. She knows nothing of the will and Eunice's ruse. Peter and Melinda are made for each other and it doesn't take them long to find it out. Then Peter discovers why all the girls are paying so much attention to him. He even suspects Melinda, and tells her off as a heartless little golddigger. But Flo, the negro maid, does a cupid act that brings down the house.

HOMEMAKER SCHEDULE

The Homemakers will study "Recreation" at their December club meetings. There will be a discussion on the purpose and the need of recreation both in family and community life. The discussion will be followed by a Christmas party.

SPENCE FAVORS TOBACCO IN PLAN

OF ASSISTANCE TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES—WOULD PROVIDE FOREIGN MARKET FOR TOBACCO IN FUTURE.

Representative Brent Spence, of Ft. Thomas of the House Banking and Currency Committee, favored inclusion of tobacco in the Marshall Plan program for European Relief, according to announcement in the Washington Post of November 27th.

Representative Spence asked a witness, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, if he thought including tobacco would be valuable as a "morale builder," for European countries.

"I'd like to put a cigarette rolling machine in front of one of the Ruhr coal mines and demonstrate how much more coal would be produced," Anderson replied, approving Spence's idea.

In a letter to the Recorder, Mr. Spence writes:

"The purpose of the Marshall Plan is to feed the hungry and clothe the naked people of Western Europe as a matter of Christian Charity and also to dispel their despair and discontent which make them easy converts to Communism.

"All of these people have a great desire for American tobacco and especially the American cigarette. It is thought, by reason of the increased morale and contentment tobacco will bring to the people, it will make them more industrious and increase production.

"We have long needed a foreign market for our tobacco, and if we once establish it it can be permanently maintained. The value of this market to the tobacco grower cannot be overestimated. If we can have tobacco included in the Marshall Plan, it will be the means of permanently establishing this market and will secure to the growers a stable price for their product which takes so much hard and unremitting labor to produce.

"I wish the tobacco growers to know that I will continue my efforts unceasingly to secure the much needed foreign market for their product."

DeSANTIS RESTAURANT REMODELED AND ENLARGED

FLORENCE TO BE HONORED

BY RADIO BROADCAST OVER WLW THURSDAY NIGHT —FIRST NORTHERN KY. TOWN TO BE RECOGNIZED.

The town of Florence, Ky., has been selected for the nationally famous "Builders of Destiny" radio program to be heard at 7:15 p. m. Thursday, December 4th over radio station WLW, Cincinnati.

The script and story for this broadcast is being presented by WLW in cooperation with this newspaper. Much time and effort in preparation for this program has been put forth, going back to the early history of Boone County and its people.

Each week a different town or community is honored by WLW, and the town of Florence should be proud of the fact that it has been selected for this distinction.

Don't forget the time, Thursday night, December 4th, 7:15 p. m. over WLW.

GEORGE H. DARBY

George Henry Darby, 81, retired Boone County farmer, passed away Thursday of last week at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frances Hollis, Hebron, after a long illness.

Mr. Darby, for many years resided on a farm which is now a section of the Greater Cincinnati Airport.

Besides Mrs. Hollis is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Mary Carpenter, Florence and Mrs. Hattie Cummins, Ludlow and two sons Allen, Florence and Brice Darby, of Hebron.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, with burial in Hopeful Cemetery.

JERSEY CATTLE CLUB WILL MEET DEC. 9TH

The northern parish of the Kentucky Jersey Caitle Club will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday, December 9th at Burlington, in the County Agent's office, 11:00 sharp, according to David E. King, secretary.

Bill Keegan, field man for the American Jersey Cattle Club will be present. It is the desire of the northern parish to have the new State president, George Harris to meet with the group.

Every Jersey breeder, grade or registered should attend this meeting.

ALL-ALUMINUM HOME ERECTED ON U. S. 42

Improvements on Highway 42 include the beautiful all-aluminum residence of M. C. Owens, with 30 acres on the highway and Frogtown Road, near Union.

Clarence Wolf is building a very attractive modern residence three miles southwest of Mr. Owens' location. He purchased a part of the Glick estate on Highway 42 and he and Mrs. Wolf expect to be "at home" there within a few weeks.

Mr. Owens, capably assisted by Mrs. Owens, has a drug store at Pike and Washington Sts., Covington. Mr. Wolf has real estate and insurance offices at 814 Monmouth Street, Newport.

Incidentally, Mr. and Mrs. Owens entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wolf and Aime Todd, of Cincinnati, at their new home, "OMICO Acres," Thanksgiving.

Walton Christian Church Destroyed By Fire Thurs.

THREE FIRE DEPARTMENTS BATTLE BLAZE—LOSS IS SET AT $100,000 ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

Fire, believed to have been started from an overheated furnace destroyed the Christian Church, of Walton early Thursday morning, a few hours before community Thanksgiving services were scheduled.

The fire was discovered and reported by Mrs. Marvin Gaines, who lives nearby, at 1 a. m. She stated that flames were shooting out of the windows and the whole roof was ablaze when she was awakened.

The Walton volunteer Fire Department was summoned and fought the fire an hour, then called for help from the Independence and Ft. Mitchell fire departments.

The church was dedicated in May 1918, and was probably one of the most beautiful churches in this section. Cost at the time the building was erected was approximately $50,000, but would cost twice that amount to replace at the present cost of materials and labor. The loss was set as $100,000.

Rev. Fred Nichols, pastor of the church lost his entire library, which had required forty years to collect. A new organ donated recently to the church by Lynn Percival of Cincinnati, and his brother, William, of Florida, also was lost. It was a memorial to their mother.

Members of the congregation are agreed that the building will be replaced. This was revealed by the pastor Rev. Nichols, who said that elders and deacons of the church would have a meeting soon to map future plans.

The building was of brick, with two stories in some sections. It also contained an auditorium.

The blaze had gained such headway when firemen arrived at the scene, that it was impossible to save the structure. It was believed that the fire had been burning in the basement several hours before being discovered.

SUMMERS WILL SPEAK AT MEETING DEC. 15

The general and specific outlook for 1948 for farming and homemaking will be presented at a meeting to be held at the Burlington courthouse Monday, December 15th. Community and county extension leaders both in agriculture and home economics will be invited to hear Mr. G. P. Summers and Mr. Harry Young of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

Following the guest speaker, the county group will discuss ways and means of improving farm and home practices to meet the outlook suitation.

The county and home agents' office reports that community outlook meetings have been planned for January.

GALA EVENT PLANNED AT BELLEVIEW SCHOOL

Plans are shaping up for a gala evening at Belleview school the evening of December 11 at 6:30 p. m. The menu committee has a lot of good food on hand for the chicken dinner.

Local as well as merchants from Erlanger and Covington are contributing prizes for the musical choir, part of the "50 Club" program. Come and see whether you can win a Ruth Lyons hat, compact, or one of the other prizes. Bring along a household hint.

Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50c for children for both dinner and "50 Club." Proceeds are for the school lunchroom.

HAPPY TWELVE TO MEET

The Happy Twelve Club will hold its annual Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pennington in Florence. A covered dish supper tradionally Christmas is being planned by the members.

BOOK CLUB TO MEET

The Boone County Book Club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. C. Garrison, Burlington, for the December meeting and Christmas program on December 8th at 2:00 p. m.

3RD PERFORMANCE GIVEN WEDNESDAY

OF UTOPIA VARIETY SHOW—FOURTH PERFORMANCE WILL BE GIVEN AT HEBRON WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17TH.

The third performance of the Utopia Variety show was given on Wednesday, December 3rd at the Florence school at 8:00 p. m.

The fourth performance will be given at the Hebron school, Wednesday, December 17th. Plans are being made to present the show at Hamilton soon.

Miss Mattie Kreylich and Sam Blackburn are directing the show. They announced that eighteen different acts will be given at Florence. Several of these are new acts added since the show at Burlington.

Features of the program are old time music, "Martha Gab's Court," presented by the Burlington Road Homemakers, and songs by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Mrs. Willis Schneider and Albert; Mary Elizabeth McVene, oJe Rouse and Roger Rouse; the Petersburg quartet and Burlington Men's chorus present some outstanding music. The Utopia Club Hot Shots, led by Jack Turner, have left the audiences gasping for breath. Other acts of a dramatic nature include a reading by Miss Mattie Kreylich; a radio script "Be Keerful, Jim" and the funeral of Samander Alexander John Henry Jones. Jo Ann Neusbaum and Larry Aylor have given piano solos. Accordian music played by Bob McCrann has been a feature of each show.

Mr. Blackburn announces that he has scheduled several additional attractions for the Florence show.

Come out and decide for yourself which act is the best. This is one way Boone Countians can help put the memorial on the fair grounds for boys and girls who saw service in World War II. Proceeds from the show will be used toward constructing a county recreation building.

NORTH BEND TRAINING UNION MEETS DEC. 8TH

The Baptist Training Union of the North Bend Association will hold its regular quarterly meeting at the Southside Baptist Church in Covington on Monday, December 8th at 7:30 p. m.

A MAN FELT LIKE HIS BONES WERE BROKEN, DUE TO RHEUMATISM

One man recently stated that for years he felt like the bones in his legs were broken. This was due to muscular rheumatism. His muscles were swollen and his legs so stiff and sore that he couldn't walk without limping. He was in misery. Recently he started taking TRU-AID and says the feeling like his bones were broken disappeared the second day. The swelling and stiffness has gone from his muscles; now he can walk with out suffering and says he feels like a new man.

TRU-AID contains Three Great Medical Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store of Erlanger.

UTOPIA NOTES

On November 20th the Utopia Club held its regular meeting at the courthouse. We had some seventeen or more members and two visitors, Miss Donahue our new Assistant Agent and Miss Mary Helen Thompson, of Covington.

Final plans were made for the Variety show to be held at New Haven on Saturday night. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held at the Hebron hall on December 18th. There will be Christmas tree, Santa and grab bag gift exchange.

We will have refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cakes, pickles, coffee, potato chips and candy. Special Christmas program is being planned. Come out and have a good time. Meet with us and get to know our organization.

PAY YOUR BILLS BY CHECK

Three years ago one of our customers owed an account outside of this County and paid it in cash. This week he was compelled to pay it again because he could not show evidence of payment. Had he paid the account by check on this bank we could have shown payment from our bank records, even though he could not have located the old check.

Why take chances like this when it is so convenient and safe to pay by check?

GUNPOWDER HOMEMAKERS

Everyone attending the Gunpowder Homemakers meeting, enjoyed the Thanksgiving dinner that was served by our hostess, Mrs. S. H. Aylor and her daughter Martha Richards.

"Steps in Sewing" was the lesson given by Ruth Kelly and Alberta Moore.

We were very glad to have Miss Donahue meet with us.

Plans are being made for a Christmas party to be given at the home of Grace Robinson.

IDLEWILD MAN INJURED THURS.

IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT NEAR BURLINGTON—IS REPORTED TO BE IMPROVING AT ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL.

Jack Utley, farmer of near Idlewild suffered serious injuries when the automobile which he was driving left the road and plunged into an embankment on the Burlington-Idlewild road 1½ miles north of Burlington, last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Utley suffered severe cuts on his face, head and right hand when he was thrown against the windshield of his car. He stated that the was forced off the highway by a car traveling toward Burlington. He was brought to Burlington by Ernest Brown, Jr., and removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital by the ambulance of Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors.

Two blood transfusions were administered at the hospital, and at this writing his condition is reported as good.

Mr. Utley operates a farm near Idlewild for L. W. Gulley.

VFW POST WILL GIVE DANCE FOR BASEBALL CLUB

Boone Memorial Post No. 8486 will give a dance Saturday December 13th in honor of the Post's baseball team which was runner-up in the Northern Kentucky Semipro League.

Due to limited space this dance is being given only for members of the Post and each member is entitled to bring one friend. This limitation is regretted, but is essential at this time, according to officials.

The dance will be held at Summit Hills Country Club, and invitations have been sent members of the post, with every effort being made to assure a pleasant evening. Dancing will be from 9 p. m. until 1 p. m. Emmett Redwine and his Harvests will furnish music for the dance.

The Post plans to hold dances during the months of January, February and March, which will be open to the public.

Make reservations for your guests not later than Tuesday, Dec. 16, with Alyce Blackburn, Florence 87.

BOONE COUNTY MAN IS NAMED

AS MANAGER FOR FT. THOMAS VA HOSPITAL—WILLIAM G. STEPHENS IS NEW EXECUTIVE ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

William G. Stephens, a native of Boone County and brother of Al Stephens, of Petersburg has been named as manager of the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Ft. Thomas, succeeding Dr. Howell Brewer, who has been transferred to the VA branch office at St. Louis.

Mr. Stephens has been associated with Veterans Administration for a number of years. He attended Berea College and was graduated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point in 1920, and comes to Ft. Thomas from the VA hospital at Wadsworth, Kans., where he has been manager since March 1946.

He became affiliated with the VA hospital service in 1920. Previously he was at Marion, Ind., assistant manager at Dayton, Ohio and then was manager of the VA center at Ft. Washington, Md.

After graduating from West Point, Stephens resigned his regular Army commission, but returned to active duty in World War II. He served in the Army Air Forces and was discharged as a Lieutenant Colonel at the close of the war.

Among his assignments during World War II were Military Personnel Adjutant at Brookley Field, Alabama; Inspector General at Fairfield Air Base, Ohio, and Assistant Chief of the Military Personnel for the Air Service Command.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN IN GLASS ETCHING

"Glass etching is fun and inexpensive," everyone decided who attended this class for the Homemakers at the courthouse in Burlington on December 3rd. Instructions were given by Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Agent, Mrs. A. B. Nichols, a representative at the Kentucky Recreation Workshop and Eugenia Donahue, Assistant Home Agent. There were thirteen homemakers who attended the class.

Initials and animals were etched on ash trays and water tumblers. The stencil for the design is cut from a foil paper with an adhesive back. The stencil is placed on the glass and then the etchoil is applied. Very interesting effects were produced on the glass by the women.

If others are interested, classes may be arranged in the communities. If so those who attended the county meeting could assist with the community classes.

RURAL CARRIER TO BE SELECTED

FOR VERONA ROUTE—RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS WILL CLOSE JANUARY 15—EXAMINATION DATE WILL BE GIVEN.

The Civil Service Commission anounces the examination to fill the position of rural carrier at Verona, Kentucky. The examination will close on January 15, 1948.

The date of the examination will be stated on the admission after the closing date for receipt of the applications.

The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily route of 30 miles is $2020 a year, with an additional $20 a mile a year for each mile or fraction (maor) thereof in excess of 30 miles. Salaries on routes of shorter length or of less frequent service are proportionately lower.

All rural carriers must furnish and maintain at their own expense all necessary vehicle equipment for the prompt handling of the mails, but are allowed an equipment maintenance of 6 cents a mile on the basis of the daily mileage scheduled, (this amount to $549 per year for a 30-mile route).

Rural carriers shall be promoted successively at the beginning of the quarter following one year's satisfactory service in each grade to the next higher grade until they reach the 11th grade (for a standard 30-mile daily route, an increase of $84 a year is provided in each grade, through grade 11).

The examination will be open only to citiens of, or persons who owe allegiance to the United States who are actually residing in the territory of the Post Office where the vacancy exists, who have been actually residing there for one year next preceding the closing date for receipt of applications, and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form 1977 of July 1947. Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles.

Form 1977 and application blanks can be obtained from the vacancy office mention above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington 25, D. C. Applications must be on file with the Commission at Washington 25, D. C., prior to the close of business on the date specified above.

HENSLEY FARM SOLD

The 160-acre farm on Commissary Road owned by James and Ernest Hensley was sold to Thomas Gale Craddock of Bullittsville.

This farm has a seven-room house, four barns and other outbuildings, also forty acres of bottom land.

Mr. Craddock is planning to move to his farm after March 1st. This farm was sold by Chas. M. Tanner auctioneer and real estate broker.

FARM BUREAU TO HOLD MEETING

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Boone County Farm Bureau on Thursday, December 11th at 8:00 p. m. The meeting will be held at Burlington in the County Agent's office. Let's try to have 100 percent present.

COUNTY TEAMS IN WIN COLUMN

AS ALL TEAMS CHALK UP VICTORIES OVER OUT-OF-COUNTY OPPOSITION WITH EXCEPTION OF NEW HAVEN.

Boon County Conference basketball teams rolled into high gear last week when all county teams defeated their out-of-county "big time" opposition, except New Haven's ineligible-ridden Tigers who lost to Warsaw of the Penogran Conference by a 36-30 count.

Highlighting the victorious week was Hebron's Cardinals humiliation of Newport's Wildcats on the loser's floor. The Cards defeated the Cats 40 to 20 after having them 30 to 13 at the close of the third period. Big Bill Toadvine tossed in 18 points for the winners and Carver added ten more.

Two more upset victories were Florence's 53-44 win over Erlanger Lloyd and Burlington's 34-25 win over Campbell County, of Alexandria. In the Knights win, Rouse, Baker and Lipscomb were the offensive noise with the former tossing in 19 points and the latter two adding 11 each. Quarter scores were 12-8, 22-24, 34-32 and 53-44. Florence defeated Crittenden 32-30 in a close game Saturday night. The winning points came in the last few seconds.

Burlington's Eagles turned on the steam in the final half of their game with the Camels after being held to the short end of a 11-10 count at the midway mark to handily defeat the Campbell Countians. Lafe Miller was the offensive cog for the local team as he scored 15 points. Todtenber added nine to the cause.

Walton trimmed a greatly improved St. Henry outfit Friday night at the winner's floor by a 50-46 score. Vest and Maddox scored most for the Cats as Wichman led the Crusader offense.

FOX HUNT AND SHOW, SUCCESS

ENTRIES FROM THREE STATES LISTED IN VERONA COMMUNITY CLUB SHOW—INDIANA AND VERONA DOGS WINNERS.

The Verona school building was packed Thanksgiving night to witness the first foxhound bench show held by the club. Entries from Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana vied for honors with Blanket Cook C owned by Paul Cook, Florence, Ind. winning the best dog in the show trophy and Moonlight Polly owned by Mrs. Jay Webster, Verona, Ky., winning the best opposite sex honors.

From the puppy class under six months on up to the all-age classes competition was exceptionally keen. Winners in other bench shows found hard sledding in the unexpected competition caused by the appearance of the best dogs seen in many days as they were paraded before the judge by their proud owners and handlers. In general their behavior was perfect, not only during the bench show performance but in the field as well.

Smokey Joe Wins Derby Field Trial

Smokey Joe, the pride of Ross Chapman, Verona, Ky., was field trial winner of the Derby Stake (18 months and under) scored on two days work in the field. After the first day Smokey failed to show up and his owner was very much concerned. The next morning, however, during the first cast of the second day Smokey Joe was seen with the pack and thanks to Forrest Marsh for giving him "room and board" overnight. Little did he know that he was feeding a potential winner as the tired and hunery hound sought shelter after a herd day in the field. This good neighbor policy was rumored in several similar cases and the community as a whole where the races were run is to be highly congratulated for the genuine hospitality and whole hearted cooperation that helped make this a most successful hunt as outwardly expressed by hunters from far and wide. Nor did Old Reynard the fox fail to do his part. It seemed that it was fox day in Boone County for certain.

Within five minutes after a very colorful cast on the first with fifty-two hounds, eager but not over anxious, deployed dramactically by the master of hounds, that unmistakable voice of the chase was on in full swing. Fifty-two hounds running well packed for the first few minutes showed old Reynard up and down Verona Branch so fast that there was little time for him to unlimber his "bag of tricks" before seeking refuge in old mother earth. Immediately thereafter, numerous foxes were started and as many separate chases followed throughout the day making it exceptionally difficult for the judges to score all the different packs.

The last day of the hunt was a gruelling test and no less than fifteen foxes were sighted by the judges during the five-hour period of running time. Again many separate running packs was the order of the day with no one fox being able to stay up before the hounds for any great length of time. During this last day, however, the judges were able to do considerable scoring from the Mudlick section.

When the scores were all tabulated the all-age winner was "Bertha" owned by Lowell Beach, Elliston, Ky., and "Blanket Cook C," owned by Paul Cook, Florence, Ind., a close second.

There are at least two hounds still at large and may be identified by large numbers painted on their sides and by the owner's name and address on collars attached. Anyone finding these dogs please tie them up and notify their owners or Jay Webster, Verona, Ky., phone Walton 1240.

Complete results of both the bench show and field trials are as follows:

CONSTANCE BOY FACES CHARGE

ARRESTED WEDNESDAY WHILE ALLEGEDLY ATTEMPTING TO ROB CONSTANCE POSTOFFICE—TO BE TRIED IN COVINGTON

A 16-year-old Constance youth was released Monday morning to federal authorities, after he was arrested Wednesday, while allegedly attempting to rob the Constance Post Office.

A trap had been set for the youth after two previous robberies in the postoffice within the past month, according to Sheriff Irvin Rouse. He reported the youth had been under suspicion for some time and admitted the two former thefts.

W. F. Ellis, husband of Mrs. Reba Ellis, postmaster of the office, which is housed in Ellis' General Store, Constance, secreted himself in a rear room, and apprehended the youth when he entered the postoffice cage while the clerk was out of the store.

The youth admitted taking $85 from postal receipts in a similar manner November 3 and $46 on November 29.

After being released to federal authorities and placed in Covington jail to wait arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Orie S. Ware.

BURLEY AVERAGES $51.18 ON MARTS

HIGHEST IN TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, ACCORDING TO REPORTS WITH TWENTY-TWO MARKETS REPORTING.

Prices paid for burley tobacco on Kentucky markets Monday soared to a statewide average of $51.18, believed to be the highest in 25 years, with twenty-two markets reporting sales of 13,669,541 pounds for which growers received $6,995,592.54.

The Kenton Loose Leaf Warehouse, Covington reports a total of 262,576 pounds sold for $123,682.10, an average of $47.10 a hundred pounds. The high basket brought $63 a hundred pounds and the low brought $10.

The Carrollton market showed 731,400 pounds selling for an average of $50.55, while Cynthiana sold 634,426 pounds for an average of $52.09 and Lexington 3,282,976 pounds for an average of $53.39 a hundred pounds.

TWO LARGE FARMS PURCHASED BY L. W. GULLEY, LAST WEEK

L. W. Gulley, local merchant, purchased two adjoining farms near Burlington last week. One was the 102½ acre farm known as "Grayacres" owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Clutton and the other was the Souther farm of 110 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jeff E. Eddins. This makes one body of land of 212½ acres and so adjoin as to make a very desirable tract, facing on Highway 18 and also on a County Road in the rear and provides two complete sets of buildings.

Mr. Gulley is one of our best farmers and takes much interest in soil building on any land he owns, by using lime, phosphate, manure and green crops for plowing under. Quite frequently he produces a ton or more tobacco per acre, besides heavy corn yields.

Recently Mr. Gulley sold his farm of 295 acres one mile out from Burlington on the Burlington-Idlewild Road.

In addition to his recent purchase, he owns the Shannon farm of 171 acres on the Burlington-Idlewild Road, near Idlewild, and still finds time to operate the general store of Gulley & Pettit in Burlington.

These sales were handled thru the A. B. Renaker Agency.

VARIETY SHOW SET FOR HAMILTON

The Variety Show being presented by the Utopia Club is beginning its fourth week showing in Boone County. The showing this week will be at the Hamilton school at 8:00 p. m., Thursday, December 11. The following week the show will be at Hebron school at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, December 17th.

The show features old time music, vocal solos, and a colored funeral. It's good entertainment for the entire family.

Proceeds will be used to erect a building at the fair grounds as a memorial to Boone County service men.

Can Hamilton or Hebron break the attendance record?

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liser returned home last Thursday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Liser and daughter.

CIRCUIT COURT CONVENED MON.

FOR REGULAR DECEMBER TERM DISMISSED TUESDAY FOR INAUGURAL CEREMONIES FOR GOV. CLEMENTS.

The ringing of the familiar court bell in the courthouse Monday morning at 9:00 a. m. officially ushered in the December term of the Boone Circuit Court with the Hon. Judge Ward Yager, presiding, and a record crowd on hand for the opening of court.

The following jurymen were selected for jury service this term:

Grand Jury

J. K. Cropper, foreman, Clyde Arnold, Ben Kotzmyer, B. C. Gaines C. F. Blankenbeker, Sam Kite, Geo. S. Knox, Ben Goodridge, W. W. King, David Houston, Joe Ryan and Chas. Bell.

Petit Jury No. 1

Brue Wallace, Robert Graves, Chas. Hempfling, James L. Tanner, H. D. Deck, W. E. Scothorn, Orin Britt, Bryant Jones, G. V. Garrison, Clarence Wolfe, Louis Judy and Robert Williamson.

Petit Jury No. 2

Grant Maddox, Harry Moore, Fred Bingham, Elmer Carpenter, Orin Edwards, John Kyle, Volney Dickerson, Omer Dolwick, J. M. Callen, William Mahorney, John C. Whitaker and Henry Anderson.

County Judge C. L. Cropper appeared and filed a report of all fines collected since his last report, which amounted to $981.00.

The grand jury was in session all day Monday, but were unable to complete their work, and reconvened Wednesday and were expected to finish their work on Wednesday.

Two cases were reset Monday for trial later this week. The case of Stanley vs. Marino has been set for Monday, December 15th and the case of Bradford vs. Joel Gray was set to be tried on Tuesday, December 16th. All other cases will be tried according to schedule.

There are several cases set for trial during the December term and all indications point to a two-week term.

Court was dismissed Tuesday in order for all to attend the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Earle C. Clements, Frankfort.

BROWN SWISS SALES

Howard Stringer, Petersburg, Ky., has recently purchased the registered Brown Swiss bull Featherstone's College Dan No. 84952 from John A. Caldwell, Burlington, Ky. Mr. Caldwell also sold the bull Featherstone Tillie's Lindy No. 84953 to Emil Hillenbrand, Burlington, and Featherstone's Golden Mars No. 85453 to Cyril H. Rolf, of 814 Liberty St., Newport, Ky., according to a report from Fred S. Idtse, Secretary of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association, Beloit, Wisconsin.

BURLINGTON GARAGE SOLD

BY J. R. EDDINS TO J. E. EDDINS—APARTMENT HOUSE AND HOME ALSO INCLUDED IN TRANSACTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff E. Eddins, Burlington, purchased the two-story frame apartment building and garage building, stock, tools and all equipment from Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eddins, Burlington, and will assume management of the business on January 1, 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eddins received title to the home now owned by Jeff E. Eddins and expect to move on or before January 1st. Mr. Eddins has been in the garage business in Burlington for the past 24 years and has been one of Burlington's most outstanding and successful businessmen.

J. E. Eddins has been employed as chief mechanic for the Board of Education of Boone County for the past eleven years and will hold this position until July 1, 1948. He is an experienced and capable mechanic and will continue the Eddins Garage in the same fine manner as in the past.

SHORTAGE OF MEAT FORECAST

Agriculture Department Experts Forecast Biggest Meat Shortage in 20 Years

Without enough good meat it's going to be a difficult job to keep your family strong and healthy. For good physical condition is your best insurance against the possibility of contracting disease.

What are you going to do about it? If you're not sure, let us suggest that you use nature's way of preserving a good supply of meat while it's still obtainable . . . by freezing and storing it in a Deepfreeze home freezer.

FRANCESVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Aylor have returned home after an enjoyable visit with relatives in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tanner, of Erlanger spent Sunday with Mrs. Tanner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, who recently moved from Tennessee to the Reimer farm.

The many friends of Lee Craddock regret to learn he remains on the sick list.

Little Sue Graves spent the week end with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reimer, of Bullittsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henson and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hildebrant, of Ludlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson and daughter of Hebron spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Craddock and family.

Friends are glad to learn that Sarah Johnson, who suffered a stroke two weeks ago is improving at her home.

Correction: A news item appearing in this column last week should have read Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clifford are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a fine daughter, instead of Everett Clifford and wife.

The W. M. U. of Sand Run met at the home of Mrs. Lee Craddock on Thursday, Dec. 4. Twelve members were present. The meeting was an all-day affair and lunch was served at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jones entertained his brother, Jess Jones of Indiana one day last week.

Rev. L. M. Hamilton and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Washmuth and family of Florence last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Jake Blaker remains on the sick list.

This community was saddened by the death of Mrs. Cecil Burns at her home in Petersburg, Saturday.

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

The Constance Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Adam Dolwick on Dec. 3rd with Mrs. Thomas Kenyon presiding. Meeting was opened with 21 members and 8 visitors and Miss M. H. Gillaspie, H. D. A. answering roll call with a "Xmas Tradition Which Has Meant Much to Me," followed by club collect. Salute to flag and Scripture reading Luke 2:1-10 by Elmer Reeves.

Mrs. Margaret Prabel gave a very good reading on care of shrubs, roses, and evergreens during the winter.

Citizenship chairman reminded all not to forget the box at Ellis' store for used clothing for the Protestant Children's Home in Devou Park. We also made a donation to the T. B. Association.

Miss Gillaspie gave some important dates for the month of December and January and also told how to make inexpensive Xmas decorations.

At noon a delicious Xmas dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by all.

The afternoon session was turned over to the recreation chairman, Mrs. Elmer Reeves with the playing of games.

—Publicity Chairman.

FLORENCE SPECIAL!

FOR SALE—A BEAUTIFUL HOME, FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED.

Reason for selling: Going back to California for health. This beautiful home sits back among large shade trees; has 1¼ acres of ground; barn and two-car garage. Coolest place in Kentucky in summer, and oil-fired hot-water heat keeps it comfortable in winter! Nice, deep windows for flowers with Venetian blinds at all windows. Living room and dining room have new carpet from wall to wall, as well as the stairway going up from the living room. The living room has large fireplace and book shelves from floor to ceiling. One large couch and love seat, solid mahogany table desk, mahogany occasional table and chairs. Dining room has beautiful new nine-piece Sheraton walnut dining room suite. A bright kitchen with cabinet sink, cabinets, a new "Coldwall" Frigidaire, a new electric range, walnut table and chairs. Downstairs bath has stall shower, lavatory, commode and linen closet. Utility room has stationary laundry tube, built-in cabinets. There are four large bedrooms on second floor and full-sized bath. Front bedroom has lovely blond oak bedroom suite. There is a fireplace in three bedrooms. Master bedroom is furnished in solid mahogany. Both front bedrooms open on the upper front veranda. Third bedroom has twin beds, solid mahogany chest of drawers, antique marble top chest and antique cherry table. There is an antique, hand-carved cherry bed, marble-top walnut chest of drawers with mirror, a lovely marble-top walnut dresser and a rosewood slipper chair in the fourth bedroom. All rooms are beautifully papered and painted; all hardwood floors and furniture in keeping with the house.

PAY YOUR BILLS BY CHECK

Three years ago one of our customers owed an account outside of this County and paid it in cash. This week he was compelled to pay it again because he could not show evidence of payment. Had he paid the account by check on this bank we could have shown payment from our bank records, even though he could not have located the old check.

Why take chances like this when it is so convenient and safe to pay by check?

You Need an Expert!

In mild, changeable weather, you need an expert to protect your meat. Livestock owners are being asked to feed as little grain as possible. This means early slaughter, with great risk of spoilage from a sudden change in weather.

DON'T WASTE MEAT! EVERY POUND OF IT IS NEEDED

Don't take chances. The few pennies you save by doing most of the work yourself may cause the loss of many dollars worth of meat. Bring your beef and pork to us on foot; let us do a COMPLETE job of processing, with modern, sanitary equipment. In our plant, animals move from holding pen, thru slaughter, into chill room in a matter of MINUTES—not hours. Bone rot and souring have no chance to start.

Hams and bacon are promptly put in cure in a refrigerated room. Our cure always "takes," regardless of the weather. After smoking, cured meat is put in another refrigerated room for ripening.

Fat trimmings are rendered promptly with modern equipment. No danger of scorched lard—no loss from sour fat.

BELLEVIEW W. M. S.

Mrs. Edward Rogers was hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society Thursday for an all-day meeting in observance of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions.

Our pastor, Rev. Burkett had charge of the Bible study and devotional, bringing us a fine message on "God's Hope of Glory in Human History."

Twelve members answered to roll call and several visitors were welcomed.

After the business session we were dismissed for lunch by Helen Rogers and May Sandford was given in the afternoon.

A solo, "Speak to My Heart" was beautifully sung by Bro. Burkett.

A responsive reading was given by Zora Scott and Jetta Burkett.

Clara Hensley on "Our Opportunities to take the Gospel to Japan."

Laura Rogers "Africa Where Disease Takes Its Toll."

Missouri Rice and Zora Scott sang a duet, "Loyalty to Christ."

A responsive reading was given by Leona Marshall and May Sandford after which the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was taken by our treasurer.

A special prayer for our president who is ill, and for others who are sick in the community, was offered by Mrs. Bertha Rice.

Our next meeting will be at the church on Wednesday afternoon, January 7th.

FLORENCE

Miss Grace Eddins entertained with a dinner party on Dec. 2 in celebration of the 52nd birthday of her mother, Mrs. Kate Eddins. A birthday cake was a special feature and the guests who enjoyed the occasion were Mrs. Helen Scott, Mrs. Mildred Middendorf and Misses Shirley and Kay Scott. Mrs. Eddins was the recipient of several nice gifts and we join the community in wishing her many happy returns of the day.

The Florence Christian Church is presenting a Christmas program a musical pageant on December 21 at 10 a. m. The surrounding community is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Cora Higgins, of Cincinnati is recuperating from a protracted illness at the home of Mrs. Annie Clore, of Burlington Road.

Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Robinson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss at a dinner held at the First Methodist Church, Covington on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ramey were Sunday evening guests of his brother Clyde Arnold and family.

Mrs. Bruce Easterday and son, of Scottburg, Ind., were guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tanner several days last week.

We regret to report the illness of Jack Renaker at his home on Shelby Street. However, his friends are hoping for his early convalescence.

Dr. O. W. Robinson, pastor of the Florence Methodist Church is delivering a sermon on "Our Christian Bible" on Sunday, Dec. 14 at the morning service. All members are urged to be present and friends also are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephenson, Mrs. Dave Wingate and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ambrose attended funeral services for Mrs. Mollie Sturgeon Friday at the Walton Baptist Church. Mrs. Sturgeon was a close friend of the Stephenson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Highhouse, of Ludlow were dinner guests of the Clyde Arnolds Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burton entertained Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garrison over the week-end.

Mrs. Clyde Arnold has been confined to her home with an attack of strep throat. She is much improved, however.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephenson entertained guests at dinner on Thanksgiving Day, including Mr. and Mrs. John Ryle, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brown and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ambrose, Mrs. Rebecca Points and Mrs. Clifford Points.

Mrs. Marie Kinman and John Brown returned last week from a delightful Thanksgiving visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Robert West (nee Jo Ann Kinman) of Pineville, Ky.

The community wishes to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burton, who recently purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Gasser, of Locust St.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Gebhard, Jr., and daughter were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs Larry Aylor and daughter of the Buckshorn Apartments.

The whole community joins in wishing success to V. M. Leach and Wm. Heitzman who opened the "Acacia Inn" the past week. Not only do they boast of everything modern in hotel facilities, but also the best of foods available. The location is ideal and for the benefit of those who know not of the whereabouts. You'll find it near the Drive-In Theater entrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marlowe have returned to their home in Algiers, New Orleans, La., following a successful season here. Mr. Marlowe operated the concession at the Drive-In Theater.

M-Sgt. William R. Tryling was visiting friends in the community on Wednesday. He has reenlisted in the Army for another three years and has been granted a 90-day leave before returning to his station in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Buckshorn and family are occupying an apartment in the Buckshorn building, having moved to the new location the past week.

Miss Ginny Royalty Nestor has been confined to her home the past week due to illness. She is well on the road to recovery.

THE GREAT TOE

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Do you know that the great toe supports the entire weight of the body for an instant, in the last act of walking?

The foot muscles acting upon the four lesser toes preserve the balance of the body by causing the toe to grip in the shoe and in the last act of walking to give the final spring, or "take off." By their attachment the toes flex at their first (holongel) points and extend at their second and third joints, so that the ends of the toes are pressed upon and grip in standing so as to form powerful propelling levers as the body swings forward upon the toes.

Now, take off your shoes—and look at the bottom of your toes. In every case (there are few exception) you will see where the fleshy tissue on the bottom ends of the toes comes to a point, from being forced tight together and in many cases the toes themselves lap over one another. This is positive evidence of ill fitted and ill shaped shoes. This continued distortion of toes in many cases leads to bunions, Hommar toes and other toes defects.

Lack of balance will cause you to walk incorrectly and create strain in other parts of the body, inducing fatigue, pain and more misery, NOT ONLY in the feet, but even in the back of the neck and headaches. Resolve right now to correct this condition.

LADY'S ARM WAS BENT UP DOUBLE LIKE A JACK-KNIFE

One lady recently stated that her arm used to become doubled up like a jack-knife. She couldn't move her arm up or down because her muscles were stiff with rheumatic pains and the joints of her elbow and shoulder were swollen. She said she was ashamed to leave her house because people would stare at her. Finally she got TRU-AID and says she now can raise her arm above her head and the swelling left her elbow and shoulder. The awful paint and stiffness is gone. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

TRU-AID contains Three Great Medicinal Ingredients which go right to the very sources of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store of Erlanger.

MAYO'S FARM

I am offering for sale a 41-acre dairy farm. One of the prettiest spots on the Dixie Highway, between Covington and Lexington, Ky.

A six-room modern home, two stairways in home, large solarium. Inlaid linoleum throughout house, including stairways. Two baths, one on first and one on second floor. Oil-fired furnace, large fruit bin. New electric water heater, 50 gallons. Outside and inside entrance to basement. Storm windows and screens for entire house, including doors. Large reception hall, large front porch. New roof on house and all outbuildings. Modern cement block milk house, 2-car garage, with living quarters over. New aluminum overhead doors.

Modern dairy barn for 14 cows, including drinking fountains and barn sewered. Feed room 20 ft. x 20 ft. adjoining barn. New cement block outside toilet. One calving barn with four box stalls. Two well-fenced garden spots. New fence on entire farm, with fenced lane from front to back of place. Large lake, ever-running spring.

Two creeks on farm (and spring), plenty of water. Two large cisterns on farm. Two acres of woods. This farm averages $5000 per year income but could be increased. This farm has electric in all buildings with separate fuse boxes.

Bus passes the door every hour. This farm is located on Route No. 25, just four miles from Walton, four miles from Florence, just 15 miles from Cincinnati. School bus, bakery truck, newspaper, mailman—all at your door.

If you are looking for a real modern farm with very nice income—priced at just $38,000.

P. S. This farm has good rich soil—everything that was taken off was put back on. Has pastured 25 head of cattle for the past five years.

CHILD DROWNS IN CISTERN SUNDAY

AT FLORENCE WHILE VISITING RELATIVES—SON OF MR. AND MRS. RAY MEYER OF CINCINNATI.

Dennis Lee Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Meyer, 3520 Reading Road, Cincinnati, lost his life when he fell into the cistern at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Simpson, Florence, whom he had been visiting in company with his parents.

The child was missed at 2:30 p. m., and after a frantic search of more than an hour he was found in the cistern. There was approximately 18 inches of water in the cistern, according to Sheriff R. I. Rouse.

A heavy cement cover of the cistern had been removed Saturday to permit additional supplies to be poured in. A light wooden cover was placed over the opening temporarily to prevent accidents. Apparently the child had wandered to the brink of the cistern and fell in after pushing aside the light covering.

Dr. Gladys Rouse and Dr. Harry Daugherty worked more than two hours in an effort to revive the 4-year-old youth, but their efforts were in vain.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson are Mrs. Meyer's uncle and aunt. Dennis Lee's father is assistant auditor of the Alms Hotel, Cincinnati, having been with the hotel for eight years except for a two-year tour of duty with the Army in World War II when he was stationed in England with the Finance Department of the Army Air Corps.

Besides his parents and great-uncle and great-aunt, he is survived by a brother, Billy Ray Meyer; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Meyer, Cincinnati and his maternal grandfather, Clyde Cottington, Indianapolis.

A verdict of accidental death in the drowning was returned by H. B. White, Boone County magistrate. He reported that the fall undoubtedly had stunned the child and that he had drouned afterward.

The Ralph Stith funeral home, Florence is in charge of funeral arrangements.

SCHOOL CLUB WILL MEET

The regular meeting of the Bellview School Club will be held Thursday, December 18 at 7:30 p. m. at the school. All members and friends are urged to attend.

The Club takes this opportunity to thank all the donors of the prizes, all who attended, and all those whose efforts helped to make the supper and "50 Club" program such a success.

BURLEY PRICES SOAR UPWARD

STATEWIDE AVERAGE IS REPORTED AT $51.66 MONDAY—HIGHEST SINCE 1919, ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

Prices for burley tobacco climbed to a new season's high Monday, reaching a state-wide average of $51.66 a hundredweight, according to a report from the State Department of Agriculture.

It was the highest level on record since 1919, and was the sixth successive day in which prices exceeded a $50 average.

Reports from 23 markets showed total sales of 13,241,914 pounds for $6,841,210.24. Twenty of the markets had price increases over Friday, when the statewide average was $50.40 on 13,505,262 pounds for $6,806,782.40.

Monday's top average was reported by Paris, which had $54.02. A close second was Lexington with an average of $54.02. Thirteen other markets had averages in excess of $50.

The tobacco price average jumped almost $1 a hundredweight on the Covington market Monday as the average was reported at $46.46 by the Covington Independent Warehouse, Dixie Highway, Erlanger. Friday's average was $45.48. Sales totaled 209,470 pounds for a total of $97,362.66, with the high basket selling for $61 and the low at $7.

Warehouse treasurer, W. C. Spence reported more than 50 crops were sold at a $54 average, but that other poor grade tobacco pulled the over-all average down.

Carrollton's market sold a total of 649,783 pounds Monday for $344,-186.85, or an average of $51.43.

RECORDER WILL BE PUBLISHED EARLY

The Recorder will be published one day early next week, due to Christmas Day falling on our publication date. The paper will go to press Tuesday afternoon instead of Wednesday, and will be mailed out Wednesday on the various routes, reaching our subscribers Christmas Eve.

Persons desiring items for this issue are requested to mail or bring them to this office not later than Monday afternoon, to insure publication.

The Recorder office will be closed the week of December 29 in order to give the staff a much needed vacation. Persons having items for publication will please hold copy until the week of January 5th, when regular operations will be resumed by this paper.

BIG BONE CHURCH PLAN XMAS PROGRAM

On Christmas Eve the Big Bone Baptist Church will give a Christmas program lasting approximately two hours, it was announced this week. Much time and effort has been spent in arranging three big plays. Special music, followed by the personal appearance of old Saint Nick himself is on the program.

New Years Eve the church will hold a watch service beginning at 9:30 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend both of these services.

VARIETY SHOW

Come to the Utopia Variety Show at Hebron school Wednesday, December 17th at 8:00 p. m. All who have seen the show have enjoyed it. So don't miss it. Come and bring your family.

The show includes vocal solos, an accordian solo, a radio skit, a mock band, a courtroom scene, and even a colored funeral.

Let's have a full house for the Hebron show.

FLORENCE LADY NAMED SECRETARY

OF BOONE COUNTY CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS—HAS HAD EXECUTIVE TRAINING RECENTLY.

W. R. Davis, chairman, announces the appointment, as of November 1st, of Mrs. Elizabeth Goodridge Nestor, of Florence as Executive Secretary of Boone County Chapter American Red Cross. Mrs. Nestor has recently returned from taking the Executive Secretary training at Alexandria, Va., also the Home Service workers' course at Carrollton, Ky., and is well fitted for her new position, having been an active Red Cross volunteer since 1943.

She has served as a registered staff assistant and canteen worker in Kenton County, also was chairman of volunteer special services for Boone County and worked at Ft. Thomas convalescent hospital through the camp and hospital council.

For several years prior to her present appointment, Mrs. Nestor has been a director of the board, a member of the executive committee and general secretary of the Boone County Red Cross. She has been county chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation, also local chairman of Crippled Children's Association, is a member, church clerk, and Primary Sunday School teacher in the Florence Christian Church. She enjoys membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution, Covington Art Club, Florence Homemakers Club and Women's Auxiliary of Florence Fire Department.

Mrs. Nestor states, that in order to make Red Cross facilities more available to all parts of the county, the headquarters have been moved to Florence, and an office will be maintained at Mrs. Nestor's home across from the Florence Post Office.

For the benefit of those who work in Covington or Cincinanti, Tuesday office hours will be from 3 to 8 p. m.; Thursday from 1:30 to 5 p. m until further notice.

Feel free to take advantage of the facilities Red Cross has to offer for your welfare. Any interviews you may have with Red Cross workers are kept strictly confidential. Telephone Florence 84.

Mrs. Elza Poston entertained the Young Women's Bible Class at her home Saturday evening.

Announce Winners In Essay Contest

BURLINGTON BOY NAMED WINNER

IN LOCKER PLANT ESSAY CONTEST—ROBT. RAY COMBS IS SELECTED HIGHEST IN BOONE AND KENTON COUNTIES.

Robt. Ray (Sonny) Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Combs, Burlington, was selected winner of the essay contest sponsored by the Burlington-Erlanger Locker Plants for all school in Boone and Kenton counties.

Seven schools in the two counties submitted many excellent papers on the subject, "How the Frozen Food Locker Plant Serves the Community," and after careful consideration the following were selected: Tom Steiger, Beechwood; Robt. Ray Combs, Burlington; Lelia Margaret Tanner, Florence; John Edwin Carver, Hebron; Eugene Gschwind, Lloyd; Marilyn Carol Feldhaus, New Haven and Wm. Miller, St. Henry. Each of the above seven winners was awarded $10.00 in cash, and then they were judged for the best essay of the entire group.

Robt. Ray Combs, Burlington, was selected first of the seven high and has been awarded an additional $25.00 in cash for being selected as winner from both counties.

The Burlington-Erlanger Locker plants extend their congratulations to the winners and a cordial thanks to all who participated in the contest.

HEBRON YOUTH INJURED IN ACCIDENT MONDAY

Wilbur Hudson, 14, of Hebron suffered injuries to his right leg Monday when he was struck by an automobile on Highway 20 near his home.

Wilbur Gray, Burlington, driver of the automobile removed the youth to Booth Hospital, Covington for treatment, where it was reported his condition was reported as not serious.

100-BLOCK DECORATED FOR XMAS HOLIDAYS

The progressive shops and stores in the 100-Block Pike Street, Covington, have decorated the street with streamers of holly on both sides of the block, dotted with red, white and blue electric lights. The street is quite attractive at night. Santa Claus will be in the 100-Block every night until Christmas.

Another highlight of the 100-Block is the recent reopening of the remodelled and enlarged DeSantis Restaurant, with facilities for serving 150 persons, and catering to private parties. The restaurant makes a speciality of serving choice Italian food, but also has American menus.

STEPPING STONES WILL HOLD MEETING DEC. 20

The Stepping Stones class of the Burlington Baptist Church will hold its monthly class meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Carolyn McNeely, Saturday night, December 20 at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

CROPPER NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF COUNTY JUDGES' ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the Kentucky County Judges' Association held in Louisville Thursday of last week, Judge C. L. Cropper of Boone County was named as vice president.

Other officers selected at the meeting were James S. Higgins, of Christian County, president; Judge Minice Jones, of Henry County, Secretary, and Judge Gilbert White of Boyle County, treasurer.

BOONE COUNTY BOY TO EDIT COLLEGE PAPER

Jack Sorrelle, of this county, a junior at the University of Kentucky took over the duties as editor of the Kentucky Kernel, university newspaper, Monday of this week.

Sorrelle was appointed by the Board of Student Publications to succeed Martha Yates, Lexington, who will be graduated this month.

BOONE GROWER RECEIVES TOP PRICE

Bill Feldhaus, Hamilton, sold his crop of Ky. 16 tobacco for a $55.86 average on the Carrollton market, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Mr. Feldhaus produced 6808 pounds of weed on 3.4 acres for an average of 2002 pounds per acre. Of the 6808 pounds offered for sale 5646 pounds brought 56 cents or over. Five high baskets brought 60 cents.

BURLINGTON BOYS SELL BURLEY CROP FOR $59.50 AVERAGE

One of the largest small crop tobacco averages so far reported around Burlington is that of Jimmie and Warren Ryle, the two young sons of Sam Ryle.

These two boys, ages 14 and 10 respectively, raised 618 pounds on less than 4/10 of an acre in a garden lot of A. B. Renaker, which sold for an average of 59½ cents per pound. This is the sixth year this plot of ground has been in tobacco and this year's crops was the best of any past years and netted more money for the whole crop.

This tobacco was the 41-A variety and was plowed once, hoed twice and suckered once.

These two boys also raised 578 pounds on 3½10 of an acre in a lot at their home which sold for an average of $57.83 per hundred pounds. This crop was Golden Burley.

Their third crop of 488 pounds was grown on 3½10 of an acre on the land of F. H. Rouse and sold for an average of $48.59 per hundred.

HEBRON P.-T. A.

The Hebron P.-T. A. meeting will be held immediately following the program at the school, Friday, December 19th.

HEBRON TROUNCES FLORENCE FRIDAY

BY SCORE OF 59-32—BURLINGTRIMS WARSAW 37-31—NEW HAVEN EMERGE VICTORS OVER ST. HENRY.

Hebron's Cardinals hung up their third straight Boone County Conference basketball victory last Friday when they defeated Florence's Knights by the lopsided score of 59 to 32 in the Hebron "bandbox." It was the sixth win in eight starts for the Cards and marked the sixth loss for the Knights in nine encounters. "Little" McGlasson, with 19, and Toadvine and Elliston with 13 and 12 respectively, lead the point parade for the winners.

In non-conference tilts Burlington's Eagles trimmed Warsaw by a 37-31 count at Burlington, and New Haven handed St. Henry a 28-24 defeat. In the Eagle-Warsaw contest the locals pulled away to an early lead and held a 26-12 advantage at the intermission. The visitors pulled within striking distance late in the game but were unable to overcome the commanding lead. Todtenbier and Miller led the Eagle attack with 13 and 10 points. The local reserves also added another to their win column, New Haven's victory over St. Henry was the Tiger's fifth win against four setbacks.

Games This Week-end

Games this week-end pit Burlington against Florence Friday night at Florence, Lloyd at Hebron, Walton at Sinton Kenton and New Haven at Mason. The Eagle-Knight game will be the feature since Burlington will be gunning for its first conference win and the Knights will be hoping to better their 1-1 conference record.

DR. HAMILTON TO CONDUCT SERVICES

Dr. Sam Hamilton, former pastor of Bellevieh Church of Christ will return to conduct a one-week evangelistic meeting December 21-28.

Dr. Hamilton will deliver an inspiring message each night. The recently organized Youth Chorus will deliver several special numbers and will present a Christmas cantata December 23. The Youth Chorus and the gospel singing will be under the direction of Morton Oliver, music director. The Boone County male chorus, under the direction of Prof. Edwin Walton will sing several special selections Saturday night, December 27th.

Services will begin at 7:30 p. m. A great meeting is anticipated and your presence will make it even greater. Come, sing, and thrill to great preaching.

Willis Jones, who teaches at Transylvania College, Lexington, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Cropper and family.

SAVE BREAD

"Peace on Earth," sang the angels on the birthday of the Christ child. Later, when that child had grown to manhood, He taught His followers to pray, "Give us this day, our daily bread."

Peace and bread, throughout the ages, have been inseparable. When men have bread they are content, and contented men do not start wars.

This holiday season, when much of the world says fervently, "Give us this day, our daily bread," Americans will add, "and let us waste none of it, so we may have bread to share, and sharing bread, help keep peace on earth."

This plea is sent out to each and every one of us. Our Christmas season will still be bountiful even if we share with our hungry neighbors. Let's head this plea, urged Eugenia Donahue, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING DIRECTORS TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Boone County Artificial Breeding Association at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, December 18 at the County Agent's office. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss final plans for the general meeting to be held January 15th. All directors are urged to attend.

FLORENCE M. E. CHURCH WILL PRESENT PAGEANT

The Florence Methodist Church is presenting its Christmas pageant and choral program on Saturday, Dec. 20 at 8:00 p. m. instead of Dec. 21 as was previously announced.

The children's program, however, will be presented on Sunday, December 21 at 10 a. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these programs.

COMMITTEE HEARS SUMMERS MONDAY

DISCUSS PRESENT OUTLOOK OF AGRICULTURAL AND HOME PRODUCTS—SEVERAL POINTS STRESSED.

The Boone County Extension Advisory Committee met in Burlington, Monday, Dec 15th, according to the County Extension offices.

Mr. G. P. Summers, specialist from the college, met with the committee to present the outlook of agricultural and home products. Mr. Harry Young, farm management specialist, discussed farm practices that would best suit the farm in view of the outlook information.

According to Mr. Summers, eggs and poultry product supplies will not increase in 1948, but prices of these products will increase. Dairy products and canned goods supply will decrease and result in higher prices. The supply of vegetables will increase and result in lower prices. The supply and price of frozen foods will remain about the same as in 1947. Grains for feed will be scarce and high.

In view of the dairy products and grain outlook, the committee decided that the following should be stressed in the dairy program: More and better use of pastures, more intelligent grain feeding programs, equip dairy barns with water, and continue communicable disease program.

With the number of sheep declining in the county, it was recommended by the committee that a breeding program be stressed. High prices of grain and lambs prompted the committee to recommend an intensive parasite control program.

According to Mr. Summers, tobacco prices will remain high in 1947 due to the government support. It was recommended by the committee that better production practices, more efficient use of labor and plant bed treatment be stressed in the annual program.

It was recommended by the committee that the following programs be planned cooperatively between the agricultural and homemaker committees: Water supply for the farm and home; sewage disposal; home and farm improvement such as repairing of farm buildings, installation of home heating units and landscaping; home gardens and home poultry programs. These recommendations will be discussed further at the community planning meeting in January.

IDLEWILD MAN KILLED SUNDAY

IN CRASH NEAR UNION—VICTIM THROWN CLEAR OF CAR, ACCORDING TO REPORTS—SKULL FRACTURED.

Harry I. Gullion, 21, Idlewild, was killed instantly Sunday when he was thrown from his automobile to the concrete of U. S. 42 near Union, according to Sherriff R. I. Rouse. Miss Dorothy Setters, 16, of Union R. 1, companion of Gullion suffered minor cuts and bruises in the accident, and was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington for treatment.

Sheriff Rouse reported the accident was of unusual nature. Apparently one wheel of the car had run off the road, and when Gullion cut the wheels back on the highway the vehicle crossed to the other side of the road and up a steep bank. In this maneuver, Gullion was thrown clear of the car and alighted on his head in the highway. He suffered a crushed skull and died at once.

A driver of a Greyhound bus stopped his vehicle, removed the body to the side of the road and lighted flares to show its position. The body was later removed to the Ralph Stith funeral home for preparation.

Gullion was employed as a plater at the Fox Emblem Co., 3400 Beekman St., Cincinnati. He was a veteran of World War II, having served as Corporal in the Air Corps Signal Service in the Pacific Theater. He served in the armed forces from November 1944 to April, 1947.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Gullion, of Idlewild; three brothers, Clarence Shaw Gullion, Elsmere; Emery S. Gullion, Owenton, Ky., and John Gullion, Burlington and four sisters, Mrs. Anita Ryle, Elsmere; Mrs. Helen Maxwell, Warsaw and Miss Hasel and Miss Margie Gullion, both of Idlewild.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. in the Warsaw Methodist Church Tuesday, with burial in the Warsaw Cemetery.

CHRISTMAS PARTY PLANNED

The Junior, Intermediate and Young People's B. T. U. of the Burlington Baptist Church, will have a Christmas party at the church on Monday night, December 22 at 7:30 p. m. Each one is requested to bring a gift not to exceed 25c. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Walton and family left this week to spend the winter with his mother, Mrs. Maude Walton, of Bakersfield, California.

LOCAL WOMEN WIN CONTEST

IN FARM AND HOME IMPROVEMENT—SELECTED ON BASIS OF RECORDS IN HOUSEKEEPING.

Mrs. Earl Morehead and Mrs. Clyde Arnold, Boone County Homemakers, were district winners in the Courier Journal Kentuckiana Farm and Home Improvement contest.

Mrs. Morehead was chosen the district clothing winner. This is the first year that she entered the contest. She will receive $35.00 for the honor.

This isn't the first year that Mrs. Arnold was selected for her outstanding work. Last year, she was the district winner for homemaking and won $50.00. This year, Mrs. Arnold was selected the district winner in Food Conservation and she will receive $35.00.

These women were selected on the basis of their records in Homekeeping, according to Eugenia Donahue, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent. Any farm family in Kentucky and parts of Indiana is eligible to enter this contest which is sponsored by the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times newspapers and WHAS radio station.

CHRISTMAS PARTY PLANNED BY AUXILIARY

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department are reminded of the Christmas party which is to be held Thursday evening, Dec. 18 at 8:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Sarah Roland. Everyone please bring a gift to exchange.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

FLORENCE

The Girl Reserves of the Florence school are rendering a candlelighting service at the Christian Church on Sunday, Dec. 21 at 8:00 p. m. Everyone invited.

The Florence Homemakers will hold their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Reed at 7 Eastern Ave on Dec. 19th. Each guest is requested to bring an inexpensive homemade gift and her favorite recipe.

Dr. L. E. Rouse and wife and Carl Rouse were calling on their brother Frank and wife, of Richwood on Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thompson, who recently moved into their new house on Kentaboo Drive were surprised on Saturday night of last week, when a number of friends and relatives assembled at their home for a housewarming. Refreshments were served and a number of useful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Betty Stephenson was calling on Mrs. Mae Russ, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. James Rogers was painfully bruised on Monday of last week, when she and Mr. Rogers were driving on Burlington Road near Hopeful Lane when the car door opened while rounding a curve and she was thrown to the ground, while endeavoring to close the door. However her injuries are not serious and we hope to see her out soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss are departing by train Monday, Dec 22 for Tucson, Arizona, to spend the Christmas holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Robt. Carpenter and family.

Miss Hope Conner is gradually recovering from her foot injury and her mother Mrs. Roy Conner, who has been ill quite sometime is also improving, we are glad to report.

The Adult class of the Florence Methodist Church served dinner to the Methodist men of the Covington District on Thursday evening, Dec. 11. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum was realized.

Mrs. Hattie Owens, Miss Minnie Baxter and Chas. Beall called to see Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carpenter and family expect to spend the Christmas holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Hyatt Spaulding and Mr. Spaulding of N. Miami, Fla.

Friends of Robt. E. Tanner regret to learn that he was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday. We join in hoping that he will be feeling much better soon.

The monthly meeting of the Adult class of the M. E. Church will be held Dec. 17 with fellowship hour and covered dish dinner at 6:30 and devotional at 7:30 p. m. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Nieberding and Mrs. Della Griffin and daughter Ruth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. E. Tanner, Sunday.

We extend hearty Christmas greetings to The Recorder staff, its many readers and our boys in service wherever they may be, and may the joy and blessings of the season abide with you throughout the New Year.

Denny Meyer the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Meyer was drowned when he accidentally fell into a cistern Sunday afternoon.

FLORENCE SPECIAL!

FOR SALE—A BEAUTIFUL HOME, FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED.

Reason for selling: Going back to California for health. This beautiful home sits back among large shade trees; has 2¼ acres of ground; barn and two-car garage. Coolest place in Kentucky in summer, and oil-fired hot-water heat keeps it comfortable in winter! Nice, deep windows for flowers with Venetian blinds at all windows. Living room and dining room have new carpet from wall to wall, as well as the stairway going up from the living room. The living room has large fireplace and book shelves from floor to ceiling. One large couch and love seat, solid mahogany table desk, mahogany occasional table and chairs. Dining room has beautiful new nine-piece Sheraton walnut dining room suite. A bright kitchen with cabinet sink, cabinets, a new "Coldwall" Frigidaire, a new electric range, walnut table and chairs. Downstairs bath has stall shower, lavatory, commode and linen closet. Utility room has stationary laundry tubs, built-in cabinets. There are four large bedrooms on second floor and full-sized bath. Front bedroom has lovely blond oak bedroom suite. There is a fireplace in three bedrooms. Master bedroom is furnished in solid mahogany. Both front bedrooms open on the upper front veranda. Third bedroom has twin beds, solid mahogany chest of drawers, antique marble top chest and antique cherry table. There is an antique, hand carved cherry bed, marble-top walnut chest of drawers with mirror, a lovely marble-top walnut dresser and a rosewood slipper chair in the fourth bedroom. All rooms are beautifully papered and painted; all hardwood floors and furniture in keeping with the house.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank each and every one for all of the kindness that has been shown me during my illness. The blood donors; those who have remembered me with cards, letters and flowers; the ones who helped me before I went to the hospital; Mrs. Stella Rouse for taking me into her home and caring for me after returning from the hospital; those who have given Mr. Cason his meals or for any other kindness that has been shown.

Thanks, your deeds were appreciated, and will not be forgotten. My very best wishes to you for Christmas and throughout the coming year. 1t-pd

SMOKED HAMS

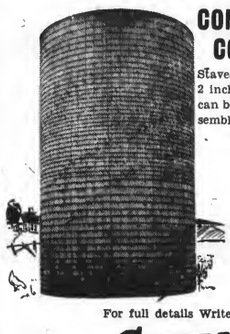
At current prices, loss of even one ham is a serious matter. Why risk bone-rot and spoilage from changeable weather? In our refrigerated rooms, we make our own "weather." Controlled temperatures and modern, sanitary equipment protect your meat during the entire curing and ripening process.



If you have none ready for cure, let us buy hams and bacon for you at wholesale prices, cure them, and put them in your locker—whole or sliced, as you prefer.

LAND BANK LOANS ARE GEARED TO THE CAPACITY OF THE FARM TO PAY

- The dollars that will pay your loan come out of the soil of your farm as so many bushels of corn, so many pounds of tobacco.
- Even when crop yields are the same, dollar production per acre may be high one year, low the next.
- That's why Land Bank loan values are based on the NORMAL earning power of the land—average yields and normal prices—not too high, not too low.
- That's why the land banks were able to meet the needs of hundreds of thousands of farmers in the depression.
- That's why we can say

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance putting steel support under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains resulting from feet in numerous cases because they never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

Twenty-four 4-H clubs in McCreary county have a membership of 914 boys and girls.

Six farmers in Greenup county produced more than 100 bushels of corn to the acre.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY LOUIE D. NEWTON, D. D.

SCRIPTURE: Revelation 8-15; Isaiah 9:2-7; Luke 2:1-20.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Luke 2:8-20.

The Prince of Peace

Lesson for December 21, 1947

IT IS Christmas now that we are all thinking about, and our lesson for Sunday helps us to rightly approach this blessed season of joy and thanksgiving. It is suggested that we read Revelation 8-15, Isaiah 9:2-7, and Luke 2:1-20.

Dr. Newton

"For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace," Isaiah 9:6.

Thus Isaiah sings of the coming Saviour, and in countless hearts this glad refrain will sound and resound as we come on in these waiting hours for Christmas Eve. It is the season of giving, because God made the Best Gift.

• • •

The Christmas Story

WE NEVER truly observe Christmas until we live again in the message of John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

The Christmas story is the story of God's love. There is not enough goodness in man to produce the Christmas spirit — the true Christmas spirit. Only God could so love, and only God can create within our hearts the proper attitudes to worthily celebrate the birth of the Saviour.

Wisdom is fled from us if we drop down into the lowlands of commercializing the Christmas season by seeking gain for ourselves.

• • •

The Greatest Gift

THE gift of Jesus is the greatest gift for the reason that it represents divine giving. Jesus was not forced to give himself. "God commendeth his love towards us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." The gift was but an expression of the love that lay behind the gift.

If God so loved and gave, let us, by his indwelling Spirit, seek so to love and give. Boys and girls will thus find the answer to their desire to make suitable gifts to parents, and parents to children. Friends will thus find the answer to the often perplexing problem of what to buy for exchange with someone whom you suspect will buy something for you.

Perhaps it would be a wholesome thing if we could be delivered from the tyranny of "exchanging things" at Christmas, and be free to give as our hearts prompt us.

• • •

The Prince of Peace

THE bold prophecy in Revelation 11:15, which reads: "The kingdom of the world is become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever," is the lifting thought of this lesson. That is Christmas fulfilled!

How this prophecy challenges our present world of fear and suspicion! Instead of the hysteria which has characterized our nation for months, we should have been strong in the gentleness of God — strong enough to dismiss the thought of pillage by another —gentle enough to drive Communism from the earth.

For let us well remember that the program of the Prince of Peace is not one day out of the year. It is an enduring program of progress among all men of goodwill.

• • •

The Song of Triumph

IN VAIN shall we observe another Christmas season if we allow it to come and go without joining in the song of triumph which the angels would ever teach us. There is hope for this bedarkened world. There is a song for every heart. There is a light for every home. There is a gift for every life.

"Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace."

It is, then, the high and holy task of every Sunday school teacher, every parent, every Christian, to sing this song of triumph. Only through personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ can burdened, frightened souls catch the cadence of the choiring angels. But we have the promise of God that every seeking soul may have this peace, this poise, this victory.

Permit me, please, to wish for you, and each of you, the blessed experience of the inward happiness of Christmas with Christ.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Friends of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Dunaway of Owenton, formerly of Petersburg, will be interested to learn that they announce the engagement of their daughter Dorothy to Mr. Roddy E. Robbins, son of Rev. W. T. Robbins, of Pineville, Ky.

Miss Dunaway is a graduate of Hebron High School and taught in the Hebron school 1940-41. She received her B. S. degree from Eastern State Teachers College at Richmond in 1940 and taught 3 years in Kentucky and Ohio. She, then spent 30 months as a WAVE being stationed in Washington, D. C. and Pearl Harbor. In August of 1947 she received her M. A. degree at Eastern. This year, she is a graduate fellow at Mills College in Oakland, Calif., and acts as assistant head resident in one of the dormitories.

Mr. Robbins received his B. S. degree from Union College at Barbourville, Ky., and has taught school for 3½ years in Kentucky. He spent 43 months in the Army, stationed in the islands of the Pacific theater. He will receive his M. A. degree from Eastern in December and will begin work toward a Ph. D. degree at the University of Colorado at Boulder, in January.

The couple plan to be married in June.

CONSTANCE

Miss Emogene Austin, of Eastern Kentucky State Teachers' College, Richmond, Ky., arrived home to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Austin and family.

LOOKING AHEAD

By GEORGE S. BENSON

President—Harding College Searcy, Arkansas

Need for Unity

The United Nations is a young organization. It was formed about two years ago and now comprises 55 nations. During the past year, it is said, the different divisions have held a total of 1,911 meetings. The chief avowed purposes are to bring peace to the world and to prevent starvation as an aftermath of the war. Great sums of money have been used to provide food for peoples that are considered destitute.

At first it was thought that 1946 would be the critical year. Now, we are approaching the winter of 1947. Some reports say there will be more hunger this winter than last. From various countries in Europe the reports show no improvement.

Certain Objectives

It would seem there is enough power and strength in 55 nations to help this muddled world get somewhere. And surely enough money has been spent to help those hungry nations to begin feeding themselves. The answer is not hard to find. The United Nations has not demonstrated real unity of purpose. Even the leaders among the 55 nations have worked at cross purposes. Each nation has been intent upon achieving certain objectives of its own. This is as true of the "Big Four" as it is of the smaller nations.

It is my hope that in some way the United Nations may find unity of purpose and intention. The most I can get out of this present situation, however, is an important lesson for our own country.

No Cross Purposes

In America we have found a good measure of unity, historically speaking. Though we are made up of states and other kinds of groups, we have shown appreciation for the same fundamentals of democratic living.

What is true of the United Nations as a whole is true of nations individually. If we are going to continue to be a prosperous and healthy republic, we too must have unity of purpose. Workers, managers, industrialists, farmers, educators — we must all keep our purposes controlled in the direction of full unity.

If one group wants to destroy the capitalist, and another wants to destroy labor unions, these are at cross purposes. If one group wants to eliminate private ownership of property, and another group wants to preserve Constitutional government, these also are working at cross purposes. If we have everybody working at cross purposes, then conditions in our country will grow worse rather than better.

Three Goals

It is imperative that the entire nation be united on fundamentals. It is necessary that all groups work for certain goals. Right now, I would like to suggest three goals we can all achieve together. First, economy in government spending so rigid the public can see that money is being saved. Second, a program of maximum productivity that can attract the enthusiasm of capital, management, labor, and agriculture. Third, a rededication of all our groups to preserve individual freedom for the entire nation.

With this kind of unity right now, in 1947, no one need fear for the future prosperity and well-being of our nation.

Twelve farmers of Henry county who entered the corn derby averaged 93.8 bushels per acre.

OBITUARY

Elmo Moreland, beloved son of Nina Moreland and Willie Moreland, died at his home 1606 Greenup St., Covington, Ky., Nov. 26, 1947 at the age of thirty-nine years.

At dusk Thanksgiving Eve, Elmo passed away after an illness of five years. He was born at Petersburg, Ky., May 24, 1907 and spent most of his boyhood and early manhood in Petersburg, graduating from Petersburg High School.

Early in life he became interested in sports, particularly excelling in baseball. He was very active in this sport until illness compelled him to give it up. His genial personality, his kindness to his parents and all he came in contact with made him many friends. His ability to make friends through his consideration fairness to all will always be remembered.

During his illness he was always cheerful and uncomplaining, more thoughtful of others than of self.

Elmo leaves to mourn his passing his mother and father, and a host of other relatives and friends

DIXIE HIGHWAY SPECIAL

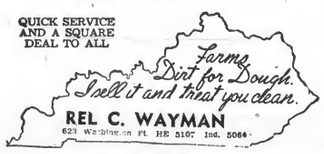
MAYO'S FARM

I am offering for sale a 41-acre dairy farm. One of the prettiest spots on the Dixie Highway, between Covington and Lexington, Ky.

A six-room modern home, two stairways in home, large solarium. Inlaid linoleum throughout house, including stairways. Two baths, one on first and one on second floor. Oil-fired furnace, large fruit bin. New electric water heater, 50 gallons. Outside and inside entrance to basement. Storm windows and screens for entire house, including doors. Large reception hall, large front porch. New roof on house and all outbuildings. Modern cement block milk house, 2-car garage, with living quarters over. New aluminum overhead doors.

Modern dairy barn for 14 cows, including drinking fountains and barn sewered. Feed room 20 ft. x 20 ft. adjoining barn. New cement block outside toilet. One calving barn with four box stalls. Two well-fenced garden spots. New fence on entire farm, with fenced lane from front to back of place. Large lake, ever-running spring.

Two creeks on farm (and spring), plenty of water. Two large cisterns on farm. Two acres of woods. This farm averages $5000 per year income but could be increased. This farm has electric in all buildings with separate fuse boxes.



Bus passes the door every hour. This farm is located on Route No. 25, just four miles from Walton, four miles from Florence, just 15 miles from Cincinnati. School bus, bakery truck, newspaper, mailman—all at your door.

If you are looking for a real modern farm with very nice income—priced at just $38,000.

P. S. This farm has good rich soil—everything that was taken off was put back on. Has pastured 25 head of cattle for the past five years.

BURLINGTON ROAD HOMEMAKERS MEET

The November meeting of the Burlington Road Homemakers was held November 13th at the home of Mrs. Leonard Meece. Twelve members answered roll call and Mrs. Mary Ellen Courtney joined the club, making a total of 14 members.

It was voted to make the play "In Judge Martha Gab's Court" a part of the Variety Show which is being given in every community to raise funds for a recreation hall to be built at the 4-H fair grounds.

The bake sale which was scheduled for Coppins was cancelled and will be held at a later date in Florence. The exact date has not been set but it will be after the first of the year. The public will be posted as to time and place as soon as such plans are made.

After dinner, Mrs. Joe Dringenburg gave the lesson on "Short Cuts and Time Savers in Home Sewing." Mrs. John Kyle and Mrs. Val B. Dolwick, as recreation leaders, were reminded of the recreation training class to be held November 20th.

Plans were made and committees appointed for the Christmas party to be held December 18th at the home of Mrs. Paul Ammon.

80-YEAR-OLD LADY'S RHEUMATIC PAINS GO! SHE PRAISES TRU-AID

Recently an 80-year-old lady living near here stated that she almost suffered death with rheumatic pains in her whole right side. When she tried to walk she would simply flinch with agony and says she had become just a "bundle of nerves" due to her long period of suffering. She bought all kinds of medicines, but nothing seemed to work on her until she got TRU-AID. She states she was amazed at results when she got this medicine. Now the rheumatic pains have gone from her entire right side. She can walk without suffering for the first time in years and says her nerves are "strong as steel." She feels like a new woman.

TRU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Elsmere Pharmacy of Elsmere and Dahlenburgs Drug Store, of Erlanger; also Westerman Drug Store, of Erlanger.

A Time For Reasoning

There has been an ominous increase in the fear of Russia on the part of the American people during the past few months. This is not said out of a desire to minimize the seriousness of the international situation. However, it must be remembered that it is possible to fan the flames of fear and suspicion until a nation comes to believe that war is inevitable. And once that stage is reached, war always comes sooner or later.

David Lawrence put this well when he said, "The danger in a battle of words is that it can conceivably develop into a battle of arms." It is unfortunate that American statesmen have been goaded into using language that is not often employed between countries not at war. The Russians, of course, provoked them into it. Even so, difficult as it may be to keep our tempers, we cannot gain anything by war-like talk simply because Russia employs war-like talk. To quote Mr. Lawrence again, "It is a time for restrained phrases and for persuasive argument. It is a time not for feeling but for reasoning."

We can best serve the cause of freedom abroad, in our relations with the Russians and all others, by backing up our material aid with a demonstration of the fact that democracy, as we know it, is superior to any form of superstate. We can, in other words, help combat the spread of communism by example. We must keep our people and our industries free of the governmental controls which plague Europe. And, at the same time, we must continue to work to the limit of our abilities with all nations, regardless of ideology, to maintain the peace of the world. "Fear hysteria" will never achieve that vital end.

What's Right With The United States!

Millions of Americans seem to be apathetic toward charges that there is something basically wrong with our governmental and economic systems, and that socialism, communism and the rest of the assorted isms have more to offer.

Edward C. Sammons, president of the United States National Bank of Portland, Oregon, touched on that vividly when he said:

"Our country is the only nation in the history of the world that has continued with its intrinsic, basic type of government since its beginning 170 years ago . . . In those 170 years our 6 per cent of the world's population produced 25 per cent of the world's good and possesses 50 per cent of the world's wealth. In no other country is there such opportunity as here.

"Too many people are saying what is wrong with America. Instead, we should be saying what is right with the United States. Why should capital be on trial here? Why should not socialism or communism instead be on trial, when our people are asked to provide the money and the food and tools for other nations to carry on?

"In my time we have defended our country three times from outside invaders, but we are not defending it sufficiently from within. The working man here is able to live almost as well as a king compared with those in other countries. Other systems promise. Our people have!"

That is a fundamental truth. The American people should shout from the housetops their faith in a system that has given them unprecedented tangible benefits—and infinitely more important, in intangibles that make for a life of freedom.

World Must Have Oil

World demand for oil and oil porducts is now at an all-time peak. And, if a study prepared by economists of one of our leading oil companies proves correct, demand will continue to increase at a rapid rate.

In 1938, world oil consumption, excluding the Soviet Union and the United States, was 1,900,000 barrels a day. This year it is 2,-700,000. By 1950, the study forecasts, it will reach 3,200,000 barrels daily, and by 1960 it will touch 4,-500,000—an increase of 67 per cent over the present.

The United States alone—figures are not available on the Soviet Union—is now consuming about 5,400,000 barrels each day. By 1960 it is expected that demand will rise to 6,800,000—an increase of 28 percent.

It is manifestly impossible to supply world demand from oil resources within this country. The major part of the European demand must be supplied from other regions. That is why American capital and American know-how are now developing foreign sources of oil as rapidly as conditions permit. The great development in Saudi-Arabia, which is being undertaken by a group of American companies, is the best known example. The cost will be enormous. Problem after problem of weather, terrain, supplies, etc., must be met and solved. But the world must have oil.

THE BOONE COUNTY RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 72 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1947 — NUMBER 26

CARDINALS UPSET BELLEVUE FIVE

BURLINGTON, NEW HAVEN AND WALTON CHALK UP VICTORIES DURING PAST WEEK—FLORENCE DROPS THREE.

Highlights of Boone County basketball last week were Hebron's 54-52 upset victory over the Bellevue Tigers, leaders of the Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference at the Bellevue court, and the Burlington Eagles' first Boone County conference victory in two years—a 48-35 win over Florence at Florence.

The Cardinal-Tiger scrap was an overtime affair with McGlasson, Hebron ace, as the star. His fielder in the final seconds of the contest gave the nod to the Boone Countians and ran his total for the night to 21 points. It was Bellevue's first defeat of the season.

Burlington had little difficulty with Florence as Jim Ryle with 20 points and Todtenbier with 16 lead the Eagles to their first conference victory over a usually high-scoring Knight five. The Eagles held a six point advantage at the intermission and 12 points at the end of three quarters.

The Eagles added another victory to their string last week as they defeated Gallatin County High 37 to 31 after holding a 26-12 margin at the half.

Florence fell before two other foes during the week as they lost a thriller to Ludlow 60-59 at Ludlow last Tuesday and to Highlands by a 66-40 count Saturday night. Rouse and Baker were the offensive guns for Florence in these games.

New Haven's on-again-off-again Tigers hit high gear again this week as they trounced Mason of the Penogram Conference by a 67-24 score at the New Haven gym. Weaver and Clements teamed up to score almost half of the winner's points.

Walton added two more games to their win column last week when they trimmed Butler's Bobcats and Holy Cross. Both games were at the loser's gym. Vest, Simpson and Maddox again showed the one, two and three punch that has given the Bearcats a consistent winner this season.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rogers was celebrated Monday evening, December 22 with a turkey dinner by their children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Rogers. The other children participating in this happy occasion were Atty. and Mrs. George W. Rogers of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rogers and the two granddaughters, Evelyn Anne and Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers received several nice gifts, along with wishes for many more happy wedding anniversaries.

LEATHER TOOLING IS MAJOR PROJECT

OF BOONE COUNTY HOMEMAKERS DURING MONTH OF JANUARY AND FEBRUARY—VARIETY OF ITEMS TO BE MADE.

Leather tooling will be the major project for January and February in the Boone County Homemakers Clubs. In the past, many have requested lessons in this work.

Some of the articles that the women will work are coin purses, billfolds, book ends, belts and cosmetic bags.

The first training class for the leaders will be on Monday, January 5th at the courthouse in Burlington.

The leaders for this project include: Mrs. Huey Aylor, Mrs. Burnham Roberts, Mrs. Robert Maurer, Mrs. Frances Eddins, Mrs. Olive Clore, Mrs. John Kyle, Mrs. Roberta King, Mrs. Henry Kottmyer, Mrs. Thomas Kenyon, Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Nellie Jones Benham, Mrs. Grace Robinson, Mrs. Martha Richards, Mrs. Sterling Dickey, Mrs. Myrtle Crutcher, Mrs. H. A. Mulroney, Jr., Mrs. Arthur M. Coates, Mrs. Stanley Ransom, Mrs. George Horton, Miss Johnnie Mae Terrill, Mrs. Raymond Witham, Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mrs. Ethel Wilson, Mrs. Oscar Fugate, Mrs. Pauline Parker, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Wendell Rouse, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, Mrs. Earl Morehead.

RECORDER OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED NEXT WEEK

The Recorder office will be closed from Saturday, December 27 to Monday, January 5th. This custom has been followed since the paper was founded in 1875.

The entire staff appreciates this week's vacation, which relieves the strain of the pre-holiday season rush.

Persons having items during the week we are closed are asked to hold them until the week of January 5th, when regular operations will be resumed.

As we close our doors for the holidays we wish to extend to each and everyone of our readers, advertisers, and correspondents best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

RAY ERNST NAMED TO HIGH OFFICE

WILL SERVE AS PRESIDENT OF THE STATE OF OHIO BASKETBALL OFFICIALS' ASSOCIATION.

Ray C. Ernst was recently elected the first president of the State of Ohio Basketball Officials' Association, which was formed this season (1947-48) largely through his efforts. This meeting was held at Columbus, Ohio.

The same week-end at Columbus, Ohio he was elected president of the Baseball Umpires of Ohio for the second consecutive year. As president in 1947 Ray conducted the first Statewide Baseball Umpire's School at Xavier University, where about 125 umpires were in attendance. He will also be in charge of the statewide school this season to be held in Cleveland.

He is the only official that has been president of each of the three local officiating groups, namely: The Queen City Association of Baseball Umpires; The Ohio Valley Football Officials' Association; The Ohio Valley Basketball Officials' Association.

At the present time he is Executive Secretary of the Baseball Umpires and has held this position for ten years.

He is a recognized authority on the written rules and as such is called upon frequently to settle disputes and protests that arise in and around Cincinnati.

He is recognized also as a hard worker in the promotion of baseball and other activities for the younger boys, and has found time to manage the Oola Khan Post 372, American Legion Junior Baseball team the past several seasons.

He coached three different girl basketball teams to the Ohio State championship in consecutive years. Gruen watch in 1944, Radels in 1945 and the Pepsi-Cola team in 1946. All three of these girls' teams made a good showing in the National tournaments at St. Joseph, Mo.

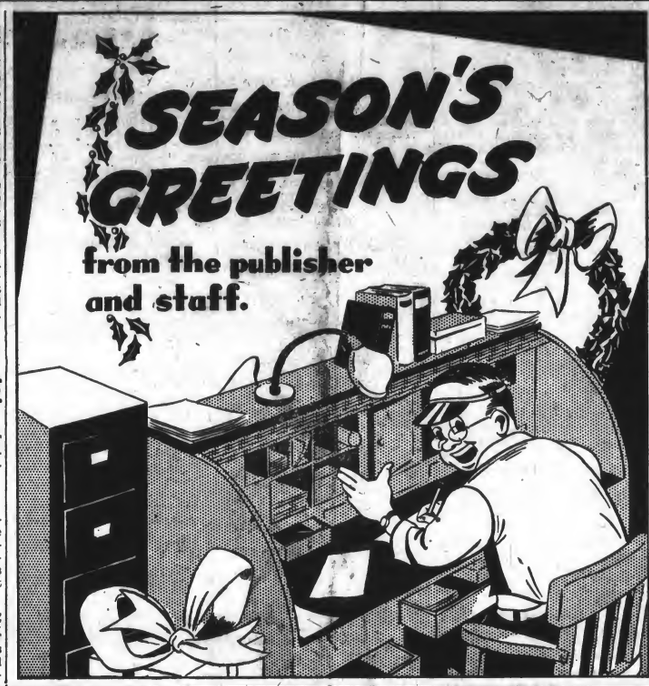
Bill Carpenter of Cincinnati, has named Ray to conduct the baseball umpires' school for Cincinnati in the future. Mr. Carpenter is over all professional umpires and originated all the baseball umpires schools in Cincinnati 33 years ago. He himself personally took great pride in conducting this school until last season.

Ray is a former Boone County boy, having formerly resided at Hebron and graduated from the Burlington School in the class of 1921. His mother, Mrs. Bessie Ernst still resides in Hebron.

FIREMEN WILL MEET MONDAY, DEC. 29TH

The Burlington Volunteer Fire Department will hold its regular monthly meeting, Monday, Dec. 29th at the firehouse, 7:30 p. m., it was announced this week. All firemen are urged to attend this meeting.

PASTOR VISITS



There will be no Bible School or worship services at the Big Bone Baptist Church Sunday, December 28. The pastor will be visiting his former church First Baptist Church at Booneville, Ky.

WALTON MAN MISSING

Northern Kentucky police departments were notified to be on the lookout for Cecil W. Osborn, 27 of Walton, Ky., who has been missing from his home since early Friday.

Osborn, a painter left his home in a 1936 automobile, his wife reported. He is the father of two small children.

Osborn is a veteran of three years' service in the Navy.

EDWIN WALTON IS NAMED PRESIDENT

OF BOONE COUNTY FISH AND GAME PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION—PLANS EXTENSIVE CONSERVATION PROGRAM.

Edwin Walton, principal of the Burlington High School was selected as president of the Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association at a meeting of the club held Thursday night, December 18. J. D. Jarrell, an employee of the Consolidated Telephone Co., of Boone County was elected vice president and Alvin Clore, an employee of the Allis-Chalmers Co., was named secretary.

Mr. Walton in accepting the office of president stated that he would outline plans in the near future for an extensive conservation program in this county.

The new president has been active in the organization of two Junior Conservation Clubs in Boone County during the past year, and has directed the Rifle Club of the organization. He recently organized a rifle club which is a member of the National Rifle Association.

He has been an active member of the local conservation club for many years, and will make an excellent leader in conservation work.

Mr. Walton asked the support of all sportsmen throughout the county as well as farmers and landowners during the year 1948. With this cooperation, he feels that the county can be materially benefited through the County and State conservation program.

Both the vice president and secretary are conservation-minded young men, and will no doubt fill their positions in a most efficient manner.

UTOPIA CLUB MEETS

On Thursday night of last week the Utopia Club had its regular meeting and Christmas party.

A very good financial report was given on the receipts from the Variety Show.

Delegates were appointed to attend a statewide conference at Lexington on January 27. They are Sam Blackburn and Jack D. Turner.

Charles Winston's name was added to the roll and it is hoped more new names will be added in the near future.

After the business session, the evening was enjoyed by music and games in keeping with the season.

Then there was the bow-legged floor walker, who said, "Walk this way, please."

MRS. MARY WILLIAMSON

Mrs. Mary Mae Williamson, 77, died early Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Beulah Philson, McVille.

Mrs. Williamson was a member of the Belleview Christian Church and the Order of Eastern Star, Burlington Four Star Chapter, No. 387.

Besides her daughter she is survived by six other daughters, Mrs. Robert Ryle, Grant; Mrs. Zayda Hightower, Bellevue; Miss Mary B. Williamson, Marietta, O.; Mrs. Fleta Gorge, Cleves, O.; and Mrs. Thelma Hooper, Sayler Park, O.; a sister, Mrs. Carrie Staley, Dayton; two sons, Samuel J. FOR PURPOSE OF ASSISTING FARMERS IN PREPARING JANUARY 15TH DECLARATION OR FINAL RETURNS.

Collector of Internal Revenue, S. R. Glenn, announces that a deputy from his office will visit Walton, January 2, Burlington, January 9 and 12, 1948 for the purpose of assisting farmers in preparing their January 15th declaration or final income tax returns, also taxpayers who would be required to file amended declaration returns or would be privileged to file final returns by January 15th.

The service is absolutely free. Collector Glenn urges the taxpayers of this county to see the deputy and let him help them with their income tax problems.

SIDNEY GAINES ANSWERS CALL

WAS FORMER CIRCUIT JUDGE SERVICES HELD SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21 AT WALTON FUNERAL HOME.

A. Sidney Gaines 85, passed away at his home in Walton, Thursday, December 18, after an extended illness.

Mr. Gaines was well known throughout the Fifth District, having served as Circuit Judge for several years, and was an active attorney in this section until failing health prevented his practice.

He was a lifelong resident of Boone County, a member of Burlington Lodge No. 264 F. & A. M. for the past thirty years, and was active in County and State affairs.

He is survived by one son Cecil L. Gaines and two granddaughters Mrs. Albert Kirkpatrick, of Burlington and Mrs. H. H. Roberts, of Walton.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, December 21 from the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton, with Rev. R. F. Demoisey officiating. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery, Burlington.

BURLEY HAS BEST WEEK IN HISTORY

Figures released by the State Department of Agriculture showed that Kentucky had one of its best burley tobacco weeks in history with the average per 100 pounds reaching $50.49 for 24 markets reporting. A total of 61,847,878 pounds sold for $31,228,998.95.

The department reported the season average at $49.99, with 199,509,781 pounds having been sold for a total of $99,736,291.75.

Sales ended Friday and will be resumed January 5th after the Christmas holidays.

The department reported that the general quality of the crop sold this season has shown a great improvement over that sold last season. The offerings are lighter bodied and more suited for cigaret manufacture.

FARM PURCHASED

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Webster, of Walton, Ky., purchased the farm of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kemper, of Big Bone. The farm consists of 261 acres, nice 5-room house and outbuilding and a new barn.

The sale was conducted through Rel C. Wayman and Lute Bradford last week.

CONGLETON - MAXWELL

Miss Gladys Jean Congleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Congleton and James Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maxwell were united in marriage at the home of Rev. R. A. Johnson in Covington, Saturday, December 20, 6 p. m.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert White.

The bride attended Burlington school, and the groom is an employee of the County Road Department.

The young couple plan to make their home in the Eddins apartments in Burlington. We join with their many friends in wishing them much happiness together.

TWO SENTENCED IN CIRCUIT COURT

SENTENCES PROBATED UNTIL APRIL BY JUDGE YAGER—SESSION ADJOURNED FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19.

Two men drew sentences in the state reformatory during the December term of Boone Circuit Court. They were Howard McKenney sentenced to two years on a theft charge and Milton Ridner, 1 year on a theft charge. Both sentences were probated until the April term of court by Judge Ward Yager.

Civil cases heard during the December session were Stanley estate vs. Marino Bros. Trucking Co., of Richmond, Ky., and Lute Bradford vs. Joel Gray. The Stanley estate was awarded $5,000 damages and Lute Bradford was awarded $300.00.

Court adjourned Friday, December 19th after being in session since Monday, December 8th.

HUNTERS DRAW FINES IN JUDGE CROPPER'S COURT

Theo. J. Shad and Ray Bollinger, both of Bellevue, Ky., Campbell County were fined $27.50 each in Judge Cropper's Court Sunday, on charges of hunting with an unplugged gun. Conservation officers Johnson and Hunt were the arresting officers.

Hunters are warned to plug all guns to hold not more than three shells. This law has been in effect for several years, and closely checked by conservation officers.

FEDERAL LAND BANK DECLARES DIVIDEND

The Federal Land Bank of Louisville has declared a dividend of $412,582.50 announces M. S. Kennedy, Jr., president.

It will be paid to the bank's stockholders—the 118 national farm loan associations in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee on December 22. This brings to almost $5,000,000 the amount of dividends paid by the bank since it was chartered in 1917.

The dividend just declared, explained Kennedy, is for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1948. It is paid early in the fiscal year in order to give the national farm loan associations an opportunity to declare dividends so they can distribute dividend checks to their 28,000 members at annual meetings held between January 15 and April 15.

The amount of the Land Bank's dividend that each association can pass on to its farmer members will depend upon the association's financial condition and the progress it is making on its reserve program.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engle of Bullittsville announce the engagement of their only daughter, Belva Ann to Orbin Shackelford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hargis Shackelford of London, Ky.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Browder have recently arrived from Daytona Beach, Fla., to make their home at the farm, formerly owned by The Gilbert Carpenters.

CANTATA

The choir of the Tanner Methodist Church, Dayton, Ky., will appear in a sacred concert on Dec. 28 at 3:00 p. m. at the Hughes Chapel Methodist Church. The choir of eighteen voices, will be under the direction of Earl G. Dulaney, with Freda Dulaney at the piano.

There will be no admission, only a free will offering. The public is invited.

BLIND TOURNEY IS SCHEDULED

JANUARY 2 AND 3, SPONSORED BY BOONE COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS—FOUR SCHOOLS WILL PARTICIPATE.

A preview to the 1947-48 district basketball tournament will be held at the Burlington high school gym Friday and Saturday nights, January 2 and 3, when the Boone County School News, county school newspaper, sponsors the first annual Boone County High School "blind" basketball tournament. Teams participating will be Hebron, New Haven, Burlington and Florence, according to Mr. H. N. Ockerman, county school superintendent, who has been named tourney manager.

Drawing for the tourney will be held in the gymnasium Friday night at 7 o'clock with the first game getting underway at 7:45 p. m. All four teams will play Friday night with the winners and losers playing each other Saturday night for the championship and runner-up awards.

Ray Ernst, former Boone Countian, and L. J. Witscher, of Cincinnati will be referees and other officials will be selected from representative schools by the referees prior to each game.

The sponsoring organization of this tourney will give each fan in attendance Saturday night a ballot whereby an all-tourney team may be selected.

Admission prices for each session will be 35 and 50 cents, according to Mr. Ockerman and all funds will be for the benefit of the School News.

Complete season records for the participating fives are as follows: Hebron (7-3); New Haven (5-4); Burlington (6-5) and Florence (3-8). Probable starting lineups will be Hebron, Carver and Elliston forwards, Toadvine center, McGlasson and Mulligan, guards; New Haven, Lowe and Flynn at forwards Simpson center, and Clements and Weaver, guards; Burlington, Todtenbier and Cavé, forwards, Miller center, and Ryle and Cropper guards; Florence, Quinn and Baker, forwards, Lipscomb, center, and Rouse and Woods guards.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM HELD WEDNESDAY

The Big Bone Baptist Church gave a Christmas program Wednesday evening in the church auditorium, lasting approximately two hours. Three big plays, special music and Saint Nick himself appeared during the evening.

The church will hold a New Year's Eve party beginning at 9:30, it was announced. The public is cordially invited.

LAND BANK LOANS ARE GEARED TO THE CAPACITY OF THE FARM TO PAY

- The dollars that will pay your loan come out of the soil of your farm as so many bushels of corn, so many pounds of tobacco.
- Even when crop yields are the same, dollar production per acre may be high one year, low the next.
- That's why Land Bank loan values are based on the NORMAL earning power of the land—average yields and normal prices—not too high, not too low.
- That's why the land banks were able to meet the needs of hundreds of thousands of farmers in the depression.
- That's why we can say

Notes and Comments

From the Editor's Desk

More Highways Needed

There are more than 3 million miles of rural roads in the United States. There are close to 6 million miles of streets in the nation that are under State and local control. When we realize that more than 31 million automobiles are registered one cannot help wondering how they all get by on the highways. But they do. Nevertheless, the greatest congestion is in the large and medium sized cities. Road-building must go on. During this century Federal aid has been given to States with rather satisfactory results.

There is a lot of objection to gasoline taxation at the pumps and the petroleum industry and some of the highway associations are fighting a continuance of that method of sales taxation, especially for rural and local highways.

The congestion of traffic is terrific in large and small cities. But most everybody who wants an automobile seems to find some way to purchase one. Within the past few years the accidents arising from motor traffic has been beyond all reason.

The answer is that the whole highway system must be revised in order to meet the situation in all districts, rural, suburban, and in large cities. About the only efforts in that direction are found in activities of the automobile industry. They are moving heaven and earth to furnish more safety devices and controls, including lights, brakes, and all-important features of cars.

Farm Income

There is a lot of talk about the farmers. In this talk there are stories of their prosperity and of their difficulties.

The United States Department of Agriculture officially reports that at the end of this November the farmers will have received about $27.4 billion dollars from this year's marketings, which amounts to 24 per cent above the first eleven months of last year.

Government payments are less than half this year as compared with 1946. The purchases, mostly by the Government, for livestock and grains are up about 27 percent above last year.

RECORDER 1 YEAR $1.50

It would be difficult, indeed, to forget our friends, particularly at Christmas. We want you to know how close we feel to all of you, and how sincerely we wish for each of you the choicest blessings of Yuletide.

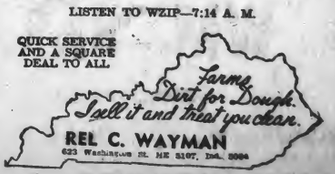
MAYO'S FARM

I am offering for sale a 41-acre dairy farm. One of the prettiest spots on the Dixie Highway, between Covington and Lexington, Ky.

A six-room modern home, two stairways in home, large solarium. Inlaid linoleum throughout house, including stairways. Two baths, one on first and one on second floor. Oil-fired furnace, large fruit bin. New electric water heater, 50 gallons. Outside and inside entrance to basement. Storm windows and screens for entire house, including doors. Large reception hall, large front porch. New roof on house and all outbuildings. Modern cement block milk house, 2-car garage, with living quarters over. New aluminum overhead doors.

Modern dairy barn for 14 cows, including drinking fountains and barn sewered. Feed room 20 ft. x 20 ft. adjoining barn. New cement block outside toilet. One calving barn with four box stalls. Two well-fenced garden spots. New fence on entire farm, with fenced lane from front to back of place. Large lake, ever-running spring.

Two creeks on farm (and spring), plenty of water. Two large cisterns on farm. Two acres of woods. This farm averages $5000 per year income but could be increased. This farm has electric in all buildings with separate fuse boxes.



Bus passes the door every hour. This farm is located on Route No. 25, just four miles from Walton, four miles from Florence, just 15 miles from Cincinnati. School bus, bakery truck, newspaper, mailman—all at your door.

If you are looking for a real modern farm with very nice income—priced at just $38,000.

P. S. This farm has good rich soil—everything that was taken off was put back on. Has pastured 25 head of cattle for the past five years.

Among those attending the Christmas pageant at the Methodist Church on Saturday evening, coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baltzer, of Southgate, Col. and Mrs. John Baltzer of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dehlinger, of Covington, Miss Emma J. Morgan and Mr. Hal Lancaster, of Corinth, Ky. Other visitors were present whose names we were not able to recure.

Services for Mrs. Lizzie Dickerson of near Union were held at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home Friday at 2 p. m., with Rev. Roy Johnson officiating. The community extends sympathy to her husband, sister and other relatives. Interment was in Hopeful Cemetery.

Dr. O. W. Robinson was called to Williamstown to officiate at funeral services of the late Dr. Albert D. Webb, oldest physician of Grant county. Dr. Webb was the son of the late John H. Webb, pioneer settler and banker of Grant County.

Friends of Jack Renaker regret that it was necessary for him to go to St. Elizabeth hospital for treatment. The community wishes him good luck and an early convalescence.

Mrs. Sarah Roland entertained with a pre-holiday party Thursday evening for the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire Department.

The many friends of Cecil Gaines in this community extend sympathy to him in the passing of his father Sidney Gaines.

Dr. O. W. Robinson left Monday evening to spend the Christmas holidays with his daughters, Mrs. W. W. Simmons, of Ducktown, Tenn., and Mrs. Victor L. Hill, of Copper Hill, Tenn.

Services for Dennis Lee Meyer, 4, were held at the Baptist Church Wednesday at 3 p. m. with Rev. Harold Wainscott officiating. The sympathy of the community goes out to the parents and other relatives in this their sad bereavement. The Ralph Stith funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Robt. E. Tanner returned home Friday following several days at St. Elisabeth Hospital, where he was under observation. He is doing very well and his friends hope to see him out soon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter spent Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Carpenter and son.

The candlelighting service presented by the Glee Club, Girls' Reserve and Boys Hi-Y of the Florence school at the Christian Church Sunday evening was well rendered and attended by a capacity audience.

The pageant and choral program at the Methodist Church, Saturday evening was very nicely performed and the directors deserve much credit for its success.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ruth, of Walton, R. R., were recent evening visitors in the home of the Eldridge Carpenters.

Miss Katherine Morgan, secretary of President O'Donnell of Eastern State College will be the holiday guest of her sister, Mrs. O. W. Robinson, of Sanders Drive.

HAMILTON

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kemper sold their farm recently to James Webster, of Walton. They have bought a farm in Glencoe, where they will move.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore and two children, of Cincinnati, O., and R. W. Carroll, of Ludlow called on Mrs. Anna Moore, Sunday, Dec. 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ryle, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Edwards and daughter Connie and Mrs. Bettie Allen were shopping in Erlanger, Friday.

Geo. Elker of Newport spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huff.

Mrs. Bertha Huff spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ryle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Robinson, Mrs. Mable Readnour and Etheleen Readnour were shopping in Covington, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ryle and two children were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton.

There will be no services at Big Bone Baptist Church, Sunday, Dec. 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Huff called on his parents, Sunday.

HEBRON

Mrs. Wm. England spent Thursday with Mrs. Robert England and Mrs. Lloyd Aylor, of Florence.

Mrs. S. M. Graves is in St. Elizabeth Hospital for a few days' treatment.

The Lutheran Sunday School Christmas program will be Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tanner motored to Midway, Ky., Sunday bringing Misses Pauline and Frances Kirkpatrick back with them for a two weeks' vacation.

There will be services at the Lutheran Church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. A minister from Ohio will deliver a trial sermon. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Wilbur Hudson, Jr., who was hit by a passing auto Monday of last week as he alighted from a bus suffered a broken leg. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, later returned to the home of a relative in Ludlow. He is doing as well as could be expected.

Christmas greetings to The Recorder staff and its many readers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Robert Baker and son of Bromley, were the Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker.
